Osman Digna Reappears In the Soudan.

ADVANCING ON SUAKIN

The French Victories in the Land of King Behanzin—London's Homeless Unemployed—Gladstone Forbidden to Attend Any Banquets—Another Chapter in the Trial of London's Latest Jewel Case—Inside History of Le Caron, the Spy.

SUAKIN, Egypt, Nov. 4.—Osman Digna, who has been reported dead dozens of times, has re-appeared in the Soudan with a number of his followers? He has occupied Sinkat and has raided close to this place.

An Egyptian outpost 50 miles from Suakin has been evacuated.

The friendly tribes fled before the raiders.

TO ATTACK AHOMEY.

Continued French Victories in the Land of the Fighting Amazon.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Col. Dodds, commanding the French forces operating against the Dahomeyans, has telegraphed details of the fighting that took place on Oct. 20 and 21. His despatch says that the French were attacked at Akas by the whole strength of the Dahomeyans.

They were repulsed with heavy loss after two days' fighting.

King Behanzin then desired to come to terms. The French commander, as a preliminary condition, insisted upon the evacuation of the Dahomeyan lines along the River Koto. King Behanzin refused, and on Oct. 26 the French column attacked and carried the two lines of entrenchments between Akas and Kotopa. On Oct. 27 the French captured an important line along the Koto, the strongest fortified position they have yet captured.

The total French loss throughout these battles was 10 killed and 73 wounded. After staying three days on the banks of the Koto Dodds advanced along the road to Kana, preparing for his final march to Ahomey, the capital.

The Dahomeyans, according to unofficial reports, were armed with five Kropp guns and several mitrailleuses, which the French succeeded in dismounting. Two French officers were killed.

THE DOCTOR FORBIDS IT.

Gladstone Must Attend No Banquets, Not Even the Lord Mayor's.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Mr. Gladstone has written a letter to Mr. Knill announcing his inability to attend the coming banquet and expressing his regrets. His decision not to attend the banquet is due, he says, to the explicit advice of his physician, Sir Andrew Clarke, who has insisted for the last seven years that he should absent himself from all public banquets, and who will not permit an exception to be made for the present occasion.

In concluding, Mr. Gladstone says: "I must congratulate you on the spirit and success with which you sustained the discussion preceding the election—the principle of religious freedom."

A GHASTLY PLANT.

19 Putrifying Human Bodies Discovered in a Smuggler's House.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 4.—While the police were searching the house of a suspected smuggler in the district of Toujisky, Poland, they discovered the decomposed bodies of 19 persons—men, women and children.

It is not known whether these persons were murdered or whether the cellar in which they were found had been used as a secret burial place.

LUNATICS IN IRELAND.

An Enormous Increase During the Past Decade Reported.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Irish statistics show an enormous increase of lunacy in Ireland. This is attributed partly to emigration, the robust leaving the weak and infirm behind. In 1891 the proportion was 355 lunatics to every 100,000 of the population, against 240 in 1880.

STRIKE OF BREWERS.

5000 Go Out Because of a Disagreement About Working Orders.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Northumberland colliers have accepted a five per cent. reduction in their wages.

The employes of th Bass Breweries Company struck to-day against new regulations the company has adopted with regard to the working hours. This strike involves 5000 men.

KILLED THE BABIES.

Seven Dead Infants Found on an Australian Baby Farm.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Nov. 4.—A [illegible] sation has been caused by the discovery of a baby farm at McDonald, a town south of this city.

The bodies of seven infants have already been unearthed in the back garden of a house occupied by a family named Makin.

The principal members of the family have been arrested.

All Householders May Vote.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Constitution Revision Committee of the Chamber of Deputies of Belgium have by a vote of 13 to 4 adopted a clause granting the franchise to householders. The committee yesterday rejected a proposal to grant universal suffrage.

AFFECTIONS COME HIGH.

A BRANTFORD JURY ASSESSES THEM AT $4500.

Mrs. Quick Obtains a Verdict Against the Woman Who Lured Her Husband Away—Mrs. Church Will Apparently in Future Value a Man According to His Worth.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 4.—The jury in the case of Quick v. Church this afternoon returned a verdict of $2500 for the alienation of the husband's affection and $2000 for failure to support—$4500 in all. The case was of a novel character and the only one of the kind ever tried in Canada or indeed in England. Mrs. Sarah Jane Quick, a resident of Woodstock and wife of Joseph Quick, formerly foreman in Karn's organ factory, sued Mrs. Agnes Church, widow of the late Alanson Church of Blandford, lumberman and retired farmer, for $5000 damage, alleging that she alienated from her the affections of a hitherto devoted husband. Quick did not appear at the trial, his evidence having been taken by commission.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, for the defendant, in his address to the jury, maintained that there was no evidence of any kind against his client. He argued that there simply was no law to deal with the peculiarities of the action.

Mr. Fullerton made a point of the meetings of the defendants at various points, and defendants' statements that they were accidents. He made a strong point of the absence of Quick. He accused Mrs. Church of deliberately getting Quick examined by the commission instead of bringing him here personally.

A DRUMMER IN DURANCE.

Committed For Trial on a Charge of Bigamy.

HAMILTON, Nov. 4.—Charles Stuart Joyce was committed for trial by the police magistrate this morning on a charge of bigamy. The evidence showed that Joyce, who is a commercial traveler belonging to Toronto, was married at Drummondville on Oct. 20, 1884, to Mamie H. Dart and was again married on Jan. 27 last to Miss Lawrence of 35 Tom street, Hamilton, Edmund Bicknell, 76 Tecumseh-avenue, Toronto, being one of the witnesses.

WAITING FOR A VERDICT.

Judgment in the Mercier Case to be Given This Morning.

QUEBEC, Nov. 4.—Counsel in the Mercier case completed their addresses at 5 o'clock last evening.

Judge Wurtele said that although he could give his decision now he thought it more prudent in a case of this importance to consult authorities and he would give his decision to-day at 10 o'clock.

The Conservative Elected.

QUEBEC, Nov. 4.—Mr. Boulove (Conservative) was elected to the Assembly yesterday by 12 majority over Pinault (Liberal).

Ministers Off for Halifax.

MONTREAL, Nov. 4.—Sir John Thompson, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell and Hon. J. A. Chaplaau left here this evening for Halifax to meet the Newfoundland delegates, with whom they will discuss the questions pending between the two countries.

CANADA WILL NOT BE SCHEDULED.

Satisfactory Reports at Ottawa With Respect to the Pleuro-Pneumonia Scare.

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—Advices received here to-day show that the reports from Canada as to the non-existence of pleuro-pneumonia, backed by representations from Messrs. Abbott, Foster and Tupper, are having a good effect, and although the danger is not quite passed and great pressure is being brought to bear on the British Government to schedule Canada it is believed now that this extreme measure will not be resorted to.

Butter and Cheese Shipments.

Professor Robertson, Dairy Commissioner, is shipping to England this week about 150,000 pounds cheese and 15,000 pounds butter from the Dominion dairy stations at Perth, Ont.; Kingalear, N.B., and New Perth, P.E.I. These goods will be in sample lots in Liverpool, Manchester and London, and will prove a good advertisement of the excellent quality of the Canadian dairy product. Professor Robertson will leave for Great Britain next month and will address the boards of trade in the leading cities.

Sunflowers As Cattle Food.

Eight tons of Russian sunflowers were taken from one acre of ground at the Experimental Farm this fall and cut up with corn and beans for winter food for cattle. An experiment has been commenced this week to show that cattle thrive on this food, which keeps well and seems to be enjoyed by them.

CANADIAN CATTLE.

More Cases Must Develop Before Canada Will Be Scheduled.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Herbert Gardner, President of the Board of Agriculture, is not satisfied with the reports of the veterinary surgeons of the board that the disease that has appeared among cattle landed from Canada is undoubtedly pleuro-pneumonia. He is inclined to wait and ascertain whether more cases developed before ordering the slaughter of all Canadian cattle.

The delay in his decision has been influenced by a protest cabled by the Canadian Minister of Agriculture.

Mr. Gardner declared that should the disease in England that was traceable to cattle imported from Canada spread he would not hesitate to issue an order prohibiting the landing of live stock.

Merely Broncho Fever.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Principal Williams of Edinburgh, who has made a microscopical examination of lungs of some of the Canadian cattle alleged to be suffering from contagious pleuro-pneumonia, declares that the disease is broncho-pneumonia, which is not contagious at all.

Hanged Herself in a Cowshed.

A SHOCKING SUICIDE.

ENDED HER LIFE WITH CARBOLIC ACID.

The Young Wife of a Toronto Carpenter Escapes Her Guards While Awaiting Transference to an Asylum, and Purchasing Poison Ends Her Life.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Edward Stone, aged 30, of 280 Bathurst-street, committed suicide in Broughton's Hotel, Mimico, last night by drinking an ounce of carbolic acid.

Ever since the birth of her child, a year ago Mrs. Stone has suffered from mental derangement, and on different occasions has made attempts to take her life.

She has been closely watched, and the papers of admission to the insane asylum were ready for signing when the sad event occurred.

The deceased escaped from the house about 8 o'clock last night, it is presumed, though nobody missed her for some time after that. She found her way, whether by car or cab is not known, to the drug store of J. A. Austin, Parkdale, where she bought an ounce of carbolic acid.

At 10 o'clock she entered Broughton's Hotel, Mimico. She went to a private room and drank the burning fluid. Her screams attracted the attention of the servants, but before medical aid could be summoned the unfortunate woman expired.

Coroner Lynd was notified, but on learning the facts from Druggist Austin and Edward Stone, husband of deceased, concluded that an inquest was unnecessary.

The body was removed to her late home this morning. The sorrow-stricken husband has the sympathy of a large circle of acquaintances. He is a carpenter by trade and has no family except a little daughter a year old.

CHARGED WITH ABORTION.

Lena Greeley Swears Out a Warrant Against Medical Student Large.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—A young medical student named Secord Large, living at 211 Gerrard-street east, was arrested last night by Detective Duncan on the serious charge of procuring an abortion. He was locked up in Wilton-avenue police station.

It is a sequel to the recent breach of promise and seduction case of Lena B. Greeley against Secord Large heard at the Assize Court a few weeks ago. On that occasion judgment was given for the plaintiff by mutual consent, the defendant agreeing to pay $50 and the costs of the action. Miss Greeley claims that it was further stipulated that Large was to publish a statement denying certain remarks he had publicly made concerning her chastity before he met her and furthermore that he would marry her. None of this alleged agreement has he kept.

Sunday night last Miss Greeley says she met Large in the street and upbraided him for his laxity. The answer she got, so she avers, was of such a character that she decided to lay an information against him charging him with having procured an abortion on her. The criminal operation was alleged to have been performed in May last.

Monday Miss Greeley laid her case before County Crown Attorney Curry and last night's arrest was the result.

Miss Greeley is a bookkeeper and lives with her parents at 330 Sackville-street.

Mr. Bigelow's Illness.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—The friends of N. G. Bigelow, M.L.A., will be glad to know that the condition of the well-known Q.C. was somewhat improved last night. Still the patient remains in a very precarious condition.

Toronto Treasury Accountancy.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—The much-sought-after plum of accountant in the City Treasury Department has fallen to the lot of Mr. Walter Sterling. The appointment was made yesterday afternoon and at 5 p.m. he was sworn in.

FELL TO HIS DEATH.

A Toronto Man Fatally Injured at Alliston Village.

ALLISTON, Ont., Nov. 4.—Joseph Bissell of Agnes-street, Toronto, was descending the tank in connection with the waterworks in a bucket yesterday when about 30 feet from the ground the rope broke, causing Bissell to strike against the scaffolding. He is suffering from concussion and compression of the brain and will probably die.

PROHIBITION BY THE SEA.

The Legislature to Be Asked to Suppress the Liquor Traffic.

HALIFAX, N.S., Nov. 4.—At a prohibition convention at Amherst, it was unanimously decided to approach the Legislature of Nova Scotia this session for an act completely suppressing the liquor traffic. It was stated that the leading lawyers of the Dominion are of the opinion that the sale of liquor can be prohibited by Local Legislatures.

PORK FACTORY BURNED.

Aylmer Has Hard Luck With Establishments of This Kind.

AYLMER, Ont., Nov. 4.—Yesterday about 9 o'clock John Marlatt's large pork packing establishment was destroyed by fire, which originated from the office stove upstairs. Mr. Marlatt was in Toronto.

The Gilcher's Wreckage.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—A special from Leland, Mich., says furniture and wreckage have been picked up on North Manitou Island, marked "W. H Gilcher." The steamer must have foundered on the night of the 28th north of the Manitous.

An Allan Liner Ashore.

MONTREAL, Nov. 4.—The Allan Line steamship Sarmatian, which left Thursday morning, went ashore at Varennes, 20 miles down the river, during a snow storm. The Sarmatian was bound for Glasgow with a general cargo.

NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES.

The French Government Issues Another Yellow Book on the Subject.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—A yellow book on the Newfoundland fisheries dispute between France and England has been issued. It is a sequel to a previous yellow book issued on the same subject. The book issued to-day presents documents aiming to demonstrate that the failure to arbitrate the dispute cannot be charged to the French Government.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1892.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The village is very quiet and dull, while the heavy rain storms do not improve matters.

A big wedding event, even if the contracting parties are small, will take place next Tuesday evening.

As soon as the saw mill shuts down the Dominion Government will build a pier from the end of the dam at the tool house down the race to Mr. Griffin's shop to save the roadway which is fast being washed out by the current. Mr. John Dinwoodie will have charge of the work, and a good job may be expected.

All our village sports who can get away have gone back on a deer hunt. The back woods are full of men and dogs and a deer will have but a poor show to escape a shot from some hunter. Reeve Casement and Wesley Sherin are at Jack's Lake. J. C. Balsdon, Geo. Balsdon, Levi Payne, Abel Hendren are on Turtle and Silver lakes. L. Steele and others are up at Eagle Lake. T. Gordon, J. Richardson and R. Cotton are at Stop Log Lake. Others are up on Crane, Koshbog, head of Stony Lake, Deer Bay, Lovesick, and Cox's Lake, besides all from Peterborough and the surrounding country.

Hallow E'en passed off very quietly in the village. The heavy rain sent the small boy home at any early hour, and the bigger ones kept quiet. A noisy part from Peterborough remained in the village until nearly midnight, but as thea did no mischief the constable let them have their own way.

In the World last week was an article in regard to the issuing of the fishing and game licenses to Americans to fish and shoot in our already depleted lakes and forests, and giving the number of licenses issued at Lakefield as 17. The Fishery Inspector for the Ontario Government has issued some 60 this season, 20 being issued in Peterborough while the Dominion Inspector has also issued a number, making fully 100 that have been issued in the County of Peterborough alone. Is it not time a stop was put to it, and keep Canadian fish and game for Canadians who are not allowed to fish or shoot in the United States. Fish are often caught for the sake of catching and then carried into the woods and left to rot, we hope to see the commissioners make the desired change before another season.

The new Baptist church was opened for divine service on Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Trotter, of Toronto, preaching the opening sermon to a large and attentive audience, and the church at the evening service was again filled to the utmost.

On Monday the congregation held a tea meeting in the P. C. A. Hall, and in the evening addresses, etc., were delivered by Rev. Mr. Trotter, Rev. Mr. McEwen, of the Presbyterian church, and others. Everything passed off in a satisfactory manner, and all connected with the tea and entertainment are to be congratulated. About $150 was received from the Sunday collection and tea, which will be applied to the building fund.

At the last regular meeting of Court Lakefield, No. 43, C. O. F., held in the court room last Thursday evening the following officers were elected for the coming term:

C R	James Jackman
V C R	John Simpson
R Sec	W M Graham
F Sec	Wesley Sherin
Treas	R Q Dench
Chap	Robt Graham
S W	Rich Simpson
J W	Robt Jory
S B	John Hearn
J B	Robt Johnston
Physician	Dr J R Fraser

A number of ladies and gentlemen connected with the Baptist social and who were at the P.C.A. Hall at a late hour on Tuesday evening engaged in putting things in order were the victims of a laughable and exciting joke. One lady who resides a couple of doors from the hall, thought it was time her little ones were in bed, so sent them home. They soon returned with the information that the doors were locked and a light and persons were in the house. The lady at once started for home followed by the entire company, including Constable Doidge who happened to be present. The house was surrounded while a well known Dominion official and cheese man from Smith, climbed up to a window and peeped under the blind and reported there were two of them. All being ready, the back door was broken in, the constable, cheese man, and one or two other brave men led the way into the parlour and there on the sofa was a young and popular "knight of the saw and hammer" sparking a daughter of the house, both so taken up with each other as to be totally oblivious of all the excitement and noise that their presence had caused. We will say nothing of the laugh and blushes, but if that young lady ever wants a host of witnesses in a breach of promise case she can get them. "All's well that ends well."

A report comes from the back country that a government detective has received a severe thrashing at the hands of a well known hunter above Apsley, whom he had caught shooting deer out of season, and report also states that several well known sports of Peterborough and Lakefield will on their return be prosecuted for being in too big haste to taste venison.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

Women with pale, colorless faces, who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nerves and complexion dw

Racked with Rheumatism.

DEAR SIRS,—For ten years I suffered with rheumatism in spring and fall. I have been confined to bed for months at a time, but since using B. B, B. I have not suffered from it at all. I also s.. ered from the dyspepsia, which has not troubled me since using the B.B.B. and I therefore think it a splendid medicine.

Ayer's Pills

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic. Sugar-coated, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of the pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians, and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and always found them to be a mild and excellent purgative, having a good effect on the liver. It is the best pill used."—Frank Spillman, Sulphur, Ky.

Every Dose Effective

NORWOOD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Miss L. Scott and Miss E. Waters were the delegates from the Methodist Sunday school to the Ontario Sabbath school association which met at Guelph last week.

Rev. Jas. Hannon, D.D., formerly of this place but now of Guelph, has been invited to the First Methodist Church, St. Thomas.

Miss Drummond, of Newcastle, gave a very interesting address on "Missions" in the Presbyterian church last Tuesday evening.

J. McMillian has greatly improved the appearance of his house by a fresh coat of paint.

The Asphodel council has notified the village council to clear the Ouse of driftwood and other obstructions.

The E. P. Agricultural society met last week. A few complaints were made about prizes and other things. Mr. Reesor, of Markham, congratulated the society on its successful fair. J. J. Turner was awarded a diploma for his tents.

Rev. Jas. Coburn, the blind preacher, delivered a very interesting lecture on the "Rise and Progress of Protestantism." He handled his subject well. The lecture was delivered in the Methodist church on Tuesday night last.

A taffy social was held at the residence of Mr. J. Turners' on Tuesday night last under the auspices of the Baptist church. Considering the weather it was very successful.

Rev. Mr. Carmichael and others attended the Presbyterian tea meeting at Havelock. They report an enjoyable time.

The school board met last Tuesday evening. There was not much business transacted.

Rev. D. C. McDowell, of Port Perry, was in town last week renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. E. S. Bougard is organizing a singing school in town. We wish him success.

A hunting party under the leadership of Mr. Thos. Fraser left on Friday afternoon last for the hunting grounds of North Hastings. It was composed of the following:—T. Fraser, W. Rutherford, H. Spence, H. Reynolds, J. A. Harper, J. C. McConkey and F. Pearse of this town, Jacob Spence, the popular traveller, Toronto, and J. Varty, Trent Bridge. We hope that they will not destroy all the deer. On their arrival home hunting stories will most likely be the rage.

F. H. Kilborn, of Owen Sound, was in town last week.

Rev. Mr. Buchanan attended the funeral of the late Rev. Jas. Curtis at Belleville on Saturday last.

One of the best football matches played here this fall took place last Thursday afternoon. It was between the Model and High Schools. Neither teams scored a game. For the Model School, Rutherford, Callander, Simpson and McNulty distinguished themselves. For the High School, Wildman, Kidd, Lynn, Finlay and Hunter showed up well. In fact they all played well and Norwood need not take a back place in football. The team is ready for all comers and all challenges will be answered by the secretary, David Fraser.

On Saturday last the death of Harvey son of Mr. C. Stevenson, took place. The funeral took place on Monday and was largely attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. Wm. Buchanan.

Special services are being conducted in the Methodist church this week by the Rev. C. Parker, of Campbellford, and J. C. Wilson, of Warkworth. Mr. Parker occupied the pulpit on Sunday and preached two eloquent and impressive sermons.

Hallowe'en was celebrated on Monday night very quietly. The boys were a little mischevious, but not so much as in other years.

A very serious and probably fatal accident happened on Sunday morning last. While the two young sons of Mr. J. Ducett, mason, of this place, were playing in their orchard, a vicious young colt kicked the youngest boy in the skull. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

The C. P. R. are building a sidewalk from the station to the road. This is a move in the right direction. It was very much needed.

Ho! Traveller, take BEECHAM'S PILLS with you.

Many parties have passed through here this week on their way to the deer hunting grounds.

For the cure of headache, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, and all derangements of the digestive and assimilative organs, Ayer's Pills are invaluable. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, always reliable, and retain their virtues in any climate.

PROMPT, POTENT AND PERMANENT results always come from the use of Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine. dw

The Fear of Death.

The fear of death is excited by any severe attack of disease, especially coughs and colds. This need not be where Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is kept on hand for family use. This unrivalled remedy cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis and all throat and lung diseases. Price 25c and 50c. Sold by druggists.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind to buy to wear?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

To Push their Sales.

Several citizens who have organized themselves into a stock company, have decided to put a well-known traveller on the road in the interests of "Mambray's Kidney and Liver Cure." This is a preparation which wherever introduced has worked great results, and the patentees believe that if the sales were pushed throughout Canada and the United States it would meet with as great success as it has in this vicinity. The proprietors have opened headquarters in the Masonic block, Water street, and this week their traveller, Mr. J. Wright started out on the road.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

The Annual "At Home" of Mr. R. J. Winch's Class Held Last Evening.

The second annual "At Home" of the members in Mr. R. J. Winch's class was held in the Sunday school rooms of the George street Methodist church last evening, and a very pleasant time was spent by all present. About 100 persons attended, including Mr. Wm. Johnson, superintendent of the Bridge street Methodist church Sunday school, Belleville, and Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Locke. The ladies of the class and their friends provided an excellent tea which all partook of with the relish of an epicure.

Afterwards a pleasant hour was devoted to social intercourse, which was followed by a fellowship meeting, led by Mr. Winch, and in which many took part. A joyous and inspiriting time was spent and each and all received much spiritual benefit, Mr. Winch, who is the earnest and zealous leader of the class, has been at its head for nearly two years, and the average attendance every Sunday morning has grown until it now numbers forty. It so happened last night that the "At Home" was a double and mutual surprise as unconscious to the promoters it was Mr. Winch's birthday, and the evening's events found a fitting way to celebrate it.

Mrs. Sheffield's property will shortly be offered for sale by auction.

Self Denying Week.

The Salvation Army will next week both at the local barracks here and in all their stations scattered throughout the world, hold their thanksgiving, prayer and self denial, and each individual member and follower denies themselves of some article of food or clothing, or in some way contribute that without lessening their regular contributions, they may be able to help the self-denial fund. Many eminent clergymen and professors approve of and give assistance to the scheme.

An Interesting Meeting.

Peteruorough Lodge No. 111, I.O.O.F. held an interesting meeting last night. Five candidates were initiated into the mysteries of Oddfellowship. Bro. D. H. Moore gave an entertaining sketch of his trip this summer to Portland, Oregon, as a representative to the Sovereign Grand Ladge, which met in that city. The description of the scenery, cities passed through, different objects viewed, etc., were given in a graphic style. Mount Hebron Encampment will meet next Tuesday night, when all patriarchs are asked to be present. Bro. Moore will repeat his address.

Trip to California.

Mr. W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announces a personally conducted party to all points in California, leaving Toronto 3 p.m., November 16th. The party will be taken in one of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrated tourist cars, which are furnished with regular outfit, similar to the first-class sleeper, the route being via Kansas City, where the only change in cars will be made. The special advantages thus offered are the through service with first class accommodation at a very cheap rate. For full particulars write or call on Mr. W. R. Callaway, No. 1, King street, East, Toronto, or T. E. Boddy, Peterborough.

The "Fast Mail."

Lincoln J. Carter's superb scenic production the "Fast Mail" which will be presented at the Opera House next Saturday evening, by an excellent company, in one of the most successful plays put upon the stage in recent years. The story is thrilling, and justice is done the startling and realistic scenes by a perfection of mechanical effects. Among other reproductions is r representation of an engine room on a Miss' sippi river steamboat, with the furnaces under the boilers fired up; a train of cars shoots across the stage in one scene, and in another there is a vivid, beautiful and awe inspiring representation of Niagra Falls by moonlight, with the singing waters and graceful mist that rises above and about it. The company is said to be excellent thoroughout.

Simply Awful

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the Worst Case of Scrofula

they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, ten dollars! Just think of what a return I got for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

Fifth Day's Proceedings—The Cavanagh-Dewart Jury Disagree—Other Civil Cases.

FRIDAY, Nov. 4th.

A 4.15 yesterday afternoon the judge sent for the jury in the Cavanagh-Dewart case, which had been in consultation since ten in the morning, and, on learning that there was no probability of their agreement, they were dismissed. It is understood that four of the jury were in favour of giving a verdict in Cavanagh's favour and the remaining eight, contra.

Patiente vs. Cavanagh, was an action to recover to sum of $561.47 for services alleged to have been rendered by Timothy Patiente, as hotel clerk and manager, from Timothy Cavanagh, proprietor of the Balmoral Hotel. Verdict for defendant. Hatton & Wood for plaintiff; A. P. Poussette for defendant.

The first case called this morning was

Armstrong vs. Colville—An action brought by James Armstrong, of Otonabee, against Robt. Colville, of the same township, to recover $1000 damages for the seduction of plaintiff's daughter, Mary Anne.

The evidence of the plaintiff and his daughter was taken, proving that defendant seduced the latter under promise of marriage, and that a child was born on March 29th, 1891, and he had acknowledged that he was father of the child. The defendant not appearing to defend action, Mr. Stone, who had been retained, withdrew from the case. Mr. Burnham, Q.C., who appeared for plaintiff, briefly addressed the jury, and His Lordship said under the circumstances the only duty of the jury was to assess the damages, keeping within the amount claimed—$1000. The jury after a few minutes absence, returned with a verdict for plaintiff and $500, with full costs. Mr. Burnham, Q. C., for plaintiff.

A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.

Wright vs. Lowry.—This was an action brought by Miss Wright, of Pontypool, against Samuel W. Lowry, weaver, claiming $2000 damages for breach of promise of marriage made to the plaintiff.

Miss Ettie Wright, the plaintiff, appeared in court wearing a handsome black hat with black plumes, resting upon the jet black hair that framed her pale, demure-looking and rather pretty face. A grey Persian lamb shoulder cape covered a royal blue velvet dress. She testified that she was 22 years of age, and was a dressmaker. She came to town to learn the dressmaking trade in January of the present year, and went to board at defendant's house. After a time he asked her to keep house for him for a couple of weeks in the absence of his housekeeper, Miss Gillespie. At the end of that time he engaged witness permanently. Subsequently he asked her to marry. She was in the kitchen and he came in and sat down beside her on the lounge. He asked her if she had made up her mind to live with him. He said he never saw anybody he liked so well, and asked her to marry him. She did not give an answer, but about two weeks after she consented. The date of the wedding was fixed for the first Wednesday in May and plaintiff soon went home to prepare for the wedding. Defendant wrote to her on April 3rd. She replied on April 8th. Defendant wrote again and the witness replied on April 19th. Defendant ceased writing to her. He told her that he had concluded to marry another woman. She was much distressed for she thought a good deal of Mr. Lowry. No other gentleman had paid her any attention in the interval. When witness found out that he was married to another woman she decided to bring action to clear herself from imputations that had been cast upon her character under the circumstances. She did not think he had much money. She met defendant in the dining room of the Croft House and defendant told her that he would do all he could against her to prevent any one from marrying her.

To Mr. Sawers, witness said no one beyond her family knew of her engagement. Defendant did not deny that he had promised to marry her. She had not known defendant previous to January. Defendant paid her $1.50 per week while she worked as his housekeeper. She was keeping house for him for about four weeks. When defendant proposed marriage, she deferred her answer, not because she was engaged to another. She had been keeping company with a man named Clark, but was not engaged to him. The correspondence with him ceased when she began keeping company with Lowry. Had no other fellows. Remarked to Lowry that she had "given up all my old fellows." She was not engaged to Clarke; marriage was not mentioned, but love was mentioned. He had kissed her. Didn't know that any other man had ever kissed her. She took offence at something that was in defendant's letter of April 11th. She came to Peterborough and stayed over Sunday. She did not think that his treatment was as cordial as it should be. She wrote after her return home and upraided him, and asked him to meet her in Pontypool to give her the reason he had dicarded her, and if he were not in Pontypool by Monday morning at 9 o'clock, there would be a breach of promise suit brought. Witness concluded her letter by saying that if he did not come and settle it would be all the worse for him. Defendant wrote a letter in reply and said he had no intention of giving her up. She burned the letter because she was vexed with herself for having written the previous letter. She wrote again on April 24th and she explained how she had received her information of his conduct. She had consulted a fortune-teller to learn if it was true what had been said about defendant's perfidy to her.

A Mr. Price and Mrs. Frazer, boarders in defendant's house, gave unimportant testimony.

Mr. S. Campbell, bar-tender at the Croft House, saw plaintiff and defendant in the dining room in conversation. Lowry told her that she had better "not go any further with this thing or I will show you up. He was worth nothing and she could get nothing."

Miss Gillespie, the housekeeper of the defendant, whom plaintiff succeeded, said that Miss Wright told her that she was engaged to one person and had three chances to get married and now she would marry the first one that asked her.

To Mr. Burnham, witness said she was housekeeper for Mr. Lowry and engaged Miss Wright to take her place while she visited her home. On her return she found Miss Wright installed in her place.

After addresses by counsel and by His Lordship, the case went to the jury and the interest of the auditors ceased, and the court room was soon cleared of all who could leave. Verdict for plaintiff and $200 damages. Mr. J. H. Burnham for plaintiff; Mr. Sawers for defendant.

Mason vs. Peterborough is in progress this afternoon. It is understood that Judge Weller will take the bench to-morrow.

Hamilton vs. McKee was an action brought against Thos. W. McKee of Fenelon Falls, hotel keeper, by Adam Hamilton, of Bethany, to recover damages for the seduction of the latter's daughter, Mary Ann, under promise of marriage.

Mary Anne Hamilton, the real plaintiff, was a rather good-looking young lady, who appeared in court with a bright, flaxen-haired baby boy, about twenty months old, the pre-nuptial pledge of love. The little contraband cherub sat on the railing of the witness box, crowing, laughing and knocking his hilarious heels against the wood work, with a clatter which the judge, who is very strict in other respects, did not reprove. It would appear from the evidence that the unfortunate girl had trusted unwisely to another deceiver, and had given birth to a child at the age of 19—she was now 24—and had recovered $75 in a seduction suit. The plaintiff first met McKee at his uncle's, Mr. Wilson, in Manvers, where she was at service. According to her story, which she told in a plain, apparently truthful manner, she and McKee fell desperately in love. They became engaged about the end of March, 1890, and the wedding was to have taken place on July 12th. Presuming on his engagement McKee found his way to her room and by tears and protestations of love gained his purpose. Their illicit relations lasted till July; the child was born the following March. The witness and McKee started to Blackstock to get married but the latter took sick on the way and the ceremony was indefinitely postponed. Witness swore that McKee was the father of her child. The jury gave a verdict for plaintiff for $100 and costs. J. A. V. Preston, Millbrook, for plaintiff; D. J. McIntyre, Lindsay, for defendant.

SERIOUS THOUGHTS.

The Troubles of Life

Oft by the sharpest and the roughest ways,
Are we led on to happiness.
And when to God we consecrate our days,
If trouble comes it only is to bless.
The end thereof shall clear and glorious be,
Though the dull heart fail now or how to see.

The Secret of True Recreation.

Minds, like other measures of capacity, when they are full cannot be any fuller of that which they are full of. One more drop of water will cause the brimful glass to overflow. But that same brimful glass may have packed into it more than its bulk of loose raw cotton without spilling the water. Similarly, one may have his mind so full of one flow of thought, or care, that one drop more would be disastrous; but a wholly different kind of thought can, like the raw cotton, be packed into it without seemingly making it any fuller. This is one of the secrets of accomplishment. It includes the secret of true recreation.

Only My Wife."

"Oh! what matter? It's only my wife!" So said a gentleman in our hearing the other day, when accepting an invitation to join some friends at the hour he had promised to be at home to help his wife entertain a party of especially invited guests. "Only my wife!" we thought. "God help her, if it be her lot to drift through life with broken appointments and indifferences from the one who ought to make her his first and tenderest care." How many women's lives are ruined every day by just this want of thought from the husbands whom, no doubt, they have married for love. Husbands and wives should remember that courtesy and politeness in things small and big help to keep up their faith in each other, and that harmony in the home which, in after-life their children will love to look back upon.

Ready-Made Happiness.

We spend so much time getting ready to be happy! The party to-night, the picnic to-morrow, the journey next week, the preparation now; the fulfillment of our desire to-morrow, and the frequent disappointment of our expectations, day after day! This is the true history of many days, is it not?

Suppose you try for just one day to be happy in the little things that come without anticipation or preparation. Suppose you take note of your mother's smile and father's "Good morning," and baby's eager chuckle as you appear. Suppose you abandon yourself to a frolic without anxious care for the good time to-morrow. Suppose you give yourself up to the sunshine and the out-of-doors and the new book, and the helping father and mother for their sake purely. Suppose you talk with your friends about the pleasant things already yours, and let those of the future wait. Oh, you don't think that "Take no thought for the morrow" means you? But it does.

Duties of Daily Life.

Life is not entirely made up of great evils or heavy trials; but the perpetual recurrence of petty evils and small trials is the ordinary and appointed exercise of the Christian graces. To bear with the failings of those about us—with their infirmities, their bad judgments, their ill-breeding, their perverse tempers—to endure neglect when we feel we deserve attention, and ingratitude where we expected thanks; to bear with the company of disagreeable people whom Providence has placed in our way, and whom He has provided on purpose for the trial of our virtue, these are the best exercises of patience and self-denial, and the better because not chosen by ourselves. To bear with vexation in business, with disappointment in our expectations, with interruptions of our retirement, with folly, intrusion, disturbance—in short, with whatever opposes our will or contradicts our humor—this habitual acquiescence appears to be more of the essence of self-denial than any little rigors or afflictions of our own imposing. These constant, inevitable, but inferior evils, properly improved, furnish a good moral discipline, and might, in the days of ignorance, have superseded pilgrimage and penance.

To Prevent the Grip

Or any other similior epidemic, the blood and the whole system should be kept in healthy condition. If you feel worn out or have "that tired feeling" in the morning, do not be guilty of neglect. Give immediate attention to yourself. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to give strength, purify the blood and prevent disease.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation.

SALISBURY'S LETTER.

A Line of Attack on the Irish Evictions Commission.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Lord Salisbury has indicated to the Unionists a line of attack upon the Irish Evictions Commission. In communication to the press His Lordship declares that the constitution of the commission is unfair and that the published order of reference on which the commission's inquiry will proceed involves a gross misstatement of facts. Therefore, he says the existence of the commission is regrettable.

The Execution of Neill to Be Private.

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 3.—The authorities have ordered that no one be allowed to attend the execution of Thomas Neill, under sentence of death for poisoning Matilda Clover, except the sheriffs and the prison officials. No press representatives will be allowed inside the prison. The hoisting of a black flag on the jail will announce that the sentence of the law has been carried out. Under Sheriff Metcalfe states that he has been informed that Neill will certainly be executed on Tuesday next. The condemned man maintains a dogged silence. When asked to-day by one of his keepers if he had anything to say he replied with a curt "No."

ANOTHER STOLEN BROOCH CASE IN ENGLAND.

It is the Cause of Two Gentlewomen Appearing in the Criminal Court—A Publisher Punished for Contempt of Court—Spicy Features of the Case.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The trial of the suit for damages for slander brought by Mrs. Leader against Mrs. Smyth was begun yesterday. Both ladies are wives of army officers.

The plaintiff had been accused of stealing and pawning a diamond brooch belonging to the defendant.

Before the trial began the editor and the publisher of The Morning were brought up for contempt of court for publishing an ex parte statement of the case and fined £100 and £50 respectively.

Counsel for the plaintiff said that in January Mrs. Leader received a letter from Mrs. Smyth, in which the latter said:

"On the morning of Sept. 22 you were in my bedroom for a short time. Dibdin, the jeweler, that morning purchased from you a diamond brooch belonging to me. Since then, through my lawyer, the brooch has been returned to me. The matter is now out of my hands. It rests with Dibdin to prosecute. To avoid publicity send by return mail five guineas costs in this matter, for which you will receive a proper receipt. Unless these costs are paid I must take further steps."

In view of this letter counsel urged he could not ask the jury to come to any other opinion than that it was because Mrs. Smyth could not get her beggarly costs she made a dreadful charge against her friend.

No answer was returned to this letter, Lieut. Leader simply directing that proceedings be taken to clear his wife's character. At a later stage of the case Mrs. Smyth altered the date of the alleged robbery, apparently finding that Mrs. Leader had offered her brooch to Mr. Stokes the day before the date she originally fixed.

Mr. Dibdin told at length about the visits of Mrs. Leader and Mrs. Smyth. When the brooch was here handed to Dibdin, he said that it appeared to be the one Mrs. Leader had sold, but he often saw many others like it.

On his redirect examination Mr. Dibdin said he had seen the police notice to pawnbrokers in regard to Mrs. Smyth's brooch. This notice had a picture of the brooch printed on it.

Mr. Justice Day examined the picture and then said:

"This makes the brooch lost have eight points to the star, while the one Mrs. Smyth claimed in the shop had six."

"That is just the point I make," said Mrs. Leader's counsel.

Mrs. Leader testified that she had known Mrs. Smyth for eight years, and that Capt. French gave her a brooch while she was in Cairo with her husband This was the one she sold to Mr. Dibdin. She still had the case yet, and it was produced.

The day after she sold the brooch, she visited Mrs. Smyth, not having called upon her for days. Mrs. Smyth visited her the next day and said she had lost her brooch. Mrs. Leader said she had lost one the week before at the Savoy Theatre, and that she had sold the one Capt. French had presented to her.

She denied in the most positive manner that she had stolen Mrs. Smyth's brooch.

A New Evening Paper.

TORONTO, Nov. 3.—The Evening Star will make its appearance this evening. The editor is Mr. T. A. Gregg, formerly of The News and latterly night editor of The World; the manager Mr. H. C. Hocken, late foreman of The News. The compositors engaged are all of the men locked out by The News.

The new concern will be owned by a company, and they propose to put in a first-class outfit in a building of their own.

For Illegal Shooting.

BLENHEIM, Nov. 3.—Four American sportsmen named Catt, Kinsey, Brown and Kelly from Cleveland, Ohio, were fined here last week for shooting without a license. As there appeared to be certain mitigating circumstances in the case the magistrate let them off on the payment of $25 each for a license and the costs incurred.

Edwin Booth's Health.

LAKEWOOD, N.J., Nov. 3.—Edwin Booth has decided to leave here and go to New York, where he can consult his family physician. He is feeble and has not been picking up as much as he expected to.

The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood-purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the Superior Medicine. Try it this month.

The Head Surgeon

of the Lubon Medical Company is now at Toronto, Canada, and may be consulted either in person or by letter on all chronic diseases peculiar to men. Men, young, old or middle-aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess or overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of memory, bad dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, emissions, lack of energy, pain in the kidneys, headache, pimples on the face or body, itching or peculiar sensation about the scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, specks before the eyes, twitching of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bashfulness deposits in the urine, loss of will power tenderness of the scalp and spine, weak and flabby muscles, failure to be rested by sleep, constipation dullness of hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, excitability of temper, sunken eyes surrounded with leaden circle, oily looking skin, etc. are all symptoms of nervous debility that lead to insanity and death unless cured. The spring or vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence. Those who through abuse committed in ignorance may be permanently cured. Send your address for book on all diseases peculiar to man. Books sent free sealed. Heart disease, the symptoms of which are faint spells, purple lips, numbness, palpitation, skip beats, hot flushes, rush of blood to the head, dull pain in in the heart with beats strong, rapid and irregular, the second heart beat quicker than the first, pain about the breast bone, etc., can positively be cured. No cure, no pay. Send for book. Address M. V. LUBON, 24 Macdonell ave., Toronto, Can.

A LIBERAL POLICY.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

OLE MOSE AND THE EGGS.

Ole Mose, who sells eggs and chickens on the streets of Austin for a living, is an honest an old nigger as ever lived, but he has got the habit of cheating familiarly with his countenance, hence he frequently makes mistakes in counting out the eggs they buy. He carries his wares around in a small cart drawn by a diminutive donkey. He stopped in front of the residence of Mr. General Burton. The old lady herself came out to the gate to make the purchases.

"Have you got any eggs this morning, Uncle Mose?" she asked.

"Yes, indeed I has. Jess got in ten dozen from the kentry."

"Are they fresh?"

"I guarantees 'em. I knowed day 'fore yesterday jess de same as of I had laid 'em myself."

"I'll take nine dozen. You can just count them into this basket."

"All right, mam;" he counts, "one, two, free, foah, five, six, seben, eight, nine, ten. You kin rely on dem bein' fresh. How's your son coming on at de school. He mus' be mos't grown."

"Yes, Uncle Mose, he is a clerk in a bank at Galveston."

"Why, how ole am de boy?"

"He is eighteen."

"You don't tole me so. Eighteen and getting a salary already, (counting), nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-free, twenty-foah, twenty-five, and how's yore gal comin' on. She was mos' growed up de las time I seed her."

"She is married and living in Dallas."

"Wall, I declar'. How de time scoots away! An you says she has childrums? Why how ole am de gal? She must be jess about——"

"Thirty-three."

"Am dat so, (counting), forty-free, forty-foah, forty-five, forty-six, forty-seben, forty-eight, forty-nine, forty, forty-two, forty-free. Hit am singler dat you has sich ole childrums. You don't look morte den forty yeahs old, yerself."

"Nonsense, old man, I see you want to flatter me. When a person gets to be fifty-three years old——"

"Fifty-free? I jess dun gwinter bleeve hit, fifty-free, fifty-foah, fifty-five, fifty-six—I want you to pay tenshon when I counts de eggs, so dar'll be no mistake—fifty-nine, sixty, sixty-one, sixty-two, sixty-free, sixty-foah—Whew. Dat am a warm day. Dis am be time ob yeah, when I feel's I'm gettin ole myse'f. I ain't long fer dis world. You comes from an ole family. Whem yore fodder died he was sebenty years ole."

"Seventy-two."

"Dat's odd, suah. Sebenty-two, sebenty-free, sebenty-foah, sebenty-five, sebenty-six, sebenty-seben, sebenty-eight, sebenty-nine—and your mudder? She was one ob de noblest looking ladies I ebber see. You reminds me ob her so much. She libbed to mos' a hundred. I bleeves she was done pass a centurion when she died."

"No, Uncle Mose, she was only ninety-six when she died."

"Den she warn't no chicken when she died. I know dat—ninety-six, ninety-seben, ninety-eight, ninety-nine, one hundred, one two, free, foah, five, six, seben, eight—dar 108 fresh eggs—jess nine dozen, and here am one moah egg in case I has discounted myse'f."

Old Mose went on his way rejoicing. A few days afterwards Mrs. Burton said to her husband:

"I am afraid we will have to discharge Matilda. I am satisfied she steals the milk and eggs. I am positive about the eggs for I bought them day before yesterday, and now about half of them are gone. I stood right there and heard Old Mose count them myself and there were nine dozen."

Terwillinger—Miss Playne doesn't like you, old fellow. She says you're a conceited popinjay. Jerolomon—The reason Miss Playne doesn't like me is because I am not a popinjay.—Chicago Tribune.

Theater-goer—The love scene in your play isn't half so natural as it used to be last season. The same people do it, too. Manager—Yes, but the lovers were married a few months ago.—Tit-Bits.

Little Sadie—O, Uncle Harry, Miss Brown and Mr. Swift are in the parlor, and she has her head on his shoulder. Uncle Harry—That's all right. She has a lien on him.—Kate Field's Washington.

"George Washington must have been a mere boy when he was inaugurated President," said Mrs. Wilkins. "I saw an engraving of the scene the other day, and Washington was in short trousers."—Harper's Bazar.

Big Purses for the Fighters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Coney Island Athletic Club sent a cablegram last evening to George Atkinson of The Sporting Life, London, offering a purse of $30,000 for a fight between Mitchell and Corbett, and a purse of $26,000 for a contest between Hall and Fitzsimmons. Whether the New Orleans club will raise that bid to secure the fight is not known.

A Neglected Cold in the Head

leads to catarrh, perhaps consumption and death. Why neglect with such a safe, speedy remedy as Nasal Balm at hand? D. Derbyshire, president of the Ontario Creamery Association, says:—Nasal Balm beats the world for catarrh and cold in the head. In my own case it effected relief from the the first application. All dealers or by mail, post paid, at 50c. small and $1 large size bottle. Address G. T. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

Doubly Commended.

SIRS,—I had a very bad cold and was cured by two bottles of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. I cannot do without it. MRS. W. C. H. PERRY, Sea Gull, Ont.

DEAR SIRS,—I can highly recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as the best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used.

MISS F. STEVENSON, Oakland, Ont.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract waste from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

A Sensible Man

would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

BEHRING SEA.

The United States Authorities Now Preparing Their Defence.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The reply to the English counter case in the Behring Sea negotiations is approaching completion at the State Department and will soon be ready for the United States counsel to lay before the arbitrators.

The work of preparing the reply has been going on for some weeks at the State Department under the direct charge of Secretary John W. Foster. The lawyers and clerks who are engaged in the work have been shut up in the large room occupied by John B. Moore when he was Third Assistant Secretary of State, and no one from the outer world has been allowed to enter the room.

The purpose of the officials is to weigh carefully every point made on behalf of the United States, so as to put it in the clearest and strongest language and study its relations with every other point, so as to avoid conflict or compromising admissions.

The representatives of the United States before the High Court of Arbitration will leave this country in a few weeks for Paris, where the court will sit. The original case of the United States and the British counter case are already in print and have been submitted to the counsel on both sides. It is not intended, however, to make any of the arguments public until the award is made and accepted by the two countries.

The entire case will then probably be sent to Congress by the President and printed in the English blue books.

SIGNALLED "ALL'S WELL."

Pointsman Holmes Tells the Story of His Sleep, Which Hurled Ten Passengers Down Death's Declivity.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Throughout the night men were working upon the debris of the wrecks of the express and goods trains which collided near Thirsk yesterday morning.

The statement that Holmes, the signal man, who had been refused leave of absence by the station master on the night preceding the accident, and that he had fallen asleep and neglected the signals, was confirmed to-day by Holmes himself. The signal man says: "The station master was willing to relieve me, but I was unable to get a substitute. I went on duty protesting that I was unfit to work and soon fell asleep. I forgot the goods train, but directly I had signalled "all clear" to the express I remembered that the goods train was on the same line. All I could do then was to wait for the crash."

Thirsk, where the calamity occurred, is a little town of about 3000 inhabitants, in the North Riding of Yorkshire. It has manufactures of coarse linen and sacking.

Northallerton is in the West Riding of Yorkshire, and stands in the beautiful valley of the Wiske. In the vicinity is Standard Hill, so called from the famous "Battle of the Standard," in which the English defeated the Scotch, in 1138.

Capt. Duncan Alexander McLeod of the Black Watch, who is among the killed, served in the Soudan expedition of 1884, in the Nile expedition in 1884-85, and was present at Kirbekan, where Gen. Earle was killed.

PURSUED BY FATE.

Survivors of a River Collision Fall Victims to One On Land.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 4.—During a collision in a fog between a Birkenhead ferryboat and the Eurydice yesterday one person was drowned and several injured by the bowsprit of the Eurydice raking the boat's deck from stem to stern.

To-day a large number of the ferry boat's passengers boarded a train on the Mersey Railway and as the train was leaving the ferry station it ran into a locomotive and was wrecked. Three of the passengers were killed and 50 were injured. It is thought that some of the injured will die.

PREACHED ACCORDING TO HIS MOOD.

Therefore Dr. Heber Newton Was Not Guilty of Heresy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The commission appointed more than 12 months ago by Bishop Potter to investigate charges of heresy against the Rev. Dr. Heber Newton, rector of the Episcopal Church of All Saints, in this city, has reported the charges as "not proven." The commission decided "That the catholicity of the Episcopal Church was broad and sufficiently large to allow a man to preach according to his moods. The utterances of Dr. Newton must be ascribed to his mood and we trust that he, upon consideration, will see his way clear to revoking the utterances in question."

Dr. Newton has been informed of it, and now that the cloud over his head has been removed he has asked his congregation for a 12 months' leave of absence in order that he may have rest and change."

CHESTNUTS KILLED HER.

Over-Indulgence in the Fruit Carried Off Ella Mason.

DUNDAS, Ont., Nov. 4.—Little Ella Mason, daughter of Mr. Charles Mason, was buried yesterday from her father's residence, Cayley-street. Her death, which took place on Tuesday, is supposed to have been caused from over-indulgence in chestnuts.

BIRDIE'S REVOLVER.

It Didn't Prevent the Expose of Her Husband As a Spiritualistic Fraud.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 4.—Dr. Frederick W. Courtney came here from San Francisco three months ago with his wife and set up as a spiritualistic medium on one of the fashionable streets. Converts to spiritualism were made rapidly, crowds attended the nightly seances, and the income from private seances was large.

William Cox, a muscular employe in the City Hall, attended several seances and thought that he recognized Courtney's eyes in the ghostly figure that issued from the cabinet, claiming to be George Washington. Last night when the spirit of his great-great-grandfather appeared Cox jumped over the front circle and grabbed the figure. It was Courtney, of course, and he made a desperate but silent struggle. He was helpless in the arms of Cox, who called loudly on the others to turn up the light.

Just as that was done Courtney spoke for the first time. He cried: "Birdie! Birdie! quick!" Birdie was Mrs. Courtney. She rushed into the room, whipped out a revolver and was on the point of shooting Cox in the head when she was seized and disarmed.

Courtney confessed that he was a fraud and left the city on a night train.

SUPREME COURT.

The Suit Against Inspector Archabold For Malicious Prosecution.

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—In the Supreme Court yesterday the case of Archabold v. McLaren was taken up. The case is an appeal from the decision of the court below given against Archabold, who is staff-inspector of the Toronto police force, for the malicious prosecution of David and Margaret McLaren, whom he charged with keeping a house of ill-fame.

Defaulting Bankers Sent to Prison.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Nov. 4.—Francis Abigail, director, and Manager MacNamara of the Australian Banking Company, who were charged with issuing false balance sheets for the purpose of defrauding shareholders in the company, have been found guilty. Abigail was sentenced to 5 years' and MacNamara to 7 years' penal servitude. Abigail was for two years Minister of Marine for New South Wales. He was also a magistrate.

SING SING, N.Y., Nov. 4.—Mr. Frank De Witt Talmage, the only surviving son of Rev. T. De Witt Talmage of Brooklyn, was married at 4.30 o'clock yesterday to Miss Gertrude Barlow, daughter of Mr. William H. Barlow of Ellis place.

It Rained a Little.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—After a dry spell of many weeks Washington caught a light rainfall last night, as the alleged result of the series of explosions which the experts of the Agriculture Department have been causing across the river. But the cost of the experiments have been too great in the sacrifice of nerves and comfort to make the plan entirely popular.

HEAVY VERDICT AGAINST A TORONTO NEWSPAPER.

The Telegram Must Pay This Sum for Libelling Mrs. Obernier—Death of Mr. Bigelow, Q.C., M.P.P. — The Canadian Budget.

TORONTO, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Obernier's $10,000 damage suit against The Evening Telegram was brought to a close yesterday afternoon in the York Assize Court. Mr. Lount for the defence made a most stirring address. At the conclusion pandemonium reigned for several minutes, the crowd cheering and applauding the eloquent Q.C.'s great effort. Order was finally restored, when Judge MacMahon directed the court to be cleared.

S. H. Blake, the opposing counsel, from a legal point of view made a telling address, as quotations from authorities on the question were frequent. He failed, however, to rouse the enthusiasm as had his predecessor

The judge charged the jury in favor of the plaintiff, making reference to the responsible duties assumed by a court reporter in writing a fair and unprejudiced account of a trial.

After being out several hours the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $4000.

The suit was brought about in this way. Mrs. Obernier, with a number of other ladies, got up an amateur performance of several light operas.

A matinee benefit was tendered Mrs. Obernier to cover the expense she had been put to in getting up the play, and it seems that the total receipts were given her at the conclusion of the performance, without the deduction of the expenses for the afternoon, they being taken out of the evening receipts.

The profit resulting from the evening's performance was to be divided between the members of the chorus and the Lakeside Home.

The Telegram had advertised this play to some extent on the understanding that this amount was to go to this charitable institution, and when the proprietor was handed some $36 he was dissatisfied with the result and inquired into the correctness of the statement of expenses.

Ascertaining that the evening performance had shouldered the expense of the afternoon he sued Mrs. Obernier to recover the amount, though when she received the sum she did so in good faith, not thinking to inquire as to whether it was all or only a part of the receipts.

When the suit came on in the Division Court, Mrs. Obernier was sustained by the court in the stand she had taken in refusing to be mulcted.

The Telegram's account of the case, Mrs. Obernier claimed, was prejudiced and calculated to do her harm, and on this she based her claim.

N. G. BIGELOW, Q.C.

His Death is the Cause of Many Expressions of Regret.

TORONTO, Nov. 5.—Mr. N. G. Bigelow, Q.C., M.P.P. for Toronto, died yesterday morning at 10 minutes to 3 o'clock. Until an hour or two before that his medical advisers had not given up hope, though at a consultation held during the afternoon it was decided that his condition did not warrant the performance of an operation which the nature of the disease required.

Two weeks ago Mr. Bigelow took an active part in the opening ceremonies of Victoria College, of which he was a graduate and a member of the Board of Regents. Three weeks since he presided at a reunion of the members of St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 16, A.F. & A.M., of which he was an old past master. He accompanied the Toronto party to the dedicatory services of the World's Fair.

Mr. Bigelow had been suffering for a lengthened period from gallstones, a concretion formed in the gall bladder.

The character of the disease from which Mr. Bigelow was suffering was correctly diagnosed by Dr. Burns, his physician, two years ago. He had recurring attacks from time to tim , but they were always met and subdued by timely treatment. The last attack began on Oct. 23, and no doubt was the result of a heavy cold contracted the night before at the Victoria University Alumni dinner. The attack at first was mild and to all appearances had passed off when a slight chill brought it back with more severity than ever. Dr Burns had every reason to hope that he could ave off the attack till the reaction came. Then Drs. W. H. B. Aikens and Cameron were called in for consultation, but the patient gradually sank till he died at 2.50 a.m. yesterday He had been delirious since Tuesday.

The post-mortem examination revealed the fact that Dr. Burns' diagnosis was correct, for a large number of gall-stones were found and the results of obstruction were apparent in the tissues, there being considerable ulceration of long standing

It was only on April 29 last that Mr. Bigelow was elected to fill the vacancy in the Legislature caused by the death of Mr H. E. Clarke, whose death was also so sudden and unexpected. The new member did not have the opportunity of taking the seat.

Before Mr. Bigelow breathed his last his brother Obediah of Lindsay and his nephew, Fred, now attending the University, Rev. Dr. Briggs, and Rev. James Henderson were at the bedside.

Mr. Bigelow was born on April 22, 1840, in the County of Simcoe, Ont., his father being Hiram Bigelow, a wealthy mill owner. He married Minerva Edna Calvin, daughter of the late D. D. Calvin, M.L.A., of Garden Island, Ont. He was educated in the public schools in Lindsay and in 1858 entered the preparatory conference on Victoria University at Cobourg, where he graduated with honors in 1864. He then entered the law office of the late Judge MacKenzie, and was admitted to the practice of law in 1867. In 1868 the degree of M.A. was conferred upon him, and in 1887 he received the degree of LL.B. In 1886 he was created a Q.C. by patent from the then Governor-General of Canada. He was an adherent of the Methodist Church. He was a most successful pleader, especially in the criminal courts, and he was, besides, most popular with both bench and bar.

Mr. Bigelow had at the time of his death seven brothers and sisters. They were Mrs. Davidson of Grandtown, Ont., Mrs. Nash of Burlington, Vt., Joel Bigelow of Chicago, Joseph Bigelow of Port Perry, Ont., Silas and Obediah of Lindsay, Timothy of Brooklyn, N. Y., Palmer, Los Angeles, Cal., John Fisk, San Francisco, Cal.

The deceased was a member of St Andrew's Lodge, A.F. and A.M., P.G.J. of the Grand Chapter, P.E.C. Geoffrey de St. Aldemar and a member of the A. and A. Rite. He took the chair in St. Andrew's Lodge on the night of Oct. 1, 1892, being the P.M.S. Knight.

Mr. Bigelow leaves a widow and two children, a son and a daughter, the former being a student at Upper Canada College.

JIM CORBETT'S ULTIMATUM.

He Is Determined to Force Mitchell to Fight.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Champion Jim Corbett came on in a big hurry from Cleveland yesterday and opened in his play, "Gentleman Jack," at the Lee-avenue Academy, Brooklyn, last night.

After the first act Jim invited several newspaper men into his dressing room.

"I have a statement to make," said he, "and I want you all to hear it. I want to fight Mitchell and I'll meet him next September. And he's the only man I will meet in September. You see, I'm the champion of America and I am ready to defend the title against the champion of England or the champion of Australia.

"Now, then, who is the champion of Australia? Both Goddard and Jackson claim the title. When they settle the question I'll meet the recognized champion. As for Mitchell, why, he insulted me once at Miner's Theatre and I want a whack at him in the worst way."

"Well, the Coney Island Club will offer a purse of $35,000 for such a contest," put in Judge Newton. "And September will just suit us."

"I'll fight before the club offering the biggest money," said Corbett.

"What have you to say about Jackson?" said a reporter? "Why won't you fight him in September?"

"Because my theatrical contracts will not permit," was the reply. "I'll lose $25,000 by cancelling for Mitchell, but I am willing to do so for reasons of my own. I have a big scheme for the World's Fair which will make me a rich man, but I will take a chance of losing money if Mitchell will only come to the front. I have read that my signature has been affixed to articles to box the Englishman. This is not true. I am not bound to any club or any person. I can get just as much money to fight Mitchell or Jackson a year from now as I can at present, and you see," Corbett laughed here, "neither of them is growing younger. That is all I shall say about pugilistic affairs at present."

THREE MORE SUICIDES.

A Farmer Drowns Himself in a Mill Pond in Brant.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Nov. 5.—Charles Biggar, aged 61, of Mount Pleasant, one of the wealthiest and best known farmers of Brant, committed suicide by drowning himself in the mill pond near his residence yesterday. The fact of the suicide was first discovered when the mill-owner shut the water off and discovered the body.

Her Husband Abused Her.

RIDGETOWN, Ont., Nov. 5.—An inquest was held yesterday afternoon on the body of Mrs. Ezekiel Smith, who died last night from the effects of attempted suicide by drinking the contents of a large box of rough on rats in some tea. Deceased had formerly intimated to a friend that she was tired of her husband's abuse and bad temper. The jury decided that deceased had ended her life with suicidal intent.

A Hamilton Moulder Takes Poison.

HAMILTON, Nov. 5.—James Mann, a moulder, of 135 John-street north, who had been drinking for some days, took a big dose of rough on rats and died in a few hours. He had made previous attempts to end his life.

JUSTICE ABROAD.

A Bigamist Released Because the Second Marriage Was Performed in the U. S.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—The bigamist, Mr. Joseph Pinschenat, has been released from jail by order of the judge on the grounds that the second marriage took place in the United States and the Canadian courts had no jurisdiction over the case. Therefore, should his prosecutors wish to continue the case, they will have to seek justice in a Yankee court of law.

Brandstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Interest in the election has increased visibly during the week, and at various centres, south, west, and east, has been reflected by less activity in commercial circles.

Despatches from leading Canadian cities show a variable condition of general trade, it being fairly active in Quebec, but quiet in Ontario. Montreal reports a dull grain trade, more activity in hog products, but a less favorable outlook for the export cattle trade. Unseasonable weather is said to have checked the wholesale clothing trade at Toronto.

Bank clearings at the two cities named aggregated $527,956,000 for 10 months of 1892, or 12.7 per cent. more than in a like portion of 1891. For October their total is $62,600,000, or 10.7 per cent. more than in October last year.

There are 31 business failures reported to Bradstreets from the Dominion this week. Last week the total was 30 and a year ago 43.

He Was Run Over.

CARLETON PLACE, Nov. 5.—A freight conductor named Harris Beach was killed on the C.P.R. yesterday near Chalk River. It is supposed he was leaning over and struck against a bridge. He was a married man with three children.

MR. MERCIER ACQUITTED

THE CONSPIRACY CHARGE FALLS THROUGH.

The Jury Asked a Series of Wild Questions Owing to a Version of the Charge—The Court Treated to an Oration—Mr. Mercier's Speech.

QUEBEC, Nov. 5.—In the Montreal case His Honor Justice Wurtele began the address to English at 2.30 p.m. yesterday after completion of the address by Counsel Bellaus. He said:

"Messrs. Mercier and Pacaud are accused of two offences. First, to have conspired to defraud the province of a sum of Her Majesty's money, and secondly, to defraud the Caisse D'Economie Notre Dame de Quebec.

"It has been shown to us by the evidence given that for some years past the different governments contemplated paying the whole stationery service in one office for departments. Things went along that way for some years until March, 1891, when Langlois got very anxious to secure the contract, and with a view of securing it he sought Pacaud, who was willing to help him. You have heard Langlois' evidence. It is contradictory to the evidence given by him at the police court. Langlois swears to having written a letter to Mr. Mercier at the instigation of Mr. Pacaud. After that letter has disappeared, or it never existed."

His Honor passed through the whole evidence given. He said reference was made to the fact that Mr. J. A. Mercier never said how he was made aware that there was $25,000 to his brother's credit, but he was not asked.

"Now, a case of conspiracy cannot be made very clear unless the conspiracy has been overheard or one of the parties included in the conspiracy turns Queen's evidence; but in this case you have nothing of the kind to look for. The defendants are accused in this case of defrauding the province of $60,000 and of having defrauded a savings bank of an equal sum.

"Now, to defraud the province of that sum would have been represented by the Langlais contract; but the Government did not pay that amount, so that the accused cannot be convicted on that head. No minister can perform an act like the one before us without the consent of his colleagues. Nor can a ministry perform such an act without the consent of the representative of the Queen, whose duty it is to apply his signature wherever he deems it necessary. Hence there is no possibility of there being any conspiracy to defraud the province of $60,000.

As for the other accusation, we all know that Pacaud got $30,000. Whether this was for their own personal use or for election purposes does not matter. The offence is the same. What you have to decide now is if there was a combination between Messrs. Mercier and Pacaud to defraud."

"I forgot to tell you that in his testimony Mr. Demartegny said that he had not notified Mr. J. A. Mercier that there were $25,000 payable to him. Now, who notified Mr. J. A. Mercier that the money was in the Banque Jacques Cartier for him? I wish to tell you this because I want to understand everything referring to this important case.

His Honor then repeated his charge in French and finished at 5.40. He asked the jury if they wished to retire. They answered, "Yes, for 10 minutes." The great crowd present in the court house got as turbulent as an angry sea. It was simply boiling with impatience. The jury retired at 5.45. His Honor, then addressing the spectators, said:

"Gentlemen, I address myself to the lawyers first, and to the spectators I ask as a favor, and as a matter of honor to the country at large, to receive the verdict guilty and without demonstration."

Mr. Fitzpatrick replied: "May it please Your Honor, I am asked to state to Your Honor that we concur in the remarks Your Honor has just made, and that we have enough confidence in the citizens assembled in this court to assure your honor that the verdict will be received with the greatest respect to the court. The jury returned immediately after this. The clerk of the court first challenged the jury in French. "Non Conpable," replied the spokesman. Then the clerk challenged the jury in English. "Not Guilty," replied the spokesman.

As Mr. Mercier saw the jury taking its place in the box his lips quivered, and as the words, "Not guilty" were spoken he became as pale as a ghost. His lawyers then pressed his hands and his friends rallied around him. A clamor came from the large corridors of the Court House. Wild hurrahs for Mercier succeeded each other. At the doors several thousands were assembled, shouting at the top of their voices. A squad of the provincial police force cleared the doorway and Mr. Mercier appeared with his lawyers. The noise now became deafening. Four burly fellows took the ex-Prime Minister on their shoulders and the procession moved along to the residence of Mr. F. Lemieux, whore Mr. Mercier addressed the crowd, stating that it was to the people he owed his liberty.

Mr. Tarte also spoke. He accused the judges of the country with dishonesty, and declared that "there is no longer a Conservative party in this Canada of ours.

Undesirable Imports.

FORT ERIE, Ont., Nov. 5.—Officer Griffin of the Ontario police, Niagara Falls, came here last night accompanied by John Salsbury, a woman named Cora Simon and a little gir about 3 years old. Salsbury is wanted in Brantford for bringing stolen goods into Canada. Griffin found the parties in Buffalo just as they stepped off a Lockport train, when they were arrested. They hail from Owosso, Mich. Officer Griffin easily persuaded the parties to accompany him to Fort Erie, from which place they will be sent to Brantford in the morning to answer to the above charge.

SPRINGVILLE.

A Worthy Successor to Baptie's "Boxer."

Owing to the unfortunate death of his splendid road horse, "Boxer," a few weeks ago, Mr. James Baptie, of Springville, has made a visit to the United States in order to select a worthy successor to that justly local-famed horse. It will be of interest to horsemen to know that he has just returned, importing the Kentucky-bred roadster stallion "Almonte Champion," No. 5522 American Trotting Register, bred by the late General W. T. Withers, of Lexington, Kentucky. "Almonte Champion" is a rich mahogany bay, 16 hands high, and when in stud condition will weigh 1250 lbs. His limbs and feet are of the most perfect type, bone stout and hard as steel, tendons strong and well defined, and he is one of the handsomest road stallions ever imported to Ontario.

THE NEGLECTED BABY.

We have all seen the neglected baby and know well how it looks and acts. Such babies are to be found in homes surrounded with all modern comforts, as well as in the homes of the poor.

The neglected baby is usually cross, peevish and restless, its sleep is never sound and sweet, as the sleep of the healthy infant should be.

The whole trouble arises from the food with which the little one is fed from day to day. Improper foods cause serious disturbances in the stomach and digestive organs, and the weak machinery becomes deranged and clogged.

No wonder that baby is cross and peevish. No wonder that so many babies die before they are a year old.

There is a happy remedy for all such infantile troubles—a food that will save the little darlings from the cold and dark grave. It is Lactated Food, now so universally popular and so well recommended by our best physicians.

Lactated Food, possessing all the nourishing elements of pure breast milk, is suited for the weakest digestion.

Weak and puny babies soon become strong, healthy and happy; they sleep well and grow fast, and always escape the ills and troubles which beset the infants who are fed with poorly prepared foods.

We strongly advise every mother to give Lactated Food a trial, if baby is not strong and healthy. When Lactated Food is fed to baby for a month you will be surprised at the results.

Makes Flesh and Blood.

When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is sinking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker, and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat, in fact Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life" and has saved and cured thousands. In big bottles 50c. and $1, at all drug stores. dw

Racked with Rheumatism.

DEAR SIRS,—For ten years I suffered with rheumatism in spring and fall. I have been confined to bed for months at a time, but since using B. B. B. I have not suffered from it at all. I also suffered from the dyspepsia, which has not troubled me since using the B.B.B. and I therefore think it a splendid medicine.

Catarrh in the Head

Is undoubtedly a disease of the blood, and as such only a reliable blood purifier can effect a perfect cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood-purifier, and it has cured many very severe cases of catarrh. It gives an appetite and builds up the whole system.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

The Following Certificate is Published by Permission.

DELHI, N. Y., August 20, 1878.

"To the Father Mathew Temperance and Manufacturing Co.:

GENTLEMEN:—I am gratefully pleased to have in my power to testify to the efficacy and restorative qualities of the medicine in my own deplorable case.

"I was for eight years a martyr to alcohol, and "under the ban" from being, as all supposed who knew me (and as I myself thought), beyond cure from my reliance upon ardent spirit. Liquor took the place of food, and I was so prostrated, mentally and physically, that I courted DEATH as the only freedom from my wretched sufferings. A kind and noble friend (through your instrumentality) induced me to take your invaluable remedy. The first bottle strengthened and gave me appetite, and after finishing the fourth I felt completely cured, and have had no relapse whatever. Appetite and energy have returned, and I am out of the city whose late associations have been so painful, and am engaged in useful occupation, with no desire for alcohol. Six months have now passed since I took my last drop of liquor, and my restoration to friends and life I claim only to have gained through your disinterested medical aid.

Permit me to subscribe myself forever your debtor.

SPREADING SUNSHINE AND JOY

PEOPLE WHO ARE DOING A GOOD WORK!

Rescuing From the Valley of the Shadow of Death—Men and Women Thoroughly Interested—Great Hope for the Future!

There are many joys in life, but few that are so pure, so grand, and so satisfying as the joy of doing good to others. He or she who, when they have the opportunity and power, refuses to do good, will afterwards suffer distress when the opportunity is lost.

We have in our midst, in sections of Canada, many men and women who are doing a vast amount of good amongst a class who suffer both mental and bodily agonies. These men and women are willingly spreading the joyful news that they have been rescued from the valley of the shadow of death, and brought to the glorious haven of security and happines.

The wonderful stories of acute sufferings, terrible agonies, wretchedness, misery and woes, having been banished by simple and effective means, have contributed more to real happiness, than any other scheme ever devised for the alleviation of human distress.

Would to Heaven that we had a still greater number of such earnest and active missionaries, there is ample room for them in our fair Canada. The harvest is indeed great, but the labourers are too few; still we are thankful for the earnest workers already in the field who are uttering no feeble or uncertain sound.

The great majority of these willing workers are rescued ones, who can sympathise and feel for the suffering, weak and distressed. They have felt and carried the cross of disease, and have had a glimpse of that dreadful, dark and repulsive road that leads to the grave. With honest purpose, these saved ones are pointing out to unfortunate brothers and sisters the true way of life, and with commendable zeal are endeavouring to induce those in need to take hold of the great agent which leads to health, strength and long years.

To-day it is our privilege to give all interested readers a brief account of the rescue of a Montreal lady, Mrs. Henry Lewis. This aged woman for two years suffered from sleeplessness, headache, biliousness, kidney trouble and sore back; her life was made miserable and wretched, and she despaired of being in health again.

Mrs. Lewis, like thousands of other people had worried and fretted over continual failings with physicians and common advertised remedies, Her condition was daily becoming more alarming and critical, and her hold on life was geting weaker. In this state she had many advisers and counsellors. All were heard with interest and anxiety, because a decision at this time meant life or death.

Thank God right influences prevailed and Mrs. Lewis was directed to that unfailing remedy of nature, Paine's Celery Compound. In her extremity of suffering and woe, Mrs. Lewis decided to give the great Compound a fair trial; it cured others who were far advanced in disease and pain, and she had faith that its powers were sufficient to meet its case.

The wonderful medicine was used with regularity; a grand cure was wrought; the blood now courses through its proper channels with regularity and freedom; the whole body is rebuilt and fortified; mental activity is increased and many long years added to life,

To-day Mrs. Lewis is doing her best to extend the fame of Paine's Celery Compound; she is using her influence and experience for the benefit of those in need of the great renewer of life. She has been saved and her object is to let others know the medium of her salvation.

No other remedy ever given to the world can boast of such an army of advocates. Men and women of all ranks of society, and even children, unite in its praise and recommendation, because of its honesty, wonders and grand results.

Mrs. Lewis' letter of testimony reads as follows:

1897 Notre Dame St. West,
Montreal, Oct. 3rd, 1892.

Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, P.Q.

DEAR SIRS:—I am now an old woman being in my seventy-third year, and can most frankly confess that no action of my life has ever given me greater pleasure, than the present one of testifying with my whole heart and soul in favor of your Paine's Celery Compound. From my experience with other advertised remedies, I may say, that they are not to be compared with your grand medicine for a moment. Paine's Celery Compound to me was new health and increased strength. All other medicines I found worthless, and my money spent in vain.

Two years ago, I became weak, sleepless and restless, and my appetite was almost gone. Severe headaches, biliousness, kidney trouble and sore back, made life a misery to me, and I despaired of ever being in health again.

Those distressing troubles often confined me to bed for a week or ten days at a time; and it is almost impossible to describe the agonies and wretchedness I endured during these severe attacks. A friend advised me to give Paine's Celery Compound a trial; others insisted that I required careful nourishment and dieting. I had heard however, of such wonderful results from the use of Paine's Celery Compound, that I determined to honestly and carefully test its value in my case; and I bless God that I had sufficient courage and will power to do so, as it has made me a new woman. I used your Compound simply as directed; and found, after commencing the second bottle, that the virtues of the great medicine were instilling a new vitality, and giving me a new existence.

Up to date, I have used about twelve bottles, and I am now completely and permanently restored; I do all my own housework; I am cheerful and happy, and do not experience any of the fatigue and weakness that troubled me some months ago.

I live and enjoy life to-day; and thank God for the great agent of life that cured me.

I trust thousands of women will have a chance to read this testimony, and profit by my experience. I strongly appeal to every woman, to give up other medicines that they are now vainly using, and commence at once with Paine's Celery Compound, which alone can bring back lost health. I wish I could personally visit every woman in Canada who is suffering as I once suffered; I am sure my words of testimony would soon convince all, that there is only one honest, worthy and meritorious medicine that can meet their troubles, and that medicine is Paine's Celery Compound.

Yours very truly,
MRS. HENRY LEWIS.

The proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound are now making an effort to reach honest and worthy sufferers who are unable to buy medicines or employ a physician. They are in a position to deal liberally with those lacking means, and who are seeking relief from suffering. All who wish to obtain a supply of the great life-giver—Paine's Celery Compound—can have it by sending in with their application, a letter frome some Clergyman, Mayor, Reeve, Justice of the Peace or Post Master testifying to their character and standing.

Scores have sent in, and their hearts have been gladdened aud cheered by receiving the great medicine free. Address Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal.

How Sambo Secured His Bet From the Mule.

A Georgian negro was riding a mule along and came to a bridge when the mule stopped.

"I bet you a quarter," said Sambo, "I'll make you go over dis bridge."

And with that he gave the mule a blow over the ear which made him nod his head suddenly.

"You take de bet, den," said the negro, and contrived to get the stubborn animal over the bridge.

"I won dat quarter, anyhow," said Sambo.

"But how will you get the money?" said a man close by, who had been unperceived.

"To-morrow," said Sambo, "mama gib me a dollar to get corn and I take a quarter out."—Atlanta Constitution.

A FORTUNE IN A PUZZLE.

The above is a picture of our greatest African explorer, and in it can be traced the forms of two wild animals. Any one can readily see the face of the explorer, but it is difficult to distinguish the two animals.

The proprietors of STANLEY'S PRIZE MEDICINES will give an elegant UPRIGHT PIANO, valued at $500, to the first person who can make out the elephant and giraffe; to the second person will be given $100 IN GOLD; to the third an elegant GOLD WATCH; to the fourth a handsome CLOCK; to the fifth a SILVER WATER PITCHER, and to the next fifty $5 in GOLD. Every competitor must cut out the above picture and outline with a lead pencil the forms of the two animals, and enclose same with 1 U. S. two-cent stamps or 10 three-cent Canadian stamps for one sample bottle of the following prize remedies: "STANLEY'S PRIZE RHEUMATIC CURE," "STANLEY'S PRIZE CURE FOR CHRONIC and ULCERATED SORE THROAT," "STANLEY'S PRIZE CURE FOR DYSENTERY, DIARRŒA and CHOLERA-MORBUS," or "STANLEY'S PRIZE CURE FOR CATARRH." Select any one of the above remedies or as many as you desire, by enclosing 25c. for each one.

Address THE STANLEY MEDICINE CO., 308 Brush St., Detroit, Mich.

The person whose envelope is postmarked first will be awarded the first prize, and the others in order of merit. To the person sending the last correct answer will be given an elegant GOLD WATCH; to the next to the last a handsome SILVER WATCH; to the second to the last a handsome CLOCK; to the third to the last $10 IN GOLD; and to the next ten to the last $5 IN GOLD. We shall ALSO GIVE AWAY 100 EXTRA PREMIUMS (should there be so many sending in correct answers). The names of the leading prize winners will be published in the U. S. and Canada. The object in making the foregoing extraordinary offer is to place our Medicines in the hands of the many sufferers. This GREAT AND ONLY POSITIVE RHEUMATIC CURE has cost the proprietors an enormous amount of money, the ingredients of which are imported from Africa, where they are secured with great difficulty and expense. It is purely herbaceous, and put up in two compounds, one to be used externally and the other internally. Our OTHER REMEDIES are equally valuable. As to the reliability of our Company, we refer you to any leading wholesale druggist in Detroit, and will also furnish you with the names and addresses of parties who have been entirely cured by this most wonderful Medicine.

All prizes will be awarded strictly in order of merit and with perfect satisfaction. No charge is made for premiums in any way, they are absolutely given away to introduce and advertise our Medicines, which we are bound to do regardless of expense. Medicine is sent by mail post paid and duty free. When you answer the picture puzzle, please mention this paper. Address

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps the best?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

TO-NIGHT

Improvement for All.

The evening classes held on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of each week at the Peterborough Business College are being largely patronized. This is the season of the year to enter; some who have registered are taking the three months course, others are taking the full term five months. Bookeeping, shorthand, writing and arithmetic are the subjects taught. Many young men and women have derived great benefit by attending the night classes at the college. You must improve to better your position, no matter what office you hold. 3d

A Cordial Reception.

On Thursday evening the lady directors of the Young Women's Christian Association gave a reception in their rooms to all the lady members and their friends. About a hundred ladies attended and spent a very pleasant time. The directors shook hands with all present and did their utmost to give all a warm-hearted welcome. Mrs. Fairbairn, president, presided, and a fine programme of vocal and instrumental music was provided, which delighted the large attendance. At the close, choice refreshments were served and duly partaken of. The proceedings closed at ten o'clock.

Prices, 25c., 50c. and 75c.

THE COLLEGIANS SCORE ANOTHER VICTORY.

The Trinity College School Juniors Defeated by a Score of 28 Points to 1 This Morning.

The Collegiate Institute boys have evidently transferred their allegiance from Association to Rugby football, and this forenoon demonstrated the fact that they can play Rugby as well as Association. The T. C. S. boys arrived at 8.30 in charge of their headmasser, Rev. Mr. Lloyd and immediately after their arrival paid a visit to the Edison Works. The game was called at ten o'clock and the teams lined up as follows:—

Trinity College School.		Collegiate.
Marling	back	Orde
Strathy, Jackson, Spreggs	half backs	H Burnham, Scott, T Burnham
Dumoulin	quarters	McWilliams
Rossmand, Duggan, Jellett	forwards	H Rogers, D Anderson, G Borland
Baldwin, Harvey, B Hepburn, J Hepburn	left wing	King, Adams, G Rogers, Kearns
Gilmour, Dumoulin, Bickford	right wing	Davidson, Grubbe, Dumble
Referee		Geo Boucher

The Collegiate Institute won the toss and decided to defend the west goal. Strathy kicked off for the School and it was soon evident that the T. C. S. boys had their work cut out for them. Soon after the start Kearns got possession of the ball and secured a touchdown. He repeated the act before half time was called and as neither touch-down was converted into a goal, the score at the end of the first half stood 8 to 0 in favour of the Collegiate.

After ends were changed the Collegiate boys pressed their opponents and Kearns, Davidson and T. Burnham each secured a touchdown, two of which were converted into goals by H. Burnham. The school scored their only point in the half by a touch in goal. For the Collegiate all the boys played well, but Kearns and T. Burnham were noticeable for their splendid runs. For the school Strathy, Jackson and Jellett were most conspicuous. The visiting team is being entertained by the home team this afternoon.

A CORDIAL WELCOME.

Extended to the new Y. M. C. A. General Secretary, W. H. Chapman Last Evening—Speeches made and Programme Given.

Mr. W. H. Chapman, of Brantford, the new general secretary of the Young Mens Christian Association here, was heartily welcomed to Peterborough and to his work in connection with the local organization last evening. Invitations to the reception had been sent to the town clergymen, the lady directors of the Y.W.C.A., W.C.T.U., Barnardo Home, Protestant Home, Nicholl's Hospital, the Ladies' Auxiliary in connection with the association and other christian workers. In consequence a very large number were present last evening and the hall which had been prettily decorated with flags, mottoes and plants was well filled. The evening was pleasurably spent. Mr. G. J. Karly, president, presided in an acceptable manner. The proceedings opened with a hymn, prayer by Rev. Mr. Goldsmith, and the reading of the scriptural lesson. Miss Edna Jewett, the pianist of the Y. M. C. A., then gave a splendid pianoforte solo. President Early in his address expressed the pleasure it gave him, both to see so many Christian workers present and to welcome to the association their new general secretary, Mr. W. H. Chapman, of Brantford. The secretary had been favorably known and was highly spoken of in his work in the past, and the directors were fortunate in securing his valuable services. In a few fitting terms he introduced Mr. Chapman who in a well worded and earnest address spoke of the pleasure it gave him to be present. He had often heard well of Peterborough, the active organization here, and the good work done. He thanked them for their kindness, and trusted he would, by the help of God, be successful in his work here. He asked the assistance and hearty co-operation of all Christian workers, and with faith in the great power above he sincerely hoped that much good might be accomplished, and Christ's kingdom extended, especially among men.

Mr. Chapman, although he spoke only about five minutes, still his address was full of interest and zeal, and attentively listened to.

A trio by Messrs. Wesley, Squires and Steirs was rendered with fine expression.

The chairman called upon all the clergymen present to each deliver three minute addresses. He could not allow them more time than this without being unduly detained. Impressive words of welcome were then given by Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rector of St. John's church, Rev. A. McWilliams, of St. Andrew's, Rev. Mr. Goldsmith, of St. Paul's, and Rev. J. Thom, of Mark street church, Ashburnham. Mr. G. M. Roger, vice-president of the Association, added further words of welcome to the new secretary, and wished him abundant success in his services and work in connection with Y. M. C. A. Rev. Mr. Locke, pastor of George street Methodist church, and Rev. Geo. Edwards, pastor of Charlotte street Methodist church, were also present during the evening, but owing to their having to be present at a meeting in connection with their respective churches, had to leave early in the evening. Miss Code executed a pianoforte solo with excellent finish. Mr. T. S. Cole, Toronto, travelling secretary, was next called upon. He spoke highly of Mr. Chapman's zealous Christian character and the magnificent results which attended his work during the number of years he was secretary of the Brantford Association. He had proved himself to be as good and capable secretary as any man in Ontario. Mr. Cole asked the active members and christian workers to assist Mr. Chapman in his labors here.

Messrs. Wesley, Squires and Steirs then furnished another trio entitled, Jesus, Lover of My Soul. The meeting closed by the singing of the Doxology. Afterwards enticing refreshments were served by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary in connection with the Association and partaken of with appreciative regard for their toothsome qualities.

The fine upright Heintzman piano used for the occasion was furnished gratuitously by Mr. H. Wellington Burnett, the popular representative of Heintzman & Co. in Peterborough. The directors wish to thank Mr. Burnett for his kindness.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Nov. 6th, 1892.

This morning Arthur Mercier charged Joshua Jackson with committing wilful injury to his waggon on Tuesday. The case was dismissed. Mercier who delivers the ice of MacDonald & Mercier claims that the waggon was standing in front of Wolstenholm's grocery on Aylmer street, when Jackson, accompanied by three others came along in a buggy, and that defendant with a whip struck the team causing the them to run away, as a result of which considerable damage was done to the waggon. The three men in the buggy with Jackson swore they did not see him hit the horses at all, hence case was was dismissed.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Silsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

THE MARKET SQUARE

A Busy Scene and Lots of Produce—The Prices Brought.

The Saturday market was large today and in view of Thanksgiving Day's near approach an abundant supply of meat and poultry was offereds The sales were somewhat tardy. The grain market is fair and oats are moving freely, selling at 29 and 30 cents; peas 60 to 62 cents, not many on; buckwheat, 38 to 40 cents; rye, 50 cents; spring wheat 66 cents (standard;) fall, 68 cents (standard.) A few loads of hay are coming in and selling readily at $7.00 to $8.50 per ton. Hogs by the hundred weight are selling at 5½ cents for small, 6 cents for large. Apples a good supply and fetching 40 to 75 cents, principally 45 to 50 cents; potatoes selling readily at 60 to 65 cents per bag; carrots 40 cents a bag. Pork is selling at 7 and 8 cents; beef 4½ to 6 cents; mutton, 7 and 8c.; lamb, 7 and 8c.; a rather slow sale for all meats. On the inside market butter was on sale in abundance at 21 to 23c., selling principally at 22c. Chickens, many offered, 35 to 50c. per pair; turkeys, a great scarcity, selling at 60 to 80c., and extraordinary fine bird now and then sold for $1. Geese, in endless supply, fat, large and well grown, 50, 55, 60 and 65c. each. Ducks not many at 35 to 40c. per pair. Eggs, a large number on and selling at 17 to 18c. per dozen. This completed the list of prices for Peterborough's Thanksgiving Day market.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

The Assizes Still on—Disagreement of of the Jury in Mason vs. Peterborough—A Non Suit in O'Leary vs. O'Grady—A Compound Court in Progress.

SATURDAY, Nov. 5th.

A greater part of yesterday was occupied with the trial of the case of Mason vs. Peterborough.—An action brought by Mr. Wm. Mason, grocer, to recover damages to the amount of $1,000 for injuries sustained on February 23rd, 1892, by a fall on the sidewalk on Murray street, due to defective condition of the sidewalk, which was alleged to be the result of negligence of the corporation. By this fall Mr. Mason's right arm was broken, and for this and the expense and interruption to his attention to his business caused thereby the plaintiff seeks damages. The plaintiff claims that as a result of the accident, his right arm is still affected with numbness, rendering him unable to write, and that he was otherwise incapacitated for the pursuit of his business. A large number of witnesses were examined on either side and it was after 6 o'clock before the evidence was concluded. The address of the counsel and the charge of his Lordship required till about nine o'clock. In giving the case to the jury, his Lordship submitted a series of questions which the jury were to consider in arriving at a decision upon the case: (1) Was the condition of the walk at the time of the accident due to the negligence of the corporation (2) If so whether this negligence consisted in the original construction, which involved the relative merit of planks laid crosswise or lengthwise. (3) Was the condition of the walk at the time and place of the accident in regard to the slope of a certain plank sufficient to make the corporation responsible for the accident, and if so had the corporation received due notice of its condition to enable them to put it in repair. (4) Could the plaintiff by the exercise of reasonable care have avoided the accident? (5) What was the amount of damages (dependent of course, upon the nature of their answers to the preceeding questions) which the plaintiff was entitled to recover. At 9 o'clock the jury retired to consider the verdict, and after remaining in consultation till about 12.30 o'clock they were unable to agree upon a verdict. Mr. Edwards moved for judgement nothwithstanding the disagreement. This was refused, but leave was granted mover for judgement in a Divisional Court. Mr. Dumble and Mr. Leonard for plantiff; Mr. Edwards and Mr. Murray for defendants.

O'Leary vs. O'Grady—This was an action brought by Mrs. Bridget O'Leary of Otonabee, to recover $5,000 damages, against John O'Grady of the same township for the death of her husband, Patrick O'Leary, on the 18th of June last, when he fell upon the railway track at Indian River station, and was killed by a train. It appears from the evidence that the deceased, Patrick O'Leary and the defendant, John O'Grady, having returned from Peterborough on the 18th of June, were conversing upon the platform of the C. P. R. at Indian River. That the deceased, who was a man aged about 44 years, was quite hilarious and was pulling the defendant in a not ungentle manner, and in the course of the scuffle O'Leary, who was said to be somewhat intoxicated, was in some way thrown from the platform, and falling on the track was killed by a train, one car and part of another passing over his body.

The trial of the case began about 9 o'clock last night, and lasted till ten and was resumed this morning. The witnesses examined were Mrs. O'Leary, the widow of the deceased (who also left five children behind him, from 6 months to 15 years of age) Jas. Arnold, C.P.R. station master, Indian River; Wm. Cavanagh, Henry Fox and Jno. Fawcett. D. Shannahan was also called, but before he began Judge Falconbridge interrupted and asked Mr. Poussette, counsel for plaintiff, if Fawcett's evidence would place his case any higher than it was at that stage.

Mr. Poussette said not, but argued that O'Grady had used more force than was necessary to defend himself, and was responsible for the consequences.

The judge replied that O'Leary a man of 44 had pestered O'Grady, a man of 85 around the platform, and the old man had shoved him away. He held that in law there was no case to submit to the jury, and dismissed the action. It was an unfortunate affair in which he did not think the defence should ask for costs, and he dismissed it without costs. Mr. Poussette for plaintiff; Mr. Edmison and Mr. Dixon for defendant.

In order to facilitate the clearing of the docket another division of the assize court was set up in the council chamber, his Honour Judge Weller presiding. Here at 9.30 o'clock the case of Hartnett vs. Galvin was tried, and it was noon before the first witness was concluded.

[Since the above was written the counsel effected a settlement of the case agreeable to both parties, each side to pay their own costs. Mr. C. W. Sawers and N. F. Paterson, Q.C., for plaintiff; Messrs. Hatton & Wood and Mr. Watson, Q.C., for defendant.

In the Finlay vs. Pope case, an action to recover damages for the seduction of plaintiff's daughter, the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff and $75. Mr. Stone for plaintiff; Mr. Poussette for defendant.

It is the testimony of all men who have tried it that "Myrtle Navy" tobacco has the most delicious flavour of any tobacco in the market, and that it leaves none of the unpleasant effects in the mouth that most tobaccos do. The reason for this is the high and pure quality of the leaf, which is the finest known in Virginia, and the absence of all deleterious matter in the manufacture.

A GREAT UNIVERSITY.

A Discovery Made Within its Walls.

The great Harvard University is to the United States, what Oxford and Cambridge are to England, or the McGill University to Canada.

The Medical faculty of Harvard stands high on this continent, and scores of the most eminent physicians in the United States have graduated from this renowned colleges.

The medical faculty of this famed University has given to Americans and Canadians, the most wonderful remedy for the cure of coughs, hoarseness, sore throat, croup and all affections arising from sudden colds, that the world has ever seen.

This precious preparation is known as Harvard Bronchial Syurp; and, during the past two or three years has achieved greater success in Canada, than any other remedy now before the public.

We have seen the almost magical effects of Harvard Bronchial Syrup, and can affirm that it does the good work with a speed and certainty that amazes and pleases the sufferer.

A twenty-five cent bottle works wonders. It will instantly loosen the worst cough, clear the throat and restore the lost voice. It is pleasant to the taste, and especially valuable for the young, who dislike nauseating remedies.

Scrofula, whether hedreditary or acquired, is thoroughly expelled from the blood by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

A MONO MILLS MIRACLE.

A TALE THAT READS LIKE A NOVEL.

The Story of George Hewitt—Helpless for Thirty Years—At Last Finds Relief in a Simple Way—The Story Corroborated by Reliable Witnesses.

Orangeville Post.

For several months past the Post, in common with many other journals of Ontario, has been publishing accounts of miraculous cures in various parts of Canada and the United States. We must confess, however, that we have paid little or no attention to these reported miracles, and probably our indifference would have continued to the end had it not been for a little incident that occurred in our office when Washburn's circus was in Orangeville a few weeks ago. Mr. Stewart Mason, a respectable young farmer of Albion township, called at our office on business on that occasion, and, as he was leaving we happened to ask him—a course generally pursued by the newspaper man in search of news—if there was anything new in his vicinity. He replied that there was nothing very startling, and followed this up by asking us if we had heard of the wonderful cure of a man named Hewitt at Mono Mills. We confessed ignorance, and then Mr. Mason said that from what he had heard it was undoubtedly another miraculous cure through the agency of Dr. Williams' famous Pink Pills. We had become so imbued with the idea that the various details of miracles in other parts were only a new and catching fake in the booming of patent medicines that we must admit Mr. Mason's intimation of a genuine local cure at once excited our interest. We took a note of the name and quietly made up our mind to investigate the matter at our earliest convenience. We came to the conclusion that there must be something in it, for Mr. Mason, a respectable and reliable young farmer, would not for a moment be suspected of equivocating on a matter in which he had any interest, much less in one which did not concern him. A few days ago the Post despatched a representative to Mono Mills to make a full investigation of the alleged cure of George Hewitt. He first called on Mr. John Aldus, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, and after few usual preliminaries asked him if he knew a man named Hewitt in the village. "Is that the old man that wasn't able to move a short time ago, and is now getting all right so fast?" queried Mr. Aldus. The reporter nodded assent, and in less time than it takes to tell it the quill-driver and the obliging Mr. Aldus were on their way to the neat and comfortable home of Mr. Samuel Benson, with whom it was learned Mr. Hewitt resided. The Benson home is in the eastern suburb of the village, and upon the reporter and Mr. Aldus calling, they were courteously received by the busy housewife, who was not too busy, however, to spare time to tell the Post about her interesting boarder and his miraculous cure. Mr. Benson was not at home, and the Post at once suspected that a gentlemen of between 50 and 60 years, who occupied a chair in a corner of the cosy room, was no other than the famous Geo. Hewitt. The surmise proved correct. Mr. Hewitt shook hands with the scribe, remarking as he did so, "I could not have taken hold of your hand a few months ago." When the object of the visit was announced, Mr. Hewitt, who is an intelligent, well educated man, began to dilate in glowing terms on the wonderful change that had come over him. "Shall I tell you the whole story?" asked he of the reporter, and upon the latter intimating his desire to hear all, Mr. Hewitt gave him the following narrative:

MR. HEWITT'S WONDERFUL STORY.

"In old Ireland, thirty years ago, I was scaling a stone wall one day when I fell backward and had my spine injured so seriously that a short time later I became almost entirely disabled. The fatal effects of the fall were gradually but only too rapidly felt, and looking back on a stretch of time extending five years over a quarter of a century, there is little more in the prospect than a picture of pain and gloom and suffering. About twenty-eight years ago I came to Canada and am known around the country here for miles. Until twelve years ago I could sit on a chair when placed on it, and manage to move myself around a little. Then even that comfort was suddenly taken from me. One day I was unintentionally thrown off the chair, and the second fall may be said to have done all but end my life. There was not a ray of hope for me, not a sign of a break in the dark clouds. Ever since then my pitable condition is known to every one in these parts. All power to use either arms or hands, legs or feet, completely left me. I could be propped upright in a chair, but something had to be put in front of me to keep me from falling forward, usually a chair like this," and as Mr. Hewitt spoke he lifted and drew forward a chair which was near him, "was placed in front of me, and on this I could rest my arms. Not only had all power left my limbs but every feeling also. Why, you could run a needle right into my flesh, and I would not know what you were doing unless I saw the act. A myriad of flies might light and revel on me, but I would be in happy ignorance of the fact. When I was laid in bed I could not get up or move unaided if I was given all creation. The only part of my system in which any strength seemed to remain was my neck, but at last even my head fell forward on my breast, and I was indeed a pitiable object. My voice, formerly as clear and ringing as it is to-day, seemed to go like the strength and feeling from the rest of me, and sometimes I would scarcely be able to make myself understood. I know you hear me with incredulity, for you can scarcely believe that the helpless and hopeless invalid I have described is the man who now sits before you, cheery, vigorous and hopeful. On the legs, which a short time ago were helpless and seemed useless, I can now walk with a little assistance, being able last evening to go to my room with my arm on Mrs. Benson's shoulder. Why, man, a few months ago I could not do that on the promise of inheriting the kingdom of heaven." Here Mr. Hewitt stamped both feet on the floor with much vigor and enthusiasm. "In those days," he resumed, "if I ever wrote anything it was by placing the handle of the pen between my teeth and getting through with the work in that way. Don't ask me if I tried the best doctors. I spent a fortune, thousands of dollars in trying to get cured. I consulted physician after physician, and paid some of them high fees for their services. They all failed, utterly and hopelessly failed, to give me the slightest relief. You can put that down in big black letters. Of course you have heard what has wrought this wonderful change in me. I read in the Post and other papers of the miraculous cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but I never dreamed that there was even a glimmer of hope for me through the use of this much advertised remedy. Miracles might be worked on every side of me, but there was no chance for me. I was like the doomed leper, a hopeless outcast, a being whose sufferings and disabilities would end only with the period of earthly existence. One day I picked up a paper and read the Saratoga miracle, that case where Mr. Quant was so miraculously restored by the Pink Pills, and at once concluded to try the amazing cure on myself. There must be some chance for me, I thought, when a man who was as helpless as Mr. Quant got such relief. I had no money, but I sent for Mr. W. J. Mills, our popular and kind hearted general merchant and postmaster, and he procured me a supply of the Pink Pills, and those I immediately commenced using with the joyful result I have described. My voice is fully restored, my head is upright once more, my chest (once so shrunk and hollow) is rapidly filling up, I am quickly securing the use of my legs and arms, and can feel the slightest touch on any part of me. Is there not a miracle here, indeed, and would I not be a base ingrate if I refused to sound the praises of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills? Even if I get no better than I am now I shall be forever grateful for what it has done for me. But I have great hope that the cure will go on until I am completely restored. I drove down to the village last 12th of July. It was in April I commenced using the Pills, and the friends who saw me could scarcely believe their eyes. It was like the appearance of a spectre or an apparition. "Oh, I tell, you sir," said the grateful man with enthusiam, "it is my full intention to write a pamphlet on all that I have gone through, on all that has been done for me, and you may be sure that the chief prominence will be given to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are a boon which cannot possibly be too widely known."

THE STORY CORROBORATED.

The reporter could scarcely believe that Mr. Hewitt's voice, now so silvery was ever the feeble, squeaky and indistinct organ of speech he had indicated, and the scribe questioned Mrs. Benson on this point. She said that every word that Mr. Hewitt had related was literally true, and on the question of the restoration of his voice she was corroborated by Mr. Aldous, and other respectable witnesses whom the reporter met in the village later in the day. Mr. Aldous said he was not surprised at the hesitancy of people about believing the wonderful cure. He did not think that he himself could credit it if he had not been an eye witness of the whole affair. He had known Mr. Hewitt for years, knew that his former utter helplessness was as he had described, and either he had to say it was not Mr. Hewitt who sat before him or to admit the miraculous escape. "These pills," said Mr. Aldous, "are certainly a wonderful remedy."

The reporter shook hands with Mrs. Benson and the cheerful Mr. Hewitt, and started forth into the street a doubting Thomas no longer, first promising to transmit to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Mr. Hewitt's lavish expressions of thanks for what their wonderful Pink Pills had done for him. "Here we are," thought the scribe, "in the cold and practical nineteenth century, but here's something right here in this little village of Mono Mills mighty closely bordering on the miraculous all the same."

After leaving the Benson home the reporter sought out Postmaster Mills, whom he found equally eloquent in his praise of the wonderful Pink Pills. "They're certainly a great remedy," said he, "and anyone that doubts this has only to be told about George Hewitt's case. I suppose you have heard the whole story, and there's no use in my wearying you. The Pills have undoubtedly worked the amazing change that is to be noticed in Hewitt's condition. It was I who first sent for the Pills for him, and I can certify to the striking change." The reporter further learned that the Pink Pills were kept for sale by Mr. Mills, and that the demand for them was large and increasing. The representative of the Post conversed with many other citizens of Mono Mills regarding Mr. Hewitt's case and found all agreed on the question of his former condition, his restoration and the remedy. Every one in and around the village, in fact, appeared to know all about the cure, and Pink Pills seem to be a household word in that section.

On the Post's return to Orangeville Mr. Richard Allen, ex-warden of Dufferin county, dropped into our office. The ex-warden resides about three miles from Mono Mills, and was asked if he had heard anything about what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for Mr. Hewitt. He had heard all about the case and was unhesitating in expressing the opinion that this was a striking instance of great results following the use of the pills. "I'm not much of a believer in wonderful cures I read about," said the ex-warden, "but I have known Hewitt for years and this change in him is certainly astounding." The Post was surprised to hear that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were extensively used in this section, but after the Hewitt narrative it was not surprised to hear of great beneficial results following the use of the great remedy. We are disposed to conclude from what some parties told us, that the base imitation business is already entered upon by unprincipled persons, and the public will do well to see that the Pink Pills they purchase have all the marks of genuineness advertised by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a patent medicine in the sense in which that term is usually understood, but a scientific preparation. They contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are a unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive ataxia, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, and the tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration; all diseases depending upon vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to the females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing their trade mark and wrapper, at 50c. a box, or six bottles for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive, as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

London's Latest Jewel Case.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Another crowd of curious spectators packed the court-room yesterday to listen to the closing evidence in the celebrated Lender-Smyth slander case. Both Mrs. Lender and Mrs. Smyth were accompanied by a troop of interested friends. The testimony was not nearly so sensational as on the previous days, and consisted mainly of an attempt to prove the original ownership of the jewel in question.

After the attorneys had summed up the respective sides of the case at great length the court adjourned.

Protesting Against the Home Rule Bill.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—At a meeting of the North of England Liberal Association yesterday a significant demonstration of discontent at Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule policy was made. The meeting decided to send a strong protest to the national Liberal federation.

THE HAND THAT PULLED THE WIRES

Member of Parliament Gives Some Inside History of Le Caron, the spy.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—There can be no doubt that Thomas Beach, alias Henri Le Caron, is a man who in his time has played many parts, and some of them are not precisely those which a man with a high ideal of life would be anxious to fill. He acted as a spy for the British Government for a considerable number of years, and although that may at times be a useful and necessary function, yet most people would prefer not to take it upon themselves.

A Successful Spy.

The special object for which Le Caron was employed was to keep a watch upon the Irish organizations which were "at war" with England, and it must be admitted that he carried out his share of the contract with a remarkable degree of success. He not only became a "head centre" of the Fenian organization, but he was made chief organizer of the "Irish Republican Army," and nobody from first to last had the least suspicion of his true character.

He took in the sharpest and shrewdest members of the Irish Brotherhood, from Mr. Alexander Sullivan to Mr. Michael Davitt. He heard all their secrets, was a party to all their plans, and regularly communicated his information to the British authorities. It seems incredible that, as man after man with whom he associated was betrayed, the treachery was never traced to Le Caron.

Dr. Gallagher, the dynamitard, explained to him the movement by which, in 1883, he proposed to scatter terror throughout England. Gallagher went over in command of seven members of the Clan-na-Gael, and before two months had passed he and three of his associates had been seized, tried and sentenced to penal servitude for life. But the hand that pulled the wires was still invisible.

Turning the Tables.

Once only Le Caron was charged with "suspicious acts," but he very soon turned the tables upon his accusers and found himself deemed worthy to receive the confidence even of the late Mr. Parnell.

It has been said that whenever three Irishmen are banded together in a conspiracy one is sure to turn out a traitor. But Le Caron was an Englishman who had lived long in Paris, and assumed a French name, under which he served in the United States army during the War of the Rebellion. His story was first told in full before the Parnell Commission in London. So far he has managed to elude the vengeance of his old friends—and dupes. He has certainly displayed great pluck and address, but I cannot help but wish him a better occupation.

What Caused the Riot.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—The populace of Granada were so enraged and disappointed at Queen Regent Christina's refusal to visit the city and attend the ceremony of unveiling Columbus' monument with King Alfonso, that they destroyed all adornments in the city for the occasion and damaged the houses of the Conservative leaders. The civic guard turned out and quelled the disturbance. In consequence of the disturbance the mayor of Granada has resigned.

The absence of the Queen Regent was due to her desire to spare King Alfonso fatigue after his recent illness.

The civil governor of Madrid has resigned in consequence of the rioting.

The miners convicted of rioting during the recent troubles here were released from the Albi prison to-day. They were presented with flowers by women and children, while the crowds sang revolutionary songs.

The Governor of Granada has been dismissed on account of the disturbance in the town of Granada. The town is now quiet.

The mayor of Madrid has resigned on account of the recent rioting in the Parado.

The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood-purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the Superior Medicine. Try it this month.

LONDON'S HOMELESS.

A Deputation Interviews the President of the Local Government Board.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—John Burns, M.P., Benjamin Tillett and other members of the London County Council to-day waited upon the Right Hon. Henry H. Fowler, President of the Local Government Board, and urged him to issue a circular to the local dock, gas, water and sanitary authorities requesting them to open their works for the relief of thousands of unemployed workmen.

The deputation also urged that overtime should be abolished in the Government offices. They urged that whatever measures were adopted for the relief of the unemployed, aside from the circular, must be national in character, for otherwise London would be flooded with unemployed men who would flock to the city from all parts of the country.

Some of the speakers gave statistics of the increase in the number of unemployed workmen throughout the country.

Mr. Fowler replied that he could not issue the circular asked for by the deputation, but he promised to consider the proposals advanced by the members, especially those that were national in their character.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

A Bill to Be Introduced in the House of Commons.

LONDON, Nov. .—At the coming session of Parliament Viscount Wolmer (Liberal-Unionist) will introduce in the House of Commons a woman suffrage bill which it is expected will receive 150 votes.

ALASI POOR YORICK.

No Wonder the Buffalo Residents Did Not Know Him Well.

BUFFALO, Nov. 4.—While opening a new street near the city line yesterday the workingmen plowed up skulls and other relics of human anatomy together with metal utensils.

The relics are without doubt the remains of Indians who lived in this vicinity before the coming of white men.

It is thought these were ancient Kah-Kwahs or Neutrals, who have been extinct since about the year 1680. They were a fierce, warlike and tall race, and had a settlement in this locality, which ran up into Canada. Little is known of them beyond the statements recorded by two Jesuit missionaries, for more than 200 years ago they were destroyed by the confederation, who made war upon them.

Uniform Rates for the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—There seems to be no likelihood that the eastern and western roads will agree on a uniform basis of passenger rates for the World's Fair.

THE WORLD OF WOMAN.

The outing dresses for girls are brighter and prettier this year than ever before. The designs are more elaborate and the coloring more striking, yet they are made of inexpensive materials. One of the prettiest outing dresses seen was made of white yachting linen. The skirt was made plain and short. The waist was cut to represent a blouse, and over it was worn a jacket of dark blue vicuna cloth. The jacket had wide revers of white silk and a dark blue necktie was knotted at the neck. Another outing costume having the Russian blouse effect was made of dark blue duck. The skirt was plain, but the blouse was trimmed with an exquisite gilt passementerie. The corselet belt was of solid bands of the passementerie.

A Growl.

"Adam," said Eve one afternoon a few days after they were evicted, "I wish you would go out and pick me some fresh fig leaves."

"That's it," growled the father of the race; "a woman doesn't get through trying on a new gown before she tires of it and wants another."

A Neglected Cold in the Head
leads to catarrh, perhaps consumption and death. Why neglect with such a safe, speedy remedy as Nasal Balm at hand? D. Derbyshire, president of the Ontario Creamery Association, says:—Nasal Balm beats the world for catarrh and cold in the head. In my own case it effected relief from the the first application. EAR SIRS,—I can highly recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as the best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used.
Miss F. STEVENSON, Oakland, Ont.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop their action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes, or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same.

A Sensible Man
would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

THE ORDER ISSUED.

OUR CATTLE CANNOT ENTER BRITAIN ON THE HOOF.

What the British Authorities Say—Three Thousand Cattle En Route to Britain Now Which Will Be Worth No More Than Their Hides.

OTTAWA, Nov. 5.—The Minister of Agriculture has received the following cable message from the High Commissioner: "I am informed that in view of the opinion expressed by law officers of the crown this morning the Board of Agriculture have decided that they have no alternative but to withdraw the privilege of free importation hitherto allowed Canadian cattle. The order will come into force on the 21st inst."

This is not quite as bad as it may be, although it is bad enough, as it exempts cattle in transit and gives shippers a little more than two weeks in which to get their cattle landed. As the shipping season is now practically over the effect on this year's trade cannot be great, and before navigation opens next spring it is hoped that the Imperial authorities will be able to see the injustice of their action and rescind it.

It is perfectly ridiculous to say that Canadian cattle landed in Scotland are affected with pleuro-pneumonia, when not a single case of pleuro can be found in Canada, and it is a perfectly well established fact that this disease is only communicated by actual contact. It certainly looks as if either the diagnosis made of the lungs of the sick cow was wrong or the cow itself was never sent from Canada at all, but was some diseased old Scotch cow smuggled into the Canadian herd for the express purpose of getting Canadian cattle scheduled. Such a trick might be played and escape detection.

Not the slightest trace of pleuro can be found in any part of Canada. Professors Smith and McEachran, with their assistants, have settled that as far as Ontario is concerned, and to-day the Department of Agriculture received a report by telegraph from Manitoba on the investigation made by a veterinary surgeon there as to the cattle from that province shipped by the Huronian. The whole of the cattle have been traced without finding the presence of any disease whatever.

The Star's Cable.

MONTREAL, Nov. 5.—The Star last evening has the following special cable from London regarding the scheduling of Canadian cattle:

The worst fears of the friends of the important Canadian cattle trade have been realized and Canadian cattle have been scheduled. In other words, the privilege allowed to Canadian cattle of being permitted to land and to graze on British pastures has been cancelled, and in future Canadian cattle immediately on arrival will be slaughtered in the lairs at the seaports, as are all the cattle imported into Britain from the United States and other countries.

An influential deputation representing all the leading councils of agriculture throughout the country, headed by the Duke of Westminster, waited upon Mr. Gardner, chairman of the Board of Agriculture, this afternoon and urged that the exportation of Canadian cattle on the present conditions be stopped. The recent suspected cases of pleuro-pneumonia in imported Canadian cattle were made the theme of the principal argument, and in addition it was claimed that there is a great risk of cattle diseases reaching Great Britain through Canada not enforcing sufficiently rigid regulations against admission of American cattle into the Dominion.

Absolutely No Alternative.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Mr. Gardner, Minister of Agriculture, replying to the Duke of Westminster's deputation Friday afternoon, said that after most anxious enquiry and patient consideration of the question in all its bearings the board concluded that the facts of the recent outbreaks were inconsistent with the reasonable security contemplated by law and that he had absolutely no alternative but to withdraw the privilege of the importation of cattle from Canada.

"Indeed," he added, "the order has already been signed."

Incompetent Inspection.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Mr. Herbert Gardner, President of the Board of Agriculture, received deputations from the Royal Agricultural Society, the Shorthorn Society, the Smithfield Club and Central Chamber of Agriculture to discuss the question of the prohibition of the importation of Canadian cattle.

The Duke of Westminster stated that the present system of inspection is utterly useless. That owing to incompetent inspection and the fact that it may take such a long time for the development of detectable symptoms of pleuro-pneumonia in an animal, quantities are being poured into England which are infected and only require time for the virulent development of the disease. The inspection of cattle poured into England from Canada and the United States was of necessity superficial, and the deputation therefore desired the Board of Agriculture to prohibit the importation of live cattle without an hour's delay.

Mr. Read, the eminent agriculturist, insisted that Canadian cattle should receive the same treatment as American cattle.

Sir John Swinburne argued that what the deputation asked was not protection from trade but protection from disease.

President Gardiner of the Board of Agriculture reported that he regretted that circumstances compelled him to even consider the question of restricting the import cattle trade, the annual value of which was £1,171,000. The restrictions asked for did not touch the importation of fat cattle killed at the port of arrival. There would be nothing to prevent the Canadians from fattening stock in Canada and sending even more cattle to Great Britain than at present. The board had arrived at the conclusion that it had no choice but to withdraw the order permitting the importation of live Canadian cattle, and the necessary orders to that effect were already signed. All cattle arriving from Canada must be killed at the docks.

3000 Head on the Way Over.

MONTREAL, Nov. 5.—The news has caused great excitement among Canadian live stock exporters, who declare that it will be a bad blow to the trade, which was one of the most profitable in the Canadian list of exports. A large portion of the Canadian cattle to England are stockers that are fed on British pastures and realize large values. Nearly 3000 head of these cattle are now on their way from this port to England, and if the Government decision is put into force they will be almost a total loss, as the only thing of any value about them will be their hides.

Not Worth the Trouble.

HARRISTON, Nov. 5.—The G.T.R. station was burglarized last night. The door of the safe was blown off. Only about $20 in cash was taken.

AGONIZING ECZEMA

Awful Suffering. Driven Almost Insane by Doctors. Tried Cuticura. Relief Immediate. Entirely Cured in 4 Months.

I suffered with the dreadful eczema for over six months, during which time I had consulted three doctors, and this tormenting skin disease had grown worse and worse on me in spite of all medical treatment. My condition was unbearable. My legs were swollen, my arms were raw, my face and neck full of eruption, which made me scratch until my whiskers were soaked and pasted with the sickly fluid. I could hardly bear my clothing. When night came I was afraid to go to bed, no sleep would come to relieve me, but the itching would increase. During day time I had no rest, I was all broken up, nervous to the highest degree, and nearly driven to despair. At that time I read about the CUTICURA REMEDIES, intended to try them, and dropped the doctors. After applying CUTICURA I had the first night's rest for several weeks. Using the CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with proper judgment, my condition improved slowly but surely day by day, until after three to four months' use of them I was cured. Our minister, Rev. J. G. Perrault, in Mandan, knows me and knows how I suffered. Any one may write to him and he will certify to the truth of this testimonial.

Would You Buy,

If the Prices Were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,500. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

ANOTHER BLOW TO TRADE

PROSPECTS OF AN INDUSTRIAL WAR IN ENGLAND.

The Result of a Determination of the Master Spinners to Reduce Wages Five Per Cent.—The Local Unions Have a Reserve Fund—Union Men Hope to Succeed.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—England saw Saturday the beginning of what seems likely to be the greatest industrial war that the country has known in many years. Cotton mills operating 14,000,000 spindles were shut down. Of the 44,000,000 spindles run in England the mill owners have a Masters' Federation, in which 20,000,000 spindles are represented. The owners of the 6,000,000 spindles still running will pay to the Federation a fine of a farthing a spindle per week for such as they keep at work.

There are about 24,000 operative spinners grouped into various local unions, all federated in an Amalgamated Association of Cotton Spinners. Their average earnings for a week of 60 hours are 32 shillings. The local unions have a reserve fund of £120,000; this will be further increased by the contributions of 4 shillings a week from 9000 members who will remain at work. From all sources £3400 will flow in weekly to assist the operatives.

The union men hope for one great result from the struggle, and that is that it will induce outsiders to join the unions with a view to sharing in the "strike-pay" later.

The Masters' Federation has received a severe blow at Bolton, where the District Employers' Association has declined to cooperate with the Federation in a scheme to reduce wages. Their 13,000,000 spindles are still kept busy, and the operatives are working on the old scale of wages. This is explained by the fact that at Bolton they use Egyptian cotton, which gives them a margin of profit; other Bolton masters using American cotton adhere to the Federation and have closed their mills.

If improvement in trade continues numbers of other mills will open, preferring to pay the Federation fine rather than allow their valuable machinery to lie idle, and the position of the Federation will be greatly weakened.

The lock-out is the result of a determination on the part of the master spinners to reduce wages 5 per cent.

The Outlook Is Not Rosy.

The Pall Mall Gazette says it has no doubt that the heavy tariffs on cotton goods abroad are at the bottom of the difficulty. If Mr. Harrison is elected, it adds, there is no chance of a better opening in the United States. Even if Mr. Cleveland is elected a reduced duty on British cotton goods is uncertain. With all the European markets practically closed against the British product, the outlook is not rosy.

IN THE ARCTIC ICE.

Thirty-five of the Crew Lost, Including Captain—48 Hours Clinging to the Mast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The steam whaler Beluga, which arrived from the Arctic Saturday, brings the news of the destruction of the whaling bark Helen Mac, Capt. Thaxter, and the loss of 35 of her crew. Only five of the vessel's men were saved. On Oct. 6, while the Helen Mac was engaged in cutting in whale, she was crushed in the ice.

The ice came in a rush and without warning, and the officers and men had no time to lower the boat and get away. The fifth mate, Ward, a boat steerer, Cook, Kershaw and two sailors were the only ones saved. They clung to the mainmast as it went over the ice. The rest of the crew, including Capt. Thaxter, were either crushed to death or drowned. For forty-eight hours the men clung to the mast and were finally taken off by the steam whaler Orca. The Beluga brought down with her the cook and a Japanese sailor of the Mac. Two others remained on the Orca and one went on the whaler Reindeer. William Robinson, the chief officer of the whaler F. A. Barstow, and John Gallagher of the Thrasher died in the Arctic.

Election Riot in Portugal.

LISBON, Nov. 7.—Municipal elections were held throughout Portugal to-day. The authorities adopted strong military precautions to prevent disorder. In spite of these precautions, however, an election riot occurred near Obidos, in which one man was killed and several persons were injured.

He Knew His Duty.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Lascar members of the crew of the wrecked steamer Roumania have reached Lisbon. They say that Capt Young did not leave the bridge from the time the steamer left Liverpool until she went ashore. He stuck to the bridge until washed off after the ship struck.

In Excellent Health.

ROME, Nov. 7.—The representative of the Associated Press determined to set at rest the rumors concerning the health of the Pope, called at the Vatican and obtained an audience with His Holiness. He found the Pope in excellent health.

Ten Lives Lost.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Ten persons lost their lives in the destruction by fire of the petroleum ship Norcross in the Seine. Some of the deck hands were burned to death.

Wise Provision for Progeny.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Times' Paris correspondent says the Chamber of Deputies has passed a bill prohibiting the employment of women in factories for one month before and after confinement, and ordering that one-half of the wages usually earned by them shall be paid by the State and one-half by the Department.

MERCIER'S REFLECTION.

WILL FORGIVE THE MATTER OF THE PROSECUTION.

But He Intends to Work the Crown in an Endeavor to Recover Damages for Illegal Prosecution from Attorney-General Casgrain and Others Against Whom He Feels a Grudge.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—A big demonstration was given in honor of ex-Premier Mercier on his arrival in Montreal from Quebec Saturday. A vast crowd, numbering nearly 15,000 people, gathered at the Dalhousie-square station of the Canadian Pacific Railway and awaited the arrival of the train from Quebec. The streets in front of the station were packed and a big crowd gathered on the station platform. Prominent amongst those present were Hon. James McShane, mayor of Montreal; J. P. Casgrain, President of the Young Liberal Club; Dr. Guerin and many others.

When Mr. Mercier alighted he was received with great cheering. He was escorted to the waiting room, where he was placed in a richly-upholstered chair.

Before the procession started he made a brief speech thanking his friends for the demonstration. The procession then started, Mr. Mercier being carried in the chair, followed by the members of the Club National bearing the Tricolor, the Laval medical students and a vast crowd.

The procession, headed by bands of music, marched through the principal streets to Mr. Mercier's residence in St. Denis-street, where he again addressed the crowd. He declared that he had been persecuted. His persecutors, instead of killing him, had done him a service. He would now take his seat in the Legislature and meet them face to face. The crowd cheered him wildly as he retired.

It is stated by Mercier's friends that he is not going to allow the matter of his prosecution to drop, but will take action against Attorney-General Casgrain et al for illegal prosecution, or whatever may be the proper term in law for the recovery of damages.

THE O'NEILL AFFAIR.

Miss Qwaite Tells Her Story in the Windsor Police Court.

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 7.—Edward J. O'Neill was tried in the police court here Saturday on a charge of abducting Miss Lulu Qwaite. A large crowd had gathered to hear the testimony, but Magistrate Bartlett ordered the court room to be cleared of everybody except the persons interested.

Miss Qwaite took the witness' stand and testified she had known O'Neill for six months. He had met her several times as she was coming out of the store of Kerby Bros., where he was employed. On Tuesday, Oct. 11, he made arrangements to meet her the following night to go to the people's course of lectures in Detroit. After supper she met him at the postoffice in Windsor, and they went across the river together. He took her to Grand Circus Park and induced her to sit down, after which he gave her some candy, which she ate and which made her drowsy. He had to assist her to get up and told her to go with him to the Griswold House to get some soda water. She said that when they reached the hotel he took her to the parlor and had the waiter bring two glasses. One contained water and the other some brown liquid. She drank some of each and her senses seemed to leave her. He then took her to what she thought was a bedroom and told her to sit down. That was the last she knew until the next morning. This occurred the night of Oct. 12, and he took her to the Griswold House. On the two following nights she said he had obtained such power over her that she could not resist him, although she tried to do so. I went to London and met O'Neill there, although he told me not to do so. I told him he had ruined me, and he said he would make it all right or would kill himself.

The prisoner was remanded to stand his trial at next sitting of a High Court on Dec. 13.

O'Neil says he does not blame Miss Thwayt's parents for feeling so bitter toward him, but thinks they have been deceived in the matter and will alter their opinion when the evidence for the defence is heard. The case will come before Judge Horne at Sandwich, Nov. 13.

SNOW IN WINNIPEG.

Hugh John Macdonald Will Resign His Seat Before Opening of Next Session.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 7.—Winnipeg had its first snow of the season Sunday and there is enough now to make sleighing. Weather throughout the province continues remarkably mild.

The banquet to Hon. T. M. Daly at Brandon was a great success, being attended by leading Conservatives from all parts of the country. Daly has accepted another banquet in his honor, to be held at Calgary next Friday.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney arrived here Saturday morning and left in the afternoon for British Columbia.

Hugh John Macdonald told your correspondent yesterday that he would positively resign his seat for Winnipeg in the House of Commons before the opening of next session. Neither Conservatives or Reformers appear to have a man available to contest the seat.

A party of 15 well-to-do farmers from the State of Washington have just arrived to settle in Calgary district, and report that 40 more of their neighbors will follow them shortly.

Elections in Italy.

ROME, Nov. 7.—The general elections for members of the Italian Parliament were held throughout Italy Saturday. Most of the members of the present Government were elected.

Fitted With Iron Cages.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—According to the Free Russia ships are being built on the Clyde for the Russian Government, which are fitted with iron cages, in which it is designed to transport political prisoners to Siberia by way of the Lena River and the Arctic Ocean.

It Will Please the Queen.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Marquis of Lorne is said to be writing a poem addressed to his mother-in-law, Queen Victoria.

A Derailed Postal Car.

HALIFAX, Nov. 7.—A postal car was derailed on the I.C.R. express due here at 1.30 Saturday. The train was delayed until last evening. Sir John Thompson, Hon. Mr. Chapleau and Hon. Mr. Bowell were among the passengers.

[illegible]

[illegible] Nov. 7.—Mr. Wm. Clark's felt factory, West Flamboro, about three and a half miles from here, was on Saturday the scene of a frightful accident.

About 2.45 p.m. Miss Maloney, one of the employees, had finished her work and was going down stairs to the washroom. She had to pass a shaft that was revolving at a very high rate of speed.

Her clothing got caught by the shaft and in an instant the unfortunate girl was wound round the shaft and crushed to death.

Miss Maloney was the sole support of her widowed mother.

A Millwright Killed.

BURR'S FALLS, Ont., Nov. 7.—A fatal accident occurred at William Milne's new mill, three miles west of Trout Creek railway station. F. Garber, a young millwright who made his home at Powassan, when working on the frame of the mill at an elevation of 25 feet from the ground missed his footing, fell and smashed his head on a rock beneath. Death resulted almost instantly.

THE IAMS CASE.

A Verdict of "Not Guilty" Given in Favor of the Officers.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.—In the suit of Iams, the National Guardsman who was indicted at Homestead and was ordered by Cols. Hawkins and Streator to be hung by the thumbs, the jury have found the officers not guilty of excessive aggravated assault and battery.

The lawyers for the prosecution say they have now to depend on the suit for damages for a vindication of their client. This suit will be brought soon in the United States court, Iams, the prosecutor, being now a resident of West Virginia. In that court suits for $10,000 damages will be brought, and the case will no doubt go to the Supreme Court of the United States before its final disposition, as both sides believe the question should be finally settled.

Probably Fatal Hunting Accident in East Zorra.

HICKSON, Ont., Nov. 7.—A serious shooting accident took place in this neighborhood Saturday. Mr. Robert Langdon, in company with Lappin and others, was out having a day's sport in the woods, Langdon, while reloading his double-barrel shotgun, allowed the fire arm to slip off a log, which caused the discharge of one of the barrels. The contents entered his leg above the knee. Some of his clothing was forced into the wound. Mr. Langdon is in a critical state.

SCORCHED IN HIS BUNK.

Seven Miners Severely Burned by Gunpowder in a Coal Mine.

NANAIMO, B.C., Nov. 7.—Saturday night when the shift was being changed in No. 1 shaft, one of those about to go on went into the electric car to be taken to his work. In doing so the lid of the powder can he had in his hand came off and at the same time he dropped the can on a lighted lamp. The result was an explosion which lit up the darkness and severely burned six other men. Dr. Callaghan, Dr. Praeger's assistant, was called, and had them removed to their homes and dressed their wounds.

THE HURONIA ASHORE.

Toronto Cattle Aboard Which May Be a Dead Loss to Shippers.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—The steamship Huronia of the Thomson Line is ashore a little above Hochelaga. She has 250 head of cattle on board for Aikins & Flanagan, and 249 for Bickerdike.

As the boat has to reach Liverpool by the 21st in order to save her cargo of live stock from slaughter, frantic efforts are being made to get her off, but without success.

STIFF AND STARK IN HIS BUNK.

Supposed Death of the Captain of a British Columbia Bark.

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 7.—Capt. Andrew Shaw was found dead in his bunk on board the schooner Venture last evening. The dead man was lying on his back fully dressed. His feet were crossed and his left hand clasped the end of his coat. A glass two-thirds filled with diluted carbolic acid, a plug of tobacco and a bottle of catarrh snuff were found on a table.

Shaw had evidently been dead three or four days.

While He Slept.

TORONTO, Nov. 7. — Peter Carter, 27 years of age and residing at 1 Lansdowne-avenue, went to bed in his usual health last night, but about 8 o'clock his friends discovered that he was dead. Coroner Lynd was called in, but considered an inquest unnecessary as heart disease was obviously the cause.

Mexican Tariff Changes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Bureau of American Republics has received a copy of the decree recently issued by the President of the Republic of Mexico, introducing important modifications in the existing tariff. Several articles now admitted free have been placed on the dutiable list, while the existing duties on others have been reduced.

PERFECT IN ALL THINGS

Are Both Nature and Religion—Eloquent Sermons by the Rev. G. McCall, of Havelock Yesterday.

The services at George street Methodist church yesterday were unusually interesting, it being the special quarterly services. The congregations were fully up to the average. In the morning love feast was held at 9.30 o'clock with a fair attendance, and at the close of the evening service the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered to a large number of communicants. Rev. Geo. McCall, B.A., B.D., of Havelock, a rising young minister of the Methodist church, who was recently ordained by the conference, preached both morning and evening. At the latter service he chose for his text Phillippians iv, 8: "Finally, brethren, whatsover things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsover things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsover things are lovely whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things." The speaker said that in this and the verse preceeding we had a distinction as to what God does in and for us and what we do for God. We were all joint labourers with Christ and we must balance our life by working in harmony with Him. We did not live or die to ourselves but all had our influences one upon another. Nature was full of intersecting agencies that correct and regulate one another. Every act was written and left its expression upon the other. Every breeze, every dew drop, every lightning flash, changed the whole face and expression of the universe. Every act gave man an associate with himself. God's thoughts were written down in nature, and under these were written man's. All have their witness on the face of the universe. Our senses were dull, but there were agencies at work in nature, but because of our shortness of sight although we could not see them, we did not doubt them. Every man had a cause and every cause had its effect. The things of the spiritual world were just as accurate as the things in natural, but they were subtle we human individuals could not trace them in all their intricacies. We did not deny their existence, neither do we believe that Christ himself changes. He was inimitable, eternal, constant. Not so with man. He was fickle and weak. Each thought was written down as inaffaceably as every thought was written by Him upon the face of nature. From every season of thought man returned with every character within upon that thought. They were presented to God for eternity and although seemingly insignificant yet they dwelt forever in us. We were the residunm of our own thoughts, and for every thought that had entered us from the day of creation. Prayers do not go unavailing when supplications in accordance with God's will cease to avail nothing. Then it was time to cease praying. God was not less accurate in the spiritual than he was in the natural world. Everything tells the story of redemption. God's spirit was working in us and bringing us assuredly to the gaol which He intended us to enter.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert.

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage, defying the utmost art of man to rival.

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

If you had taken two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring you would not have had that coated tongue or bad taste in the mouth this morning. Keep a vial with you for occasional use. dw

STOP IT AT ONCE!

That Cough is Dangerous.

On every hand, we meet with old and young who are troubled with hacking cough. A serious cold is firmly seated on the chest, which bids fair to promote terrible and fatal results.

Thousands every year are laid away in the silent grave, having died from pulmonary troubles and consumption. These diseases commenced with the ordinary neglected cough, sore throat and bronchial affections.

Had the proper means been used when the simple cough appeared, all trouble could have been easily and quickly banished.

A few doses of the celebrated and world-renowned Harvard Bronchial Syrup, would have been sufficient to eradicate every symptom of danger.

The curative properties of this wonderful cough remedy are really beyond calculation; and the great cures it has wrought are acknowledged by hundreds in our midst.

This the season when Harvard Bronchial Syrup should be used. Thousands are suffering from coughs, colds, sore throat and lung troubles, and should not lose a moment in making efforts to get rid of all danger.

Harvard Bronchial Syrup when used for a short time will drive off every danger, and will strengthen throat, chest and voice.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A large hunting party composed of the citizens of this place arrived home on Saturday. They report having a successful partridge hunt.

Mr. Thos. McFarlane of Ashton, brother of Mr. W. McFarlane, who accompanied the latter on his return from Ottawa, returned to his home on Tuesday. Miss Lillie McFarlane returned with him to visit friends in Ottawa and vicinity.

The open season for the killing of deer has now begun and judging from the number of hunters and hounds who are making their way to the haunt of the animal, matters promise to be dangerous for the deer.

Many cattle drovers are engaged in bringing out from the back townships large numbers of cattle which they have purchased for the market. Mr. Roseboro, Bridgenorth, has brought out forty head of beef cattle, all in prime condition, and Mr. R. and T. Howden have gone back to bring out their annual drove.

The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is proven by the many wonderful cures it is accomplishing. It is just the medicine for you.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and disputes, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

THE FACT

That AYER'S Sarsaparilla CURES OTHERS of Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, and Catarrh should be convincing that the same course of treatment WILL CURE YOU. All that has been said of the wonderful cures effected by the use of

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

during the past fifty years, truthfully applies to-day. It is, in every sense, The Superior Medicine. Its curative properties, strength, effect, and flavor are always the same; and for whatever blood diseases AYER'S Sarsaparilla is taken, they yield to this treatment. When you ask for don't be induced to purchase any of the worthless substitutes, which are mostly mixtures of the cheapest ingredients, contain no sarsaparilla, have no uniform standard of appearance, flavor, or effect, are blood-purifiers in name only, and are offered to you because there is more profit in selling them. THE BARRACKS BARRICADED.

Staff-Capt. Bolton, of Kingston, Conducts Services Here Yesterday.

The meetings at the Salvation Army Barracks on Simcoe street were characterized by more than usual interest and importance yesterday. It was the visit of Staff-Capt. Boulton, the newly appointed commandent of the Divisional office, Kingston, successor to Staff-Capt. Southall. Staff-Capt. Boulton has paid many visits to Peterborough and his visits have always been well received. He conducted four services at the barracks yesterday and all were largely attended. The army had three open-air parades, one in the morning, and another in the afternoon and still one more in the evening. The band headed the last two marchouts and about forty soldiers were in line. The kneedrill at 7 o'clock in the morning conducted by Staff-Capt. Boulton, was well attended by the soldiers, and a time of reverent service and consecration to God was spent.

At 11 o'clock a holiness meeting was conducted by the visiting officer, assisted by Adjt. Michiel. The building was crowded. Staff-Captain Boulton spoke on self-denial, advising all to practice it for the coming week, and strive to deprive themselves of something and devote the money to the cause of Christ to advance His kingdom here on earth. Staff-Capt. Bolton is an able, reasoning and convincing speaker, and of an out-spoken nature. His addresses were listened to with eager interest for their earnestness, impressiveness and power.

At the three o'clock afternoon meeting he spoke on the martyrs of old, the sacrifices they were compelled to suffer for their allegiance and faith in God and the noble spirit in which they died. He prayed that Christians of to-day might be possessed of more of the spirit, courage and grace of these great patriarchs of religion. Touching again upon self-denial work, he gave the reasons why he believed in it. He had been an officer at head quarters for two years and a member of the financial board, which meets twice every week. There are seven departments and a head for each department. Before anything is bought or paid, the matter must be handed in writing into the financial secretary. All these requests come up before the board, which as aforementioned meets twice a week, and are thoroughly enquired into and carefully considered, whether they can possibly do without such and such a thing before it is purchased. The captain said he fully endorsed this manner of doing business and for that reason he asked all to rally the coming week to the self denial plan.

In the evening a larger number still was present. The Staff-Capt. spoke on the theme that although God was merciful and ready and willing to forgive, still he would not, as many appeared to think, obliterate all our past actions and sins from the book of his remembrance. He sincerely implored all the erring to come and give themselves up to God and to sin no more.

Two special collections were taken up during the day in the interest of the self denial fund and large amounts realized. A special musical service led by the band under the leadership of Lieut. Bird, will be held on Thursday night at the barracks when special offering will be accepted for this fund.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 30c. and $1

It Beats Jack Frost.

DEAR SIRS,—We have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family and know it is a sure cure for lumbago and frost bites. My wife was so bad with lumbago that she could not straighten herself, and Yellow Oil completely cured her. It has been a fortune to us.

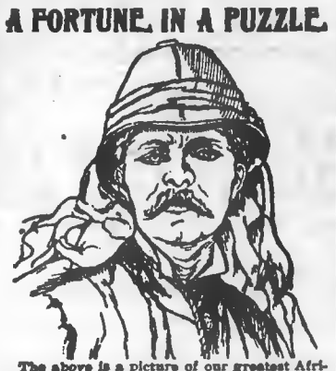
A FORTUNE IN A PUZZLE.



The above is a picture of our greatest African explorer, and in it can be traced the forms of two wild animals. Any one can readily see the face of the explorer, but it is difficult to distinguish the two animals.

The proprietors of STANLEY'S PRIZE MEDICINES will give an elegant UPRIGHT PIANO, valued at $500, to the first person who can make out the elephant and giraffe; to the second person will be given $100 IN GOLD; to the third an elegant GOLD WATCH; to the fourth a handsome CLOCK; to the fifth a SILVER WATER PITCHER, and to the next fifty $5 in GOLD. Every competitor must cut out the above picture and outline with a lead pencil the forms of the two animals, and enclose same with 15 U. S. two-cent stamps or 10 three-cent Canadian stamps for one sample bottle of the following prize remedies: "STANLEY'S PRIZE RHEUMATIC CURE," "STANLEY'S PRIZE CURE FOR CHRONIC and ULCERATED SORE THROAT," "STANLEY'S PRIZE CURE FOR DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA and CHOLERA-MORBUS," or "STANLEY'S PRIZE CURE FOR CATARRH." Select any one of the above remedies or as many as you desire, by enclosing 20c. for each one.

Address THE STANLEY MED. CINE CO., 308 Brush St., Detroit, Mich.

The person whose envelope is postmarked first will be awarded the first prize, and the others in order of merit. To the person sending the last correct answer will be given an elegant GOLD WATCH; to the next to the last a handsome SILVER WATCH; to the second to the last a handsome CLOCK; to the third to the last $10 IN GOLD; and to the next ten to the last $5 IN GOLD. We shall ALSO GIVE AWAY 100 EXTRA PREMIUMS (should there be so many sending in correct answers). The names of the leading prize winners will be published in the U. S. and Canada. The object in making the foregoing extraordinary offer is to place our Medicines in the hands of the many sufferers. This GREAT AND ONLY POSITIVE RHEUMATIC CURE has cost the proprietors an enormous amount of money, the ingredients of which are imported from Africa, where they are secured with great difficulty and expense. It is purely herbaceous, and put up in two compounds, one to be used externally and the other internally. Our OTHER REMEDIES are equally valuable. As to the reliability of our Company, we refer you to any leading wholesale druggist in Detroit, and will also furnish you with the names and addresses of parties who have been entirely cured by this most wonderful Medicine.

All prizes will be awarded strictly in order of merit and with perfect satisfaction. No charge is made for premiums in any way, they are absolutely given away to introduce and advertise our Medicines, which we are bound to do regardless of expense. Medicine is sent by mail post paid and duty free. When you answer the picture puzzle, please mention this paper. Address

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Improvement for All.

Trip to California.

Mr. W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announces a personally conducted party to all points in California, leaving Toronto 3 p.m., November 16th. The party will be taken in one of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrated tourist cars, which are furnished with regular outfit, similar to the first-class sleeper, the route being via Kansas City, where the only change in cars will be made. The special advantages thus offered are the through service with first class accommodation at a very cheap rate. For full particulars write or call on Mr. W. R. Callaway, No. 1, King street, East, Toronto, or T. E. Boddy, Peterborough.

No. 3 Ward Councillor.

Mr. Macfarlane Wilson was to-day, on the nomination of Mr. W. H. Robertson, seconded by Mr. W. H. Wrighton, elected by acclamation to succeed the late Mr. W. B. Ferguson as councillor for No. 3 Ward. Mr. Wilson is a good business man and the same abilities that achieved his success in business applied to the discharge of his civic duties will make him a valuable representative. He is a native of Arlidge, Oxford county, where he was born 34 years ago. He carried on an establishment similar to China Hall in St. Thomas for some years. About eleven years ago he removed to Peterborough, where he has built up a large and thriving business and has become materially identified in his interests with these of the town, which in his new position he will doubtless endeavour to promote with earnestness and ability. The EXAMINER congratulates Mr. Wilson on the public confidence he enjoys as implied in his unopposed election to the position of councillor for No. 3 Ward.

Mr. Geo. Sherin, of St. Paul, Minn., is in town. He is an old Peterborough boy and is doing well in the great western city. Mr. Sherin is one of the leading journalists in the United States.

Dr. Goldsmith and son, Ernest, returned this morning from a four months stay in London. They had a pleasant voyage by the Parisian. While in London it is understood that Dr. Goldsmith paid the study of medicine special attention, and that he successfully passed the highest examination given by the Royal College of Physicians and was elected a member of that body. It is said that Dr. Sir James Grant, Ottawa, is the only other physician in Canada that has the title, M.R.C.P., making only twa in the Dominion enjoying this honour. Dr. Goldsmith is a self-made man and is to be congratulated upon the high position his energies have secured him.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

Conclusion of the Business—The Docket Cleared—The Concluding Cases.

SATURDAY, Nov. 5th.

By the means of two courts sitting simultaneously the large docket of the assize court was cleared at about 10.30 on Saturday night. Judge Weller's side was disposed of at 6 o'clock, the last case to be tried being Norton vs. Smith, in which Thomas Norton, now of Havelock, formerly of Peterborough, brought action against Mrs. Delabesse Smith, administratrix of the estate of the late J. E. Smith, a hotel keeper of Cannington. The plaintiff claimed the amount of three promissory notes for $110, $30 and $50, with interest since maturity—1881—and four years' wages as hostler. It is claimed that the defendant has been distributing the estate without refrence to plaintiff's claim. Judgment for plaintiff for three year's wages and two of the notes $110 and $50. His Lordship entered judgment for $600 and costs.

Staples vs. McDonald.—The firm of Staples & Noble, Bethany, brought action to recover from Thomas McDonald, of Toronto, for breach of contract for the sale of a quantity of metal shingles and for breach of contract in relation thereto. Judgment by consent for plaintiff and $450 and costs. John Burnham, Q.C., for plaintiff; Bain, Laidlaw & Kapelle, Toronto, for defendant.

The last case on the docket was taken by Judge Falconbridge:

Robson vs. Gillespie—et al.—In this case Julia Robson, of Otonabee, enters action against Peter Gillespie and Walter Robson, executors of the estate of the late David Thomson and others, for the specific performance of an agreement entered into in the month of December, 1875, for the sale, by the late David Thompson, to the plaintiff, of part of lot 25, in the 13th concession of Otonabee. Judgment for plaintiff in the terms prayed for; the question of costs reserved. Mr. A. P. Poussette, Q.C., and Mr. W. F. Johnston for plaintiff; Mr. E. H. D. Hall for executors and Hall & Hayes for the infant defendants.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NOTES.

Outline of the Season's Plan of United Church Work.

Rev. W. M. Loucks who has been away for his holidays for about ten days, returns at the end of this week to resume his duties.

The services at the mission building Sherbrooke street, were taken in the morning by the Rector, and in the evening by Rev. C. B. Kenrick. These services are not only largely attended, but are of a most hearty and congregational character, each member of the congregation seeming to look upon themselves as active participants.

The first of a series of social re-unions and entertainments in connection with St. John's is being arranged for the 15th inst.

At the services yesterday there were large congregations, especially in the evening, when the church was filled. The special anthems sung at the dedication festival were repeated.

At the evening service the Rector outlined the general plan of work and special objects upon which the congregation were invited to concentrate their efforts during the season now begun. In the first place they had been confronted with Christ as the Divine leader, summoning men to worship sacrifices and enthusiastic devotion in His cause. To this call the congregation has already given emphatic responses, and there had ascended before their Divine Lord humble prayers, hearty praises, and hardly offered sacrifices. It is evident that they were determined to press forward in Peterborough, what they believed to be their Leader's cause. Secondly, the congregation had been confronted with religion in another attitude, coming to them as a divine society, and earnestly pleading for a realization of Christian fellowship, for an active, living membership in the society. And, though lately made, this appeal had already been warmly received by the congregation. Personal assurance of support had been given, interest had been shown, and practical action had been taken by many. The preacher felt confident that the members of St. John's were now determined to join efforts and unite to conquer narrow individualism, which was spoken of as one of the banes of our community.

After thus referring to their Leader and those of His divine society, Rev. Mr. Davidson pointed out that the congregation were confronted with religion in a another guise. She held before them that evening the high standard of righteousness, imperatively demanded by their leader in the ranks of His society, The Church was a sphere divinely hedged in, wherein righteousness was to be systematically striven for and in great measure attained—where the keeping of God's commandments was to be daily and to some extent successfully attempted.

The preacher concluded by urging his hearers not to confine their efforts to any one of these claims, they were each but different sides of truth and one would fall without the support of the others. Striving for them together, however, their religion would be healthy and vigorous. Special glories and encouragements came for each view. Take altogether this cause in its fullness must prevail, victory was certain all along the line. It only remained to be seen who would be among the victors.

The special offertory for the reduction of the parochial debt of St. John's was largely increased yesterday, making the total amount of the dedication festival offertory considerably above $900.

THE DEDICATION SERVICE

Of St. Andrew's Church new Sunday School Rooms was Held Yesterday—The Sermon Preached by Rev. J. C. Turnbull.

St. Andrew's church new Sunday school was formally dedicated yesterday. A description of the building in its enlarged and beautiful state has already appeared in these columns. The rooms were filled to the doors by the Sunday school scholars, their teachers and friends. Rev. J. C. Turnbull, M. A., LL. B., pastor of the West Presbyterian church Toronto, preached the dedicatory sermon, basing his remarks on Solomon ii, and 4th verse:

"He brought me to the banqueting house and his banner over me was love."

The speaker in his introduction described the various incidents and higher stages through which the Christian passes in Bunyan's Pilgrim Progress, till the reader finally grows impressed and convinced of the truths in the book, and says it ends well. He sees in the book a light and it has come in his opinion to hold a place next to the Bible. Many have dealt with the books of the Bible the same as Pilgrim's Progress, and asked what right has the songs of Solomon to occupy a place in its pages, and with ruthless hand thrown it aside when reading the songs. Sometimes the bride speaks and at other times the bridegroom is speaking to us. The bride is the Church of Jesus Christ, and his banner over it was love. This banner of God had its characteristics and its signification. The Christians, banner is waving over the Christian church and on its folds is inscribed the word "Love." God's characteristics were many, justice, mercy and grace, but none were inscribed on this banner except Love. On this banner we saw one exalted above all principalities and powers. The preacher then described in loving terms the life of that one from His birth in the cradle to His awful sufferings in the Garden of Gethsemane, to His trial before a biased jury and the most vascillating judge that ever sat upon a bench, and His dying for the sake of the iniquitous, the scourging and tortures He endured. What did all this wonderful life mean? The great characteristic of the banner that floated over the Christian church was love. What was the signification of the banner, what did it [illegible]? It declared that we were Christ's army. The question was often asked why God's kingdom had not made faster progress. It was because so many Christians had remained inactive as Christians, and the work of evangelization left to the few. We now live in a day that is improving, more are engaging in the work of God and joining the Christian army, and as such each has a place to fill. If we failed to do our duty no one else could do it for us. We should all see that we fought manfully in our places. This banner told us that as christians we are a unit, for his banner over us was love. The word banner was from the same derivation as the word band and meant union. All those who marched under it were banded together. All should remember that the Church of God though different in many forms and creeds was a unit, was one. Only one church had the right to claim to be the church on earth, to the exclusion of all other denominations. It was composed of the faithful ones by whatever name they might be known, believing in the one Bible and worshipping the one true God. The banner presages victory; when it waved over us it meant that the host was victorious. The speaker described the downfall of Saul and how he became such a power for Christ marching forth in the general army of the Lord. As Christ's banner floats over us it denotes that we have been conquered from the great army of sin. It not only makes a declaration for the past, but also for the future. It proclaims victory in anticipation. Let us not turn back. Christ's church stands fairer and more glorious to-day than ever before. Its font is feeding many, many hungry souls. It has this banner of love over us and it is going forth to conquer. What are you and I going to do in response to this wonderful love of Jesus Christ? He asks for our love. It is the only thing that he can ask for and the only thing that will satisfy Him. He hoped that the walls in which they were worshipping to-day might be dedicated to the service of God and that as the little ones assembled therein Sabbath after Sabbath they might be trained in the way of truth and righteousness and give their love to God.

GRIP ON THE FUND.

Paris Brokers Regard the Irish Party With suspicion.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Munro & Co., the brokers of Paris, who have in their possession the money known as the Paris fund, belonging to the Irish Parliamentary party, have written a letter to Justin McCarthy, in which they say they have consulted counsel in regard to the release of the fund. The counsel advises them that they cannot part with the money unless authorized to do so by the Tribunal of the Seine. No compromise between the two sections of the Irish Parliamentary party regarding the disposition of the fund, they add, can free them from responsibility.

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

HARD ON SEALERS.

Parliament Will Probably Assemble in the Middle of January.

OTTAWA, Nov. 5.—To-day's Canada Gazette will contain a proclamation further proroguing Parliament pro formâ until December 19th. It is expected that the next proclamation will call Parliament for despatch of business, and that the date will be the 12th or 19th of January.

Notice that Hon. T. A. Bernier has been called to the Senate will appear in to-morrow's Gazette.

Sealers appear destined to have a hard time of it. The British, American and Russian Governments are keeping them out of Behring Sea. Recently it was announced that the Japanese Government was sending a man-of-war to protect the seals in Japanese waters, and now comes a despatch from Lord Ripon, which will appear in to-morrow's Gazette, transmitting a note from the Chilian Minister in London, announcing that his Government has absolutely prohibited fishing for sea lions, seals and sea otters in the Archipelago of Chiloe, the Island of Juan Fernandez and the territory on the Straits of Magellan.

Found a Burglar in His Room.

GUELPH, Nov. 5.—James Donohoe of the Eramosa town line was awakened at an early hour yesterday by a burglar who was ransacking a bureau in the room. Donohoe jumped from bed and the burglar dashed down stairs and out of a door which had been left open. Donohoe pursued and captured the man, who gave his name as Daniel Bruce. On being searched $36.25 was found on him, which he had stolen from Donohoe's house. He was jailed.

GLADSTONE'S OPINION

Gladstone says: "You know a good deal about the position of an Insurance Company when you know

Its Date!

Its Income!

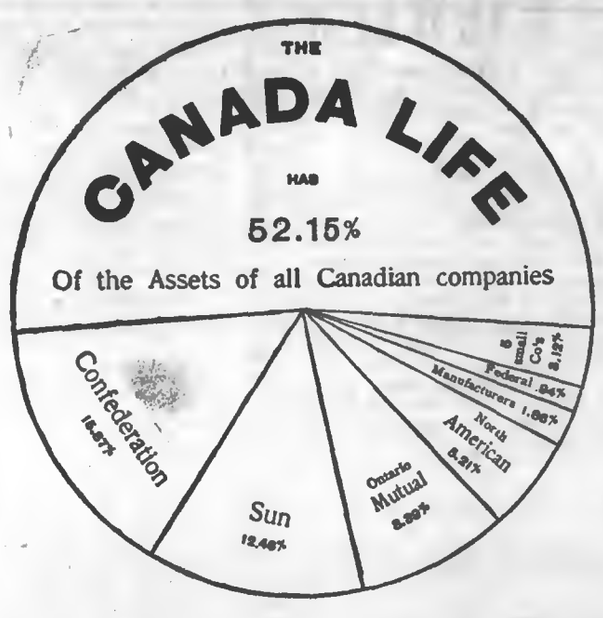
Its Accumulations!

From the relation of these three, one to the other, you know pretty nearly the state of the Company."

Gladstone would place

THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

At the head of all Canadian Companies—for it is by far the oldest Company. Its Income is about two and one-half times greater than that of any other Canadian Company, and its Assets are greater than the combined Assets of all other Canadian Companies, as shown in the following diagram:



This Diagram is based on the following table compiled from the last Government Blue Book:

ASSETS OF CANADIAN LIFE INSURANCES COMPANIES.

Being extensive dealers in only Reliable and Standard makes of

GRAND, SQUARE AND UPRIGHT

PIANOFORTES

we are able to offer advantages to the public, which are impossible to the ordinary dealer.

Our instruments have an established reputation for excellence of TONE, TOUCH, WORKMANSHIP, and DURABILITY, and Every Instrument is Fully Warranted for Seven Years.

Chief among our instruments which have received preferences from the best musical artists, stand

THE HEINTZMAN —AND— EVANS PIANOS.

These instruments have been before the Canadian public for a number of years, and the great praise bestowed upon them by musical experts, along with the continued increase of sales year by year, testify to their high excellence.

The aim of the manufacturers of these two favorite Pianos has been to produce the best instruments at a moderate price. They are of solid build, warranted for durability, of handsome appearance and finish; pleasant touch and quick repetition.

TONE: rich, full, bright and resonant. Beautifully signing and sympathetic in quality. The prices are moderate, and within the reach of the majority of purchasers.

We are exclusive agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

KARN ORGANS

which stand ahead of all competitors. We have also at all times in stock, the well-known and popular

THOMAS ORGANS,

AND OTHER MAKES.

Our large and well-lighted show room enables us to carry the Largest Stock ever shown in Peterborough, and as regards Prices, we have only to say that we positively will not be undersold.

Those not having the inclination or the means to purchase an instrument outright, can, by a small monthly investment, secure a Piano or Organ on rental until paid for.

JACKSON & CO. wish it to be distinctly understood that in cases of emergency, they are desirous of dealing justly and fairly with their customers. They do not want both the money and the instrument

NOTICE.

To insure confidence and satisfaction, Jackson & Co. are willing to exchange any instrument purchased from them within twelve months, if not approved of, themselves bearing all expenses of carriage, and allowing all that has been paid, towards any other instrument selected.

THE DEACON CASE.

The Mother Takes Her Child From the Convent and Flits to Eastern.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—Another great sensation has developed in the Deacon case. As soon as the Tribunal on the Seine delivered its decision dismissing Mrs. Deacon's suit for divorce and ordering that the oldest child, then in a convent, be delivered up to Mr. Deacon. Mrs. Deacon hastened secretly to the Convent of Our Lady of the Assumption, in the Department of the Marine.

When Mrs. Deacon arrived the news of the court's decision was unknown at the convent. Mrs. Deacon was admitted as usual. Mrs. Deacon had a carriage at the gate and she asked and obtained leave to take the older of the children to ride, and after kissing the younger tenderly she walked with the former to the carriage and drove away. Mr. Deacon arrived shortly afterwards only to find that the child was gone.

UNDER A STORM.

A Raft Containing 1,800,000 Feet of Lumber Abandoned.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Nov. 5.—A fierce norther is sweeping Lake Superior Friday, driving all craft to the nearest shelter. The steamer Massilia, bound for Two Harbors, gave up the struggle when off Stannard Rock, put back and tried to make the portage. Finding that impossible she had to run before the storm to this harbor.

The tugs Holland and Colton were compelled to let go a raft containing 1,800,000 feet of timber off Presque Isle.

The steamers Pioneer and Empire State left here Thursday, but put back yesterday morning.

ADIPOSE TISSUE.

Prevents a Charge of Shot From Killing a Victim of Carelessness.

SHELBURNE, Nov. 5.—A shooting accident is reported from Sunderland. Fred Tucker and a young man named Robson had been out hunting. On the return home they had reached a clearance, when Tucker stopped to fill his pipe, holding his gun under one arm. In rubbing the tobacco between his hands he moved his arm in such a way as to discharge the gun. Robson was a little distance ahead and received the scattered charge in his back. At last accounts we heard he was likely to recover. Being rather fat the shots did not penetrate to any vital parts.

Markham Curling Club.

MARKHAM, Nov. 5.—The annual meeting of the Markham Curling Club was held last evening, when the following officers were elected:

W. H. Hall, president; R. J. Carson, vice-president; James J. Gleeson, secretary-treasurer.

Fitz-simmons Will Fight Hall.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Judge Newton has cabled to Jim Hall at London that Fitzsimmons has decided to fight Hall at New Orleans for $40,000. The Coney Island Club bid up to $45,000, but Fitzsimmons refused to fight at the island. His own determination put an end to the contest.

Electrical Notes.

The British Government is to connect the various lightships of the Goodwin Sands with the shore by means of a submarine telegraph cable.

By order of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia all the theatres in Washington must be fitted throughout with electric lights.

The necessary amount of money for placing the proposed search-light on the top of Mount Washington is said to have been subscribed. The light will be the highest and strongest in the world and will be visible in five States and parts of Canada.

A telephone line between Paris and Antwerp has recently been opened. Half a crown is charged for five minutes' conversation.

A verdict of $2,500 was recently awarded the plaintiff in a suit in Toledo brought against an electric light company for assigning the plaintiff to do dangerous work in connection with line wires, whereby he received some injury.

The second survey for the cable to be run between San Francisco and the Hawaiian Islands has been completed and shows a distance to be run of 2,060 miles in water varying in depth from 976 to 3,228 fathoms.

The question of an antidote for an electric shock is now being agitated. An amateur investigator is reported to have found that the insertion of aromatic spirits of ammonia into the body of a bird which had received a shock brought the animal back to life after all signs of animation had disappeared. The subjects affords a good field for investigation.

Dr. Butler's Golden Pills have earned a great reputation wherever employed. As a nerve tonic and blood builder they are unrivalled. They increase the appetite and promote a healthy performance of all the functions of the body. A thoroughly scientific preparation, they never fail to effect a cure if directions are faithfully carried out. Nothing harmful in their composition. The most delicate system will be benefitted. Ask for Dr. Butler's Golden Pills and take no others.

The Head Surgeon

of the Lubon Medical Company is now at Toronto, Canada, and may be consulted either in person or by letter on all chronic diseases peculiar to men. Men, young, old or middle-aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess or overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of memory, bad dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, emissions, lack of energy, pain in the kidneys, headache, pimples on the face or body, itching or peculiar sensation about the scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, specks before the eyes, twitching of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bashfulness, deposits in the urine, loss of will power, tenderness of the scalp and spine, weak and flabby muscles, failure to be rested by sleep, constipation, dullness of hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, excitability of temper, sunken eyes surrounded with leaden circle, oily looking skin, etc. are all symptoms of nervous debility that lead to insanity and death unless cured. The spring or vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence. Those who through abuse committed in ignorance may be permanently cured. Send your address for book on all diseases peculiar to man. Books sent free sealed. Heart disease, the symptoms of which are faint spells, purple lips, numbness, palpitation, skip beats, hot flushes, rush of blood to the head, dull pain in the heart with beats strong, rapid and irregular, the second heart beat quicker than the first, pain about the breast bone, etc., can positively be cured. No cure, no pay. Send for book. Address M. V. LUBON, 24 Macdonell ave., Toronto, Can.

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1892.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece; frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

SCIENCE AND PROGRESS

The exact similarity in conditions attending the repetition of experiments is a great element of success. One should be very careful before owning to a conclusion that his premises are correct. A striking example of this was recently presented to my notice.

A dentist came into my laboratory the other day and said:

"See here, I can't, for the life of me, understand what is the matter with me. All my patients complain that when I first put an instrument into their mouths it pains them fearfully. I've thought it all over, and have come to the conclusion that my instruments must be magnetised or bewitched, or I am. I've brought over some of them to have them examined. Just let me show you what I mean. Have you got a sensitive tooth?"

I pointed to a molar then under process of repair. He unwrapped some of his instruments, and selecting one, gently inserted it into my open mouth and touched the filling in my tooth. All I felt was the instrument touching the filling. I experienced no pain.

"Good heavens, man!" said he, "what nerve you have. What fortitude. What—"

"Nonsense," I exclaimed, "I didn't feel anything."

"Well," said he, looking puzzled, "you are the first man that hasn't yelled when I touched his tooth since I moved into my office. I can't understand it."

I told him I would come around to his office in the afternoon and see if I could find out what was the matter.

Later in the day I called to see him.

"Well have you got it yet?" he asked as he walked across the carpet and shook hands with me?"

"Nothing but the electricity."

"That's just it. Every time you walk across the floor to your cabinet for an instrument you get a small charge of electricty in your body, and naturally, as soon as you touch the sensitive tooth of the patient, the delicate nerve received the charge through your instrument—hence the pain. The reason why I felt no shock in the laboratory was simply because there was no carpet for you to rub your feet on before you touched my tooth."

Here we see that merely the want of a carpet on the floor altered entirely the conditions for a successful repetition of an experiment that had apparently no connection with the presence of a carpet.—Julian A. Moses, Electrical Review.

Effects of Lightning.

M. Boens gives an account in the Belgian medical Bulletin of two young women who were struck by lightning on July 27, 1891, at Nalinnes, Namur, during a violent storm. They were taken to the village doctor who treated them continuously for two hours, when signs of returning life were seen, and at three o'clock next morning consciousness of both returned, one being soon well, but the other being left with a profound sciatica. Her tongue was also paralyzed for two months, but both eventually recovered. The moral which M. Boens justly emphasizes is that efforts to revive those struck by lightning should not too soon be given up, as continuous attempts to restore respiration during several hours may result in return of life.

Preserving Ropes.

In order to insure more safely in ropes used for scaffolding purposes, particularly in localities where the atmosphere is destructive of hemp fibre, such ropes should be dipped when dry into a bath containing 20 grains of sulphate of copper per litre of water, and kept in soak in this solution some four days, afterwards being dried; the ropes will thus have absorbed a certain quantity of sulphate of copper, which will preserve them for some time both from the attacks of animal parasites and from rot. The copper salt may be fixed in the fibres by a coating of tar or by soapy water, and in order to do this it may be passed through a bath of boiled tar, hot, drawing it through a thimble to press back the excess of tar, and suspending it afterwards on a staging to dry and harden. In a second method the rope is soaked in a solution of 100 grammes of soap per litre of water.—English Mechanic.

He'd Asked Papa.

A young man, his eye blackened, his collar and necktie disordered, his coat torn, his hair tossing wildly, and wearing no hat, was rushing along one of the streets of the Back Bay when he encountered his best girl. "Oh! Henry!" she exclaimed in an agony of distress, "I know it all! You have seen father."

THE SCOTCH LIBERALS.

Protest Against the Rescheduling of Cattle from Canada.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Herbert Gardner, President of the Board of Agriculture, may expect a storm of protests from Scotch Liberals against his hasty action in prohibiting the free importation of Canadian cattle and ordering that they be slaughtered.

This action will impose a heavy burden on the taxpayers as the cost of slaughtering will have to be borne by them, as will also the expense of compensation to the owners.

The opinion of Dr. Williams regarded as the first authority on cattle diseases in the Kingdom, coincides with that of the best American and French authorities, that the cornstalk disease is not contagious. He has admitted that many of the animals slaughtered were suffering with lung defects, but contended that these were merely due to the strain of a long voyage and exposure.

The deputation headed by the Duke of Westminster, which waited upon Mr. Gardiner Saturday to urge the slaughter, are credited with having a motive for their course. It is said the societies represented by that deputation feared that the importation of Canadian stock would have an important effect upon the trade in home pedigree stock.

The incident will quicken the demand for Scotch Home Rule, which would give Scotland her own board of agriculture.

A deputation from the Scottish Home Rule Club waited Saturday upon Sir George O. Trevelyan, Secretary for Scotland, and claimed that the question of Scottish Home Rule should have attention simultaneously with or directly after Irish Home Rule.

Takes Effect in Two Weeks.

The order made by the Imperial authorities scheduling Canadian cattle does not come into force until the 21st of the present month. This will allow all the stock in transit to be landed, and will in this way avert a very serious loss to cattlemen, there being fully 5000 head on the ocean.

This season's trade is over, and before next year's opens the hope is expressed by shippers that the Imperial authorities will have rescinded the order.

Dr. Andrew Smith and his assistants have made a thorough investigation and have settled that as far as Ontario is concerned no pleuro-pneumonia exists.

Mrs. Deacon Will Appeal.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Deacon will appeal from the verdict given against her by the Tribunal of the Seine in the action brought by her for a divorce from her husband. The appeal will be heard next Wednesday. Mrs. Deacon's lawyer Saturday offered to surrender the child, which she abducted, but he named certain conditions that Mr. Deacon refused to agree to and the negotiations fell through.

The Times' Paris correspondent, commenting on the latest phase of the Deacon case, says: "Mrs. Deacon will be punished unless she surrenders the child she abducted. But as she has hitherto altogether failed to excite sympathy here, this move, if she intended by it to get herself imprisoned, may not have been unwise from her point of view."

The Thunderer Suspicious.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Times, referring to the outbreak of pleuro-pneumonia and the prohibition of the importation of Canadian cattle, urges that the British Government issue a permanent order for the slaughter of all foreign cattle at the port of entry.

"It is impossible," says The Times, "to guard against the smuggling of cattle from the United States into Canada. All the proclamations that could be issued in Washington or in Ottawa would fail to give us reasonable security against the disease."

Twenty-Two New Cases.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—The cholera statistics for the past 24 hours show seven new cases and one death.

BUDA PESTH, Nov. 6.—There were 15 new cases of cholera and four deaths here during the past 24 hours.

At Bondeville, near Rouen, there have been no more new cases of cholera, but four deaths have been reported.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

RICHARD CLARKE.

The Editor of The Grange Monthly Suddenly Expires.

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—The many friends of Richard R. Clarke, editor and manager of the official Grange organ of this city, will regret to learn of his sudden death, which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning. Mr. Clarke had not for a long while enjoyed good health, and was subject to a throat affection. On Saturday he was occupied at The Sentinel office till noon. Then he returned home and complained of feeling unwell. He had difficulty of breathing and complained occasionally of a choking sensation. He retired to rest early, but these unfavorable symptoms increasing a doctor was sent for. Before he arrived Mr. Clarke was dead, the paroxysm coming quite suddenly. Deceased, who was in the prime of life, was brother of ex-Mayor Clarke, M.L.A., and Charles H. Clarke, also of The Sentinel staff.

Nine Fires in All.

TORONTO, Nov. 7. — The firemen were kept hustling Saturday and Sunday, there being no less than nine alarms, but only in one instance were they called upon to make much of a fight.

A fire which was attended with considerable loss and that threatened to cut a big swathe in the block was discovered in the building occupied by the Anglo-Colonial Manufacturing Co., 108-110 King-street west, at 1.48 yesterday morning. The fire broke out in the ground floor and shot up the elevator shaft, spreading to every flat. When the firemen reached the spot flames were curling out from every window, reaching far into the street. There was a considerable quantity of paints and oils stored in the building, and this naturally added to the fierceness of the flames. The fire was confined to the building, but it took the firemen a couple of hours to extinguish it. The loss is estimated at $5000 The cause is unknown.

A Bank Inspector Dead.

TORONTO Nov. 7.—Mr. Walter Darling, Inspector of the Dominion Bank, died last night at 6 o'clock at his home, Glen Stewart, Norway. He had been a sufferer from diabetes for the last four years, and for months back he was unable to attend the bank. He was of quiet address, modest bearing, and popular with the other officials and customers of the Dominion.

Mr. Darling was the youngest son of the late Rev. W. S. Darling, rector of Holy Trinity, who died some years ago. His surviving brothers are Mr. Frank Darling and Rev. Charles B. Darling, both of this city. Mr. Darling married a daughter of Mr. W. G. Cassels and leaves a family of young children.

AN OPENING TEA

Held in St. Andrew's School Room Last Evening—An Enjoyable Affair.

Notwithstanding the unfavourable weather last evening, a large number assembled in the new Sunday School rooms to enjoy a social time. At 8 o'clock the Pastor, Rev. A. McWilliams, took the chair, and the proceedings were opened by singing the long metre doxology, after which the Rev. Mr. Goldsmith led in prayer. Then came the chairman's address, after which the following programme was proceeded with:

Instrumental duet, by Mrs. Brodie and Miss Edmison.
Speech by the Rev. Mr. McEwan, of Lakefield.
Vocal solo by Mr. Corbin.
Speech by the Rev. Mr. Thom, of Ashburnham.
Instrumental solo on the piano by Mr. Monck, of Toronto.
Speech by the Rev. Mr. Goldsmith.
Solo, vocal, by Miss Harris, which was encored.
Speech by the Rev. Mr. Trotter, of the Baptist church.
Instrumental duet by Miss Ketchnm and Miss McMcFarlane.
Solo, vocal, by Miss Hagarman, encored.
Speech by the Rev. Mr. Turnbull of Toronto.
Instrumental duet by Mr. Corbin on the mouth organ and autoharp, by playing both at the same time.

It would be impossible to criticise this lengthy and excellent programme, yet it is difficult to pass it without emphasizing the special pleasure enjoyed by all in listening to the instrumental music on the piano by Prof. Monck. This was a rare treat, and those who missed it missed a great deal. Prof. Monck is one of the first pianists in Canada. The piano was a Heintzman, an excellent instrument, kindly furnished for the occasion by Mr. H. W. Burnett, agent for the company here. It need hardly be said that Prof. Monck was repeatedly encored. Special mention might here also be made of the instrumental music furnished by Mr. Corbin on the mouth organ and authoharp. It delighted all and was encored.

Miss Fawcett and Mrs. Green were unable to be present, as expected, to sing a duet. Rev. Mr. Locke was also detained, being engaged in special meetings. The Rev. Mr. Edwards was engaged until late but came in just at the close.

After the programme was ended the ladies furnished cake and coffee to the audience, and all enjoyed for half an hour a very pleasant social time. St. Andrew's is to be congratulated on the very successful opening of their handsome and commodious new Sunday school rooms.

GOSSIP FROM OTTAWA.

PROBABLE CHANGES IN THE SUPREME COURT.

Sir John Abbott's Health Has Greatly Improved and He Will Probably Continue as Premier for Another Session at Least—Changes in the Composition of the Supreme Court.

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—It is just one month since Premier Abbott left Ottawa en route for England, and beyond a telegram announcing his arrival it is said that none of his colleagues have heard from him. Advices from other sources, however, say that he has greatly improved in health, and that he will return to Canada earlier than was expected when he left.

As to what his future course will be there has been no intimation since he left, but the impression is gaining ground here that, as his health has improved, his views re the question of his resignation have become modified, and it is now expected that he will retain the premiership at least until the close of next session.

In this event there is very good reason to believe that Sir John Thompson may listen to the advice of some of his friends and accept the Chief Justiceship; and should he do so it is not at all improbable that there will be considerable change in the composition of the Supreme Court, two, and perhaps three, of the judges retiring and their places being taken by younger men. In this connection there is a rumor that Judge Fournier may apply for superannuation and his place be taken by Mr. Girouard, M.P. for Jacques Cartier.

NORTH VICTORIA.

A Number of Perjury Cases Now Being Tried at the Lindsay Assizes.

LINDSAY, Ont., Nov. 7.—The Lindsay Fall Assizes opened Monday, Justice Falconbridge presiding. Mr. M. G. Cameron of Toronto has charge of the Crown business. The docket is heavy, including 17 civil cases.

The case of Allan against the Dominion Bank, to recover the loss of a debenture for $7000, has been postponed, to be tried at Toronto in January.

A number of perjury cases arising out of the preparation of the last North Victoria lists in the Dominion elections will be tried at this court. On these lists the recent election between Mr. Hughes and Mr. Barron was held.

EAST YORK TRIAL.

The Petition Dismissed and the Sitting Member Confirmed in the Seat.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—Yesterday morning by the 7.45 train on the Midland Chief Justice Boyd, Mr. Justice Meredith and Mr. Justice Falconbridge were passengers. Just as the train was leaving the Union Station and crossing York street the three judges were surprised to see their Brother Rose coming down that street seated on a carter's wagon alongside the driver. The rig was driven furiously. The learned judge jumped from the high seat and rushed for the Grand Trunk train east, not having any opportunity of explaining to the chief justice his unwonted appearance in a carter's van. But the three judges attributed it to the disorganized street car service or to an errant cabby. Anyway, Judges Boyd and Meredith went on to Markham, reaching that town at 9 o'clock in the morning. At 10 they entered the Town Hall, where two chairs, one in red, one in blue, borrowed from a local lodge room, were arranged on the stage. They retired behind the wings, donned their silken gowns and entered with proper dignity. The crier opened the court, the sheriff was represented by Officer Montgomery, and Mr. George Boomer filled the role of registrar. The two lawyers in the case, the respondent, W. F. Maclean, and Mr. H. Marr of the village, constituted those in attendance on the court.

The Chief Justice announced that they were there to try the petition against the return of Mr. Maclean.

Mr. R. A. Grant (Kerr, Davidson & Patterson) thereupon arose and said he represented the petitioner. "In this case," he continued, "we find, my lord, that the evidence for the petition is insufficient to establish the charges contained therein, and I have advised the petitioner not to furnish particulars, and therefore we have no evidence to offer."

Mr. James Baird (Allen & Baird): I would ask the court that the petition be dismissed.

The Chief Justice: As to costs?

Mr. Baird: I do not press for costs, as my learned friend notified me early in the proceedings that no particulars would be furnished.

The Chief Justice: The petition is dismissed, and as no costs are asked we cannot give any. That will terminate the case. The holder is confirmed in his seat and the petition is dismissed.

Whereupon the judges withdrew; four minutes after their entrance the young lawyers took off their gowns and replaced their white ties with fancy ones, the one supporter of the member-confirmed congratulated him and a small procession set out for the station, caught the 11.07 train and reached Toronto by high noon. Nor did anyone throughout the proceedings see anything of Mr. Joseph Tait's (M. L. A.) journeyman baker, who was the petitioner in the case.

PLENTY OF TROUBLE.

But the Manner of Suicide Must Have Been Much More Uncomfortable.

RIDGETOWN, Ont., Nov. 8.—John Webb, a laborer on the Briggs farm near Morpeth, hung himself last night in the barn. He had been separated from his family, was a cripple, and had other troubles.

Crushed Under the Train.

QUEBEC, Nov. 8.—Onesime Begin, a G. T. R. brakeman, aged 28, fell off a freight car at Chaudiere curve Saturday afternoon and was crushed under the train. He died yesterday morning.

Tarte's Probable Opponent.

QUEBEC, Nov. 8.—It is rumored that Lieutenant-Governor Angers may come out for L'Islet in opposition to Mr. Tarte.

Visits His Old Camp.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Ex-Secretary Blaine came to the White House yesterday and had an interview with the President for the first time since his return to Washington.

Completed to Merlin.

WINDSOR, Nov. 8.—In 20 days, with good weather, the extension of the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railroad will reach Blenheim. The road was completed to Merlin to-day.

CATTLE EXPORTERS.

Ask the Influence of the Dominion Government.

MONTREAL, Nov. 8.—Probably the last vessel to carry stockers from Canada will be the Dominion Line steamship Texas, which will sail this morning. She can make the trip under ordinary circumstances in 10 days, and should therefore reach Bristol, her destination, at least week before the order is put into force.

The cattle shippers of Montreal, who have still on hand a considerable number of stockers for the British market, have petitioned the Government to use its influence with the Imperial authorities to have the order of Friday last to schedule all the cattle from Canada after Nov. 21 amended to allow the entry of all cattle leaving this side before that date.

This would prevent the interference of the imperial order with the Canadian live cattle trade for the remainder of the season.

REPENTING AT LEISURE.

Another Farmer's Wife and a Hired Man in an Uncomfortable Mess.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Cora Lemon, the young wife of a well-to-do farmer at Owasco, Mich., and John Salisbury, the hired man, eloped from Owasco about Oct. 17. Mr. Lemon's attorney has been tracing the couple from place to place until he reached Brantford, their destination, at least week before the order is put into force.

REPENTING AT LEISURE.

Another Farmer's Wife and a Hired Man in an Uncomfortable Mess.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Cora Lemon, the young wife of a well-to-do farmer at Owasco, Mich., and John Salisbury, the hired man, eloped from Owasco about Oct. 17. Mr. Lemon's attorney has been tracing the couple from place to place until he reached Brantford, where the case was placed in the hands of Chief of Police Vaughan, who took the necessary steps to trace the runaway couple and have them arrested.

On Saturday P.C. Adams went to Port Erie and brought the couple, with a 2-year-old child of Mr. Lemon's, to Brantford. Mr. Lemon and his attorney arrived here this morning.

At the Police Court Salisbury was charged with the theft of a trunk and silver knives and forks. The case was remanded to be tried by the judge.

Salisbury is a married man and leaves a wife and two children at Owasco. Mr. Lemon intends suing for divorce.

BONUS HUNTERS.

Amherstburg Rejects Two Bylaws for Extension of the Railway System.

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., Nov. 8.—The electors of Amherstburg to-day rejected two bylaws, one to grant $25,000 for an extension of the Sandwich, Windsor and Amherstburg Railway from Sandwich to Amherstburg, and the other to grant $5000 for an extension of the M.C.R. into town.

There was 62 majority of the small votes cast in favor of the bylaws, but there were 13 votes less than the number required by law.

The promoters of the bylaw intend asking for a scrutiny, or will submit the same bylaw again in January at the municipal elections, when they will both be carried without doubt, as there are only about half the votes available polled.

MERCIER A PROPHET.

The Celebrated Count to Take the Stump for Annexation.

QUEBEC, Nov. 8.—Mercier's friends claim that after the enthusiastic manner in which his acquittal has been received by the public both here and in Montreal his rehabilitation is only a question of time. It is now said he is about to pose as a leader in the movement for annexation of Canada to the United States. He has long been an ardent admirer of American institutions, and has publicly stated that God neither made nor intended the dividing line between the two countries.

ONE OF THE EFFECTS.

In Western Ontario of the Scheduling of Cattle from Canada.

WINDSOR, Nov. 8.—The effect of the order issued by the British Government, shutting out Canadian cattle, will be the shutting up of the Walkerville barns, which are leased by the Montreal Live Stock Company. Heretofore immense numbers of cattle have been purchased in Western Ontario, shipped to Walkerville and fatted and then sent over to England.

FOR MORE PAY.

A Promise of a Big Cotton Strike in the United States.

LOWELL, Mass., Nov. 8.—The gingham weavers in the Tremont and Suffolk mills, 50 in number, went on strike yesterday. They say it is the beginning of the big strike of cotton mill employes threatened for some time past. They demand more pay.

A Test Election in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 8.—An important election contest began yesterday in the Burin district, the seat for which is vacant by the death of Mr. Rothwell, who was a member of the Government.

Sir James Winter, one of the Opposition leaders, was standing and the Government were afraid to oppose him. Yesterday they started Boyd, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Local Legislature, as a dark horse to cause him expense. Boyd has no chance.

Winter strongly advocates confederation with Canada, and his election will be taken as showing the strength of public opinion towards this movement.

The Strike in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 8.—The cars are not running, the bakers are not making bread and the gas works has shut down. The only laborers at work are those connected with the cotton trade.

The printers have struck and the only non-union newspaper, the States has had the field practically to itself, although The Truth, a union afternoon paper, issued editions, the proprietors, who are union printers, claiming the right to set up their own paper despite the strike.

Chinese Wanted in Brazil.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Just at this time when the United States is embarrassed by the necessity of keeping Chinese labor out of the country, it is rather a fortunate occurrence for the Chinese that the Brazilian Government, according to a despatch sent to the State Department by United States Minister Conger, has just passed an act for the encouragement of Chinese immigration.

Elections in Italy.

ROME, Nov. 7.—The general elections for members of the Italian Parliament were held throughout Italy Saturday. Most of the members of the present Government were elected.

Fitted With Iron Cages.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—According to the Free Russia ships are being built on the Clyde for the Russian Government, which are fitted with iron cages, in which it is designed to transport political prisoners to Siberia by way of the Lena River and the Arctic Ocean.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

Conducted With Pronounced Success at Lindsay by Revs. Crossley and Hunter.

The Lindsay Post gives the following account of the meetings of Crossley and Hunter, evangelists, now being held in that town: "The evangelistic services conducted by Crossley and Hunter were continued last week in the Cambridge street Methodist church and are being held this week in the Presbyterian church. The Bible readings on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons were given in St. Paul's church school room, and the Queen street Methodist church is being used for them this week. The men's meeting on Sunday afternoon completely filled the commodious Presbyterian church; stirring, earnest addresses were delivered by the evangelists, and many hearts were touched as the words fell from the lips of the speakers ....The services from the beginning have been singularly free from the excitement so often attendant upon revival meetings, and nothing of a sensational nature has been introduced to persuade persons to the Christian life. The methods adopted are plain, straightforward and simple, and the results of the work thus far are very numerous and satisfactory....The resident pastors are co-operating heartily in the meetings and the attendance is thoroughly representative of all denominations. On Wednesday evening Mr. Wm. Johnston, of Belleville, gave a short address, telling of the wonderful work accomplished by the evangelists in that city four years ago. He stated that the foremost results were great both in quantity and quality. Seventy-five percent of those who professed conversion at that time and remained true to the steps taken. He also related several incidents of the meeting to show the different classes reached. The people of Belleville would be glad to have them return and work there again....On Sunday next Rev. Mr. Hunter will speak at the men's meeting in the Presbyterian church at 4 p.m., and Rev. Mr. Crossley at the women's meeting in the Queen street Methodist church at 4 p.m. Also on Sunday at 7 p.m. the evangelists will together begin the week's meetings in Cambridge street Methodist church. This will probably be the closing week....The Messrs. Crossley and Hunter evangelists, will hold two services next Wednesday, 9th inst. at 10:30 a.m. and 2.30 p.m., in the Methodist church, Oakwood."

A FATAL FALL.

The Globe contains an account of a fatal accident to Mr. Erastus D. Hill, of Toronto, father-in-law of Mr. W. Madill, druggist, Ashburnham. The deceased gentleman on Wednesday started to go up stairs, and by mistake opened the wrong door and fell headlong down the cellar stairs, fracturing his skull, and death resulted on Thursday. The deceased, who was born at Grimsby in 1818, was a resident of Toronto for twenty years, during a large portion of which time he was connected with the business department of Truth. Mr. Hill was a Presbyterian and a member of Erskine church. In politics he was a staunch Liberal, and during the troublesome times of 1837 he shouldered his musket and went out with the Loyalists He leaves a family of three sons and five daughters —one Mrs. W. Madill, of Ashburnham. The funeral took place to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto, on Saturday.

HIS FOREHEAD CRUSHED.

On Sunday afternoon last the young of Mr. William Doucett was picked up in his father's garden with his forehead crushed in. No one saw the accident happen, but it is supposed that the little fellow got too near a colt which was loose in the garden and that it kicked him. Previous to finding of the lad he had been playing with a couple of companions, but neither of them could give any account of the happening. A piece of bone about two and a half inches in length by one and a half in width, of oval shape, had been driven into the brain, above the left eye, and that it did not result in instant death is miraculous. Dr. Pettigrew, assisted by Dr. Ford, performed the delicate operation of replacing the bone. The boy is still alive, but his recovery is scarcely possible.—Norwood Register.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mr. Wm. J. Stevenson, the Norwood Register says, while shooting at a partridge at his father's farm in Dummer on Monday, met with an accident. It appears that the gun which he was using burst, and Mr. Stevenson received the charge of powder in his face. For an instant he could not realize what had happened as the flash of fire had blinded him. Collecting his senses he found that a buckshot, the size of a pea, was imbedded in his forehead. Getting this extracted he proceeded at once to the doctor's, where it was discovered that nothing more serious than a severe burning of the eyes and face had resulted.

PITCH DARK.

After His Flock.

Gabriel—Why did you send that minister down below?

St. Peter—When he came up he asked for those of his flock who had come before, and I gave him directions where to find the majority of them.

Rev. Plink Plank on Homely Wives.

Dere's one good ting about a homely wife, dear breddern, an' dat is dat ya needn' be afraid ob findin' yer home deserted some night an' a note on de kitchen table sayin' dat she's "gone wid a han'somer man."

At the Outer Gate.

Gabriel—I shall have to get a larger trumpet.

St. Peter—Why?

Gabriel—Because I have come to the conclusion that I can never waken American servants on the resurrection morning with this one.

Influence Gone.

Elder Berry—I guess Dr. Thirdly is glad this is his last year; his influence isn't what it used to be in this parish.

Mrs. Berry—How do you make that out?

Elder Berry—Formerly when he began to pray for rain folks began to mend their roofs: now they talk of employing a layman who owns a dynamite outfit.

Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, to effect a cure.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c. and $1

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

The Musicale Abandoned.

Owing to the receipt of a letter stating that the Glee Club of Victoria College, Toronto, could not be present in Peterborough on Friday night, Nov. 11, the Musicale announced to take place in the opera house on that date is necessarily abandoned, since it was arranged that the Glee Club should furnish the larger part of the programme.

To Accommodate Tax Payers.

At the meeting of the council last evening Councillor Dawson announced that owing to the request of several ratepayers, particularly from No. 3 Ward, the tax collector, Miss Cumming, had kindly consented to keep her office open every Friday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock in order to accommodate those ratepayers who were unable to get away in the day time to pay their taxes.

Improvement for All.

The evening classes held on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of each week at the Peterborough Business College are being largely patronized. This is the season of the year to enter; some who have registered are taking the three months course, others are taking the full term of five months. Bookeeping, shorthand, writing and arithmetic are the subjects taught. Many young men and women have derived great benefit by attending the night classes at the college. You must improve to better your position, no matter what office you hold. 3d

Trip to California.

Mr. W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announces a personally conducted party to all points in California, leaving Toronto 3 p.m., November 16th. The party will be taken in one of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrated tourist cars, which are furnished with regular outfit, similar to the first-class sleeper, the route being via Kansas City, where the only change in cars will be made. The special advantages thus offered are the through service with first class accommodation at a very cheap rate. For full particulars write or call on Mr. W. R. Callaway, No. 1, King street, East, Toronto, or T. E. Boddy, Peterborough.

A Despicable Wretch.

The Port Hope Guide says: A man registered at one of our leading hotels one day last week under the name of John Dunn, hailing from Peterborough. He was accompanied by two young young girls, one of whom, according to his statement, he had promised to marry on their arrival at Port Hope; the other girl was a cousin to the prospective bride. Instead of carrying out his promise, he was endeavouring, the girls say, to induce them to lead a life of shame. The chief constable got on his track and spoiled the game. The girls since Saturday night have been at a private boarding house, and the chief started them home on the four o'clock train this afternoon. It is a great pity that the law could not take hold of the man.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Otonabee Lodge, I.O.O.F. put two candidates through the mysteries of the third degree last night.

—The Nicholls Hospital Board met yesterday afternoon and passed the usual monthly accounts.

—At a regular meeting of the Ancient Order of Foresters held last night four candidates were initiated.

—A local union Y.P.S.C.E. prayer meeting will be held in the Y.M.C.A. rooms on Thanksgiving morning at 9.30.

—Mr. John Clancy has been heard from. He has shot two large deer already this season at Big Gold Lake, where he is camping.

—The members of the William Hall Poor Trust met in regular meeting in the town clerks office last night and passed the usual accounts.

—The Ashburnham school board will hold a regular meeting to-night to appoint teachers for two vacancies in the teaching staff.

—A great football practice was held last night, no less than 19 men being on the field. The Rugbyites are getting into line for Thanksgiving Day.

—Mr. J. H. Meachern, the veteran Belleville postmaster, celebrated his 85th birthday, on Sunday. He has been postmaster at Belleville for forty-five years.

—An eating house keeper was fined the sum of $50 at the police station this morning for selling liquor without a license. He was given 10 days in which to pay the fine.

—A public meeting of the Board of Trade will be held in the council chamber this evening. As important public questions will be discussed, a large attendance is asked for.

—Mr. W. Aldridge is erecting a large two-story brick dwelling house on Wellor street, which he will occupy himself. The new structure is being roofed at present. The cost will be $2,000.

—A party of Christian Endeavourers from the local Union will drive to Keene on Thanksgiving Day to take part in a Y.P.S.C.E. meeting to be held there by the societies in the south part of the county.

—Chas. Huffman, a cabinet maker, while working a circular saw in the wood department of the Edison Works yesterday had two of his fingers badly cut, the nails being torn off. Dr. Bell dressed the injured digits.

—Arrangements have been made by several enthusiasts over the presidential election which takes place to-day to receive the returns at the C.P.R. Telegraph Company's office and at the hotels this evening. A large amount of money is being wagered by the sports on the result.

—The annual meeting of St. Andrew's Society will be held on Friday evening next in the Royal Templars of Temperance Hall, on Water street. The meeting will be for the purpose of electing officers and for making arrangements for holding a rousing dinner on St. Andrew's night, Nov. 31st.

—A public Orange meeting will be held this evening in the temperance hall, 4th con. Smith, under the auspices of Jubilee Lodge, L.O.L. Mr. C. W. Sawers, county secretary, Rev. Mr. Ewing, Mount Pleasant, and Rev. Mr. Trotter, town, will deliver addresses. A number will attend from town.

—Navigation season on the lake and river is nearly at a close. The Daisy is towing up the barges which are down the river, used for carrying lumber, supplies, etc., in repairing Healy's dam. The water is now so large that in all probability the Government will be unable to go on with the contract before next spring. Calcutt's steamers are bringing up loads of wood daily.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Christopher Morrison, of Walkerton, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. H. Nesbitt, returned home this morning.

Evangelistic Services Begun.

Special evangelistic services were begun in the George street Methodist church last evening. There was a fair attendance at the opening meeting considering the tempestuous weather. Rev. Mr. Locke, the pastor, gave a stirring address from Psalm 102nd, 13th verse, "Thou shalt arise and have mercy upon Zion for the time to favor her, yea, the set time is come." One person stood up for prayer. The meetings will be conducted by local brethren.

BANKRUPT STOCK.

Drainage Matters.

The sewer question is agitating the citizens of Peterborough just now. Many other towns are wrestling with the same question, and an active movement is being made to provide better drainage. When will a move in that direction be made in Cobourg? The system now in use here has to be improved upon, or something serious may happen in consequence.—Cobourg Post.

ANOTHER MONTH'S BUSINESS

TRANSACTED BY TOWN COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

A Tribute to the Late Councillor Ferguson—Councillor Wilson Sworn In—Narrow Streets Not to be Taken Over—Street Railway Prospects—More Lights to be Put up—Trouble with the C.P.R. about Certain Lots—Other Matters Generally.

A regular meeting of the town council was held on Monday night in the council chamber. Present were His Worship, Mayor Kendry, and Councillors Cahill, Best, Kelly, Young Bradburn, Dawson, Wilson, Meldrum, McIlwaine, Dennistoun and Mulhern.

THE NEW COUNCILLOR.

The first business was the reading of a communication by Town Clerk Cobb, stating that Mr. Macfarlane Wilson had been duly elected by acclamation to fill the vacant seat in No. 3 Ward, and that he had taken the required declarations of qualifications and office.

The Mayor said: Gentlemen, I have much pleasure in introducing to you, Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson, the newly elected civic legislator then took his seat.

TRIBUTE TO THEIR DEPARTED BROTHER

The next matter taken up was:—

Moved by Mr. Best, seconded by Mr. Kelly:

That whereas the Almighty has permitted the hand of death to rest upon the form of one of the members whose departure by reason of the nobility of his character, true worth and the awful suddenness of his death, has awakened in our midst a feeling of universal regret; and, whereas, the municipal council of the town of Peterborough is desirous of paying its tribute to the memory of the late W. B. Ferguson, who as a councillor and citizen did his utmost to promote the town's prosperity and best interests, enjoying in return the confidence of the public in the highest degree;

Therefore, be it resolved, that as an evidence of our appreciation of the services which he has rendered to the town, and as a mark of respect to his memory, this resolution be adopted by a standing vote of this council, and that the Mayor and Clerk sign the resolution, and forward a copy to the widow and family of the deceased, with the assurance that they have in their bereavement the deep sympathy of this council and the community at large.

The resolution was carried by a standing vote.

COMMUNICATIONS.

After reading the minutes of the last regular meeting the following communications were read and presented:

From Commander Fred J. Law, private secretary to the Lieut.-Governor, returning thanks to the mayor and council on behalf of His Honour and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, for the kind reception tendered them on Sept. 20th last, the memory of which would not readily fade.

From E. B. Edwards, stating that in the case of MacDonald vs. Peterborough plaintiff served notice of motion for Friday, Oct. 28th, for an order enjoining and restraining the defendants till the hearing of the action from discharging the sewage from the proposed Edison sewer into the river Otonabee above Locks, but the motion had been by consent enlarged until Friday, the 11th inst.—Received.

From Mary J. Nethercott, asking to have dog tax remitted, as she never had a dog during the present year.—Granted, provided the usual statutory declaration is made.

From George A. Smith, stating that certain properties belonging to the Central Bridge Works had been assessed wrongfully and enclosing the tax bills, as the property on which assessment was levied was to be exempt from taxation.—Court of Revision.

From John Hanrahan, asking that his statute labor tax be remitted.—Court of Revision.

From Charles Powell, asking that his statute tax be remited, as he was paying rent.—Court of Revision.

From George A. Smith and H. Rush, churchwarden's of St. John's Church, asking that the light at the corner of Queen and Simcoe streets be placed at a more convenient point to give more light to the people attending St. John's Church, as the light was originally intended to do.—Fire, Water and Light Committee.

From E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, advising as to result of suit Mason vs. Peterborough and recommending further action taken thereon. Moved by Mr. Dennistoun, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the solicitor take any action he deems advisable in the matter.—Carried.

From John Lane calling attention to an error of assessment of a house and lot owned by him and situated in No. 4 ward.—Court of Revision.

From E. Cleaves asking for a return of dog taxes.—Court of Revision.

From Ellen Anglesye asking for remission of taxes.—Court of Revision.

From M. E. Sanderson, secretary of the Peterborough Cheese Board, forwarding a copy of the vote of thanks passed at the last meeting of the board thanking the council for the use of the chamber for the holding of the board's meetings.—Received.

From Mrs. Wilson asking that her taxes be remitted.—Court of Revision.

From Mrs. Canning asking that her taxes be remitted.—Court of Revision.

From A. P. Poussette and A. Stevenson on behalf of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Street Railway Co., stating that as the last published communication between the Town and Edison Company declared that the construction of the road by them was at an end; but that if the council had any intention of constructing the road they would be pleased to appoint a committee to meet a committee appointed by the council and discuss the matter.—Received.

From Harriet Malcolm asking for remission of taxes.—Court of Revision.

Your committee have considered the application of the auditors for an increased grant for extra services and would recommend that they be granted the further sum of $50 each in consideration of additional work done this year by them.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. MAX DENNISTOUN, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

TAKING OVER NEW STREETS.

Moved by Mr. Bradburn, seconded by Mr. Young,—

That whereas there has been laid out on certain lands, shown on plans made by Alfred J. Cameron, of a sub-division of lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, also lots 39 to 68, inclusive, registered plan number 30 for Peterborough, two streets named thereon Jackson avenue and Lafayette avenue, respectively, each being of a less width than 66 feet, and whereas application has been made by the owner of the said lands to this council for their consent to such streets being so laid out as required by Section 545, of the Consolidated Municipal Act;

Be it therefore resolved that the municipal council of the Corporation of the Town of Peterborough do hereby consent to Jackson avenue and Lafayette avenue being avenues shown on the said plan, as running between and at right angles to, Chamberlen street and Albert street, being laid out on the said lands as streets having a less width than sixty-six feet.

The motion was carried,

A STREET BYLAW PASSED.

Mr. Bradburn introduced in connection with his motion, seconded by Mr. Young, entitled bylaw No. —, to assume for public use Jackson and Lafayette Avenues, as shown on plan by A. J. Cameron.

Mr. Dennistoun asked if they were the streets that came up before in the council.

Mr. Bradburn said they were, and were to be taken over when certain conditions had been complied with. The Street Inspector said these improvements had been made.

Mr. Dennistoun asked if the residents in No. 2 and No. 3 Wards were unanimous in taking over these narrow streets.

Mr. Bradburn said they were.

Mr. Dawson was opposed to taking over narrow streets. They were a disgrace to the town. The streets in question could easily be made wider.

Mr. Dennistoun strongly opposed the taking over of narrow streets less than 44 feet in width.

After some further discussion the bylaw was read a second and third time, passed, and duly signed.

EXTENSION OF STREETS.

Mr. Best asked why the Street and Bridge chairman has not brought in his report regarding the extension of Aylmer and George streets.

Mr. Cahill said he had instructed Mr. Belcher to make plans. He had prepared one, and the first was unsatisfactory and he had asked him to prepare a second. This was about two months ago He would see, however that the matter was brought up at the next meeting.

MORE LIGHT FOR THE TOWN.

Moved by Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the Peterborough Light and Power Co. be authorised to place a lamp on the north side of Brock and Sheridan streets.

Mr. Dennistoun thought that the county should pay half the expense. The county paid half for the use of hydrants on the line. The matter should be brought up before the county council.

Mr. Kelly said that the residents in that locality wanted light. It was one of the darkest spots in the town.

Mr. Dawson concurred with Mr. Kelly's opinion. The region was very dark and descending Court House hill without any light in the winter time might result in action for damages against the town.

Mr. Cahill thought that the county council should pay for half of the light which would cost $60 a year. The matter had never been brought before them.

Messrs. Young and Meldrum were also in favour of a light at this place. It was the rendezvous for all the worst characters of the town.

Mr. Kelly finally added the words "on condition that the county pay half the expense thereof" to his motion. which carried.

A LIGHT FOR THE HOSPITAL.

Moved by Mr. Meldrum, seconded by Mr. McIlwain, that the Peterborough Light and Power Co. be instructed to place a light on Argyle street, in front of Mr. F. Mason's residence at the Nicholls Hospital.

Mr. Best moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Young, that the matter be referred back to the Fire, Water and Light Committee, which had no intimation of the matter before. Mr. Best, when it was explained that there had been no meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, withdrew his motion, and the original resolution carried.

MINOR MOTIONS PASSED.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Best, that Mr. Wilson's name be placed on all the committees that the late Mr. Ferguson was a member of.—Carried.

Mr. Dennistoun moved, seconded by Mr. McIlwain, that the sum of $30 be paid to the selectors of jurors for the current year.—Carried.

Mr. Dennistoun said this was the usual sum paid.

STREET RAILWAY MATTERS.

Mr. Dennistoun moved, seconded by Mr. Mulhern, that Councillors Cahill, Meldrum, Bradburn and the mover and seconder be a committee to meet with the Peterborough and Ashburnham Street Railway Co., or any other company that may be interested in street railways.—Carried.

NO MORE NARROW STREETS.

Moved by Mr. Dennistoun, seconded by Mr. Mulhern, that in future no streets be taken over by the town less than the statuatory width, unless special circumstance are shown to justify a departure from this rule.

Mr. Cahill moved, in amendment to Mr. Dennistoun's motion, seconded by Mr. Best, that this council will not expend any public money in future on any street less than 66 feet in width whether laid out before now or hereafter.

Mr. Kelly opposed the motion. Some of the plans of streets to be taken over had aleady been registered.

Mr. Dennistoun explained that Mr. Cahill's motion was not in accordance with the statute and could not be complied with.

The amendment was lost, Messrs. Cahill and Best alone voting for it. Mr. Dennistoun's motion was carried.

TROUBLE WITH C. P. R. ABOUT LOTS.

On motion, Mr. W. H. Moore was heard. He said he appeared before the council in the interest of the C. P. R. After an explanation of the matter in detail in reference to the siding of the company to the Edison Works, he submitted the following agreement for the consideration of the council:

Under the arrangement made in connection with the re-transfer of the railway siding from the track of the C.P.R. railway to the town as evidenced by the correspondence and also by the resolutions of the council passed on 19th January, and the 6th of April, 1891, the railway company is entitled to a conveyance from the town of lot no. 11, west of George street and south of Rink street, although the lot is mentioned in some of the letters, etc., as the north half of said lot 11. The company requests that the town have this carried out or the company would be willing to release the town from its agreement except as to the portion of the lot occupied by the lines or tracks of railway, on receiving from the town a conveyance of that part of lot 6, west of George and north of Townsend street which the company does not now own, and which the company is advised is much less valuable property than that the company is entitled to, but which because of said lots' nearness to the company's third property adjoining, it desires to obtain. If the town cannot readily make terms of purchase to its satisfaction of that part of said lot 6, the company would institute proceedings to exappropriate the land on the understanding that the town would indemnify from loss.

Mr. Moore explained that the company desired the exchange of lot 11 for lot 6 as the latter was more convenient and they were desirous of erecting certain buildings thereon.

Mr. Dennistoun said the C.P.R. were starting from a wrong assumption. They said they were the owners of lot No. 11, south of Rink street but there was only a resolution on the minute books to convey to the company the north half of said lot. The town could not give the lease on a simple resolution, The C.P.R. had no grounds to, say, exchange lot 6 for lot 11 as they did not own lot 11.

Mr. Dawson said the C. P. R. were to have the lot if the G. T. R. were allowed right of way, but the company had not carried out their agreement with the town and they had to pay the C. P. R. $1,125 for right of way.

Mr. Moore said they were paid the sum for laying track, supplying rails, etc. The town now owned these.

After some further discussion Mr. Moore's petition was referred to the Finance Committee.

A SHOOTING GALLERY.

Mr. Dawson moved, seconded by Mr. Meldrum that Mr. Armstong be granted a shooting galley license for one year providing he properly observe the law in running it.—Carried.

EMPLOYING SCAVENGERS.

Mr. Cahill asked if the Health Committee had taken any action on his recommendation to the council at its last meeting, that two public scavengers be employed.

Mr. Dawson said Mr. Cahill included the Board of Health, as well as well as the Health Committee, in his motion. He had declined to do anything in reference to the matter as he could not agree with the chairman of the Board of Health and they could not act in conjunction. The Board of Health chairman would allow no one to differ in views from him, neither would he respect the opinion of an opponent.

Mr. Cahill thought that the employment of public scavengers was necessary. Diseases were lurking all around, and the town should be kept scrupulously clean in view of the approach of any epidemic.

Mr. Meldrum coincided with the views of Mr. Cahill. The matter should be attended to it once.

Mr. Kelly thought the matter should be referred to the Board of Health to act upon.

Mr. Dawson said the town was in a good sanitary condition despite many reports to the contrary. It was the healthiest place in the province, and no infectious diseases were prevalent.

The discussion was continued further, and the matter was dropped with the understanding that the Health Committee should bring in a report at the next meeting..

THE WATERWORKS PURCHASE.

Mr. Meldrum asked the Mayor if he had any information to lay before the council regarding the purchase of the waterworks by the town. He had told the Fire, Water and Light committee at the last meeting he would have some valuable information to impart.

Mayor Kendry said that he had part of the information but it was not complete. He would be fully prepared to give all necessary matter at the next meeting.

The council then adjourned at 10.30 o'clock.

A Little Child Fatally Poisoned by Rough on Rats.

BURK'S FALLS, Ont., Nov. 7.—A little girl about three years of age, daughter of F. B. Burt, bookkeeper for the Muskoka Mill and Lumber Company, was accidentally poisoned by eating "rough on rats." It appears that the mice were very troublesome, and in order to get rid of them some member of the family mixed a quantity of the poison with oatmeal and placed the plate containing the mixture on a shelf in the cupboard where the child had easy access to it. She ate quite a lot of it before she was noticed and soon became very ill. She lingered for a few days suffering terrible agony.

HUNTERS LOST.

They Were On a Wild Goose Chase—Their Canoe Found Bottom Up.

CAMPBELLTON, Nov. 7.—On Thursday last M. M. Bruce, James Baird and Jack Miller left here in a bark canoe goose shooting, intending to return Friday. Not putting in an appearance Saturday their friends became anxious and to-day a party started out in search. The canoe was found bottom up, floating about. This leaves no doubt but that all three have been drowned. The bodies have not yet been found. Bruce leaves a widow and two children. The other two are single.

The Second World's Fair Visitor To Be Called "The Stutterer."

CHICAGO, Nov 7.—Another Esquimau girl baby was born at Jackson Park yesterday. The first one, Columbia, welcomed the new-comer with a blink of superiority to say that there could be but one first, and that honor was safe in possession.

Columbia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Panaka, are good Christians of the Moraviar faith, while the last arrival comes from a heathen ancestry that has neither religion nor family name.

The father's name is Kufa and the mother's Kotukituk, which translated means "Big Adam's Apple." Out of this wealth of etymology and significance they have evolved for the helpless child and saddled on to her the name Kotuktooke, which means "The Stutterer."

The parents are from the far north of Labrador.

Only 28 Female Convicts at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Nov. 7.—Mr. James Adams, superintendent of works at the penitentiary, is now preparing plans for the proposed new convict insane asylum proposed to be erected north of the warden's present residence. Mr. Adams is also preparing plans for a new building to be erected on the vacant ground east of the penitentiary, to be utilized solely for female convicts. There are but 28 female convicts in the whole Dominion at the present time, a very creditable showing, but it is far cheaper to bring them from distant points in Canada to one central place than to maintain separate institutions for female convicts and with separate staffs at different points. As soon as the plans have been approved of by the Minister of Justice tenders will be called for.

The Toddler Was Dead.

WALLACEBURG, Ont., Nov. 7.—Yesterday about 5 o'clock Mrs. Richard Jenkinson, wife of a laboring man, turned in bed to take her 4-week-old girl baby that was lying on the pillow beside her and was horrified to find that life had fled, the face, which was uncovered, being cold, but the body was somewhat warm yet.

French Female Labor.

GENTS,—Please ship us per G.T.R., freight prepaid, three (3) gross more of your Anti-Dandruff. This makes six gross or 864 bottles purchased from you since January 16th, 1892, a little more than two months. The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hair-dressing for the hair. Clean to use and has an agreeable odor. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and pevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, we remain,

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

HER GREAT LOSS.

No One Left to Tell Her If Her Hat Is on Straight.

Never before had the tall gentleman with the iron-gray mustache been more deeply impressed with the loneliness of a widow's lot. The plump lady in black was on the verge of tears, and every word of her sad story seemed like a knife thrust into her grief-sore soul.

"When I look forward—"

Her voice was tremulous, her eyes dewy.

"To the future, life seems—"

Emotion was choking her utterance.

"Like a dreary waste."

She pressed her somber-fringed handkerchief to her eyes.

"Be calm, madam, be calm."

The tall gentleman with the iron-gray mustache felt very sympathetic indeed.

"P-p-pardon me."

The lady struggled to repress her feelings with indifferent success.

"My dear madam," the tall gentleman hastily declared, "your grief does you credit."

An unintelligible murmur was the only reply.

"The rude severing of the most cherished of human relations by the hand of death—"

The plump figure in black shook with sobs.

"Must desolate the surviving heart."

"Yes, yes. I miss him more than w-w-words can t-tell."

The lady moaned in her misery and the tears came afresh.

"The strong arm on which to lean is gone," sadly suggested the tall gentleman.

She bobbed her head.

"And the manly bosom wherein you reigned supreme."

"B-oo-oo."

"And the cherished lips with their words of cheer and comfort."

"Oh, oh, oh. Boo-hoo. Y-yes, yes. And there's n-no one now to t-tell me—" Her sorrow overwhelmed her for a moment.

"Tell me-me-m-me—"

The tall gentleman noticed with uneasiness that the plump lady was growing hysterical.

"Do tell me if m-m-my hat's on straight."

After she had cried a few minutes longer they changed the subject.—Detroit Tribune.

GLADSTONE'S OPINION

Gladstone says: "You know a good deal about the position of an Insurance Company when you know

Its Date!

Its Income!

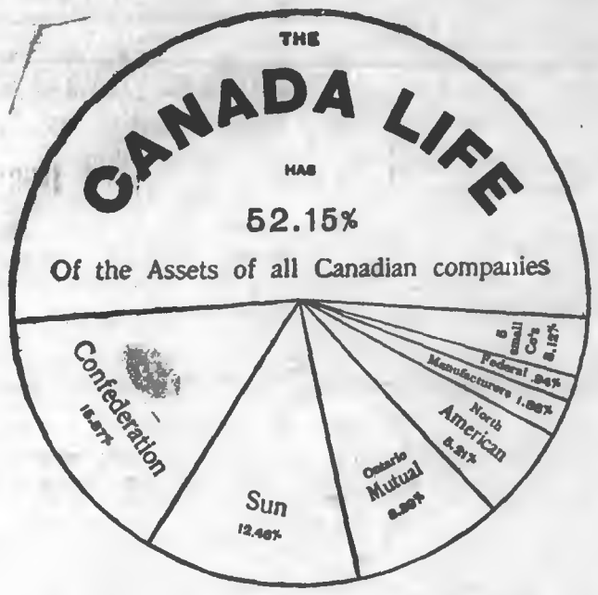
Its Accumulations!

From the relation of these three, one to the other, you know pretty nearly the state of the Company."

Gladstone would place

THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

At the head of all Canadian Companies—for it is by far the oldest Company. Its Income is about two and one-half times greater than that of any other Canadian Company, and its Assets are greater than the combined Assets of all other Canadian Companies, as shown in the following diagram:



This Diagram is based on the following table compiled from the last Government Blue Book:

Being exclusive dealers in only Reliable and Standard makes of

GRAND, SQUARE AND UPRIGHT

PIANOFORTES

we are able to offer advantages to the public, which are impossible to the ordinary dealer.

Our instruments have an established reputation for excellence of TONE, TOUCH, WORKMANSHIP, and DURABILITY, and Every Instrument is Fully Warranted for Seven Years.

Chief among our instruments which have received preferences from the best musical artists, stand

THE HEINTZMAN —AND— EVANS PIANOS.

These instruments have been before the Canadian public for a number of years, and the great praise bestowed upon them by musical experts, along with the continued increase of sales year by year, testify to their high excellence.

The aim of the manufacturers of these two favorite Pianos has been to produce the best instruments at a moderate price. They are of solid build, warranted for durability, of handsome appearance and finish; pleasant touch and quick repetition. TONE: rich, full, bright and resonant. Beautifully signing and sympathetic in quality. The prices are moderate, and within the reach of the majority of purchasers.

We are exclusive agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

which stand ahead of all competitors. We have also at all times in stock, the well-known and popular

THOMAS ORGANS, AND OTHER MAKES.

Our large and well-lighted show room enables us to carry the Largest Stock ever shown in Peterborough, and as regards Prices, we have only to say that we positively will not be undersold.

Those not having the inclination or the means to purchase an instrument outright, can, by a small monthly investment, secure a Piano or Organ on rental until paid for.

JACKSON & CO. wish it to be distinctly understood that in cases of emergency, they are desirous of dealing justly and fairly with their customers. They do not want both the money and the instrument.

NOTICE.

To insure confidence and satisfaction, Jackson & Co. are willing to exchange any instrument purchased from them within twelve months, if not approved of, themselves bearing all expenses of carriage, and allowing all that has been paid, towards any other instrument selected.

All kinds of Instruments Tuned or Repaired on short notice.

FEMININE FANCIES.

JUST NOW IT IS THE SUSPENDER CRAZE THAT RAGES.

Some Kindly Advice in Case the Horrid Things Should Break — The Fichu Bodice a Fancy of the Summer Mode.

If a man's suspender buttons fly off when the rupture between his suspenders and his trousers comes he has a last resort that may be stated first as being the most discomforting—to a man. He can take off his suspenders and walk on the heels of his trousers. But a woman would hate to do that. That is, she would hate to take off her suspenders, for, strangely enough, she wears them for show, most ostentatiously, proudly, delightedly, with an air that says plainer than words: "Be kind enough to observe, I have taken another step towards the emancipation of the sex." Some women, indeed, choose the gaudiest colors for their suspenders. If a man were to wear suspenders as loud as theirs he would not be able to hear himself think. For example, all Philadelphia was delighted the other day by the sight of a red-headed girl wearing red suspenders and a pair of red shoes. Men, on the other hand, hide their suspenders. If they don't wear vests a good many of them wear snakes to conceal the awkward ends of the ugly straps.

OH, BOTHER!

If man does not take off his broken suspenders he makes an effort to repair them. Human ingenuity has exhausted itself in this direction. Men have used twine since twine has been made and tied their suspenders down. But, there again, men had the advantage of the fact that their suspenders were hidden. What woman would walk down the street with her suspenders tied to her silk dress? She'd pin 'em first, but pins would not hold on a man. Instead of pinning his suspenders he has always nailed them, if need be, with tenpenny nails. But it's doubtful if the expedient of cutting, with a jack-knife a new buttonhole in a $100 gown will be generally adopted by women. Whatever they do, however, when their suspenders rise to their shoulder blades they will find it better than to try and grasp them. The woman who pursues her suspenders up her own back will, after assuming a number of ridiculous postures, wind up by standing on her head, a position repugnant to polite society.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs.

The Head Surgeon

of the Lubon Medical Company is now at Toronto, Canada, and may be consulted either in person or by letter on all chronic diseases peculiar to men. Men, young, old or middle-aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess or overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of memory, bad dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, emissions, lack of energy, pain in the kidneys, headache, pimples on the face or body, itching or peculiar sensation about the scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, specks before the eyes, twitching of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bashfulness deposits in the urine, loss of will power tenderness of the scalp and spine, weak and flabby muscles, failure to be rested by sleep, constipation dullness of hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, excitability of temper, sunken eyes surrounded with leaden circle, oily looking skin, etc.! are all symptoms of nervous debility that lead to insanity and death unless cured. The spring or vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence. Those who through abuse committed in ignorance may be permanently cured. Send your address for book on all diseases peculiar to man. Books sent free sealed. Heart disease, the symptoms of which are faint spells, purple lips, numbness, palpitation, skip beats, hot flushes, rush of blood to the head, dull pain in in the heart with beats strong, rapid and irregular, the second heart beat quicker than the first, pain about the breast bone, etc., can positively be cured. No cure, no pay. Send for book. Address M. V. LUBON, 24 Macdonell ave., Toronto, Can.

EXCELLENCE.

RHEUMATISM.—MR. WM. HOWES, 46 Red Lion St., High Holborn, W. C. London, Eng., states he had rheumatism 20 years; suffered intensely from swelling of hands, feet and joints. He used St. Jacobs Oil with marvelous results. Before the second bottle was exhausted the pain left him. He is cured.

NEURALGIA.—Mrs. JOHN McLEAN, Beattie Island, Ont., March 4, 1889, says: "I suffered severely with neuralgia for nine years and have been greatly benefited by the use of St. Jacobs Oil."

SCIATICA.—Gananoque, Kans., U. S. A., Aug. 6, 1888. "I suffered eight years with sciatica; used five bottles of St. Jacobs Oil and was permanently cured." JACOB I. SMITH.

STRAIN.—MR. M. PRICE, 14 Tabernacle Square, E. C., London, Eng., says: "I strained my wrist and the severe pain yielded like magic to St. Jacobs Oil."

LAMEBACK.—Mrs. J. RINGLAND, Kincaid St., Brockville, Ont., writes: "I was confined to bed by severe lumbago. A part of a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil enabled me to go about in a day."

FOREIGN FINANCE.

Uncertainty Over the Results of the Coming International Monetary Conference.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Discount closed Saturday at 1 1-2 per cent. for three months, 1 3-4 per cent. for short. In the middle of the past week the rate in the open market advanced to equal the Bank of England rate owing to expectation that the Bank of England would raise its rate to at least 3 1-2 per cent. But when the bank's decision against an advance was announced rates relapsed.

In the event of a serious removal of the outflow of gold the feeling is unanimous that the bank must take prompt action, as the stock of gold is none too large, especially in view of the fact that the bank must be prepared for a demand for gold if, as is expected, the international monetary conference proves a failure, an event which will be followed by the cessation of its silver purchases by the United States Government.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Prices on the Bourse were [illegible] the last week, but the market [illegible] a firmer tone yesterday, in sympathy with Berlin advices and under the influence of favorable news from Dahomey. In the best class of funds a good investment business was transacted. International funds were steady at the close.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—A feeling of weakness, due to the advance of money rates, prevailed on the Bourse till almost the end of the week, when a stronger feeling became manifest.

TROUBLESOME SINGERS.

The Manager of a Paris Theatre Forced to Dismiss a Large Audience.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Paris correspondent of The Daily News says that the chorus in "Cavalleria Rusticana," at the Opera Comique, struck for higher wages on Saturday evening. When the members of the chorus appeared on the stage for the opening scene they declined to sing. The curtain was at once dropped and the members of the chorus returned to the dressing room.

In the meantime the city guards had been stationed at the exits to prevent their departure from the house. The manager tried in vain to induce the chorus to forego their demands, varying in amount from £48, to £72 yearly, for which they have been clamoring. Finally the manager was obliged to close the theatre and to return the ticket money to the audience, which was very large.

NEILL'S INSANITY.

The Home Secretary Granted a Respite on the Strength of an Affidavit.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Mr. Asquith, the Home Secretary, granted a respite of a week to the murderer Neill, who was to have been executed Tuesday next for poisoning Matilda Clover, chiefly on the affidavit of an American, Rev. Dr. Matthews, who is acquainted with Neill's family. In his affidavit the minister declares he believes Neill and other members of the prisoner's family are insane.

The respite of Neill, the Lambeth poisoner, comes on the public as a great surprise. The execution was fixed for next Tuesday. People had already forgotten the wretched man, and are not overpleased to be reminded of him by the prospect held out of his prolonged existence. He was respited for the consideration of evidence now on its way showing that in the United States and in Canada Neill so conducted himself as to show that he was not responsible for his actions. There is always a disinclination to hang a man after a respite, but the case needs to be very strong to save Neill's neck.

Africa's Cotton Belt.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Capt. Legard, in an address to the British Chamber of Commerce on the subject of Uganda, declared that the country was admirably adapted for raising cotton, and that enough could be raised there to make Lancashire independent of America.

Beaten to Death.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Moscow correspondent of The Daily News reports that a destitute widow in the village of Snamenskoe, who was accused of being a witch, was beaten to death by a mob. Her assailants were either sentenced to imprisonment or lost their civil rights.

The Royal Oak Launched.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The first-class battleship Royal Oak was launched Saturday at Birkenhead. She will cost £750,000.

FOR THE SEAT OF HONOR ACROSS THE BORDER.

The Screech of the Bald-Headed Eagle Will Be Unheard Above the Din of Battle for the Next Twenty-Four Hours — Some of the Innumerable Guesses.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The presidential election of 1892 is unique in being the first since the war in which so many doubtful states are admittedly at issue between the great political parties. It is also unique in being the first in which it is conceded by all parties that the electoral votes of the nation will be divided among three great political organizations. Three candidates will certainly be balloted for in the electoral college, and to be elected to the Presidency one of these men must receive a majority of all the votes cast, or the election will be referred to the National House of Representatives. The advent of the People's party into National politics has constituted the great element of doubt in this Presidential contest.

This Year's Electoral College.

The Presidential College this year will consist of 444 members. These 444 electoral votes will be divided, according to the recent apportionment by Congress, among the various states.

The States which are admitted to be Democratic are the following:

Arkansas	8	Missouri	17
Delaware	3	North Carolina	11
Florida	4	South Carolina	9
Georgia	13	Tennessee	12
Kentucky	13	Texas	15
Louisiana	8	Virginia	12
Maryland	8
Mississippi	9	Total	147
Michigan	5

The States which are admitted to be Republican are:

California	9	Oregon	4
Illinois	24	Pennsylvania	32
Iowa	13	Rhode Island	4
Maine	6	Vermont	4
Massachusetts	15	Washington	4
Michigan	9	Wisconsin	12
Minnesota	9
New Hampshire	4	Total	179
Ohio	23

The fifteen doubtful States enumerated at the beginning will cast the following electoral vote:

Alabama	11	New York	36
Colorado	4	Indiana	15
Kansas	10	New Jersey	10
Nevada	3	Connecticut	6
North Dakota	3	Montana	3
South Dakota	4	West Virginia	6
Nebraska	8
Wyoming	3	Total	125
Idaho	3

Chairman Carter's Horoscope.

Chairman Carter of the Republican National Committee has calculated that Harrison will have 265 votes, Cleveland 165 votes and Weaver 3 votes. He places New York, West Virginia and Delaware as doubtful states; their combined vote is 45.

Chairman Harrity's Prophecy.

Chairman Harrity of the Democratic National Committee believes that Cleveland will have 244 votes, or 79 more than are conceded the Democratic candidate by the Republicans.

Uncle Charley Hackett's Say.

"Uncle" Charley Hackett, in giving his opinion upon the assertion that New York State will go for Cleveland, kept his collar-button in place while he explained the impossibilities of any grounds for the assertion. He said:

"During this week I have received replies from several hundred correspondents, who were asked to give the names and addresses of Republicans who voted for Harrison in 1888, but who proposed to vote for Cleveland now, and to give the names and addresses of Democrats who voted for Cleveland in 1888, but who would vote for Harrison this year. The replies show that about nine Democrats will vote for Harrison to one former Harrison man who will vote for Cleveland."

Mr. Hackett said that he knew the entire Republican vote in the country was registered; that it would be brought out, and that the Republicans will carry the State by a larger plurality than they did in 1888.

The Effect of Hill's Shoulder.

Clark Howell believes in Cleveland's success next Tuesday. He says:

"Cleveland has been steadily growing stronger for the past month. Events in New York leave no room for doubt as to the result in that State. Without Hill New York would be lost. Without Tammany it would not even be a doubtful State. As soon as Hill put his shoulder to the wheel the outlook brightened at the promise of Democratic success, and when Tammany threw its full strength behind the Democratic column and convinced the country that it was working from the bottom of its heart to carry the State for Cleveland Democrats everywhere rejoiced at the assurance of victory in New York.

"I am satisfied myself that Cleveland will be elected, and I believe that it will be by a ground swell scarcely less wonderful than that of 1890. Before Mr. Cleveland's nomination I despaired of his election in the event of his being chosen as the nominee of the party. Immediately after his nomination I doubted, yet hoped, but to-day I approach the close of the campaign with the utmost confidence in Democratic success and with the belief that Cleveland's majority will be phenomenally large."

PRIME FRUITS.

Large Number of Exhibits To Be Shipped to the World's Fair To-day.

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—The first shipment of exhibits for the World's Fair will be made to-day, and will consist of green fruits, apples, pears, etc., which will be placed in cold storage warehouses in Chicago until the opening of the exhibition.

One car load will be from the Maritime Provinces and Quebec, and another will be from Ontario. The latter will receive about 300 half barrels of apples, pears, etc., and 100 boxes of vegetables at Grimsby to-morrow, and then proceed to Hamilton, where about as much more will be shipped.

The small fruits, which have been preserved in bottles, will be sent on later. The samples of both fruit and vegetables are said to be exceptionally fine.

WHY CURFEW DID NOT RING.

The Sacristan Had Hanged Himself in the Church Choir.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—For the first time in the history of Trinity Catholic Church there was no second service Sunday. The break was caused by the discovery of George Janke, the sacristan, hanging high up in the church spire after the congregation had filled the church. The greatest excitement prevailed for a time; after Father Conrad dismissed the congregation with the explanation that something terrible had happened. Janke had been sacristan of the church for six years. He rang the bell for vespers and that was the last seen of him.

Pity the First One Wasn't a Success.

REGINA, N.W.T., Nov. 8.—McMahon, the Cornwall murderer who is soon to be hanged, is the man who in March, 1889, attempted suicide at the railway station at Broadview, and who, on being arraigned before Justice Wetmore, was reprimanded and dismissed.

Sir John's Statue at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Nov. 8.—Men were put to work yesterday excavating the place for the foundation of the Macdonald memorial monument at the intersection of King and John-streets. It is not yet known definitely when the statue will arrive.

Mrs. Talmage Is Not Insane.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Dr. Talmage corrects the report alleging that Mrs. Talmage is insane. He says she is in perfect health. He declares that a more unkind or outrageous report was never published.

Would You Buy,

If the Prices Were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,500. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

TWEEDS, SUITINGS and OVERCOATS

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

TO EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being to positively clear out the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

CLEVELAND

Is President of the United States.

CARRIES NEW YORK BY 45,000

Democrats Carry Indiana and Claim Illinois.

AND ALL THE DOUBTFUL STATES

Full Returns Up to 4 O'clock This Morning—What the New York Press Claim—Should Neither Candidate Secure the Number Necessary to a Choice Cleveland Will Be Elected by the House of Representatives—Features of the Campaign.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Grover Cleveland will be the next President of the United States. While the returns of yesterday's elections received up to the hour of going to press are necessarily incomplete they are sufficiently definite to settle the general result.

For some years a large number of the states have been "safe" for one party or the other, leaving the struggle to be settled by half a dozen "doubtful states;" but this time the sharp battle on the trade question and the sudden growth of the People's Party undoubtedly added to the number of debatable states, no less than 17 representing 165 electoral collegians, being included. In addition to this six new territories have been admitted to statehood since 1888—Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming, with an electoral vote of 20.

The returns would indicate that Cleveland has carried nearly, if not quite all, of these doubtful states. The more important victories are New York, which Harrison carried in 1888; Illinois, which has heretofore been a Republican stronghold and now goes Democratic by 15,000 majority, the cyclone which has been brewing on the prairies having swept McKinleyism into oblivion. Indiana, which has been persistently claimed by both parties, and which Harrison wrested from the Democrats in 1888, has also gone Democratic.

The south is solidly Democratic as usual, the amalgamation of the Republicans with the Populariats having failed to fuse, while the People's Party, thanks to Democratic fusion, have wrested Colorado, Nebraska and Kansas (Republican since their admission to the union), and Nevada, also Republican since its admission with the exception of the election of 1880.

Returns from New York indicate that Cleveland has carried the city and county by 45,000.

Congressional returns do not show material losses for Democrats and meagre returns to hand indicate they will again control the House of Representatives.

WHERE THE POPULISTS WON.

Weaver Carries Kansas, Nevada, Colorado and Nebraska.

The surprise of the campaign has been the strength of the Populist or People's Candidate, General Weaver. Nevada was conceded to Weaver, but it was not thought that the "fusion" between the Democrats and the Populists, which was attempted by the Raders in Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Oregon and Colorado, would result in much. The returns, however, show that in three of these states the People's candidate has captured the electoral vote. Two of the states, Kansas and Nebraska, were among the doubtful, but Colorado has always gone Republican heretofore.

CLEVELAND WILL GET THERE.

Even if He Has to Be Chosen by the House of Representatives.

While it is practically certain that Cleveland will have the necessary 223 electoral votes to give him the election by the people's votes, it is also conceded that his election is assured by the choice of President being thrown into the House of Representatives, which has a large Democratic majority.

The people of the United States have now virtually a direct popular choice of the President. They are divided by state lines and the result is determined by the numbers of electoral votes. But the one great drawback to the attainment of perfection in the electoral machinery is the latitude given to the legislatures in regulating the manner of choosing Presidential electors. What seems necessary is an amendment to the constitution providing that the people have the power to formally vote directly for President and Vice-President, each state to be entitled to as many votes as it casts under the system now in vogue.

A provision that no more than a plurality of State Presidential votes should be required for a choice would avert the contingency of an election by the House of Representatives, except in the case of a tie. In such a contingency the vote is taken by States as represented in an old House of Representatives, a majority of all the States being required and each State having one vote, which must be cast by a majority of the delegation (if consisting of more than one member) or cannot be cast at all. Such a contingency has arisen but twice—in 1801 and 1825.

ELECTORAL VOTES.

THE MAJORITIES.

Cleveland Carries New York by 45,000 Majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Private advices received from Governor Hill at Albany are to the effect that in his judgment the Republicans will come down to the Harlem River with 65,000 majority. Cleveland meets them there with 110,000 majority, including New York, Kings and adjacent counties, thus making Cleveland's majority at least 45,000.

Chairman Harrity of the Democratic National Committee issued a statement in which he says: "There is no doubt of the election of Cleveland by the popular vote, while the defeat of Harrison is certain."

New York city complete gives Cleveland 174,885, Harrison 98,760; Cleveland's majority, 76,125.

In the Blue Hen State.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 9.—Indications are that Harrison has carried Delaware.

In the Nutmeg State.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 9.—Cleveland has carried this state by 500 to 1000 plurality.

In New Jersey.

TRENTON, N.J., Nov. 9.—Cleveland has 9000 plurality and the Democrats claim five Congressmen and Governor.

The returns are scattering and meagre. It is estimated that Cleveland has carried the state by 7000 plurality. The result of the gubernatorial contest is in doubt. The complexion of the Legislature is in doubt, assure the re-election of Senator Gray to the U.S. Senate. Returns received from the several congressional districts indicate the election of 13 Republicans and 11 Democratic members of Congress, including the Republican Congressman at large.

The Hawkeye State.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 9.—Harrison carried Iowa by increased plurality.

Compared with 1888, when Boies had a plurality of 2000, returns now in show Republican gains. The Republican committee claims the state by 20,000 plurality.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The Tribune says: "The reports received by the western branches of both national committees have little doubt that Harrison and Reid have carried Iowa. The indications are that both Henderson and Gear, Republicans, have been elected to Congress, and that the Democrats will lose at least four congressmen."

The Bay State.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 9.—Harrison has carried Massachusetts by about the usual majority.

Alabama Democratic.

MONTGOMERY, Alabama, Nov. 9.—Alabama goes Democratic by 60,000. A full Democratic delegation is returned to congress.

Cleveland has carried the state as reports thus far received indicate, by at three times greater majority than did Gad Jones at the Democratic state election in August. Hardly any doubt exists that the Democrats have elected eight out of nine congressmen, the fifth district being alone in doubt.

Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 9.—The vote in Oregon has been comparatively light. It is thoug t that Pierce, one of the Weaver electors, has been elected.

The Dark and Bloody Ground.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—The state has gone Democratic by an increased majority. All the congressional districts are Democratic except the 11th, which is in doubt.

In the Peninsula State.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 9.—Democratic Executive Committee says state will give 15,000 Democratic majority, a Democratic gain of 4000 or 5000 over vote of 1888.

In the Keystone State.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 9.—An unusually heavy vote was polled here yesterday and throughout the entire state under the new ballot law. The indications are that the Republicans have carried the state by the usual majority and that the legislature will be Republican. This will practically South Dakota.

PIERRE, S.D., Nov. 9.—The ballot in this state is two yards long and it will be noon to-day before anything definite is known. The Democrats in this and adjoining counties voted for the Weaver electors, and it is apparent that the Populists have polled a heavy vote.

Ex-President Harrison.

The Methodist States Democratic.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 9.—Returns pouring in upon the State Committee here leave no doubt that Virginia has gone Democratic by probably 10,000 majority, and that a Democratic Legislature has been chosen, which will elect a Senator in place of Hon. Eppa Hunton, who is filling a vacancy by appointment of the governor. From every point in the state the indications point the same way. The delegates to Congress are Democratic.

In the Wolverine State.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 9.—The Democratic State Central Committee claims seven and perhaps eight electors out of the 14. Chipman, Gorman, Whiting and Meadock are considered sure of election to Congress. Chairman Campau is positive that the Lower House of the Michigan Legislature will be Democratic.

In the Bayou State.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—Meagre despatches from all parts of Missouri indicate net Democratic gains of 27 per cent. over 1888. This will give the state to Cleveland by 30,000 to 35,000, and to Stone (Dem.) for governor by 17,000.

Whitelaw Reid.

In the Buckeye State.

CHICAGO, Ills., Nov. 9.—The Tribune (Republican) says Cleveland has probably carried Illinois.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A World special from Chicago says Chairman Clark of the Democratic State Committee states that Cleveland has carried Illinois by 15,000 and Altgeld (Democrat) is elected Governor.

"THE ONTARIO SCHOOL SYSTEM THE BEST."

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—It would be indeed most gratifying to the public to know that the above sentence, which appears so often in our journals, was true—no one daring to contradict it. It happens with a systematic liar, that by dint of often repetition, the stories of his own imagination appear to him to be true. And so with our school system; its perfection of excellence is so often rung in our ears, that the public, very few of them knowing anything of any other school system, accept such statements as being the literal truth, without comparison. But those who know otherwise cannot but stamp it as a fraud upon the public, bearing evil consequences. The enormous expenditure made for educating our children should give us results to be proud of, since on that training the success or failure of their life depends.

The public have of late been treated to a good deal of controversy on school matters; although I have read both sides, I shall not refer to the same as the subject of this communication has nothing to do with Inspectorships, Boards of Trustees nor Teachers. I shall confine my remarks to the faults of our vaunted school system, for which the government is entirely to blame. Years ago Dr. Ryerson, superintendent of schools, went to Europe to investigate the different educational systems. He or he would have found it even now as different from that of Prussia as night is from day. The school law in Prussia compels parents to send their children to school at the age of 6 years and thereafter continuously to the age of 14 years, when they leave school for good and those leaving yearly give place to others. At the age of 14 boys are apprenticed by their parents to some trade or other calling to make them self supporting and such is the training in their common schools (without our Collegiate Institute), which the writer received. Gymnasiums and Collegiate Institutes, as they are called here, do not exist in every town and village in Prussia as here, but in large cities where such as want a training for a profession or preparing for the university have to send their children at their own expense, which is the proper way for our Dominion also. By such a system such an institution has a good staff of teachers, with their rooms properly filled and not, as has come under my own observation, with a teacher having half a dozen pupils in his class. Is there any sense in paying large salaries for such poor results? And why should our common schools suffer as a result, as they do suffer? It is a wrong inflicted upon the majority of the ratepayers, to pay taxes for others; for the majority of pupils want only a common school education, but not under the conditions at present prevailing. Let those who want a higher education get it at their own expense. Will any one say that such a system of professional men? It has not done so in Prussia nor would this be the result. Then why should such a system be supported here at the public expense—a system which produces disastrous results with many who have not the talent for such training. I remember the case of a young man, a farmer's son of North Monaghan, who had spent the time in attending our Collegiate Institute till he had a full grown beard, calling for a situation as collector of accounts! No higher aim? I thought if such are the results of our Collegiate Institute there will be many failures.

WOULD PRODUCE A SCARCITY

To show how our common schools are neglected a case of my own is sufficient, and there are no lack of other illustrations to show that my contention is not groundless. A grandson of mine attending the ward school, had been questioned several times as to what he had learned after a couple of months' attendance, and the answer was each time "nothing." Being anxious that he should learn something he was sent to a private school where he profited considerably. It was then thought best to send him to the Third Ward school, when, behold, to my astonishment the teacher informed him that he should come only in the forenoon!

Now Mr. Editor, is that all we can get for the enormous taxes we pay—when our children cannot get a common school education—which is what the most of our children need. But our common schools of the Prussian, and then there will be room to give the children full-time training, instead of filling our Institute with boys from youth to manhood.

There is another defect in the Ontario school system concerning the teachers. As regards the common schools of Prussia, there are no headmasters, as they are all headmasters in their own class and departments, and one has not to meddle with the other, which leaves no ground for jealousy or friction, nor has the school board to meddle with the teachers or their appointments, the teachers being appointed by the Government, and are responsible only to the latter. Such appointment is lasting for life, if no ground of complaint arises. Examinations take place only once a year, when the examiner is informed of what subjects the pupils have been through, and the work of examination begins, and the teacher has nothing to do with it. The examiner takes the pupils to task, and there is no patting on the back after examination. I remember once a very severe examination—I shall never forget it. Being addressed after the examination, we were told that we were in want of three capital Z's and they were Ziel, Ziet and Zucht, which translated means: the first, Aim, combined with energy as well as push; the second means Time and the third means Training. These three Z's have made a lasting impression on my memory, and when I see the old school buildings in which I have passed eight years of my boyhood, which I do occasionally when crossing the ocean, they are the same old buildings, kept in good repair, but no alterations. The exterior and interior appearance of these school buildings would not take the fancy of the public here, but there is something more valuable than appearance, as the capital training is that which leads to success in life.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space,
I remain,
Very truly,
WM. LECH

SPRINGVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Our village merchants reports business brisk in every line. Mr. Irwin is kept busy delivering goods in the vicinity of Cavanville. New kind of tea well recommended is the attraction at our village store. The drinking of it will prove it.

Our Royal Templars of Temperance are marching forward under the able leadership of Select Councillor Mr. F. R. Wilson, who is a talented speaker and a sound philosopher. They at times think they smell liquor in our village, but as they don't desire to follow their nasal member's sensitive curiosity, it is not likely there will be any litigation unless things change for the worse. Perhaps the cool weather will effect the desired change.

On Thursday last Mrs. Robt. Hooten passed away suddenly. Although she had been in delicate health for some time, death was entirely unexpected. She was the eldest daughter of our esteemed resident Mr. William Bidgood. Mrs. Hooten was an earnest member of Fairmount Methodist church, and highly respected by all who knew her. She leaves behind her to mourn her loss one son and daughter, together with Mr. Hooten, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their trying and sore affliction in the loss of such a loving wife and mother.

Messrs. Brown Bros., the noted breeders of Shropshire Down sheep, have recently been making some profitable sales of their flock to western breeders, shipping fifteen to one firm. These enterprising young men have been successful in carrying off most of the first prizes at all the leading exhibitions against strong competition. This vicinity can congratulate itself upon possessing some of the most enterprising young men in Ontario.

Farmers south of here bordering on that old land, Egypt, have been engaged shipping potatoes hauling them to Fraserville station. The crop is fairly good around Frazerville for which it is chiefly noted as being in the front every season. That other particular variety which it stands so distinguished has not been enumerated for the season possibly (the reason) that it is always seasonable. It may be depended upon always. No necessity of immigration to this town.

There is a change of teachers in most of the schools in this district; as most of the teachers employed are ladies, the young men are vigorously protesting against the action of the trustees. But wait, boys, until the new ones come before you don crape.

A YOUNG LIFE SAVED.

A lady living in Sarnia, Ont., says:—"One night about three weeks ago, I was suddenly awakened by that peculiar sound which indicates croup. I soon discovered that my little boy, aged six years had a serious attack, and that prompt action was necessary to save my darling's life. I quickly laid hold of a bottle of Harvard Bronchial Syrup, and gave my child a teaspoonful which seemed to afford immediate relief. Three doses in all sufficed to banish the terrible trouble, and gave free and natural respiration. I am now firmly convinced that Harvard Bronchial Syrup is the finest remedy in the world for croup; and have much pleasure in recommending it to every mother in Canada."

Scores of mothers have sent in similar testimony in favor of Harvard Bronchial Syrup. This grand preparation has never failed in the work of curing violent coughs, sore throat and croup. All children like it, and take it readily. Procure a bottle at once, mother; you cannot spend twenty-five cents with greater advantage or profit.

Racked with Rheumatism.

DEAR SIRS,—For ten years I suffered with rheumatism in spring and fall. I have been confined to bed for months at a time, but since using B. B. B. I have not suffered from it at all. I also recovered from the dyspepsia, which has not troubled me since using the B.B.B. and I therefore think it a splendid medicine.

We regret to learn that Mr. Robert Henderson is in a critical condition of health. We trust that he will soon recover and be able to attend to his duties again.

A wedding wave is at present beating over this neighbourhood. No less than four couples are to be united this week, but we will omit their names until the nuptial knot is tied. It might not be out of place for us to intimate to our bachelor friends that while there is life there is hope of securing a partner and helpmate for life.

A Christian Endeavour rally is to be held in this place on Thanksgiving Day. A meeting is to be held in the Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock p.m., and in the Methodist church at 7. All who are interested in the society are invited to attend the meetings.

A concert is to be held in the town hall here on Friday, the 18th inst. by J. Fax, of Toronto, and some of our local talent. It promises to be a rare treat, and all lovers of vocal music should attend.

Our local sports report duck to be very plentiful on Rice Lake at present. It is no unusual occurence to see a dozen or two of the fowl shot and bagged in a day.

Our present school teacher, Mr. Ward, is, we are happy to learn, re-engaged for another year. He has given general satisfaction as a teacher, and has won the favor of the pupils, which makes it agreeable for all. Miss Pengelly, the assistant, has we believe, resigned, the resignation to take effect at the end of the year.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Dr. Henry Pigeon was the attending physician for the month.

The Presidential Contest.

Despatches were received by the C. P. R. Telegraph Company at their office here regarding the great struggle at issue in the United States, until one o'clock this morning. A knot of interested spectators stood around the front office and now and then gave vent to a cheer as Mr. John Christie, operator, read message after message from the various states of Cleveland's triumphal march to victory. The betting — and several large sums were up—was even. Wagers with the odds in favour of Harrison were made early in the evening, but the tide changed about 9 p.m., with the odds largely in favour of Cleveland.

Trip to California

Mr. W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announces a personally conducted party to all points in California, leaving Toronto 3 p.m., November 16th. The party will be taken in one of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrated tourist cars, which are furnished with regular outfit, similar to the first-class sleeper, the route being via Kansas City, where the only change in cars will be made. The special advantages thus offered are the through service with first class accommodation at a very cheap rate. For full particulars write or call on Mr. W. R. Callaway, No. 1, King street, East, Toronto, or T. E. Boddy, Peterborough.

The Collegiate Victorious.

A Rugby match was played on the P.A.A.A. grounds yesterday afternoon between a team of fourteen men from the Collegiate Institute and seven from the town. Mr. Alexander refereed the game. The following composed the Collegiate team:—Back, H. Burnham; halves, Drope, Scott, T. Burnham; quarter, V. McWilliams; right wing, Guy Rogers, A. Ferguson, R. Davidson; scrimmage, Borland, H. Rogers, Anderson; left wing, Adams, King, Munro. The score at the close of the game stood 10 to 5 points in favor of the collegians, but they had not only the advantage in double numbers to their opponents but also the favor of a strong western wind. For the victors, Adams made two touch-downs, and King and Munroe each made a rouge. The town scored a tuch down in goal and a rouge—making 5. The Collegiate boys were in jubilant spirits over their triumph.

"Nothing succeeds like success," and nothing will more quickly insure success than true merit. For fifty years, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has maintained its popularity as the superior blood-purifier. It stands upon its own merits and never fails to give satisfaction.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—There will be no issue of THE EXAMINER to-morrow.

—There were no pencil marks on Chief Russel slate this morning against any citizens. The cells were also tenantless.

—A scavenger for depositing night soil in Spaulding's Bay will answer before the police magistrate this week for his offence.

—The annual supper and entertainment of Lansdowne Lodge No. 27, Sons of England, will be held in their lodge rooms to-morrow night.

—The Evening Star, Toronto, a new evening publication of 32 columns, has reached our sanctum. It is a bright, spicy sheet that is sure to please.

—The officers of Court Springville, Canadian Order of Foresters, will be installed on Monday night next by R. Q. Dench, D.D.H.C.R., Lakefield.

—The evangelistic meeting in the George street Methodist church last evening was again well attended. Rev. Mr. Locke gave an inspiring address.

—To-morrow is Thanksgiving Day. A great onslaught will be made by the youthful nimrod upon all the birds of the forests and the animals that roam the earth.

—As three of the runners in the great running race, which was to have taken place in the Driving Park to-morrow afternoon, are in town, a scratch race may take place.

—Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son yesterday shipped a large tent to Calgary, N. W. T., and also filled a large order for their waterproof horse covers which they shipped to Napanee. This was a good day's business.

—A vagrant who has been confined in the county gaol for some months past, made application to the police magistrate to-day and in accordance with his wishes an order was issued recommitting him for six months more.

—The horse attached to the delivery waggon belonging to Mr. J. Cox, milk vendor took fright at the cars this morning and ran away on Aylmer street. The animal turned on to Charlotte street and was captured in front of the skating rink. No damage was done to the conveyance.

Great Ocean Race.

Col. Gibson, of the Tremont House, Lakefied, who has just returned, from a visit to England, by steamer Ontario writes:—There has been dreadful weather lately on the Atlantic and the SS. Lake Ontario of the Beaver Line, experienced the gale in its full force. This splendid sea-boat left Liverpool on the 27th ultimo and the Parisian carrying the mails left the Liverpool docks at the same time. It was a race across the broad Atlantic, and the Atlantic at its worst—one continuous hurricane. The two vessels never sighted one another after starting until going through the Straits of Belle Isle when the Parisian hove in sight. The fact of the two steamers being so close together caused quite a little excitement on on board. The Parisan being a larger and more powerful boat passed the Lake Ontario at Farmer's Point, but the gallant Ontario re-passed her during a thick fog shortly after and landed in Montreal a full day in advance.

PERSONAL

Dr. J. Gibb Wishart, Toronto, is in Town and registered at the Oriental.

Messrs. Fred Hall and Chas. Amys leave on a ten days' fishing expedition to-night.

Mr. Ed. Brown, who has been confined to his room through illness, is around again.

Mr. G. D. Fitzgerald, Peterborough, has been elected treasurer of the Æsculapian Society of Queen's University.

Messrs. R. E. Wood and T. E. Bradburn have joined the Winch hunting party at Jack's Lake. Messrs. R. A. Morrow and T. E. Bradburn will leave to-morrow to join confederates.

Rev. Dr. Smith, the Secretary of Queen's College Kingston, was in town yesterday and to-day canvassing in the interests of the new proposed new mining school for eastern Ontario to be established in the Limestone City in affiliation with Queen's University.

It is understood that Col. Gibson, of the Tremont house, Lakefield, who has just returned from a month's visit to the old country and crossed on the "Ontario," whose stormy passage and race with the "Parisian" are noted elsewhere, was accompanied by his friend Lieutenant Blake, who will spend a few days with the Colonel at Lakefield. Lieut. Blake, who belongs to the 10th Hussars and is second A.D.C. to the Duke of Cambridge, is understood to be the bearer of important despatches to Ottawa regarding the fishery question and other important matters.

RUGBY ROUGES.

To-morrow's Great Matches—The Personnel of the Teams.

To-morrow (Thanksgiving Day) will be a gala one for footballers and the lovers of the absorbing game as it is often styled. Two of the best Rugby organizations in the province will be here to play and great games are expected. The home boys who will put two seperate teams, in the field, have been putting in some great practice work lately and we are or at least ought to be in good shape for the struggles. In the morning at 9.30 o'clock sharp on the P.A.A.A. grounds Port Hope Town Team will play here and in the afternoon at 2.30 o'clock the Victorias of Toronto, one of the best Rugby organizations in the Queen City, will play. The Victorias are not, as many suppose, the Victoria University Team, but a separate club altogether, under the name of the Victorias. Following is the personnel of the teams which Peterborough will put on the field:—

Morning game at 9.30, Port Hope Town vs. Peterborough.

Afternoon game at 2.20; Victorias (Toronto) vs. Peterboroughs:

WEDDING BELLS.

Mercer-Buxton.

A pleasant matrimonial event took place this afternoon at four o'clock at the residence of Mr. A. P. Buxton, corner of Stewart and Simcoe streets, when his youngest daughter, Etta, was wedded to Mr. Frank Mercer, one of Peterborough's most successful young business men. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. George Edwards, pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church, in the presence of a limited number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The happy bride was assisted by Miss Bella Mercer, sister of the groom. The duties of groomsman were filled by Mr. R. J. Fife. After the knot had been tied, the bridal party, together with the guests, sat down to a recherche repast. The presents were unique and elegant, while the congratulations were many. Mr. and Mrs. Mercer left on the 5.45 C. P. R. express for an extended tour through the west. Returning they will take up their residence on Stewart street, where their many friends will wish them many years of happy wedded life.

CHURCH CHIMES.

The following is the list of services which will be celebrated to-morrow in honour of Thanksgiving Day.

A union service of all the evangelical churches of the town will be held in St. Paul's church to-morrow forenoon at 11 o'clock. The service will be of a Thanksgiving nature, most the ministers of the town participating. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Jas. Thom, pastor of Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham. A special collection will be taken up in the interest of the Peterborough Protestant Home.

A special Thanksgiving service will also be held in St. John's church at 11 o'clock. It will partake of a Thanksgiving nature with Morning Prayer. The annual offertory on behalf of the Mission Fund of the church will be made.

A special Thanksgiving service will also be held in St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, at 10 o'clock. There will be morning prayer and sermon by Rev. Mr. Symmonds, rector. The annual offertory in connection with the Mission Fund of the church will be taken up.

Local Union, Y. P. S. C. E.—Prayer meeting at Y. M. C. A. Hall at 8.30 o'clock a.m.

DETERMINATION!

Our determination in the future as in the past, is to lead in every line we handle, and to positively undersell all other dealers. Listen to a few of our prices:

In Lamps we begin with a neat Hand Lamp at 14c.; Stand Lamps from 18c. to 50c.; Parlour Lamps at 60c. worth $1, at 75c. worth $2.00, at $1 worth $2.50, etc., etc. We have an immense range of Lamps of all kinds at prices which defy competition.

In Lanterns we will continue to sell the "Crank," "Lift" and other standard makes, at 40c., or the same Lantern painted at 50c. Nothing better made.

Hanging Lamps from $1.00 up to $20.00. Hall Lamps at from $2.00 to $15.00. Piano Lamps from $7.50 up to $50.00. Banquet Lamps, beauties, at $3.00 worth $5.00; at $4.00 worth $6.00, etc., up to $25.00.

Chimneys, Wicks and Burners of all descriptions, at rock bottom prices. Flint Chimneys at 4c.

In connection with the above subject we would say that we have the finest Oils procurable—American, Reflex and Canadian.

Remember we not only refuse to be undersold, but we shall take the lead and undersell all other dealers. Come direct to headquarters for the above lines.

TELFORDIAN TEMPERATURE TOPICS.

Mr. Telford Writes Giving the Following Weather Notes for October.

October, now gone, I believe has been one of the finest on record, although, according to old traditions, their never was an October without snow. We actually had none here, still in many places of the Dominion and in Europe considerable snow has fallen. The month came in fine, continuing throughout with a mild, even temperature, At 1 p.m. several times up to and over 70°,, on the 24th going up to 76°, while at the morning observation the lowest was on the 20th and 31st, but only coming down to 28°, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 43 21/31°. We had three thunder storms during the month, on the third in three hours, falling 87/100 of water, and on the 15th and 18th, distant thunder was also heard, with but little rain. We had a considerable number of frosty mornings during the month and some time ice; rain fell on 10 days to the depth of 2 inches and 79/100. Once auroral lights and twice halo. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month respectively, viz., north, 2 days; northwest, 14 days; southwest, 10 days; west, 2 days; northeast, 2 days and southeast 1 day. It will be seen from the above that the northwest and southwest being 24 days, thereby the wind from the two claim a fraction over four-fifths of the whole month. How is that for blowing?

Little Beginnings.

The steam which raised the lid of the kettle led a philosophic mind to utilize if for a man's benefit. No one dreamed that we should now be dragged along by it at the rate of sixty miles an hour. When Perry Davis made a preparation for the medicinial use of his family, over fifty years ago, neither he nor any man imagined that it would now be old in every land, and prove to be the PAIN-KILLER of the world. The new big bottle, old price 25c

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

Rough Skin,

Caused by cold weather, is made perfectly smooth by one application of Dyer's Jelly of Cucumber and Roses. Try it. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal. 6d109

NOTICES OF MOTION.

The following notices of motion were presented for consideration:

Moved by C. N. Brown, seconded by T. A. Hay, that it would be advisable for the town of Peterborough to exempt all machinery, tools and implements of manufacture in use from taxation.

Mr. J. H. Burnham moved that it would be advisable for Ontario to curtail the power of mortgaging hereafter acquired, as such curtailment would have the effect of lessening speculation which at present unduly enhances the economic value of real estate and is detrimental to individual interests.

THE TOWN ASSESSORS AND SAWLOGS.

Mr. Burnham referred to the town having four assessors at an annual cost of $500 per year and thought the assessment could be made more economically. He also referred to the export duty on sawlogs having been removed by the Dominion Government, thereby enabling Americans to take away our timber.

Messrs. Mulholland, Hay, Lewis and Sproule also approved of the export duty being replaced.

Mr. Mulholland gave notice of motion, seconded by Mr. Harry Phalen, that in the opinion of this Board of Trade it would be advisable for the Dominion Government to replace the export duty on sawlogs.

G. T. R. RESIDENT ENGINEER.

Mr. Sproule moved, seconded by Dr. Caldwell that in the opinion of the Board of Trade it would be advisable for the G. T. R. Company to have a resident engineer in Peterborough.—Carried.

The Board then adjourned.

Remarkable Experience of Mr. Charles L. Gowing, of Brockville, Ont.

Brockville Recorder.

The following letter tells miraculous results:—

Dr. Butler Med. Co., Brockville:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Golden Pills were recommended to me by a lady who was cured of rheumatism by their use, and being a victim to that painful ailment upon her recommendation I commenced taking them. After taking two boxes no perceptible change was apparent in my rheumatism. I ate very much better though and my sleep was less disturbed. I commenced the third box with my faith a trifle shaken, but before I had it finished I noticed a change. The swellings of the joints diminished and the pain became less frequent. I now made up my mind to persevere in their use, and can now, after taking six boxes, honestly state that they have entirely cured my rheumatism. There is one thing still more remarkable concerning your Golden Pills, a virtue they possess and for which you take no credit, and that is that they have wonderfully strengthened my eyesight. I was forced to wear spectacles while reading and have had to use them for more than ten years. I can now read perfectly at all times without my glasses and have abandoned them. This I claim is as great if not a greater cure than that of in rheumatism, as I can honestly ascribe my restored strength of sight to nothing other than your Golden Pills.

Your obedient servant,
CHAS. L. GOWING.

Referring so the above wonderful restoration to perfect and strengthened sight, it was perfectly well known to the discoverer of Golden Pills, that they had a specific action on the nerve of sight, but this quality was not given precedence to their marvellous tonic properties to the system generally. The remarkable cures of St. Vitus dance and nervous prostration, effected by them, deserve a place in the memory of all readers.

Butler's Golden Pills are alike efficacious in neuralgia, paralysis, and all forms of female weakness, suppressions, irregularies and the many ills that attend women at change of life. All blood diseases, salt rheum, scrofula, catarrh of the throat or stomach, incipient consumption and chronic erysipelas.

Golden Pills are the discovery of a distinguished physician and employed in his private practice for many years, with unfailing success. They are offered at a price that makes a course of treatment inexpensive. No other remedy possesses such magical properties. Price, 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50. All druggists or by mail, from the Dr. Butler Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MAN'S INHUMANITY.

The Pitiable Experience of Augustus Swiger While on a Tramp.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—Augustus Swiger, a German, 45 years of age, was taken to the Homœopathic Hospital yesterday afternoon with both bones of his right leg broken. He says he started on foot from Whitby Sunday morning, intending to make his way to Woodstock, where he hoped to find work as a tanner. He was taken up by a passing carriage, but had ridden only a few miles when the horse became frightened, shied and threw him out, and the driver did not stop for his passenger. The fall broke Swiger's leg. He crawled to a farm house near East Toronto, where his leg was tied up and a crutch was given him. Mr. N. Weatherston of 13 Peter-street took the injured man in and summoned the ambulance, which took him to the hospital.

MR. GEORGE BOYD DEAD.

The Former Senior Partner of Buntin, Bros. & Co.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—The death took place at 53 Wellesley-street of Mr. George Boyd, sr., formerly senior partner in the firm of Buntin Bros. & Co., wholesale stationers, Front-street. Deceased, who was in his 77th year, had been failing ever since the death of his wife in December last. He leaves a widow and eight children—four sons and four daughters.

Mr. Boyd was born in Renton, Dumbartonshire, and came to Toronto in 1857, at once entering the firm of Buntin Bros. & Co. He retired about 10 years since.

The funeral will take place at 2.30 on Thursday.

Incendiarism at Markham.

MARKHAM, Nov. 8.—The new brick house for Mr. John Calvert, near the G.T.R. station, costing over $2000, and just approaching completion, was set on fire on Saturday night about 7 o'clock. Shavings and turpentine were put in a closet and ignited; more combustibles were spread on the floor and lighted. The building was partially destroyed. There was a builder's risk in the way of insurance. There is no doubt as to the fire being the work of an incendiary, and it is likely that an arrest will follow.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage, defying the utmost art of man to rival

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

PROMPT, POTENT AND PERMANENT results always come from the use of Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine. dw

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

BEARS ARE PLENTIFUL.

(By Monkton—A good deal of grumbling about the shortening of the season. Deer Plentiful.)

PARRY SOUND, Nov. 8.—Sportsmen have a good deal of grumbling about the shortening of the season, which is now but 15 days. Those who practice still-hunting say the rule does not give them much chance, as in all probability there will not be sufficient snow for tracking before the season is ended.

A large majority of those who go out for deer, however, use dogs, and the change does not affect them, except that in providing that all the shooting must be done within 15 days it causes the hunters to crowd into the woods about the same time, thus reducing their individual chances.

That the game law is not strictly observed is well known in the Parry Sound district. A day or two after the season opened a number of sportsmen returned from the woods with two deer each. At any rate that is the number they brought back with them. It did not take much inquiry to develop the fact that many of them had gone into the woods early to avoid the rush. Those who went in before the season opened did not stop shooting when they had killed two deer if there was any chance to get more. The extra deer were shipped on ahead of the hunter or else sent after him. One sportsman who started from Trout Creek cheerfully confessed that he had gone into the woods four days before the season opened and had killed five deer.

So far as could be learned no moose have been killed in Northern Ontario this fall, although there are known to be numbers of moose in certain parts of the district.

Although partridges are rather plentiful they are hard to kill, being very wild. In some places they have been almost exterminated by dogs, which destroy the eggs and young birds.

Snow has interfered somewhat with partridge shooting, there having been several snowfalls during the last three weeks.

There has been a scarcity of ducks this fall, and those who expected to make big records on water fowl have been sadly disappointed. The ducks have now almost deserted the northern lakes.

Bears are unusually plentiful this fall, a great many having been seen in the vicinity of Eagle Lake, as well as in other sections.

The bailiff is in possession of the fruit and confectionery business of F. J. Charlton of Woodstock.

SEEKING A ROW.

The Anti-Popery Association Wanted to Float a Nonsensical Scheme

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Anti-Popery Association has applied to the police authorities for permission to have two floats follow the Lord Mayor's procession. One float was to illustrate the methods claimed to be used by the Roman Catholic Church in the conversion of heretics. The other was a scene emblematic of the triumphs of Protestantism over the alleged tyranny of Rome. The police declined to allow any such demonstration, as the possibilities of a row at present are sufficient without adding an exhibition which would certainly cause a riot.

The French in Dahomey.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—The Governor of Porto Novo telegraphs that Colonel Dodds command attacked the fortress Muaco, near Cana, on Nov. 4, and after a desperate resistance by the natives captured it. The combined Dahomeyan forces attacked the French column at 5 o'clock in the morning on Nov. 5. After for hours' hard fighting the enemy fled. The French lost an officer and six men. There were 60 wounded, including four officers.

Recovered from Cholera.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Osgood, McIlvaine & Co., the publishers here, state that they received a letter from Mr. Child on Thursday last, stating that he had had cholera at Ishpan and that he had been nursed by American ladies, presumably missionaries. He added that he had entirely recovered.

Decreases Still Reported.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The returns issued by the Board of Trade show that imports decreased £2,150,000 and exports decreased £2,440,000 during October, as compared with October last year.

Died in Jail.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 8.—"Billy" Watson, an aged man who has been a resident of this part of the Dominion for a great number of years, died at the jail at 4.30 yesterday morning. The deceased was on Nov. 27, 1891, committed as a vagrant for four months. He was at that time in poor health and has also been of unsound mind for a great many years.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs.

The Head Surgeon

of the Lubon Medical Company is now at Toronto, Canada, and may be consulted either in person or by letter on all chronic diseases peculiar to men. Men, young, old or middle-aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess or overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of memory, bad dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, emissions, lack of energy, pain in the kidneys, headache, pimples on the face or body, itching or peculiar sensation about the scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, specks before the eyes, twitching of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bashfulness deposits in the urine, loss of will power tenderness of the scalp and spine, weak and flabby muscles, failure to be rested by sleep, constipation dullness of hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, excitability of temper, sunken eyes surrounded with leaden circle, oily looking skin, etc. are all symptoms of nervous debility that lead to insanity and death unless cured. The spring or vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence. Those who through abuse committed in ignorance may be permanently cured. Send your address for book on all diseases peculiar to man. Books sent free sealed. Heart disease, the symptoms of which are faint spells, purple lips, numbness, palpitation, skip beats, hot flushes, rush of blood to the head, dull pain in in the heart with beats strong, rapid and irregular, the second heart beat quicker than the first, pain about the breast bone, etc., can positively be cured. No cure, no pay. Send for book. Address M. V. LUBON, 24 Macdonell ave., Toronto, Can.

EXCELLENCE.

RHEUMATISM.—MR. WM. HOWIE, 65 Red Lion St., High Holborn, W. C., London Eng., states he had rheumatism 3 years; suffered intensely from swelling of hands, feet and joints. He used St. Jacobs Oil with marvellous results. Before the second bottle was exhausted the pain left him. He is cured.

NEURALGIA.—MRS. JOHN McLEAN, Barrie Island, Ont., March 4, 1889, says: "I suffered severely with neuralgia for nine years and have been greatly benefited by the use of St. Jacobs Oil."

SCIATICA.—Grenada, Kans., U. S. A., Aug. 8, 1888. "I suffered eight years with sciatica; used five bottles of St. Jacobs Oil and was permanently cured." JACOB L. SMITH.

STRAIN.—"MR. M. PRICE, 14 Tabernacle Square, E. C., London, Eng., says: "I strained my wrist and the severe pain yielded like magic to St. Jacobs Oil."

LAMEBACK.—MRS. J. RINGLAND, Kinmid St., Brockville, Ont., writes: "I was confined to bed by severe lumbago. A part of a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil enabled me to go about in a day."

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 25, 1892.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adhere to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

EMIGRATION WORK.

A Strong Delegation Leaving the Atlantic to Facilitate Planning for the Advantages of the Northwest.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8.—Mr. Hamilton, land commissioner of the C.P.R., left for the east last night and will call for England from Montreal next Saturday. He will be accompanied across the Atlantic by several delegates, successful farmers of Manitoba, who will spend the winter at work among their people at home. There are two for Norway and Sweden, one for Russia, among the Mennonites of Southern Russia and the fourth for Belgium.

These delegates are sent to Europe at the expense of the company, and it is hoped the mission will be successful. Following the work of these delegates parties will be distributed from Liverpool to the several countries in the spring, and thus it is expected a satisfactory emigration may be looked for from the countries named.

Before leaving Mr. Hamilton informed your correspondent that there would be a conference of all Government steamship and railway interests in Montreal on Thursday, when the whole question will be discussed and steps taken for concerted action. It is probable an energetic policy will be laid down at this conference, and many of those to be present at that consultation, including Baker, European agent of C.P.R., and Ennis, Liverpool, representative of Allan Line of steamers, will be fellow-passengers with Mr. Hamilton on the Parisian. Details will be fully arranged on the voyage.

GRANDMA'S DEAD.

The Cry That Aroused Enoch Middleton—An Old Lady Interested By Gas.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—"O papa, get up quick, grandma's dead!" was the cry that roused Mr. Enoch Middleton of 30 Clarement-street yesterday morning. The words were uttered by his 10-year-old daughter, Christina, who rushed to his bedroom at 7 o'clock. The little girl had prepared the breakfast, and on going to call Mrs. Sutherland, a friend of the family, discovered that she was dead. She then ran to her father's room. On entering the bedroom Mr. Middleton found that the room was full of gas, which was still escaping from an open jet. The old lady's wrinkled face was colored a deep purple and the painful expression it wore showed that the last sleep had not been peaceful. All Mr. Middleton's efforts to awaken her were unavailing, and when Dr. Pepler arrived a few minutes later he pronounced life extinct. The medical man discovered that the key of the gas jet was defective in that it would turn all the way round. The post-mortem examination showed that death had resulted from gas poisoning.

At the inquest held by Coroner Aikins at the Claremont House Mrs. Middleton testified that she had repeatedly warned the deceased that it was necessary to light a match to test the jet after the gas was turned out. This she had evidently neglected to do with fatal results. The jury returned a verdict of "gas poisoning due to defective fixtures."

The deceased has two sons, Edward and David, the former a carpenter in the city, and the other a pressman on The Rochester Herald and once similarly employed on The Toronto Mail.

AN HONORED BURIAL.

The Remains of N. G. Bigelow, Q.C., M.L.A., Interred in the Presence of Many Old Colleagues and Friends.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—Yesterday afternoon the remains of the late N. G. Bigelow, Q.C., M.L.A., were interred in St. James' Cemetery.

At 2.30 the funeral services were held in the house. The Masonic service was conducted by Hon. J. M. Gibson, assisted by W. M. Bell of St. Andrew's Lodge. The funeral service of the Methodist Church was conducted by Rev. Hugh Johnston, Rev. W. S. Blackstock, Rev. Chancellor Burwash and Rev. Dr. Dewart.

The long cortege left the house shortly after 3 for St. James' Cemetery, where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. John Pearson.

Honored His Memory.

The pall-bearers were: Hon. J. M. Gibson, Judge Morson, William Roaf, Daniel Spry, Professor Raynor, W. C. Wilkinson, Æmilius Irving, Robert Jaffray and W. B. McMurrich, all of whom are prominent in Masonic circles.

St. Andrew's Lodge, of which the deceased was a leading member, attended in a body. A large number of Masons from other lodges were also present.

There were many beautiful floral offerings. St. Andrew's Lodge sent a harp and the Ontario Reform Club sent a wreath. The remainder were from members of the family and friends.

Two Heavy Election Bets.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—Horace Disston, a prominent Republican of this city, deposited $10,000 with a local banking firm to cover a Cleveland bet of the same amount. Magistrate Durham bet $10,000 to-day that Harrison will be elected.

The Advertising

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is always within the bounds of reason because it is true; it always appeals to the sober, common sense of thinking people because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by endorsements which, in the financial world would be accepted without a moment's hesitation.

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c. and $1.

Altgeld, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected by 12,000 or 15,000 majority. Chicago will give the Democratic ticket 30,000 majority and the balance of Cook County will reduce that to 25,000.

At Republican headquarters they do not claim over 10,000 to 15,000 for Fifer outside of Cook County.

At midnight The Chicago Herald displayed a red flash light, its signal betokening Cleveland's election. The Tribune gave Illinois to Cleveland.

The Tribune and Interocean (Rep.) at 11 o'clock both refuse to give up the state and claim that the latest returns leaves result in doubt.

In Little Rhody.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Nov. 9.—The total vote of the state, lacking 20 districts, gives Harrison 18,248, Cleveland 15,552. The state goes for Harrison.

In the Badger State.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 9.—The returns indicate that the Republican, National and State ticket will be elected by from 15,000 to 20,000 plurality.

In the Turpentine State.

WILMINGTON, N.C., Nov. 9.—The result of the election in this state shows a sweeping Democratic victory on both State and National tickets.

In Maryland, My Maryland.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 9.—Cleveland's plurality in Maryland will exceed 12,000. Secretary Vandiver of the State Central Committee says that Maryland has elected six Democratic Congressmen.

The Buckeye State

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 9.—Ohio has gone Republican by at least 25,000.

The Mississippi State.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 9.—Mississippi returns are meagre. The people's party has received less votes than claimed they would. Cleveland carries the state by probable 20,000. The Democrats claim the election of all their congressmen.

Indiana.

The Globe-Democrat concedes Indiana to Democrats by from 8000 to 10,000 plurality.

Cleveland Carries the Panhandle.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 9.—The Democratic State Committee claims that West Virginia's electoral vote will be cast for Cleveland without a doubt. Indications here point in that direction, but nothing definite is known. Under the new election law no official count will be given before to-morrow. The Republicans claim the election of Davis for governor.

The Creole State.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 9.—Louisiana elects the entire Democratic congressional delegation and gives the state to Cleveland.

Weaver Carries Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Nov. 9.—Nebraska is carried by Weaver by about 10,000. The Legislature is Democratic and independent.

Weaver Also Captures Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kansas, Nov. 9.—Weaver has carried this state.

Way Down in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Tennessee gives 65,000 plurality for Cleveland.

ARRESTS IN NEW YORK.

Tammany Had a Bail Fund of $3,000,000—Several Held for Trial.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Arrests for illegal registration were not so numerous in the early morning hours as had been expected.

Arrangements were made by Tammany Hall for the release on bail of any of their voters who might fall into the official clutches of a deputy United States Marshal, and the organization had several lawyers before each commissioner to see that the prisoners were properly treated. Bail to the amount of nearly $3,000,000 was arranged for yesterday, sureties having qualified before the United States Commissioners in that sum.

There was no attempt to have a formal examination in any case. The prisoners made a statement, and were then subjected to a questioning by an assistant district attorney and a Tammany lawyer, and upon the facts as they were disclosed the court acted. A number of the arrests were based upon evident misunderstandings, and the prisoners were at once discharged. In other cases they were held for future examination under bail of $1000 or $1500.

One arrest that created some amusement and not a little amazement occurred in Precinct 24. A deputy marshal brought in a blind Pole, whom he had arrested because he could not see the ballot offered him. The commissioner at once ordered the discharge of the prisoner.

Shortly after noon Thomas Murphy was arrested in the Third Assembly district for illegal registration. Deputy United States Marshal Blancher started with the prisoner for United States Commissioner Shields' office, and while on the way a number of Murphy's friends assaulted the marshal.

A small riot was precipitated, but assistance soon arrived, and the prisoner was safely handed before the commissioner.

In Brooklyn 12 arrests were made up to 10 o'clock for violation of the election laws.

As the morning advanced the arrests became more numerous in New York city, and by noon, at which time the United States Commissioner took a recess, 75 cases had been passed upon.

Arrests in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 9.—Eight arrests were made this morning in the fifth district of the Nineteenth Ward for illegal registration.

When the fraudulent voters arrived at the booth this morning—and they were on hand as soon as the polls opened—they were taken into custody and not allowed to vote.

Up to noon four more arrests for illegal registration had been made in the Nineteenth Ward.

Senator Osborne Arrested Again.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Nov. 9.—Senator Osborne was challenged when he offered his vote today and he swore it in. Later he was arrested for illegal voting and taken before United States Commissioner Hunter, where he waived examination. Bail was fixed at $1000 for the next United States grand jury.

NOTES.

Where the Candidates Voted—Sockless Jerry Defeated.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 9.—Gen. Stevenson, the candidate for the Vice-Presidency on the Democratic ticket, is taking matters quite easy to-day at his home, surrounded by the members of his family. He cast his vote early. A number of confidential friends and advisers of Mr. Stevenson called at his residence yesterday. He received election returns by messenger and telephone. He refused the tender of a wire offered him by the Western Union Company.

Reid Voted at White Plains.

WHITE PLAINS, Nov. 9.—Whitelaw Reid arrived here from New York yesterday and at once proceeded to the polls in the first district of Harrison, where he voted. This evening he will receive returns at his residence at Ophir Farm.

How Governor Flower Voted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Governor Roswell P. Flower was one of the early voters this morning, having cast his ballot at 7 o'clock.

Sockless Jerry Defeated.

TOPEKA, Kansas, Nov. 9.—Sockless Jerry Simson was defeated in the 7th Congressional District of Kansas.

Not a Vote For Harrison.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 9.—In four wards of one parish in Louisiana not a single Harrison vote was cast.

Dropped Dead at the Polling Booth.

BUFFALO, Nov. 9.—Robert Kilcourse, a well-known citizen of the Fifth district of the Nineteenth ward, dropped dead near the polling booth this morning. Kilcourse was at the polls early and was one of the principal Democrat workers in the ward.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY

Head one Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using them eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was also all over his ears, most of his face, and small places on different parts of his body. There were sixteen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his fingernails out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hands loose. We know your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.

Would You Buy,

If the Prices Were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,500. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

Crowded Out!

TWEEDS, SUITINGS and OVERCOATS

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

TO EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being to positively clear out the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

A SOLDIER SHOT DEAD

BY A POLICEMAN, WHOM HE HAD ASSAULTED.

William Tickner of "C" Infantry School the Victim—Policeman Campbell (154) the Officer Who Did the Shooting—History of the Constable and Dead Man.

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—A terrible tragedy was enacted in Widmer-street at about 9 o'clock last evening, William Tickner, a member of C School of Infantry, being shot and almost instantly killed by P. C. Campbell (154).

The shooting occurred in front of No. 22. Campbell had arrested on a charge of drunkenness a man named William Wheeler, another member of C School, but who was in plain clothes. Tickner was in Wheeler's company. Campbell started with his prisoner toward the patrol box when his prisoner resisted, and a crowd of C School men collected around. In the scrimmage the policeman was thrown to the ground and assaulted by the men. In the melee Tickner was shot and killed. The story of the tragedy and what led up to it is best told by eye-witnesses.

AN EYE-WITNESS.

The Story of the Tragedy as Told By Dr. Lapsley.

Dr. Lapsley of 190 King-street west said: "I was going up the west side of Widmer-street at 9 o'clock this evening when I saw P.C. Campbell with a drunken man under arrest. A friend of the prisoner in military clothes was with them. The prisoner refused to go with the policeman to the patrol box and the friend—the man afterwards shot—interfered. The policeman drew his baton, and with that six other military men who happened to be in the street rushed up and closed round the officer. Though I was close at hand I could not tell whether the policeman was knocked down or thrown down in the scuffle. The baton was taken away from him and the whole crowd began beating the prostrate man with loaded canes and with their fists. I interfered on the part of the policeman, but some of the men rushed at me so savagely that I was glad to get out of the way. At last the officer struggled to his knees, and just at that moment Tickner ran up to him and struck him a brutal blow with his fist, fair in the face. The policeman fell over on his back and just then the revolver went off. Tickner staggered and fell, gasping, "I'm shot! I'm shot! I'm shot!" The officer rose from the ground with great difficulty, and was so dazed that he did not blow the whistle till reminded by me that he ought to do so. P. C. Phillips ran up and arrested the drunken man who had caused the trouble, and whose name is William Wheeler of 'C' School.

"The fight occurred in front of No. 22. The shot attracted Thomas Muir of No. 25 to the place, and he assisted in carrying the wounded man into his own house. I had no hypodermic syringe, and so sent for Dr. Riordan. The latter soon arrived, but all our efforts proved unavailing. Tickner was partially conscious for a short time before his death, asking for a drink of water, which was given. He died at 9.40 o'clock, about 40 minutes after being shot."

HIS COMPANIONS.

"C" School Men Give Their Version of the Affair.

Pte. R. Miller of "C" School, who was with Tickner, tells this story:

"Ptes. Larmer, Tickner and a servant at the Fort called Wheeler and myself were standing talking to the inmates of a house in Widmer-street, when the policeman came along and ordered us to 'move on.' Wheeler answered, 'I'm stopping here.' The policemen, however, doubted this, and caught hold of him. We had in the meantime walked on a little, but when we saw the policeman catch hold of Wheeler Tickner went to the rescue. It was a matter of fate," continued Pte. Miller, "and I might have been the unlucky man, for one of us intended going to Wheeler's help. The next I can remember was hearing a report of a revolver and hearing Tickner exclaim: 'I'm shot in the breast.' Tickner was down when shot. He was removed to the residence of a Scotch family named Muir, and I immediately ran to the Arlington Hotel and summoned medical assistance. Wheeler was certainly aggressive in the first place, but Tickner was not the man to pick a quarrel with anyone. Quartermaster Borland, with his wife, was passing a few minutes before the fight. Tickner must have remembered this, for his last words were: "Where is the quartermaster?"

THE DEAD MAN'S HISTORY.

Tickner Was Qualifying For a Commission in the Hussars.

In the New Fort Tickner's late companions stood around awe-stricken as the men who had been down town for the day returned. In the guard-room his late companions stood discussing the matter, and universal regret was expressed at his tragic end, as he was a prime favorite with all.

Probably the best-informed man as regards his inside history is Sergeant Butler. The Sergeant knew him in England, and from him was elicited the following:

Tickner was about 22 years of age and of the best disposition. He was born in St. Mary's Cray, Kent County, England. This is his second trip to Canada, he having been both at Montreal and here before entering "C" School. He had been at the Fort 14 months, and at the expiration of his time at "C" School intended going back to England and qualifying for a Hussar regiment. He has a father in England, but as Tickner never mentioned his mother it is conjectured that she is dead. Tickner has borne the best of reputation, was a strict, industrious, sober man, and was relied on by his superior officers.

The ambulance arrived at the Fort about 11.20 with the remains, and the lady was placed in the "hospital," where the official in charge refused admittance to all visitors till after the coroner arrived. Col. Otter had in the meantime driven in in a carriage, but the coroner was not expected till morning.

P. C. CAMPBELL'S STORY.

He Relates the Circumstances Which Led to the Shooting.

Policeman Archibald Campbell is a tall, strongly-built young man of 27. He talks quietly and gives the impression that he would act with coolness in all circumstances.

"I was on my regular patrol in Widmer-street," he said, "and was passing along about 9.15 p.m. I saw a young man, Wheeler by name, standing at the front of the house and Mrs. Warner, who lives there, ordered him away. I asked Mrs. Warner if she wanted him there, and she said 'no.' I then ordered him to move on. He replied that I was not doing my duty, that he would see what Denison had to say about it, and made other similar remarks. I again ordered him on, and as he refused I placed him under arrest and began marching him up towards Adelaide-street. I had only got a few steps when Tickner ran up to assist Wheeler. When Tickner came up Wheeler grasped me around the middle and attempted to throw me. I got my back to a tree box, but the two of them shoved me off and we all fell in a scuffle. We rolled from the sidewalk across the boulevard and they got me face down next the curbstone in the roadway. Wheeler got on top of me and held me down and Tickner began pounding me—at least, that is what I felt they were doing. He hit me on this side, he pounded me over the head with a heavy stick and then I think he must have kicked me here," said the policeman touching his right jaw, which was swelled up as big as a man's fist. "There was quite a crowd around by this time, but no one interfered. I heard some of them calling them to stop, but no one made a move to get them off. At last a young slip of a lad—I don't know who he was—ran in and pulled Tickner off and dragged him into the middle of the street. I was on my stomach in the road, but now got up partly and drew my revolver. Just then I saw that Tickner had got away from the lad and was coming back. Then I fired. Tickner fell, and I got Wheeler off me and went up to Tickner. I picked him up and carried him into No. 25, where I found Dr. Lapsley."

Policeman Campbell proceeded up the street, where he overtook Wheeler and again took him in charge and, in company with Policeman Phillips, placed him in a patrol wagon and took him to No. 3 station, where a charge of drunkenness was made against him.

No. 3 station was crowded with police officers, reporters and others at 10 o'clock. At that hour in marched an escort from "C" Company, consisting of Lance-Corporal Campbell, Pte. Breen and Pte. Bayley.

"We come here to take Policeman Campbell," said the corporal.

"Who sent you?" said Sergeant White.

"Colonel Otter," said the corporal.

A short consultation was had and the escort withdrew, it being explained that there was an understanding between Col. Otter and the Chief of Police.

After the crowd withdrew Policeman Campbell asked Sergeant White to allow him to go home and explain the matter to his family, who live at 248 Euclid-avenue.

"We cannot do that," said the sergeant.

"Then will you send one of the men up at 4 o'clock in the morning, as they'll be expecting me then?"

"Yes," said the sergeant, "we'll do that."

Policeman Campbell was placed under surveillance, but no charge was laid against him, and none will be laid till this morning. He has been on the police force since 1887 and has always borne the reputation of being a steady, careful officer.

SERVED THE AORTA.

The Wound Was a Mortal One—A Post-Mortem Examination.

Dr. Riordan, who lives at the corner of King and Peter-streets, was seen by a reporter last night and said: "I arrived at the house where the wounded man lay at 9.20. He was suffering from shock and almost pulseless. I resorted to the usual remedy, a hypodermic, but with no effect. The wound was at the right side, directly over the centre of the liver. There was no external bleeding and the lungs were entirely clear, showing that the ball did not strike them. I am of the opinion that the aorta, the great artery leading to the heart, was severed. At any rate I will make a post-mortem to-morrow."

Notes.

The members of C Company at the Fort speak highly of the dead man's general character.

No. 22 Widmer-street, in front of which the tragedy occurred, is a disorderly house and will probably be raided in order to procure the attendance of the inmates at the inquest.

HIS FULL TERM.

Robert McGreevy Will Not Enjoy the Clemency of the Governor-General.

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—It is understood that the Governor-General has declined to commute the sentence of Robert McGreevy, contractor, Quebec, who is serving a year's term in jail there

Inverted the Flag.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—A riot was narrowly averted in South Water-street to-day. F. A. Thomas, a commission merchant and an ardent Republican, displayed the stars and stripes at half-mast and upside down over his store.

Joseph Spies, another commission merchant, while an angry crowd was rapidly gathering, rushed through Thomas' store and upon the roof. Spies speedily righted the flag amid the cheers of the spectators.

Extension of Soo Line.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 11.—President Van Horne of Canadian Pacific arrived here to-day, having come over American lines. He is on his annual tour of inspection. He told a reporter that the extension of the Soo line would certainly be completed by August or September of next year.

A Case of Smallpox.

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—A passenger who was removed from the Beaver Line steamer Lake Ontario at Grosse Isle is said to be suffering from smallpox.

COUNT NOT COMPLETED.

BUT CLEVELAND CONTINUES AWAY IN THE LEAD.

Of the Doubtful States It is Ascertained That Ohio Has Gone For Cleveland, South Dakota For Harrison and Kansas For Weaver—Cleveland's Total to 282.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Up to 4 a.m. the count has settled that Ohio has gone for Cleveland, raising his total to 282. South Dakota increases Harrison's total to 115, and Kansas Weaver's total 13.

The doubtful States now are California, Nebraska and West Virginia.

Benjamin Harrison's figures are worse beaten [illegible] than any man who have been candidates and Vice-President since the campaign in 1872.

Cleveland and Stevenson will receive more votes in the Electoral College than any candidates have ever before had.

CARTER'S LAST HOPE GONE.

He Attributes the Defeat to a Reaction Against the Progressive Policy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Chairman Carter of the Republican National Committee sent the following telegram to President Harrison this afternoon:

"The returns show that we have been defeated by a pronounced majority. The defeat can only be attributed to a reaction against the progressive policy of the Republican party. THOMAS H. CARTER, "Chairman."

Does Not Look Like Tariff Reform.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The World editorially says:

This victory does not mean free trade. It does not mean the unsettling of industry nor the derangement of commerce. It does not mean disturbance of whatever is sound in finance.

A QUICK SESSION.

Of Congress is Considered to Be Probable Following Inauguration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The strong probability of an extra session of Congress immediately following the inauguration of the President-elect is a subject of general conversation in Washington to-day.

A special session of the Senate is always called at the beginning of a new administration to confirm the members of the Cabinet and the new diplomatic representatives of the United States abroad.

But the present election having turned on questions of domestic policy, it is said to be obvious to experienced political leaders of all parties that an extra session of both houses of Congress will almost inevitably result.

Secretary of the Treasury Foster, among others, admits this. The country, he says, challenged the judgment of the Republicans on the McKinley Bill, and the result must be accepted as the will of the people that a different policy shall be put into effect.

Ex-Secretary Bayard writes to a friend here to a like effect, adding that the people will expect this to be done without unnecessary delay.

The British Minister.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Minister to the United States arrived by the Majestic to-day.

GRANTED BAIL.

Rev. Sidney Welton Is Hunting Roadmaker For Twenty Thousand Dollars.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 11.—In the so called graveyard insurance case, postponement of trial of charge against Rev. Sidney Welton, C. B. Welton and Dr. Randall, was made to Dec. 8.

Rev. Sidney Welton was admitted to bail, which was fixed at $20,000. He was given until to-morrow morning to secure the bonds.

Herchimer's Successor Appointed.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 11.—Superintendent McIlvey of Maple Creek has been appointed to succeed Assistant Commissioner Herchimer of the Northwest Mounted Police.

Conservatives of Assiniboia meet on Saturday to select a candidate to succeed Hon. Edgar Dewdney. Major Bell is the probable nominee.

It is announced that Governor Royal of the Northwest has been instructed from Ottawa to take action in regard to dead lock in the Northwest Assembly immediately after election in Wallace constituency. Should Insinger be returned Premier Cayley will be in minority of two and should McNutt be elected the parties will be evenly divided. It is understood that if Insinger is victorious the Governor will call the Legislature together at once but if he is defeated the Governor will not once bring on general elections.

Want Immigration Restricted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Board of Trade and Transportation resumed its monthly meetings yesterday, at which James H. Seymour introduced a resolution that the board requests Congress to consider well the desirability of prohibiting immigration for three years instead of the present regulation laws, which have proved a failure to regulate it. It was adopted William E. Wise also introduced a lengthy resolution on the subject of restricting immigration, which called upon Congress to enact immediately at the next session such amendment to the present immigration law as may be necessary to guard our people. This also was adopted.

Perjury Cases Thrown Out.

LINDSAY, Nov. 11.—The Assizes here have been unusually interesting this week. The perjury cases against two of Victoria's citizens were thrown out by the grand jury as unworthy of consideration.

It transpires that while the Conservative removed 96 out of 102 names attacked the Reformers could strike off only 42 out of about 500 objected to.

Another interesting fact brought to light is that the famous "Christian Hall," about which so much was said by the Grits at the time, was not added to the Dominion lists by Conservatives, but came in through the assessment rolls, sworn to by Mr. Baron's friend the assessor.

Timber Limit Sold.

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—At the Russell to-day the Latour timber limits on Lake Temiscamingue were sold by the Merchants Bank. They realized $19,200. The purchaser was James Russell of Renfrew.

Blair's Opponent.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 11.—At a convention of electors in Gagetown, Queen's County, to-day J. Dewber Neales was chosen to oppose Attorney-General Blair.

THE BOARD OF TRADE AND SAW LOGS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

—DEAR SIR,—I observe by your report of Monday evening of the Board of Trade that a notice of motion was made to take into consideration at a future meeting the wisdom or otherwise of having re-imposed "the export duty on saw logs." As one who has had some little experience with former Boards of Trade in this town, and also one who believes that a properly conducted Board can be of assistance to Peterborough in legitimate ways, I decidedly object to the Board introducing subjects for discussion outside its proper functions. As individual citizens we can express our opinions to our Dominion representative and have him represent our views upon the subject to the Government, but as a local Board of Trade, originated for the purpose of discussing merely local matters directly bearing upon the town, we are going beyond our jurisdiction and are sure to bring discord into our deliberations just so soon as matters like that above referred to are introduced.

I hope the good common sense of the Board generally will be exercised, and this first attempt to introduce subjects, foreign to our aims and objects, discountenanced. In this letter I am voicing the sentiments of quite a few members who will certainly withdraw from the Board if we do not confine ourselves to legitimate and proper subjects. Just so soon as political subjects are introduced, the usefulness of the Board will be gone. The opinion of the Board on a political question is not worth the paper it is written on, and a feeling of antagonism will be aroused in opposition to anything that it may be considering.

Yours truly,
AN OLD MEMBER.

NORWOOD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The East Peterborough Agricultural Society met last Monday to decide about the construction of the half mile track. They did not come to any decision.

The Board of Education met on Tuesday last. The following members were present :Mesars. Roxburgh, chairman, Stephenson, secretary, Dr. Ford, Knox, Brethen, Raddon, Waters, Anderson, Campbell, Scott and Breakenridge. A long discussion took place about the heating question. Nothing definite was arrived at, but it looks as if the contractor for the heating, Mr. Stewart, does not carry out the plans the board want, that a new plan will have to be made.

While Mr. W. J. Stephenson was hunting on his father's farm on Monday last met with an accident. The gun burst and the charge of powder went all over his face. A buckshot was found in his forehead but this was soon extracted.

While Mr. G. Buck was unhitching his horses one day last week one of the horses bit him, inflicting a very painful wound Master B. Doucett, whose accident was reported last week, is improving slowly.

The concert given in the town last Friday evening under the auspices of the C.O.F., was a success. Fax was unable to attend owing to sickness, bnt his place was ably filled by Mr. J. H. Cameron, of Toronto. His recitations and songs were excellent and he created a very favourable impression. Rev. W. H. Stevens, pastor of the Baptist church, occupied the chair in his usual happy manner.

Mr. T. Hendren is erecting a new redence on Queen street.

Mr. T. Hendren has removed his green house near the village, and built a very fine addition.

Mr. H. Reynolds is building a new residence on the lot adjoining his place.

Mr. Casey, from near South Dummer, is moving into town. He has just finished building a residence on the Dummer road.

Mr. Charles O'Reilly has been appointed secretary of the East Riding Farmers' Institute in place of Mr. J. W. Clark, who has resigned.

Mr. M. McGregor has entered his horse, Barney, in the running races expected to held at Peterborough on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Belcher, of Peterborough, was in town last week.

Mr. J. Starr is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Chisholm, of Toronto.

Mr. J. L. Squier is shipping poultry away in great quantities.

Cure Suppression of the Menses

Mr. J. A. Campbell, St. Sixte, Que., writes :—"My wife was unwell four year from irregular periods, brought about by a severe cold. Tried many remedies without relief. Two boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills resulted in a permanent cure." Beware of imitations. By mail, postpaid, at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 25c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

HELD TUESDAY NIGHT.

Was the Annual Tea Meeting of Jubilee Lodge, No. 178, L. O. L. Smith.

The annual tea meeting of Jubilee Lodge, No. 178, L. O. L. was held in the Temperance Hall, 4th line of Smith last evening and was a first class success. Several Peterboroughonians attended. A fine tea was served from six to eight o'clock by the ladies and all present did homage to the spread provided. Mr. C. W. Sawers, county secretary, occupied the chair. In his opening address he congratulated the lodge upon its growth and good standing. He referred to the Home Rule question and the Separate School Act of Manitoba, and the duties and rights of Orangemen. He urged them to stand by their colours and prove themselves true followers of the great principles they advocated and the cause they espoused. He said the membership of the Order throughout the British Empire was 500,000 and constantly increasing.

Addresses were also given by Rev. J. E. Trotter, town, on the Principles of Liberty and their bearing on the Orange Order; Rev. Mr. Ewing of Mt. Pleasant and Mr. Wm. Graham, of Smith. Bro. Capt. Sanderson, Worthy Master of Jubilee Lodge was unable to be present. A fine musical programme was also carried out, Mr. Gray, of Peterborough, and Miss Barker of Smith, as well as the choir, rendering acceptable numbers. A quartette by Misses Barker and Messrs. Tapscott and Mann was splendidly given.

THE FACT

That AYER'S Sarsaparilla CURES OTHERS of Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, and Catarrh should be convincing that the same course of treatment WILL CURE YOU. All that has been said of the wonderful cures effected by the use of

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

during the past fifty years, truthfully applies to-day. It is, in every sense, The Superior Medicine. Its curative properties, strength, effect, and flavor are always the same; and for whatever blood diseases AYER'S Sarsaparilla is taken, they yield to this treatment. When you ask for don't be induced to purchase any of the worthless substitutes, which are mostly mixtures of the cheapest ingredients, contain no sarsaparilla, have no uniform standard of appearance, flavor, or effect, are blood-purifiers in name only, and are offered to you because there is more profit in selling them. A COUNTY RALLY.

Christian Endeavourers hold a Great Meeting at Keene.

The Christian Endeavourers of the county held a great Thanksgiving Day rally at Keene yesterday. About a dozen members of the local union drove out and attended the afternoon and evening meetings. The attendance at both meetings was large. The afternoon session took place in the Presbyterian church, and the evening session was held in the Methodist church. The papers were able and thoughtful. Following is the programme carried out:

AFTERNOON—3 P.M.

Chairman, Rev. F. Andrews.
Hymn—"The Endeavour Band."
Prayer.
Paper—"Work of Look Out Committee," Mr. Ward, Keene.
Solo—Miss Pengelly.
Conference—"Bible Study in C.E.S.," Mr. A. J. Johnston, Peterborough.
Trio—Peterborough Y.P.S.C.E., Misses Heubeck and Carey, and Mr. Wesley.
Paper—"Work of Prayer Meeting Committee," Miss Campbell, Norwood.
Collection.
Hymn—"Blest be the tie that Binds."
Prayer and C. E. Benediction.

EVENING 7 P.M.

Chairman, Rev. E. E. Howard.
Hymn—"Faith is the Victory."
Prayer.
Paper—"Missions," A. J. Hamilton.
"The London Convention, (1) Mr. R. Johnston, (2) Miss J. Mercer.

SHE WOULD NOT DISAPPOINT HER FRIENDS.

Last month one of Toronto's most promising amateur soprano singers promised to sing at a church concert.

A few days before the concert she caught a cold, which resulted in a very sore throat and nasty cough. A few friends advised her to notify the managing committee of the concert that she would be unable to appear. Her answer was as follows:

"My name appears on the programme, and I am determined that my friends and the public will not be disappointed. I have found a cure for my cough and sore throat, and feel that I will be quite prepared for the concert night."

The young lady referred to had been accustomed to use Harvard Bronchial Syrup for all affections arising from sudden colds. She knew the value of the wonderful remedy, and felt certain that her cure would be speedy and effective.

Our best professional and amateur vocalists now use Harvard Bronchial Syrup when affected with coughs, colds and sore throat, as it quickly removes every difficulty and strengthens the voice. It is an invaluable remedy for every singer in Canada.

LOCAL SHEEP BREEDERS.

Sketch of Bellevue Farm, Asphodel.

The last issue of the Farmer's Advocate contains an article upon the prominent sheep-breeders of Ontario, giving portraits of sixteen of them. Amongst these is an excellent portrait of Mr. Frank Birdsall. The letter press contains the following in reference to F. Firdsall & Son:—"Bellevue Farm consists of one thousand acres in Peterborough county on the shores of Rice Lake, near Birdsall station, G. T. R. This flock was founded in 1868, a number of sheep being imported from Mr. A. Brassey, Oxon, England. Since then the flock has been increased by purchase and breeding. Only picked rams have been used, and these from such noted breeders as Messrs. Henry Arkell, Arkell, and Peter Arkell, Teeswater. The ram Blake, imported by the Ontario government, has been used with great success in the flock."

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The many friends of Mr. G. J. Small and Mr. H. D. Kennedy, who left here about a month ago for the west to engage in ministerial work, will be pleased to learn that they have each settled in a field of labour. Mr. Smith is stationed at Maple Creek, N.W.T., and Mr. Kennedy at Red Wing, Minnesota. Intelligence has arrived from both these young men that they are well pleased with the work they have undertaken.

On Monday afternoon, as Mr. Wm. Fawcett was engaged in work he heard a whistling noise pass close by his ear, followed immediately by the report of a rifle. It seems that Mr. C. Robertson was engaged in fixing his rifle on the adjoining farm when it suddenly went off. Firearms ought to be handled with more care, as this might have proved a serious accident.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Met With a Bad Fall

Mr. Andrew MacFarlane, foreman of the machine department of the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company, met with a rather bad accident yesterday afternoon. He was fixing the windows of his house on Homewood Avenue, when the ladder on which he was standing broke in twain at the centre, letting him down with great force on a slat walk. Mr. MacFarlane, it is understood, had both his hips seriously injured, and received a bad shaking up.

Its Remedial Qualities Attested.

Some weeks ago Mr. Alex. Elliott, proprietor of Chemong Park, sent two gallons of the water from the mineral well discovered at the Park this summer by Mr. Fobert to Mr. A. McGill, Government Analyist, Ottawa. Mr. McGill thoroughly examined the samples of water sent him, and has made the announcement of the results to Mr. Elliott. The analysis, a detailed account of which will appear later, has turned out better than expected. Samples of it have also been shown several local chemists and they pronounced it having good health-giving properties.

It Was an Enjoyable Affair.

An entertainment was held last evening at the residence of Rev. Mr. Thom, Mark street, Ashburnham. It was given under the auspices of the Womens, Missionary Society and was a fine success. The attendance was very large, the house being completely filled. Rev. Mr. Thom accupied the chair and delivered a worthy speech. Among those who contributed to the good programme presented were: Miss Hamilton, recitation; Miss Dawson, reading; Miss E. Tivey, instrumental solo; Miss Wand, instrumental solo; Mrs. (Rev.) Thom, an instrumental solo. During the evening the young people enjoyed themselves upstairs with games and puzzles. At the close excellent refreshments were served.

Here on a Flying Visit.

The advent of Thanksgiving Day brings many of the old Peterborough boys home for a brief visit to their friends, and they are all looking well and doing splendidly at their respective associations. Among them we noticed Messrs. Chas. McKee, Perry Goldsmith, of Trinity Universty, Toronto; C. H. Bradburn and C. King, of Upper Canada College, Toronto; Wm. Crossley, W. Thompson, of the Military School, Toronto; J. Fairbairn and Mr. Boswell, of Toronto School of Science; F. Gladman, Osgoode Hall, Toronto; R. McWilliams, of Toronto University; J. Lacey, and Clarence Carey, Toronto; and Geo. Locke, Victoria University, Among the young ladies might be mentioned Miss Bella Morrow, Victoria University, Toronto, Miss Sophie Cameron, Kindergarten School, Toronto, Miss Annie Sherwood, of Bishop Strachan School, Toronto.

"Nothing succeeds like success," and nothing will more quickly insure success than true merit. For fifty years, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has maintained its popularity as the superior blood-purifier. It stands upon its own merits and never fails to give satisfaction.

THE FERRY ELEMENT

Sweeps the Rathbun Company's Storehouse out of Existence—The Commercial Hotel Fire

An alarm of fire at 11:25 o'clock last night called out the brigade who made a rapid run. The Rathbun Company storehouse in connection with their local branch in Peterborough, situated at the corner of Murray and Bethune street, was well on fire when the brigade arrived. The blaze was first noticed by Mr. C. E. Roach, bookkeeper of the Company, and Mr. John Craig, captain of the fire brigade. They both noticed the blaze about the same instant, and reached the scene simultaneously, giving the alarm from the Company's office. The building burned was a two story frame structure 80x55, owned by Mr. Wm. Yelland and occupied by the Rathbun Company. The loss on the building Mr. Yelland estimates at $800, partially insured. The fire evidently originated in some bundles of shingles piled up against the building on the south side. From these the flames to every part of the storehouse. Had a strong western wind been blowing, the fire would undoubtedly reached the large coal sheds adjoining in which are stored 1,500 tons. On account of the contents being of an inflammable material the whole building went quickly. The firemen worked heroically (they had four streams playing) and deserve special mention for the efficient work done. The contents burned consisted of doors, sash and window mouldings, fine dressed materials, dry lumber and several barrels of cement and plaster. Water was thrown on the flames until 8 o'clock this morning.

At three o'clock those firemen still working were called away in response to an alarm which had broken out in the Commercial House. In their absence they left the hose in charge of Mr. Roach and the employes of the company, who played a constant stream upon the ruins until the last spark had died out. The fire in the Commercial house started in the cellar way, under the kitchen, and is supposed to have caught accidentally.

The fire ran up the wall to the roof, burning into the dining room on the second floor and to a third floor bedroom. More damage was done by smoke and water than by fire. Mr. Rountree's loss will amount to $200; insured.

THE BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE.

Their Pleasant and Successful Thanksgiving Social.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour of the Baptist church held a very sucessful and enjoyable social last night in the basement of the church. There was a good attendance and an excellent programme was presented—in fact better than many programmes given on more pretentious occasions. The entertainment was a social in a literal sense—the social element predominating. Rev. J. E. Trotter, pastor of the church, performed the duties of chairman. After devotional exercises the following programme was introduced:

Violin solo	Miss Pearl Lundy
Reading	Miss Aldridge
Pianoforte solo	Mr Hoover.
Vocal solo (with guitar accompaniment)	Mr McAlpine
Vocal quartette	Mrs Scott and Miss Barker; Dr Scott and Mr Matthews
Pianoforte Duet	Miss Henderson and Miss Aldridge
Remarks (on Grand Ligne Mission)	Rev Mr Lebeau
Violin solo	Miss Pearl Lundy
Vocal Solo—"Come Unto Me" (Violin obligato Miss Louise Yokome.)	Mrs Hunter
Vocal solo	Mr Geo Matthews
Violin solo	Miss Louise Yokome
Vocal solo	Mr Geo Matthews

The programme, as stated, was a very pleasing one, and the performers acquitted themselves very creditably. Under the circumstances special mention should be made of the debut as a violiniste of Miss Pearl Lundy, the day being her tenth birthday. She performed two violin solos, Miss Louise Yokome, her teacher, taking second violin, and Miss Mary Stratton the pianoforte accompaniment. The little artist played with fine execution, good time and free bowing, and her intonation was excellent, not a single instance of false stopping being noticeable. Her performance, which was enthusiastically encored, was a credit to both the little artist and her teacher. The soprano solo by Miss Hunter, "Come Unto Me," from the oratorio "Emanuel" was given in good voice and with just taste. Mr. Hoover and Miss Mary Stratton furnished acceptable accompaniments, The very enjoyable evening was concluded by devotional exercises.

The pianoforte used on the occasion was a Williams kindly loaned by the Peterborough Music Company.

A Thanksgiving Burglary.

Last night during the absence from home till 9.30 o'clock of Mr. and Mrs. W. Fitzgerald, some thieves had entered the house by a side window and had ransacked the premises in seach of spoil. There were missing half a dozen silver knives and a dozen silver spoons. The burglar had evidently been distrubed for he overlooked to gold watches that were in the house. There is no trace of the identity of the thief or thieves.

They are Still after Deer.

Mr. Arthur Stevenson, a member of the Winch camping party, has returned from the hunt. He came down with Mr. Howarth of Toronto and Rev. S. J. Shorey, Napanee, who have been hunting north of where the Winch party are stationed. The party are tented at the head of Jack Creek, in Methuen township, on the border of Jack's Lake. They are ten in number, but part of the time have been unable to roam the forest in search of the bucks owing to the terrible snow storms. Eight inches of snow were on the ground when Mr. Stevenson left. They have captured seven deer in all. Deer are scarce this year while partridge and duck are none too numerous. Thos. Dunn is enjoying himself as a nimrod and frequently favors the searchers after deer with capital songs. The remainder of the company will return home on the 15th.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

The Port Hope Boys Defeat the Home Team Yesterday after a Plucky Fight.

Although the weather was against them yesterday and the spectators few in number, yet the Rugby football team played one of the closest and most exciting matches of the season. Although beaten fairly, still the Peterboroughs had not their best team on the field, as they fully expected to play the Victorias of Toronto in the afternoon, but again luck was against them as they failed to put in an appearance and even failed to send word, which is an old and mean trick on the part of all Toronto clubs.

Capt. Boucher, winning the toss, decided to play with the sun at their backs. The kick-off was fumbled by the home back division, and Port Hope by sharp and quick playing soon forced Peterborough to rouge. Score 1—0. The kick from quarter-way was well returned, and the ball was kept in Peterborough's 25 yards till by a brilliant and combined rush on the part of the Peterboroughs it was taken well up into Port Hope's territory. The play here was very fast and loose, and also very even, for when half time was called the score was 4—0, the visitors score being made by four rouges.

On the call of half-time the players changed ends and continued on playing, no intermission being called on account of the wet condition of the men. Peterborough getting the kick followed up well, and for a time it looked as if the Peterboroughs were going to have everything their own way, but again luck was against them, and Port Hope by good playing on the part of their backs carried the ball in Peterborough's territory, when Smart getting it made a beautiful run and scored a touchdown, the only one of the game. A goal being kicked the score was now 10—0. Peterborough now seemed to waken up, and good runs by Alexander and Boucher and good playing and following up on the part of Drope and Beers (the latter playing a beautiful game) the ball was again carried down to within two feet of the visitors goal line, but no! luck seemed to have a spite against them, the ball being taken up the field and Peterborough was forced to rouge. A minute or so later they were again forced to rouge. At the call of time the score stood 12—0. For Port Hope, Mr. McKenzie at quarter back, and Stairs, Seagram, Palmer, Patterson and Smart played well. For Peterborough, Carmichael, Drope, Beers and Boucher did excellent work.

ANOTHER BIG BLAZE IN OMEMEE.

Serious Loss of Property—John McGowan Burned to Death.

Special to the Examiner.

OMEMEE, Nov. 11.—This morning about 2 o'clock flames were seen issuing from the rear of Alex. Sutherland's tin shop, and the flames spread so rapidly that the entire store and contents were soon a mass of flames. The adjoining building on the east was occupied as a meat market by John Acheson, and was also destroyed with all its contents. Sutherland carried a good stock of house furnishing goods and had a valuable set of tools in his manufacturing department, all of which is a total loss. The stock was valued at $2,500, on which he had $1,000 insurance. Ocheson had an insurance of $150 on the contents of his dwelling house. The buildings which were 1½ story and old were the property of Mrs. Byers, of Peterborough, and were insured for $850. The citizens confined the fire to the two buildings and through hard work saved the Redpath foundry on the east end and Joe Beatty's flour and feed store on the west.

The most sad feature of the fire was discovered after the flames were subdued, that is, that John McGowan had been cremated in his room where he slept over the tin shop. He had occupied those quarters for some time being always accompanied by his faithful dog, and Mr. Sutherland had every confidence in his honesty and integrity to his interests. The charred remains were dug out this morning and the carcass of the dog was found in close proximity to that of his kind master. The deceased might be designated as the village blacksmith, having worked at his trade here for over thirty years. He was well informed on all matters, honourable in his dealings, and the entire citizens mourn his sad demise. The remains will be buried by the Orangemen.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Mr. John E. Kennedy, whose leg was injured recently in a shooting accident, is able to resume work.

—There was nothing to record in police circles to-day. The town was very quiet yesterday, the boys putting on their best behaviour.

—The liveries did a rushing business yesterday. Every one was desirous of taking advantage of the five inches fall of snow and enjoy a sleigh ride.

—Mr. Wm. Hetherington came near meeting with a serious accident last night. He was in the act of jumping on the hook and ladder waggon as it left the fire hall, when the waggon on turning threw him off. One of the wheels passed over his arm and also his leg. The latter was badly bruised and his toes hurt.

—Division Court is being held to-day before Judge Weller with a large docket. The non-jury sittings of the court will be held on Monday afternoon.

Our determination in the future as in the past, is to lead in every line we handle, and to positively undersell all other dealers. Listen to a few of our prices:

In Lamps we begin with a neat Hand Lamp at 14c.; Stand Lamps from 18c. to 50c.; Parlour Lamps at 60c. worth $1, at 75c. worth $2.00, at $1 worth $2.50, etc., etc. We have an immense range of Lamps of all kinds at prices which defy competition.

In Lanterns we will continue to sell the "Crank," "Lift" and other standard makes, at 40c., or the same Lantern painted at 50c. Nothing better made.

Hanging Lamps from $1.00 up to $20.00. Hall Lamps at from $2.00 to $15.00. Piano Lamps from $7.50 up to $50.00. Banquet Lamps, beauties, at $3.00 worth $5.00; at $4.00 worth $6.00, etc., up to $25.00.

Chimneys, Wicks and Burners of all descriptions, at rock bottom prices. Flint Chimneys at 4c.

In connection with the above subject we would say that we have the finest Oils procurable—American, Reflex and Canadian.

Remember we not only refuse to be undersold, but we shall take the lead and undersell all other dealers. Come direct to headquarters for the above lines.

ANNUAL FALL MATCHES OF THE 57TH BATTALION

Take Place Yesterday — Successful Matches—"B" Company Turns Out in Numbers Many—They also Win the Team Competition—The Prizes and Scores.

The annual fall matches of the 57th Battalion, Peterborough Rangers, took place all day yesterday and were a pronounced success, both in points of scores and attendance. About 85 men turned out and of this number "B" company, Lieut. Schofield, commanding, furnished twenty seven. This was an excellent showing on the part of the company, and reflects great credit upon their captain. There was a listlessness manifested on the part of the battalion's officers, as only four of them turned out. The men feel that more interest should have been shown in the matches by their officers. Lieut. Schofield proved himself an efficient range officer, and under his supervision everything passed off smoothly and well. The weather was cold and the six inches depth of the crystralline diamonds upon Curtis' ranges did not add any thing too inviting to the comfort of the men in their firing posture The wind was strong, left, and fouling dry.

THE AGGREGATE MATCH.

This was won by Capt. Hill, scoring 67 points. Ptes. C. Curtis and F. Bartlett came next in order. The highest aggregate scores at 100, 200, 300 and 400 yards counted.

A SPLENDID CONCERT

Given by Lansdowne Lodge Nov. 25, S.O.E., in Their Rooms Last Evening.

Lansdowne Lodge No. 25, held their annual tea and entertainment last night, and those who did not go missed a rare treat. The very large gathering present, the hall being comfortably filled, testified to their appreciation of the concert by the most hearty applause of the different numbers rendered. After three hundred persons had satisfied the inner man with the good things provided by the committee, superintended by Bro. T. Hooper, Bro. Saxby, W. P., called the meeting to order. Bro. Rev. Prof. Symonds and Bro. F. Foote were on the platform. Bro. Saxby, in his opening remarks, gave some very interesting statistics in regard to the order, and Lansdowne Lodge, he said, was formed in 1884. The first Lodge was formed in 1874, Lodge Lansdowne's number was 25, so that in eight years twenty five lodges were formed. In 1888 Peterborough Lodge was formed (No. 64) so that in six years a still a greater advancement of thirty-nine lodges was made. Now, instead of sixty-four lodges, there are something like one hundred and sixty-four, extending not only from one end of the Dominion to the other, but into Africa, the Dark Continent, where there are four prosperous lodges. They also hope soon to have lodges in Australia and even in England itself. Bro. Saxby then touched on the three great principles of the order. First, the advancement and mutual benefit of Englishmen; 2nd, the laying up or providing for their families during times of sickness or adversity, and 3rd, the maintaining of patriotism to the Mother Country. Last year there were paid into the Society between $70,000 and $80,000, out of which there were returned in benefits about $40,000, They now had over two and a quarter million dollars in insurance policies.

After explaining the impossibility of having the Supreme Grand President, W. R. Stroud, as expected, Bro. Saxby called on the next on the programme, an overture by Prof. Monk, "The March of the Men of Harlech," a Welsh air, the beautiful performance of which held the large audience enraptured. When encored Prof. Monk gave "the Darkies Patrol" imitation of a negro band. Rev. Prof. Symmonds then gave a short address, praising the lodge for its beautiful rooms and expressing his pleasure at soon becoming a member of Lansdowne Lodge. Prof. Symmonds touched lightly on the order in general, declaring in his closing remarks that the English had a right to be patriotic, more right to be proud of their mother land than any other nation, and advising all Englishmen who were not members of the order to look into the matter and join at once. The audience was then treated to "A day in London," Mr. R. M. Roy taking them through by a "cheap route" viz., the top of an omnibus. Mr. Roy presented some of the finest stereopticon views ever seen in Peterborough or elsewhere, the spectators showing their appreciation several times by applause; his last set of "St. George and the Dragon" caused great laughter and applause. Then followed some good songs, "The Death of Nelson" rendered by J. E. Steers, was rendered with good effect, also "When the Pilot takes Command" by W. J. Squires. Then a millitary recitation by Master B. Cranfield was given in uniform and was exceedingly well delivered. Mr. Wm. Burdick then rendered some fine harmonica selections followed by an instrumental duet by Messrs Monk and Burnett, "The Mocking Bird" brought down the house; they responded to an encore. A recitation "The Defence of Lucknow" was next given in fine style by Bro. C. P. Watford. The audience were then favoured with a song by Mr. Wellington Burnett, the genial agent for the Heintzman Co. to whose kindness the lodge is indebted for the use of the beautiful upright Heintzman piano and during the evening its excellent tone added not a little to the evening's enjoyment. Mr. Burnett sang in a fine baritone voice "I fear no Foe." The "Blue Bells of Scotland" were then given with variations of Prof. Monk's own composition executed as only he he knows how. The evening's entertainment was then brought to a close by another choice series of Mr. Roy's views, after which the national anthem was sung and the evening's programme brought to a reluctant close.

[illegible] even months, but there is nothing surer than that he will be caught in the end. One of the most powerful weapons of the post-office inspector is the decoy letter. I know that judges, lawyers, and the press have inveighed against it, but it is nevertheless the safeguard of the honest and the terror of the dishonest people. It trips up more rascals in the service than all other schemes combined. I had a rather curious case in Western New York last year. A man in a certain town was advertising a cureall, and letters came to him from all over the country. There were complaints of losses, and I traced the matter up until sure that the fault lay in the home office. It finally narrowed down to one clerk. I sent in six decoy letters, and four of them were gobbled. He was a young man, and spent considerable money around town, but none of my marked bills turned up. He was followed to saloons, billiard parlors, livery stables, and other places where he paid bills, and it was noticed that he invariably paid in silver. While trying to solve the mystery I dropped into a place within a step of the postoffice where an old woman sold root beer, lemonade, sandwiches, and the like. After drinking a glass of the beer I found I had no change, and tendered her a $5 bill. She gave me four ones with the change, and two of them had my mark on.

"What drink does Charles —— seem to prefer?" I queried, giving her the full name of the clerk I was after.

"Oh, root beer, always!" she replied.

"He comes in often?"

"Three or four times a day, sir."

"Have you got plenty of silver for change?"

"Why, sir, I always keep a few dollars in silver by me. If it's in silver it can't burn up."

On the very next day I was in the place when the clerk came in, drank a glass of root beer, and handed out a marked bill he had taken from my last decoy letter. I had no sympathy for him, as he had no excuse for his dishonesty.

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

The Buckhorn party are camped on Bald Lake. Although the weather has been very unfavorable for hunting they have succeeded in taking three deer. Another Buckhorn party in the North have had very good luck, capturing three deer.

Two families have moved from here, Mr. McIlwain and Mr. Herkimer. We are sorry to lose them.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage, defying the utmost art of man to rival

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

YOUNG'S POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Two deer were shot near Apsley by Mr. Montgomery of Smith, on Friday. They were brought down in a wagon which passed through here on Friday evening. The parties had many difficulties to contend with in coming down, the roads having been obstructed by fallen trees which were blown down by the gales of Thursday.

Mr. T. Gordon started on Friday with a number of men and supplies to commence operations in cutting cord wood on a tract of land which he purchased for that purpose.

Mr. C. Young's mill is at present closed down, waiting for logs.

Mrs. Austin Dunn of the village is visiting friends in Campbellford.

The little son of Mr. Jas. Walsh, who was confined in the hospital at Peterborough with a lame foot has returned home, he being yet somewhat lame.

Mr. Jas. Kearney, in company with some others, is deer hunting in the vicinity of Jack's Lake. Mr. G. Chalmers who was at Loon Lake returned on Sunday, having shot two deer. Venison will be at a discount for a time.

Messrs. W. J. and Walter Young who have purchased a block of land on the shore of Deer Bay in Harvey, are preparing to cut a quantity of wood and timber during the coming winter.

More Valuable Than Diamonds.

Cod liver oil from the cod fish when combined with hypophosphites of lime and soda, as in "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil," will build up the cellular tissues and create new blood. This is just what consumptive patients need, it has cured thousands of people who would otherwise have been at this time occupying narrow spaces in the graveyards of our country. Miller's Emulsion is worth a trial. In big bottles, 50c. and $1.00, at all Drug Stores. dw

GLADSTONE'S OPINION

Gladstone says: "You know a good deal about the position of an Insurance Company when you know

Its Date!
Its Income!
Its Accumulations!

From the relation of these three, one to the other, you know pretty nearly the state of the Company."

Gladstone would place

THE CANADA LIFE
ASSURANCE CO.

At the head of all Canadian Companies—for it is by far the oldest Company. Its Income is about two and one-half times greater than that of any other Canadian Company, and its Assets are greater than the combined Assets of all other Canadian Companies, as shown in the following diagram

This Diagram is based on the following table compiled from the last Government Blue Book:

we are able to offer advantages to the public, which are impossible to the ordinary dealer.

Our instruments have an established reputation for excellence of TONE, TOUCH, WORKMANSHIP, and DURABILITY, and Every Instrument is Fully Warranted for Seven Years.

Chief among our instruments which have received preferences from the best musical artists, stand

THE
—AND—
EVANS PIANOS.

These instruments have been before the Canadian public for a number of years, and the great praise bestowed upon them by musical experts, along with the continued increase of sales year by year, testify to their high excellence.

The aim of the manufacturers of these two favorite Pianos has been to produce the best instruments at a moderate price. They are of solid build, warranted for durability, of handsome appearance and finish; pleasant touch and quick repetition.

TONE: rich, full, bright and resonant. Beautifully signing and sympathetic in quality. The prices are moderate, and within the reach of the majority of purchasers.

We are exclusive agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

KARN ORGANS

which stand ahead of all competitors. We have also at all times in stock, the well-known and popular

THOMAS ORGANS,
AND OTHER MAKES.

Our large and well-lighted show room enables us to carry the Largest Stock ever shown in Peterborough, and as regards Prices, we have only to say that we positively will not be undersold.

Those not having the inclination or the means to purchase an instrument outright, can, by a small monthly investment, secure a Piano or Organ on rental until paid for.

JACKSON & CO. wish it to be distinctly understood that in cases of emergency, they are desirous of dealing justly and fairly with their customers. They do not want both the money and the instrument.

NOTICE.

To insure confidence and satisfaction, Jackson & Co. are willing to exchange any instrument purchased from them within twelve months, if not approved of, themselves bearing all expenses of carriage, and allowing all that has been paid, towards any other instrument selected.

All kinds of Instruments Tuned or Repaired on short notice.

USED A RAZOR.

John Pollock Was Found by School Boys With His Throat Cut Under a Rosedale Bridge.

TORONTO, Nov. 9.—John Pollock of 56 Hazelton-avenue attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor at 1 p.m. yesterday under the north bridge in Glen-road, Rosedale. He is a well-connected old gentleman of 70 and a bachelor, residing with a married sister named Mrs. Reid. He was discovered a little after 4 o'clock by Norman Jarvis, 2 Maple-avenue; Walter Burgess, 5 Dale-avenue, and Ernest Adams of Glen-road, three boys who were returning from school. They summoned the ambulance, which arrived about 4.40, and the old gentleman was taken to the Hospital. A razor box was found in his pocket, but no razor could be seen. He told Dr. O'Reilly at the Hospital that he committed the deed at 1 o'clock and threw the razor away. When questioned as to his motives he said he was getting old and blind. He has quite an amount of property and is an elder brother of the late Dr. Duncan Pollock of Scarboro. He is doing fairly well at the Hospital, but is very weak from loss of blood.

LOOKED INTO DEATH.

Six Men Killed While Making an Examination of an Infernal Machine.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—An explosion occurred in this city to-day by which two policemen and four men lost their lives and another was fatally injured.

The affair was undoubtedly the work of Anarchists seeking revenge against the Carmaux Mining Company, whose long-continued struggle with their employes was amicably settled a few days ago.

The infernal machine was discovered by the cashier of the Carmaux Co., who noticed it lying in the entresol of the building. The cashier called the policeman, who, accompanied by the company's porter, took the bomb to the station. The clock work movement in the interior of the infernal machine struck while the four men who were killed were standing over and examining it. Instantly there was a terrific roar and shock and the work of destruction was done.

Death of an Artist.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 9.—Manager W. W. Power of the Queen's Opera House to-day received a telephone message from Barrie announcing the death of Mrs. A. G. Herrington, who was playing with Frost & Fanshawe's company in Ontario.

Doesn't Like the Comparison.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Leader, who proved that she did not steal Mrs. Smyth's brooch, has sued to recover damages from a London morning paper that likened her to Mrs. Osborne, who was jailed for stealing pearls.

A Pessimist's Opinion.

The pessimist is the abused man nowadays, while every one has a word to say in favor of that blithesome individual the optimist. In fact, the optimist has grown to be distinctly the upper dog, while the pessimist comes in for continual and unlimited kicking.

Some late magazine writer designates the pessimist as "a man who has embarked on the wide sea of intellectual discovery, and has found out that for him it is a barren sea, blank and desolate." Suppose he has? The assumption that his belief makes him necessarily a bad fellow is unfounded. Because the sea is black and desolate, he strengthens his bark to sail it. Knowing its barrenness, he looks out for other souls in like extremity. Seeing not yet dreading the end, he nerves himself the more to meet it.

The optimist sails smoothly along. His cockle-shell is strong enough for the light weight it carries. He has no sympathy with the distress of those whose boats labor and are heavily laden. "Do as I do. Wait until to-morrow!" he cries. And the to-morrow of the optimist is forever unborn.

The optimist is usually an agreeable as well as a light-hearted fellow. He is excellent company for a pleasure trip. Care does not touch him, for to him there is no care. He runs lightly into debt, and if he cannot pay, it does not cost him a moment's thought. It is foolish to be concerned, he argues, since your trouble is imaginary. If he cannot save you from drowning, he sees no reason why he should not smile as you go down.

When the optimist dies, there are plenty to mourn him. The responsibilities he ignored while living press all the harder on those whose "pessimism" will not let them follow in his careless footsteps. The troubles he shook off are still there. Some one has to shoulder them in addition to his own, and the burden is often dropped upon those little able to carry it.

There is no cruelty equal to the cruelty of the light nature, which inflicts pain gayly simply because it does not believe in the existence of pain!—Harper's Bazar.

No flowery rhetoric can tell the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla as well as the cures accomplished by this excellent medicine.

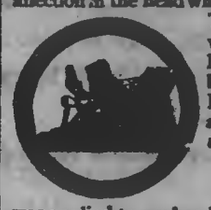
The Head Surgeon

of the Lubon Medical Company is now at Toronto, Canada, and may be consulted either in person or by letter on all chronic diseases peculiar to men. Men, young, old or middle-aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess or overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of memory, bad dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, emissions, lack of energy, pain in the kidneys, headache, pimples on the face or body, itching or peculiar sensation about the scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, specks before the eyes, twitching of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bashfulness, deposits in the urine, loss of will power, tenderness of the scalp and spine, weak and flabby muscles, failure to be rested by sleep, constipation, dullness of hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, excitability of temper, sunken eyes surrounded with leaden circle, oily looking skin, etc., are all symptoms of nervous debility that lead to insanity and death unless cured. The spring or vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence. Those who through abuse committed in ignorance may be permanently cured. Send your address for book on all diseases peculiar to man. Books sent free sealed. Heart disease, the symptoms of which are faint spells, purple lips, numbness, palpitation, skip beats, hot flushes, rush of blood to the head, dull pain in the heart with beats strong, rapid and irregular, the second heart beat quicker than the first, pain about the breast bone, etc., can positively be cured. No cure, no pay. Send for book. Address M. V. LUBON, 24 Macdonell ave., Toronto, Can.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c. and $1.

INTENSE SUFFERING!



Mr. William Buchanan, 24 years engineer in the Cunard Steamship Company's service, 8 St. John's Road, Kirkdale, Liverpool, Eng., writes: "I suffered two years of agony from an affection in the head which six physicians pronounced incurable. They were divided in opinion as to whether it was acute neuralgia of the head or rheumatic affection of the brain, but all agreed that I could never recover. In my paroxysms of pain it needed two and sometimes three men to hold me down in bed. When at death's door, was applied to my head. It acted like magic. It saved my life. I am well and hearty, and have had no return of the trouble."

ST. JACOBS OIL

"ALL RIGHT! ST. JACOBS OIL DID IT."

WAS IT THE MT. WASHINGTON LIGHT

It Was Visible at Sea More Than 200 Miles Distant.

A possible explanation of the curious lights seen in the sky at sea by Capt. Findlay of the steamship Missouri has been offered. The publication about a month ago of the curious phenomenon excited much interest. What the Captain saw was this:

"On the evening of the 16th, between 9 and 10 o'clock, the ship was in latitude 40° 57' longitude 68° 33', when there appeared a bright patch in the sky at about 35° altitude, appearing and disappearing at intervals of about thirty seconds, and bearing east half south from the ship. In character it resembled closely the northern lights, and later in the evening the same phenomenon appeared in the west-northwest. On the 17th, in latitude 40° 39', longitude 68° 55', the phenomenon was again seen in the northwest at an altitude of about 30°, and remained visible from 10.50 until 11.15 p. m."

Lewis H. Rogers, of Boston, gives the following interesting explanation of the lights:

"There is a large search light on Mount Washington, which was started up on the night of Aug. 13. The nights of Aug. 15 and 17 were clear, and the light was running and being flashed around the heavens between 8 and 11:30 o'clock. There is an attachment on the apparatus by which the beam of light is shut off and on at will, thus enabling the operator to make long and short flashes of light, by which method the Morse or any other understood alphabet is produced. On the night of Aug. 17, we had the light pointed about 45° over Portland for some little time. The words 'Congratulations,' 'Mount Washington,' 'Good night,' were flashed and read by an operator on the top of a building in Portland, Me. He was not in line of vision with the light, and the beam was far over his head. This beam of light would continue eastward almost indefinitely until it struck some cloud or mist in the heavens. Thus the light, or the reflection of the light, might have at different times appeared to the east, south, or north of an observer on the ocean.

"To my mind, therefore, it is an almost assured fact that the light seen by Capt. Findlay, of the steamship Missouri, emanated from the search light projector; thirty inches in diameter, located on the top of the tower on the summit of Mount Washington."—Phila. Press.

Temptations of a Letter-Carrier.

Of all postal employes the letter-carrier has the greatest temptation thrown in his way. There is no one to watch him. He goes out over his route with hundreds of letters, and is sorting and resorting until he can give a pretty good guess at the contents of each one. If he fails to deliver an ordinary letter who can charge him with embezzling it? There is, however, but one course for him to pursue. He must make up his mind to be strictly honest. If he cannot withstand temptation he is doomed. He may escape detection for a few weeks or even months, but there is nothing surer than that he will be caught in the end. One of the most powerful weapons of the post-office inspector is the decoy letter. I know that judges, lawyers, and the press have inveighed against it, but it is nevertheless the safeguard of the honest and the terror of the dishonest people. It trips up more rascals in the service than all other schemes combined. I had a rather curious case in Western New York last year. A man in a certain town was advertising a curcall, and letters came to him from all over the country. There were complaints of losses, and I traced the matter up until sure that the fault lay in the home office. It finally narrowed down to one clerk. I sent in six decoy letters, and four of them were gobbled. He was a young man, and spent considerable money around town, but none of my marked bills turned up. He was followed to saloons, billiard parlors, livery stables, and other places where he paid bills, and it was noticed that he invariably paid in silver. While trying to solve the mystery I dropped into a place within a step of the postoffice where an old woman sold root beer, lemonade, sandwiches, and the like. After drinking a glass of the beer I found I had no change, and tendered her a $5 bill. She gave me four ones with the change, and two of them had my mark on.

"What drink does Charles —— seem to prefer?" I queried, giving her the full name of the clerk I was after.

"Oh, root beer, always!" she replied.

"He comes in often?"

"Three or four times a day, sir."

"Have you got plenty of silver for change?"

"Why, sir, I always keep a few dollars in silver by me. If it's in silver it can't burn up."

On the very next day I was in the place when the clerk came in, drank a glass of root beer, and handed out a marked bill he had taken from my last decoy letter. I had no sympathy for him, as he had no excuse for his dishonesty.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.
BERT J. REID, Wingham, Ont.

Delay is Dangerous.

When the kidneys are out of order delay is dangerous. Any disease may follow and become so well established that months of suffering will follow. A gentle tonic like Dodd's Kidney Pills is alway acceptable to the kindeys and potects them from disease. They are a kidney food. dw

NEILL MUST DIE.

It Has Been Decided That the Law Must Take Its Course.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Neill, the woman poisoner, will hang on Nov. 15. After full consideration it has been decided that the law must take its course.

A Human Were-Wolf.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—London Truth publishes the following pen picture of the court where Neill was convicted:

A dim, dingy, cockpit-looking hall, dear Lady Betty, with a raised bench running along one end, an ample dock and an overhanging gallery at the other, and progressive pens to the left. Opposite to these and beneath the only windows through which struggles the light of day an antiquated jury box, containing 12 men, the very image of the waxworks in Mme. Tussaud's Chamber of Horrors.

In the well, rows of long tables covered with briefs and rows of low forms covered with lawyers. The atmosphere stifling. In the dock a human were-wolf, tall, square-built, with a bald, angular-cast skull, low forehead, a squint partially concealed by gold-rimmed glasses, and incessantly grinding his under jaw as he stares through the windows at the prison walls opposite. There is nothing startling about the man. He conveys a general impression of vulgar profligacy and disease, combined with the outward indications of middle class respectability. I could pick out a dozen others like him in the Strand at any hour of the day.

To the extreme right of the bench, the judge—a cold, deliberate, experienced man of the world, arrayed in a theatrical scarlet robe, a little gray crimped wig, and projected by a high strip of scarlet cushion at the back. Along the platform to the left of him a row of aldermen, fat, thin, short and tall, looking supremely grotesque in their tawdry costumes of silk, fur and frippery. Also two or three sporting peers, a flaneur, and a commission agent. Around on every side a dense mob of half-stifled spectators. Women, members of the Bayswater Hysterical Brigade, who mistake morbid interest for intelligence, with broad felt hats, wavy feathers, heavy features and solid brocades. Idle men, attracted by idle curiosity to witness two men fight for a fellow-man's life! Outside in the immediate approaches petty officials cadging for gratuities and granting admission to the court for shillings and half crowns!

This is Her Majesty's Central Criminal Court; the period, the close of the nineteenth century; and the occasion, the trial for murder of Thomas Neill Cream.

MARLBOROUGH'S DEATH.

The Duchess Says It Resulted From Calcareous Degeneration of the Heart.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The representative of the Associated Press yesterday telegraphed as follows to the Duchess of Marlborough:

"Despite Lord Randolph Churchill's statement, which we have cabled to the United States, sinister rumors are current there to-day regarding the Duke's death which compel us with much regret to ask you to authorize a statement that will put them at rest."

A reply to the telegram, signed by Mr. Palmer, the Duchess' agent, was received by the representative of the Associated Press, saying: "Doctors Robb, Symonds and Caudwell to-day certified that the Duke died from calcareous degeneration of one of the large vessels of the heart."

On Saturday last he was in London and then appeared to be enjoying good health. He recently seemed to have been in better health than usual. All summer he was working hard over a telephone scheme and other ventures in the city. He was the head of a new telephone company which was to revolutionize the existing system, but this company joined the telephone pool a few months ago.

Blenheim Palace.

When the Duchess returned to England after her marriage she found Blenheim Palace in a most dilapidated condition. Even the locks on the doors and windows had to be replaced.

All the expenses of repairing the place were met by the Duchess, who spent enormous sums in this way. All this is lost to her, as the place becomes the property of the Duke's son, who has hitherto been known as the Marquis of Blandford. It is probable that when the new Duke takes up his residence at Blenheim Palace he will be accompanied by his mother, with whom he has lived since her divorce.

In this event it will readily be seen that the Duchess will not have even the satisfaction of living at the place she had gone to so much expense to improve. It is believed that the city residence of the Duke, No. 14 Queen Anne's Gate, London, S.W., will also pass to his heir.

The Duke Did Not Suicide.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Lord Randolph Churchill, brother of the late Duke of Marlborough, emphatically denies the reports that the Duke's death was attended by suspicious circumstances and scouts the idea of poison.

The coroner will hold an inquest to-day. The funeral services will be held in the Blenheim chapel on Monday next.

OVER THE FALLS.

In the Vest Pocket Was a G.T.R. Ticket for Petrolia.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Nov. 11.—On the American side yesterday the body of a man was found floating in the canal basin near the central mill rock. It is dressed in dark-blue clothes and a nice flannel shirt. The man was probably 22 years old.

Iron Boats on the Lakes.

KINGSTON, Nov. 11.—The steamer Rideau Belle, disabled in Rideau River a few days ago, has arrived here and is on dry dock for repairs.

Capt. Gaskin says the foundering of the two big iron boats on Lake Michigan will not deter the M.T.Co. from building the proposed new iron boat to ply between this port and Chicago. The new boat will be built in England under the supervision of the Lloyds. It will not be like the first American crafts, but will be strong and able to weather the severest storms. An English built steamer has never been known to founder as the two steamers on Lake Michigan did. Capt. Gaskin states that the steamer will be fitted out with all the newest modern improvements and will be as strong as steel and skill can make her.

In the trousers pocket was found a handsome hunting-case gold watch.

In the vest pocket was a ticket from Suspension Bridge to Petrolia, Ont., over the Grand Trunk and dated Oct. 18. His pocketbook contained nothing but a mail key. On the third finger of the left hand was a ring bearing the initial letter "N." The man was about 5 feet 6 inches in height, well built, and weighed when in life about 150 lbs. He had dark hair and a small mustache.

The man has the appearance of having been fairly well-to-do, his hands not bearing the appearance of hard labor. He had evidently been in the water some days.

A Curious Duel.

Some years ago a duel, which was much talked about, took place between Mr. G—— and Mr. S——. The former had only one eye, the latter was short-sighted, and, to make matters worse, there was a dense fog at the time. The first ball killed a bird, and the second a rabbit. The witnesses put a stop to the proceedings, declaring that honor was satisfied.

"How was that?" inquired A——.

"Faith, they began to be alarmed for their own safety."—Le Figaro.

ANARCHISTS IN LONDON.

DEMONSTRATION IN HONOR OF MEMORY OF "CHICAGO MARTYRS."

American and British Governments Denounced as Being Brutal and Despotic—Declaration That the Example Set by Anarchists in Chicago Should Be Followed in London.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Anarchists of London held a meeting in South-place Institute, Moorgate-street, last night in honor of the memory of the so-called "Chicago martyrs."

The hall was crowded with men of all the nationalities who make up the Anarchists and the extreme social Democratic party in this city.

Red flags were hung over the doors and pictures of Parsons and his companions were draped in mourning. Above the pictures and on the wall behind the platform were Anarchist mottoes, "Working Men Unite," "Remember Chicago," "Liberty, Equality and Fraternity," "Death to Tyrants," "Retribution to Our Oppressors," and many others in English, German and French.

Comrade Mowbray, the friend of the Socialist poet, William Morris, was the first speaker. He said that the history of the Anarchist movement was the history of the martyrdom of hundred of noble men and women. Their blood has been shed ruthlessly by the classes in power in order that the monopoly of the world's good things by these classes might not be imperilled. The property classes had applauded all the crimes committed in the name of the present order of society against Anarchists. The blood of the Anarchist martyr cried out for revenge. The American Government had shown itself brutal and despotic despite all its pretensions in its treatment of the Chicago Anarchists. Anarchists in Great Britain need not think, however, that the British Government was any better. It had shown itself in the last few months to be as brutal as any other in the world.

This allusion to the cases against the Welsh Anarchists and the Commonwealth was received with tumultuous demonstrations of enthusiasm and shouted threats of vengeance.

Comrade Baker, who followed Mowbray, eulogized the French Anarchists for their conservativism and fearlessness, and expressed regret that their courage was not to be found among the Anarchists of every country. In closing he hinted that the example set by the Chicago Anarchists should be followed speedily by the Anarchists of London.

Louise Michel was greeted with cheering when she came forward to speak. Her address was in French, and consequently only the foreigners in the audience applauded her incendiary words.

The meeting ended amid the wildest enthusiasm. Men and women stood on the seats, waving red flags and singing the "Carmagnole."

Several police inspectors were present in citizens' clothes and one of them took shorthand notes of the speeches.

PACIFIC STEAMERS.

A New Line Between British Columbia and Australia to be Established.

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 12.—Hon. T. M. Daly, Minister of the Interior, broke his ankle at Calgary while stepping from the train last night. He attended the citizens' banquet in his honor there last night, but will be forced to cancel all other engagements.

President Van Horne of the C.P.R. left for the east this morning by special train. While here he verified the rumor that the C.P.R. would establish a new line of steamers between British Columbia and Australia.

Brazil Needs New Rifles.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 12.—At a recent session of the Brazilian Congress Col. Onuique moved a resolution declaring that Brazil needs new rifles of the latest models and an entire change of its artillery, in view of the warlike preparations in Argentina.

The State of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, is in a state of excitement. Baron Itacutia and Gen. Oliver, chiefs of the revolutionary movement, are in Yaguaron, actively recruiting for another attempt. There was a fight recently at San Eugenio between emigrants from Rio Grande and the Uruguayan frontier guards.

Eight Business Firms Burned.

ROCKLAND, Me., Nov. 12.—The business portion of Camden, Maine, was visited yesterday by a half-million dollar fire. Buildings were blown up by dynamite to stop the progress of the flames, and with good effect. The fire swept both sides of Main-street and a territory of nearly four acres. Thirty-five buildings were entirely consumed, and 80 business firms lost everything.

As a result of yesterday's fire there is but one grocery store left in the town. All drug stores, boot and shoe stores, millinery and drygoods stores, jewelery shops and furniture stores, the postoffice and telegraph office were wiped out.

Twenty families are rendered homeless.

The loss is estimated at from $350,000 to $500,000, about two-thirds covered by insurance.

Myles Standish Monument.

DUXBURY, Mass., Nov. 12.—The cannons to mark the place of burial of Capt. Myles Standish have been placed in position. They are 32-pound guns, weighing 5700 pounds each. Three boulders also will be placed at the graves of Standish, his daughter Laura and his daughter-in-law. A large boulder weighing about five tons has been placed in the centre. A panel and the name "Myles Standish" has been chiselled upon it.

TORYISM IN ITS RIGIDITY.

HAS ABSOLUTELY VANISHED FROM THE CONSERVATIVE PLATFORM.

Adopted at the Conference of Conservative Associations at Edinburgh, and is Replaced by an Elastic Constitutionalism Which Balfour Has Accepted and Rutland Dislikes.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—No event in the recent history of the Conservative party approaches in importance the adoption of the new program by the conference of Conservative associations just held in Edinburgh.

The platform is frankly Democratic. It even goes beyond the Newcastle program of the Liberals in admitting popular control of party legislation, and further, it contrasts favorably with the Liberal federation's policy, as allowing greater independence of opinion among the adherents of the principle of Unionism.

The rigidity of old Toryism has absolutely vanished and is replaced by an elastic constitutionalism, which Mr. Balfour and other leaders have accepted, though certain fossils like the Duke of Rutland continue to think incompatible with genuine Conservatism and dangerous to the success of party government.

The program includes electoral registration reforms, with an equalization of votes, and a reduction of the period of occupancy required to qualify voters.

This in itself trumps the Liberal proposal in the same direction.

Favors Woman Voters.

Next the conference approved the extension of the franchise to female ratepayers, the disfranchisement of illiterate voters, popular control of the liquor traffic, state provision for old age, assistance to workingmen to enable them to acquire land for building purposes, an amendment to the employers' liability laws and factory acts in the workingmen's interest. Finally some touch of Home Rulism was infused in the program by the approval of the transference of private bill procedure from the committees of Parliament to local bodies.

The transformed spirit of the party is attributed largely to the Liberalizing influence of their Unionist allies, and partly to the leaders recognizing the necessities of the times.

It is among the strangest changes of life that the English parties find an intense Tory like the Duke of Montrose president of associations confirming this People's platform.

SCENTS A BLUNDER.

A London Paper Hits Hard at the Order Against Cattle.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Speaking of the scheduling of Canadian cattle The Chronicle says that it is sincerely to be hoped that scientific advice did not mislead Mr. Gardner, Minister of Agriculture, into ordering the exclusion of the Canadian beeves. Even if the existence of pleuro-pneumonia is doubtful is it wise for England to use her strength in an uncertainty for the purpose of striking a cruel blow at a colony which is loyal and valuable?

Grave doubts now appear as to the soundness of the experts' opinion upon which Mr. Gardner acted. It is stated that Principal Williams of the Edinburgh Veterinary College says that the disease from which the Canadian animal was suffering was not pleuro-pneumonia, but broncho-pneumonia, a non-contagious disease.

If this allegation be true, says The Chronicle, somebody has blundered again. It is to be hoped that the statements made by Mr. Williams will be thoroughly acquired into.

Hon. George R. Foster, the Dominion Minister of Finance, in responding to the toast of the colonies at a recent dinner claimed for the Dominion the consideration which is due our kith and kin, and urged the development of our commercial relations with Canada. If England continues her attitude, The Chronicle thinks, the Canadians will have little cause to hope for a carrying out of their wishes.

The Live Stock Journal commends the action of the Government and expresses the hope that with a view to preventing the entrance of more cases to the country the embargo will not be removed until spring.

Favors Sunday Opening.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—At the regular meeting of the World's Fair directors yesterday a resolution was passed favoring the opening of the World's Fair gates on Sunday provided that the machinery be not run.

The directors declare that as all the nations of the earth have been invited to attend the fair it would be highly discourteous and inhospitable to inform them that they cannot do on Sunday what they would do were they at home.

The England Sighted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The overdue steamer England from London was sighted off Fire Island yesterday.

Not Enough Boats.

HAMILTON, Nov. 12.—While C. R. Smith was in Montreal the other day at the fixing of the flour standards, he interviewed the general manager of the Richelieu, Ontario Navigation Company for the purpose of trying to induce the company to put on a service of boats from this city, such as was in vogue some years ago.

The manager didn't give Mr. Smith much encouragement to hope for what was asked, and he said the Navigation Company was short of boats.

Dropped Dead While Hunting.

LINDSAY, Nov. 12.—Joseph Hawkins of the Township of Ops, near Reaboro, while hunting in the County of Haliburton with a party which left here two weeks ago, dropped dead from heart failure.

Election Voided.

COTEAU LANDING, Que., Nov. 12.—The election of J. W. Bain, M.P. for Soulanges, has been voided on his admission of illegal practices by agents. Mr. Bain pays costs.

Eight Murderers To Die.

ANNAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 12.—Governor Brown yesterday fixed upon Dec. 30 and signed the death warrant for the execution of the eight murderers of Dr. J. M. Hill of Kent County.

Found Hanging to a Tree.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Nov. 12.—H. P. Lanz, aged 25, recently appointed manager of the Fredericksberg brewery, was found hanging to a tree yesterday.

His hands were tied behind his back, his feet tied together and a handkerchief over his mouth. The ground for a distance of 20 feet showed evidence of a struggle.

POLICE WANT MONEY.

Louise Michel's Opinion of the Condition of Paris Streets.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—Louise Michel has been interviewed in London by the correspondent of The Eclair in regard to the last explosion.

She said that the police sought to do evil only that they might get money, and if such retribution overtook them oftener they might tire of hunting down honest men.

The whole affair was due to the stupidity of the police, who thought they could get more money by putting up jobs with bombs. They could frighten the cowardly bourgeoisie into believing that the police were their only saviour.

The Eclair states that Michel has been engaged to address workingmen's conference in Chicago.

PARNELL'S PAPERS.

Will Be Published by the Executors—No Biography Will Accompany.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The executors of the late Charles Stewart Parnell have decided to publish a selection of his private political documents and correspondence.

Mr. Parnell kept every communication received by him that was of the least importance, often jotting down his opinion of his subject matter of letters, even when he did not reply to them.

No biography will accompany the publication, which will be issued before Parliament re-assembles.

BABY FARMING.

The Bodies of 13 Infants Have Been Unearthed.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Nov. 12.—The excitement occasioned by the wholesale baby farming operations of the McKim family has been increased by the discovery to-day of two more bodies in the yard of the house at Redfern formerly occupied by the McKims. This makes 13 bodies thus far unearthed, and the search is being continued.

Spain Honors Columbus.

MADRID, Nov. 12.—Queen Regent Christina, with her newly-arrived guests, King and Queen of Portugal, attended the ceremonies in connection with the long-delayed formal opening of the Columbus Exposition. The royal party included all the members of the Spanish Cabinet and a number of grandees, representing the Spanish nobility. The inauguration ceremony took place in the grand Radiug Hall, where thrones had been erected for the Queen Regent and her two guests.

The approach to the hall was paved with American minerals, a device the object of which was to represent the monarchs of the two countries so much concerned in the early history of America as treading on American soil. After the conclusion of the inaugural formalities the members of the royal party made a general inspection of the exhibits of the exposition.

The Increase of Cholera.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—There is an alarming increase in the number of cholera cases in the Department of Pas-de-Calais. Subjoined are records of four towns in the Department:

Etaples, 9 new cases and 2 deaths; Calais, 2 new cases and 1 death; Boulogne-sur-Mer, 1 new case; Arras, 5 new cases.

BUDA PESTH, Nov. 12.—This city's cholera record yesterday shows eight new cases and three deaths.

In a Critical Position.

MOSCOW, Nov. 12.—Reliable reports have been received here that the 165 Russians whom Colonel Janoff left behind him in camp in the Pamirs are in a critical position. It is asserted that these troops are threatened by a force of 1000 Chinese. The Government therefore decided to despatch to the assistance of the Russians a small expedition, including a detachment of artillery.

The situation of 200 Kirghese families under Russian protection is also reported as critical, owing to a lack of food and to Chinese hostility. Col. Janoff himself has gone to Tashkend to consult with the Russian Governor-General there.

Will Retain Uganda.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—It is understood that as the result of a lengthy Cabinet Council the British Government has decided to retain possession of Uganda. The East Africa Company will withdraw in March, but the British Government will, it is believed, retain part of the company's organization.

Manufacturers in England Reported.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A number of Welsh tinplate manufacturers, whose works have been closed, are giving notice of a resumption of work at their establishment. The news of the Democratic victory has been received with great satisfaction in iron and tinplate manufacturing districts in Great Britain.

The Times says: The Democratic victory is so complete that it carries with it an obligation to set up to the pledges of the Chicago platform. It is no longer necessary for Mr. Cleveland to assume the hedging, minimizing tone which marked his letters of acceptance. It may be expedient to consider the state of the country's finances and wait until the Democrats in the Senate are reinforced through the admission to the Union of Arizona and New Mexico, but America declares openly for the policy of tariff reduction.

Four Days a Week.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The masters in several districts of Lancashire and Huddersfield have agreed to support the cotton spinners' federation by working their mills four days in a week.

Meetings are being held daily to endeavor to secure the universal adoption of short time.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1892

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION AND CANADA.

There is no longer any doubt that the elections in the United States have placed the Democrats in power all along the line. The principle of tariff reform and rational trade relations have solid backing in the President's chair, the House of Representatives and the Senate. The party won on tariff reform and will be bound to carry out the policy that has been so emphatically endorsed. The people have struck a decided blow at high taxation and at a policy that enriches a few at the expense of the many. What Canadians have chief interest in is the effect of the change upon ourselves. The effect cannot but be beneficial. First is the benefit to be reaped from the moral lesson, that, no matter how deeply entrenched a false and evil principle may be, it is sure to be dislodged at last. The United States people entertained protection as a friend at first, they found it a robber and oppressor and have cast it forth, shackled, or, at least lamed. While there is no means at present of knowing what the exact result of the change of rule may be, there is little doubt that it will be beneficial to Canada and the benefit will fall especially upon farmers; and, if they are made more prosperous, all other classes will be similarly affected. There is no doubt that wool will be placed on the free list and that thus a market at good prices will be re-opened for this staple, and the sheep raising industry stimulated in Canada. And we may expect the same treatment in the matter of the great raw materials. The New England States, the greatest manufacturing centres, have revolted against Republican rule, and gone over to the Democrats; these states demand free coal and free iron ore. They cannot otherwise compete with Pennsylvania where coal and iron lie alongside each other. Canadian coal and Canadian ore lie at the doors of the New England States, and the duty will doubtless be removed in order to admit them. The stimulating effect upon the mining industry in Canada will necessarily be great; American capital will be furnished lavishly to aid its development, and ore that has slept in the bosom of our mines ever since the world began, will be brought to light. It is also pretty certain that barley will be placed on the free list; the great brewing influence was thrown in with the Democrats; the expressed or implied condition was free Canadian barley. Every facility will be afforded to give the brewers the Canadian barley, which they must have, free of duty. The new rulers will give it them, and the consequences will be that barley raising in Canada will be made again a profitable industry, and the prices will be doubled. To-day, Nov. 12th, barley in Peterborough is 85c., in Buffalo it is 80c. to 83c. If there were no duty, to-day, barley would be as good a price as wheat is now. It is only reasonable to suppose that a similar benefit will follow in the case of all farm products. The people of the United States have come to their senses in regard to the protection humbug; Canadians will in due time follow their example as they unfortunately did in adopting that mischievous policy.

Cure Suppression of the Menses

Mr. J. A. Campbell, St. Sixte, Que., writes:—"My wife was unwell four year from irregular periods, brought about by a severe cold. Tried many remedies without relief. Two boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills resulted in a permanent cure." Beware of imitations. By mail, postpaid, at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water on to the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c. and $1.

The Fear of Death.

The fear of death is excited by any severe attack of disease, especially coughs and colds. This need not be where Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is kept on hand for family use. This unrivalled remedy cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis and all throat and lung diseases. Price 25c and 50c. Sold by druggists.

A CALGARY MIRACLE.

THE MOST WONDERFUL CASE EVER RECORDED IN THE NORTH-WEST.

Miss Lela Cullen is Rescued from what Her Physicians and Friends Thought to be Her Deathbed.

Winnipeg Tribune.

CALGARY, N.W.T., Oct. 20th, 1892.—For some time past the residents of this town have been deeply interested in the case of Miss Lela Cullen, a young lady who had so nearly approached the portals of the great unknown, that her friends despaired of her recovery, and who has now fully, indeed almost miraculously, regained her health and strength. Having read on various occasions in the Tribune the particulars of what appeared to be miraculous cures, your correspondent determined to investigate the case of Miss Cullen, and now sends you the particulars, fully believing that you will be justified in giving them the widest publication.

When your correspondent visited the residence of Mrs. Cullen, the mother of the young lady, he was courteously received, and in reply to his enquiries as to whether she would be willing to give the facts of her daughter's wonderful recovery for publication for the benefit of other sufferers, Mrs. Cullen readily assented. "My daughter's first illness," said Mrs. Cullen, "was in June of 1890, when she was taken with the measles. At that time she was seventeen years of age, tall, fine looking, and exceedingly healthy, weighing about 140 pounds. All the family took the measles, and all got over them without trouble but Lela. Her case from the first baffled all the ordinary remedies used for that disease, and as the measles did not come out, a physician was called in. He administered remedies, but with no better results, and her case seemed to baffle the physician's skill. After a few weeks my daughter began to improve somewhat, but did not regain her former strength, and six weeks after she was first taken ill, her face, neck, and limbs broke in blotches. The doctor was again called in, and said it was the measles getting out of her system, and that she would soon be all right again. The doctor's statement was not verified however, for not only did my daughter improve, but she gradually grew worse. Soon after she began to swell, first the feet, then the limbs, breast and face became puffed up. Another doctor was called in and he pronounced her trouble dropsy, resulting from the measles. The doctor attended her all winter, and although he seemed to do all in his power for her, she gradually became weaker and weaker. She did not eat, and tonics failed to improve her appetite, and as she gradually grew weaker she lost her courage, felt that hope of life was fast slipping away. In the spring, the doctor's medicine having done her no good, was discontinued and instead he gave her preparations of beef, iron and wine, hypophosphites, eggs, cream, etc. In fact, stimulants of this kind had to keep her alive and I gave up all hope of her recovery, and in my misery waited for her death. She was now so weak that she could not walk across the floor, and in order to rest her we would lift her into a chair, where she would sit for a short while when we would again place her in bed. She was slowly but surely dying before our eyes, and nothing we could do for her was of avail. She was still puffed up, and nothing the doctor could do would reduce the swelling. Her limbs would no longer support her and she could only sit up a very short time each day. In this condition she lingered on until August, 1891, some fifteen months after she was first taken ill, and while we were sorrowfully awaiting what seemed the inevitable end, a ray of hope came. I read in a newspaper of a remarkable cure from the use of Dr. William's Pink Pills for Pale People, and while I feared that I had heard of this wonderful medicine too late, I hoped almost against hope and sent to the headquarters of the company, at Brockville, Ont., for a supply. At this time Lela was not able to be removed from bed; her weight was reduced to 90 pounds, and her lips were blue. You will thus see how little hope there appeared for her when she began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After she had taken the first box, although there was no visible improvement, she thought they were doing her good, and her spirits began to rise. At the end of the second box I could notice the improvement, and Lela was very hopeful, and felt life was returning to her again. After she had been taking Dr. William's Pink Pills for a month, she was able to get up and by October she was so well that she could superintend work about the house. She still continued taking the Pills, and rapidly recovered all her old time health, strength and spirits. I cannot tell you," contiued Mrs. Cullen, "how deeply grateful I am for the wonderful medicine that saved my daughter's life. You may be sure that both me and mine will always warmly rdcommend it, as we have every reason to do."

WHAT A PROMINENT DRUGGIST SAYS.

Your correspondent then called upon Mr. J. G. Templeton, the well known druggist on Stephen avenue. In reply to an enquiry as to what he could tell me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, Mr. Templeton replied: "What can I tell you about Pink Pills? Well I can tell you, they are the most wonderful medicine I ever handled. I had experience with them in Ontario before coming out here, and in all my experience as a druggist, I never knew any medicine have such a wonderful demand, or give such great satisfaction. My experience here has been like my experience in Ontario, all who have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speak in their praise, and if I were to tell you how many boxes I am selling here daily, you would be readily excused for being somewhat incredulous. If I am asked to recommend a medicine, I unhesitatingly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and my confidence in them has never been misplaced, I have already said the demand for Pink Pills is astonishing, and they invariably give the best satisfaction. I know this to be so from the statement of customers. I have sold here and in Ontario thousands of boxes, and have no hesitation in recommending them as a perfect blood builder and nerve restorer, curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration and the tired feeling therefrom, the after-effects of la grippe diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions, and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in cases of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of any nature.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorises all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c. and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The village council meets next Monday evening in the Council Chamber.

The regular meeting of the School Board has been postponed until the 22nd to give time for applications for the headmastership to be received.

Mr. Geo. Cochrane and Mr. R. E. Wood, passed through the village on Monday afternoon on their way to Jack's Lake to join a hunting party there.

Col. Gibson, proprietor of the Tremont House, arrived home on Tuesday evening from a brief business visit to "Old England."

The only hunting party word has been received from so far is the Baledon-Payne party at Turtle Lake, they had secured seven deer up to Saturday.

The C. E. Society of the Presbyterian Church have secured the services of the Smith Family, and will give an entertainment in the Town Hall on Friday evening next.

Mr. Harry Sherin, of the firm of Sherin & Son, was married to Clara, the daughter of the Rev. John McKwen, at the Presbyterian parsonage on Tuesday evening. None but the relatives were present, and the young couple left for the East on a wedding trip with the warmest congratulations of their many friends.

A question that is troubling our hunters is:—The Act says, "Only two deer shall be killed by one man." A and B are hunting together in one canoe, taking the bow and rifle day about; it so happens that the deer come in the day A is in the bow; he kills his two, can he then kill two for his companion B? No! he cannot.

Rev. Sylvanus Lane,

Of the Cincinnati M. E. Conference, makes a good point when he says: "We have for years used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family of five, and find it fully equal to all that is claimed for it. Some people are greatly prejuiced against patent medicines, but how the patent can hurt a medicine and not a machine is a mystery of mysteries to me."

DANGER AHEAD!

WILL THAT DEMON OF DISEASE BECOME EPIDEMIC AGAIN?

It is Once More in Our Midst!

Its Deadly Hand is Now Felt in the United States!

MORE DANGEROUS THAN CHOLERA!

Physicians Call It the Protean of Diseases!

Many of our best physicians fear another visit of that deadly scourge "la grippe" during the coming winter. Even now as we write the disease is felt in some districts of Canada. It has not yet become epidemic; it is with us only sporadic form; but soon it may burst out with terrible violence. In the United States some districts are already suffering severely owing to its ravages, and numerous deaths are reported amongst old and young.

The disease is still a very mysterious one; and few medical men are agreed concerning its various modes of attack, or its treatment.

The majority of our ablest physicians are of opinion that the greatest impressions and worst effects of "la grippe" are made on the nervous system.

It cannot be denied that the dread disease carries with it a poison which seriously affects the whole system. Indeed, this poison is certain death to the weak and debilitated human being, old or young.

Medical authorities are also united in the belief that the disease is contagious and is carried from person to person, and not by the atmosphere. It is well known that the disease spreads rapidly to the various members of the households into which it is introduced. It accords with the theory of infection also, that the disease has usually attacked the persons liable to infection. The celebrated Dr. Richard Sisley, in his new book on "Epidemic Infection," very strongly expresses the view that "la grippe" is a disease almost entirely propagated by infection.

It certainly behooves Canadians to make preparations for repelling a general invasion by this calamitous disease. Much can be done to ward off the monster and escape its subtile venom. The principal point for rigid observance is to have the constitution in perfect condition. The great nervous system should be strong and well braced up. Every trace of nervousness, sleeplessness, dyspepsia, indigestion and rheumatism should be banished before the next visit of "la grippe" to our homes.

We are all aware of the terrible devastation and ruin made two and three years ago by this Proteus of diseases. Happy homes were robbed of near and dear ones, and thousands who recovered were left with poisoned dregs, which induced other fatal troubles. It cannot be forgotten that amongst those who entirely escaped the disease, as well as the thousands who quickly recovered after being attacked by the disease, were men, women and children who had fortified and strengthened the system by Paine's Celery Compound. During that eventful time the physicians of Canada strongly recommended that great nerve medicine, and the wonderful results obtained fully justify all that was claimed for the great remedy.

In thousands of cases the nervous, sleepless, weak, frail and broken-down were enabled to put themselves in such a condition by Paine's Celery Compound that the pestilence and epidemic passed them without leaving a trace of its giant power. In a multitude of homes where "la grippe" did lay its heavy and rude hand, leaving wrecks of humanity, Paine's Celery Compound has since worked miracles and wonders after all other medicines have failed. It has raised up the weak, emaciated and helpless, and fitted them once more to do battle with life. It has brought joy, pleasure and comfort to fathers, mothers and children, and robbed the grave of many a useful life.

MR. F. P. ROBERTS.

Scores of valuable and cheering testimonials are now in the possession of the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound, showing clearly that the work of rescue and saving was done by that noble remedy, and it alone.

It will not do for our people to wait for another visit of the destroyer before putting themselves in a fit state to resist an attack. The great work demands our instant attention; our duty to family, friends and neighbours demands that we exercise the greatest care and vigilance regarding our physical condition.

If we are overworked and have a feeling of weariness and lassitude, if we find the brain clouded and dull, if we are sleepless, nervous, despondent, weak and unable to perform our work and daily tasks, if the blood courses sluggishly and digestion is bad, we may be assured that the machinery is out of order, and requires to be set right and strengthened. If such a work is neglected, "la grippe," when it comes, finds a most fertile field for its deadly work and operations, is sure to sow its seeds which never fail to furnish a rich harvest for the grim reaper.

The following letter from Mr. F. P. Roberts, of St. John's, N. B., gives proof of what has occurred in thousands of cases where the physical condition was out of gear. This letter also proves strongly and forcibly that Paine's Celery Compound is the only medine in the world that can eradicate and banish the dangerous dregs left by "la grippe," if the disease-stricken man or woman survives an attack. Mr. Roberts says: "About two years ago I had 'la grippe' badly. For several months I was unable to do any work. During that time, and for months after, I was under treatment by my physician.

At times my case was regarded as alarming, and my life was even despaired of. A most violent cough was firmly seated on my lungs and bronchial tubes, and very often I raised large quantities of blood.

At this stage I became desperate, and determined to obtain relief without further delay. My doctor was slow to offer much encouragement, and I firmly resolved to try Paine's Celery Compound from having heard and read much in its favor.

I am happy to inform you that by using three bottles of your Paine's Celery Compound I was completely cured; and, instead of being restless and wakeful as I once was, I am now free from all nervousness, and sleep well.

You cannot conceive of a more grateful man than your humble servant is, for what Paine's Celery Compound has accomplished. My personal recommendation made many thankful customers for our druggist.

I shall continue to sound its merits at every opportunity; and would be glad if this mildly drawn statement of my case would be of service in persuading others to start with the Compound. Yours most sincerely,

F. P. ROBERTS."

The proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound are now making an effort to reach honest and worthy sufferers who are unable to buy medicine or employ a physician. They are in a position to deal liberally with those lacking means, and who are seeking relief from suffering. All who wish to obtain a supply of the great life-giver—Paine's Celery Compound—can have it by sending in with their application, a letter from some Clergyman, Mayor, Reeve, Justice of the Peace or Postmaster, testifying to their character and standing.

Scores have sent in, and their hearts have been gladdened and cheered by receiving the great medicine free. Address Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal.

CHURCH CHIMES.

The Thanksgiving Day Services held in the Town Churches.

(Held over from yesterday.)

The union service held in St. Paul's church Thursday was fairly well attended. It partook of a special thanksgiving nature, in harmony with the spirit and purpose of the day. Rev. A. MacWilliams of St. Andrew's church, announced the opening hymn, Rev. J. E. Trotter, Murray street Baptist, delivered the opening prayer, Rev. J. H. Locke, George street Methodist church, read the first lesson, Rev. Mr. Goldsmith the second lesson, and Rev. Mr. Thom of the Mark street Methodist church, preached an earnest sermon on the words found in Ps. lxv, 1st four verses. Rev. Mr. Edwards offered the closing prayer. The service was impressive throughout.

The services at St, Luke's church were fairly well attended. They consisted of special lessons and psalms appropriate to Thanksgiving Day. Rev. Rector Symonds delivered a thoughtful and impressive discourse on the proper observance of the day and how all should feel, out of the gratitude and abundance of their hearts, to return thanks to God for his many mercies

A Thanksgiving service conducted by Rev. Mr. Davidson was held in St. John's church. The congregation was fair. No sermon was preached.

HAVE YOU TRIED IT MOTHERS.

We believe mothers act wisely and well when they carefully and thoroughly test prepared foods for infants. It is important that this should be done, as many of the infant foods now on the market are unfitted for weak digestion.

The manufacturers of the celebrated "Lactated Food" have courted testing and trial for their perfect food. Indeed this testing of Lactated Food has been the means of its introduction into homes where nothing else would now be used.

All mothers who have not yet used this wonderful food, are requested to make application for a full sized package, which will be sent free.

WORK ON THE SEWERS.

The work on the Edison sewer though the men have been hampered in their labors during the past few days by rough weather, is still getting along rapidly. About 300 more feet remain to be dug and piped. This it is expected will take about two more weeks. The trench where the men are excavating now is 9 ft. 7 inches deep for 600 feet distance. Twenty men are engaged at the contract but have been unable to work for the last four days owing to the weather; however they were able to commence filling open portions of the sewer yesterday afternoon. One man-hole is completed and there are seven more to put in.

"Nothing succeeds like success," and nothing will more quickly insure success than true merit. For fifty years, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has maintained its popularity as the superior blood-purifier. It stands upon its own merits and never fails to give satisfaction.

Doubly Commended.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Other Burglaries Last Night.

An attempt was made to enter the house of Mrs. (Rev.) Davis on London street last night. The slats of a downstairs window were cut and the shutters opened, but the window was fastened down preventing an entrance being effected. The family were absent at the time.

On Sunday night the house of Mr. Jeffers, teacher in the Collegiate Institute, on Downey street, was also entered. The pantry window was raised but the robbers were unable to get admission to the house, owing to the intervening door being locked. These petty housebreaking cases are no doubt the result of the same parties' efforts as those who are now confined in the cells on the charge of housebreaking.

Trip to California.

Mr. W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announces a personally conducted party to all points in California, leaving Toronto 3 p.m., November 16th. The party will be taken in one of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrated tourist cars, which are furnished with regular outfit, similar to the first-class sleeper, the route being via Kansas City, where the only change in cars will be made. The special advantages thus offered are the through service with first class accommodation at a very cheap rate. For full particulars write or call on Mr. W. R. Callaway, No. 1, King street, East, Toronto, or T. E. Boddy, Peterborough.

The Stony Lake Fire.

After careful investigation the parties interested are satisfied that the burning of Mr. McIntyre's cottage was the result of lightning. It was stated that Mr. McIntyre found on the island after the fire some articles that he had left in the house. This was not correct. The parties from the American Island, Boscobelle, did not reach the place until the house was consumed, and there was nothing about the premises to lead to the conviction that there had been a robbery. The cottagers are greatly relieved to feel that they can trust their little summer houses and contents to the kindly protection of the neighboring people. The houses are a source of profit to the neighbors, and only by mutual confidence and respect for each other's rights will the kindly relationship continue to exist which has hitherto prevailed. Acts of wantoness would result in deterring people from building, and injure those most interested in the further development of the charming little City of the Waters.

Ho! Traveller, take BEECHAM'S PILLS with you.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Miss M. Mowry has returned from Orillia, where she acted the part of bridesmaid in the wedding of her friend Miss Henderson to Mr. Longman, of Trenton.

—The Rev. Mr. Frost, of Toronto, will address the W. F. M. Society in the lecture room of St. Andrew's church, on Monday evening at 8 p.m. All are cordially invited.

—Some unkind friend has broken into the office at the West Peterborough fair grounds. The staple was drawn and the door left open. Nothing was found missing, however.

—Mr. David Rogers, of Trinity University, Toronto, refereed the game on Thanksgiving Day between Port Hope and Peterborough. His decisions were square and gave the utmost satisfaction.

—Rev. W. M. Loucks, M.A., assistant curate of St. John's church, arrived home yesterday from a holiday trip to Boston and Kingston. He enjoyed his outing splendidly, which has resulted in great physical benefit, after his arduous ecclesiastical duties of the past.

—A time light service in commemoration of the anniversary of the death of Mrs. General Booth, will be held in the Salvation Army barracks here on Thurday night next. The lights will be the finest out. The meeting will be conducted by Adjt. Evans and Staff-Captain McIntyre, Toronto.

—The revival services in the George street Methodist church are increasing in numbers and interest. During the week quite a number have been converted, and others by coming forward to the front seats, have indicated a desire to be saved. The pastor, Mr. Locke, preaches a short sermon every night and conducts the service, and is well assisted by the members of the church.

Knocked Unconscious.

Last evening as Miss Maria Pauley, a nurse girl in the Stewart House, was causing a slide consisting of several shelves to descend she put her head between two of the shelves to see that a parcel was let down to the next story all right, when a shelf of the slide struck her on the front of the face with great force. Miss Pauley was rendered unconscious by the blow for nearly five hours. Her nose was also badly hurt and bruised.

BANKRUPT STOCK.

Having sold out the Dry Goods business to a syndicate, my headquarters will be now at T. Dolan & Co., I am going to slaughter this stock now for a few months. Fifteen thousand dollars has to go at your own price until New Year's Day, bought at 50c.

Respectfully Yours,

Catarrh, Not Local, But Constitutional.

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: A radical error underlies nearly all medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a Local exhibition of a Constitutional trouble." Therefore, he argues, the use of snuff and other local applications is wrong, and while they seem to give temporary relief, they really do more harm than good. Other leading authorities agree with Dr. Lewis. Hence, the only proper method of cure for Catarrh is by taking a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, reaching every part of the body thorough the blood, does elimate all impurities and makes the whole man healthier. It removes the cause of the trouble and restores the diseased membrane to proper condition. That this is the practical result is proven by thousands of people who have been cured of catarrh by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HUNTERS HOMEWARD BIR.

They Had a Good Hunt, but Experienced Very Rough Weather.

The nimrods have returned from the "happy hunting grounds." The Morris party after two days drive reached home last evening. The party consisted of Messrs. W. Morris, J. Johnson, D. Johnson, R. Spry, town; Wm. Redmond, and Robt. Yell, Millbrook. They were gone just two weeks and encamped in a large tent at Copper Lake, but roamed at large principally around Serpentine Lake. Nine deer were shot in all, 3 bucks and 6 does. One doe shot by Wm. Redmond weighed no less than 185 pounds. The largest buck weighed 180 pounds. The deer were plentiful in their locality. The party had nine good hounds and two canoes. They also shot several partrides and ducks, besides killing two large-sized lynx. Six deer were shot in the water and the remainder in runways. None of the stags that ran into the water escaped by "beaching." The weather was very rough and cold and plenty of snow mantled the earth. The hunters will go again next year.

A party consisting of James Rose, John Rose and Charles Peters, have returned home from a week's hunting trip to Deer Lake. They experienced boisterous weather and had poor luck, returning home without a deer.

The well known Rutherford hunting party also returned home at six o'clock last night. Their personnel was:—T. Rutherford, Sam Ray, Sam Clegg, Geo. Fitzgerald, A. Blade, Wm. Snowden, T.E. Boddy and Lawrence Steele. Ten deer dropped dead from the unerring aim of their rifles. Each one was a buck, the largest weighing 195 lbs. The party had six canoes and ten hounds. The slain were all on exhibition at the factory of Fitzgerald & Stanger this morning and the carcases of as fine deer as were ever brought to Peterborough were viewed by a great many sportsmen. The party were situated at Gold Lake, but in their strolls after deer covered Big, Eagle, Gull, Gold, Cox, Beaver and other lakes. Deer were plentiful in places and scarce in other localities. The weather was exceedingly rough but nevertheless the happy smiles that flitted across the genial countenance of each hunter to-day told their many friends that they had a good time and lots of fun.

The party hunted in parts of Burleigh, Harvey, Anstruther and Cavendish townships.

Mr. H. LeBrun has returned from his hnnting tour. He was a member of the Winch party encamped at Jack's Lake.

Mr. John Clancy, of the Peterborough House, is also home. He was one of Mr. Giles Stone's party on the shores of Little Pine Lake. He shot two deer. Ducks and partridge were plentiful.

OTONABEE WEDDING BELLS.

Marriage of the Eldest Daughter of Thomas Blezard, Esq, M.P.P.

A very happy social event took place at the residence of Thomas Blezard, Esq. M.P.P., "Rural Green," Otonabee, on Thursday, November 10th, when his eldest daughter Janet Ellen, was united in marriage to Dr. McNaughton, of Westwood. The ceremony was performed in the drawing-room of the residence by Rev. S. B. Phillips, Methodist minister, Hastings, in the presence of about sixty guests, the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was given away by her father, and was assisted by her sister Miss Letitia, ("Lettie") as bridesmaid, while Dr. Anderson, of the house staff of the Toronto General Hospital, and cousin of the groom, supported the latter. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast, accompanied by the usual wedding festivities, took place. The bride, whose popularity was attested by the very large number of elegant and costly presents, was warmly congratulated by her numerous friends among whom her many admirable personal and domestic qualities have made her a very great favourite. Indeed there is room for congratulations all round, for Dr. McNaughton is a young man of fine personal qualities, and prominent and successful in his profession. At the conclusion of the wedding breakfast Dr. and Mrs. McNaughton took the train for an extended wedding tour in the west. During the absence of the doctor, his practice will be looked after by Dr. Anderson. On their return from their wedding trip, the happy couple will take up residence in Westwood, where Dr. McNaughton last summer erected a beautiful residence. The young couple begin life under the happiest auspices, and their host of friends can, with great confidence, wish them a long, prosperous, and happy wedded life.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR COLUMN.

Items of Interest, Local and General—Salutatory—The London Convention.

"FOR CHRIST AND THE CHURCH."

[All communications intended for this column must be marked "Christian Endeavour", and sent to Box 113, Peterborough, not later than Friday previous to date of issue.]

SALUTATORY.

The Christian Endeavour movement, although of comparatively recent birth, has assumed such vast proportions that at the present time it is known and felt in almost every civilized portion of this great continent. In the extension of this movement our own Province of Ontario has nobly borne her part, and, as compared with other provinces or states, shows a remarkable increase in Christian Endeavour societies. We would like if our own county could occupy comparatively as prominent a postion. To the interest of Christian work in general, the Executive Committee of the Peterborough Local Union of Christian Endeavour have devoted this column which the editor of the EXAMINER has so generously placed at their disposal. To define more minutely its intended uses, we might say that this column is for a two-fold purpose; first, as a medium through which Christian Endeavourers in different parts of the country may become acquainted with one another's trials and victories; second, as a channel through which all may receive guidance, encouragement and inspiration.

Communications for this column may as the term "Christian work" signifies, extend over a very wide area. Members of the different Christian Endeavour Societies throughout the county are solicited to send in, from time to time, accounts of the workings of the particular society of which they are members. And not only members of the society, but all having an interest in Christian work, are requested to kindly contribute any article of a religious nature, which they deem would be instructive or helpful to any or all who may read it. In short, if you have anything good to say do not confine the knowledge of it to yourself, nor even to your own neighborhood, but make use of this opportunity of letting us hear it and benefit by it.

THE LONDON CONVENTION.

The London Convention was in every sense of the term a success. The subjects discussed were practical and inspiring, and were ably handled by the different speakers. The visiting delegates numbered about seven hundred and fifty, and the hospitality shown them by the Londoners was unparalleled.

The following is a short synopsis of Bishop Baldwin's address on "Consecration."

He said, "What the church of to-day needed was not more money, not more Christians, but more fire and zeal." The evil one did not care how many Christians there were in a city so long as they kept quiet. The great principle underlying consecration is, "It was the will of God that all Christians should be like Christ," yet how many Christians were like the Redeemer? On the contrary Christians were more like the people of the world, because they looked like them and acted like them. We can only be like Christ inasmuch as we possess His characteristics. The first characteristic, peculiar to Christ was, "That He looked like one that had died and was buried and had risen again." Christians then should be like the Lamb that was slain. But are we? Do we love our enemies? Are we praying for those that persecute us? Christians generally love those that love them. Ah, dear Christians, there are promises and promises, but there are none so precious as those that tell us, we can be like Christ, and so you go through society, bear yourselves as men and women who look like Christ.

The second characteristic peculiar to Christ was, "That while on earth He went about doing good." He was a friend to the poor, a balm to the suffering. He gave God the Father all the glory and trusted in Him all the time. If Christians possessed the first characteristic, they also would go about doing good. Bishop Baldwin urged that all Christian Endeavourers should apply themselves head, hand and foot to the services of the Master.

The third characteristic was this: "That whatever Christ did He did in the power of the Holy Ghost." All power was given unto Him, and just as soon as we Christians feel our weakness, God will work through us. Some Christians feel that they themselves have a little strength and could give a little help, but it is just here that failure comes. "So few understood how the Blessed One worked. Many Christians were waiting for a mighty afflatus in their hearts, but the Holy Ghost took us to see Christ. He showed us some of His glories, and just as we grew in grace He gave us new visions of that glory and asked us to be impressed with them. And this was the Being in whom Christians were to prevail; from His unseen presence would strength come. It was in combatting the cold east wind of opposition that the soul obtained its richest seasons of blessing. It was in the storm that Christ was with them.

Christians, let the hope of the second advent ever impel you, knowing that blessed are they whom the Lord shall find in well-doing.

The meeting then adjourned.

BOY BURGLARS BALKED.

In Their Act of Robbing a Water Street House Last Night.

At the police court this morning Wm. Bradley and Thos. Tully appeared charged with breaking into the house of Mrs. Eliz. Brown, Water Street, with the intention of commiting a felony. Both youthful crime committers elected to be tried before the Magistrate, and pleaded guilty to the charges on which they were arraigned. His Worship remanded them to goal until Tuesday for sentence. The circumstances of the unfortunate affair and timely arrest is as follows. About 10 o'clock last evening a telephone message was sent to the police station from Edgecombe's grocery, corner of George and Antrim streets, stating that three burglars had entered the house of Mrs. Brown, corner of Antrim and Water streets. Constable Adams was at the station and he immediately telephoned the affair to Chief Roszel who had gone home a few minutes before, and who resides near the scene of the housebreaking. The robbers had been noticed through an upstairs window by Mrs. Mann, who lives one door south of Mrs. Brown. She had noticed the two intruders rummaging among several drawers in the house of her neighbour, when retiring, and as she knew that Mrs. Brown was not at home, she concluded that their mission was not of the most pleasant nature. Chief Roszel effected an entrance to the house through the back door, accompanied by Mr. R. J. Kidd, leaving several outside to arrest the progress of the burglars should they attempt to escape through a window. They could not get through into the dining room with breaking the door, and this they were loth to do. They returned, and by this time constables Stewart and Adams were on the scene. An axe was procured and a front window raised, when the chief leaving the other constables outside entered and going upstairs discovered the miscreants under a bed. They were taken in custody and removed to the cells. On investigation nothing was found missing from the house. Several things in the drawers had, however, been disturbed in the search. The entrance was effected by the burglars opening the shutters and raising the sash of a small side window.

NEW YORK (SPECIAL).

TYLE in outer garments for winter is various. Capes are much prettier than jackets when worn over a fashionable gown. I noticed the hideous effect of a full dress sleeve squeezed into a jacket, which although of the latest cut and with amply wide sleeves looked positively grotesque and quite spoilt the pretty figure of the wearer. A cape like the one in the initial picture would have been better.

It is for their street toilets, however, that my feminine readers will care most for information. So I devote two sketches to fur-trimmed, full-length cloaks in the latest fashionable shapes. It is a treat on a cold day to walk down Fifth avenue and note the lovely things in outer garments. The handsomest mantles are of black silk plush or rich velvet, made up with silk passementerie or fur. Sometimes all these materials are used together, as in the case illustrated. The lady there shown was on her way to a matinee, and her whole toilet may be regarded as correct for street purposes. One figure in the next picture is in a long tight-fitting coat of dark blue cloth, lined throughout with sable mink and trimmed very handsomely with a deep collar and wide cuffs of dark Russian sable. The other is a very effective cape, made in quite a new material, a kind of navy serge, with a shaded stripe of red and green chenille. It is cut in three-quarter length, and edged throughout with black fox fur. Warmly lined with quilted shot silk this will make a delightful winter cloak.

The new fashion of a band of ribbon, either real ribbon or enamel, or a gold and jeweled ribbon, worn fillet-style around the head is a great thing for bald women. To be sure, I should not have said it right out like that. But, though not generally known, there are as many bald women as there are bald men, and for these there are all sorts of devices for covering up their misery. The great difficulty is in the parting that must show above the bang. I say must show, because if it does not and the hair is all a mess it is sure to look like what it is—a wig. But this fillet is just the thing. Many women are not entirely bald, but their front hair is thin. They cannot have a really nice bang. They are thin at the temples and scraggly in the middle. For these there is a bang that will fasten onto the fillet, and the whole will go on together and look just too sweet and natural for anything. The wise girl who does not have to put her fillet to such use, will be careful to clasp it about her head just above the part. But the other girl need not mind. She will not be suspected, unless the other girl tells.

Little girls are their mother's dolls, to be dressed elaborately and often fantastically. A walk in Central park reveals the usual series of nursemaids and governesses airing their infant charges, or vigilantly watching over the more dangerous age, when one pair of eyes seems scarce sufficient to be up to the myriad moves of the mischief-loving imps clad in Greenaway bonnets or man-o'-war caps, not to mention knickers or the long-skirted Dutch dresses that give such a picturesque appearance to the curled darlings of the fashionable mother's heart. Elderly ladies do not in general approve of the quaint long-skirted fashion of dressing tiny girls, and I have heard more than one grandmamma declare that it "cannot possibly be healthy." Still nothing proves that children of bygone centuries were weaker than those of to-day, and during mediæval times youngsters were clad in ground-sweeping petticoats; accordingly there is little to say against the quaint old-time fashion of clothing the bairns, otherwise than it is perhaps a trifle warmer than needs be during the summer months. On the other hand, when rude Boreas begins to tune his organ pipes, the long skirts, edged with velvet or fur, are a perfect protection for the fragile little limbs. It is all very well for some parents to say that short petticoats and naked legs and arms harden and improve, and in later years produce lusty men and women. In some it may, but who can tell the amount of babies in which the germs of lung disease and other evils, to say nothing of the arch-fiend rheumatism, have been sown in infancy, thanks to the absurd idea of hardening children by letting them run about only partially garbed?

New York children of the rich this autumn are dressed in warm pelisses, made with full sleeves shirred into narrow wristbands, and having over the shoulders a little cape or collet outlined with fur. The favorite headgear appears to be soft, long-haired felt hats, trimmed with windmill sail bows of Tartan ribbon, velvet or satin antique or moleskin plush. Some of them are tied under the chin in a funny little coquettish bow. Dark green cloth seems to be a favorite color and material for little girls, while the boys still appear in the true blue dear to the hearts of the jolly Jack Tars.

An indoor toilet for a girl of twelve or so is shown in one of my sketches. In the original garment the dress is dark blue velvet, with a light blue pattern on it. The jabot is light gauze with the revers colored faille or ottoman. The back of this dress is made in plain folds lying one over the other and fastened in the middle. The front pleat is only slightly gored in the center and the side pieces are only to be gored in the part that turns toward the back. If the width of the material allows it, the side breadths can be cut at the same time as the front pleats, only in cutting the dress care must be taken that it is not too scanty above or on the top, otherwise it is apt to make a bunch on the sides. The lining of the coat is satin, and at the bottom it has an inner flounce of similar material. The placket-hole is on the left side. Underneath this must be placed a broad band of material over which it is hooked, and over which in addition falls a broad silk bow. The pocket is on the right-hand side. The jacket has a double front, the underneath part of which fitting to the form is closed with bone buttons, or any other kind which are in fashion in the shape of a vest. That is to say, it is made in such a form that a pointed plastron can be formed of the light blue faille on which the jabot lies. This overlying vest of faille is closed with very small hooks which are concealed by the folds of material. The jabot is laid on separately, and of material that is folded and fastened over on the side. The back part of the jacket lies underneath the fastening of the material. The upper part in front is cut short and added on in the shape of a round cape, which is lined with some dark material. Both of the front parts of the cape are joined to the back breadths, the sleeves, which are made of straight pieces of material, being lined with any material that is convenient, and this is cut sloppingly on the under side and covered with velvet. This is placed flat on the lining and sewn together with it. The puffed sleeves fall over bands of faille in such a manner that it looks as though the folds themselves were made of faille. The under sleeves are white.

AT A PARTY.

Mothers, if you can afford it, let your daughters give a juvenile party this winter. It is a fatigue to the hostess, but it is a real joy to the tiny guests, as well as to the children of the house. The little ones talk about their parties for weeks before it comes off, and their joy is redoubled if they are allowed to have a hand in the sending out of the invitations. If done in a pretentious way, the invitations are generally sent out in the name of the children, and the prettiest long notepaper is employed for the purpose, or the daintiest of "At Home" cards, with a colored picture at one corner. The guests arrive punctually at a children's afternoon party, and the little ones are given tea at a long table, the daughters of the house and the governess or nursemaid pouring out tea and coffee at either end. The table is covered with plates of bread and butter and various kinds of cakes and sweets, and cracker bonbons are placed beside the plates. The children dance or play games while their elders are at tea. At parties given during the Christmas holidays a distribution of presents occupies an important place in the programme, and they are generally given away at the end of the evening in some pretty and novel fashion. Light refreshments are given in the dining-room before the children take leave—lemonade, cakes, sandwiches and crystalized fruits being the usual refreshment given. Cracker bonbons should not be forgotten, the explosive crackers being to the little ones what champagne is to their elders, causing the shyest natures to unbend under their inspiriting influence.

Cod liver oil from the cod fish when combined with hypophosphites of lime and soda, as in "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil," will build up the cellular tissues and create new blood. This is just what consumptive patients need. It has cured thousands of people who would otherwise have been at this time occupying narrow spaces in the graveyards of our country. Miller's Emulsion is worth a trial. In big bottles, 50c. and $1.00, at all Drug Stores. dw

GENTS,—Please ship us per G.T.R., freight prepaid, three (3) gross more of your Anti-Dandruff. This makes six gross or 804 bottles purchased from you since January 16th, 1892, a little more than two months. The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hair-dressing for the hair. Clean to use and has an agreeable odor. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and pevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, we remain,

Best Cure For

All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

Bronchitis

"When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."—J. C. Woodson, P.M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

Cough

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured."—Franz Hoffman, Clay Centre, Kans.

La Grippe

"Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

LADIES'

FUR CAPES.

This cut represents one of our newest Military Capes we are making this season, in Seal trimmed with Sable, and in Persian Lamb trimmed with Bear. It also makes a very neat garment in fine Sealette trimmed with light fur.

This Jacket cut represents one of the neatest and most most fashionable Garments for ladies ever introduced. Made in Grey Persian Lamb, Persian Lamb, Seal and Bocharan.

We have opened out and passed into stock this week four thousand dollars worth of Furs, part of the bankrupt stock of Stearling McCrundy, consisting of 50 Seal Caps with band for gentlemen, 20 Black Dog Coats, 5 pairs Gentlemen's Otter Gauntlets, 40 Persian Lamb Caps, 25 Ladies' S.S.S. Muffs, 4 Ladies' Persian Lamb Caps and 10 Fur Lined Circulars together with a variety fine Furs.

The above goods are selling at less than the original prices, but, the prices we will quote for same do not rule throughout our stock, as these special lines were bought less than the cost of production.

A Sliding Farm Gate.

There are still large sections of country, in which even cheap gates are rarely to be seen. The rail fences have to be laid down every time a field is entered. The hinge gate requires some skill to make, and the posts used must be heavy, and well and firmly set. The illustration of a very cheap gate, engraved after a sketch from J. M. Rice, Mo., shows a gate that any farmer, who can use a coarse saw and drive a nail, can readily make. It is designed for a place where small stock are restrained. For a full gate cut the cross pieces of the same length as the front, and add two more boards. There are two posts for each end of the gate, and they may be just the ordinary post, with no extra bracing, as the gate slides on the cleat nailed to the back posts. It will be observed that the back posts stands so that the cleat can be nailed to the front edge of one, and the back edge of the other, giving room for the gate to be swung around toward the side of the post standing furthest back. When the gate is closed, the front end rests on the cleat nailed to the front posts. A barbed wire may be stretched across the top.

Notable Cases of Cholera Prevention.

On the coming of cholera to the United States in 1873 it course was as follows: In December, 1872, and in January, 1873, there arrived at New Orleans immigrants from the cholera-infected districts of Europe, and on February 9 the first death occurred at New Orleans. It was carried thereafter as follows: the first case at Vicksburg, April 8; the first case at Memphis, April 15; the first case at St. Louis, May 11; the first case at Paducah, Ky., May 21; the first case at Chicago, May 24; the first death at Cincinnati, June 15; the first case at Little Rock, June 30 (where it was prevented from spreading); and during this time the disease appeared in about two hundred cities and towns in the Mississippi valley. During the same visitation there were two conspicuous instances of the success of isolation. At Atlanta, Ga., where there was then a population of 22,000 people, an authenticated case of cholera (a refugee from Chattanooga) occurred on July 2, and the patient died; but by prompt and energetic action of the physicians who had the case in charge the disease was confined to this single individual, and the health of the other residents of the house and of the community was successfully guarded. About the same time there was a similar experience at Dalton, Ga., which had a population then of 5,000 people, where a well-authenticated fatal case of cholera appeared on July 3. In this case, as in the case at Atlanta, the patient had come from Chattanooga. By proper isolation and disinfection no other case appeared in Dalton.—October Forum.

Good Roads.

It may be that New Jersey has solved the problem of better roads. As related in the Agriculturalist for April, their Legislature enacted a law enabling county officials to set apart certain roads to be considered as county roads, and to be maintained by the county. Union County set apart 35 miles of roads, issued bonds for $300,000, which was afterward increased by $50,000 more, making just $10,000 per mile, which was used in macadamizing those roads.

As a result, the value of land in the county has nearly doubled; the towns have more money to expend upon the roads that branch out from these main or country roads, and the latter are just as good in the smaller and poorer towns as in the richer ones. There are no bad places where only one half the load can be drawn that might be drawn through all the other towns, the farmers get their products to market with ease at all seasons of the year, and carry larger loads. Although it is but a year since the roads were completed, even those who opposed it are now enthusiastic in its praise, but feel as did one old farmer, who says that every one of the country roads is worth more than a railroad. The county taxes are higher, but they get something for their money, and the country is made attractive, not only to farmers and market gardeners, but to the city residents, who enjoy pleasant drives.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1892.

W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you: as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.

Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

PERFECTION MAKES PERFECT.

A Pictorial Romance of the Bear and the Summer Girl.

To Prevent Bull Tossing.

A simple arrangement to prevent cattle from throwing rails or molesting fences, trees, etc., is herewith illustrated. Drill a hole in the end of each horn and fasten a strong wire to them and not too taut. A leading ring, such as is held together with a spring, can be used in the nose and a wire connected between this and the other wire. Do not draw it so tight as to cause any inconvenience in feeding, but have it taut enough to hold the ring up. When the animal goes to toss a rail he changes his mind as the ring pushes or pulls on his nose. He will also stop fighting and other disagreeable tactics.

He Quit the Doctor.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years and tried several remedies but found them of very little use. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I quit the doctor and started to use B. B. B., and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case, and I can highly recommend this excellent remedy to all.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

Two Officials Have Been Suspended Pending an Investigation.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—Hon. Peter White, Speaker of the Commons, left for home after being here since Wednesday. It is understood that the reason for Mr. White's visit was the investigation of some discrepancies which have been discovered in the sessional indemnity accounts of the accountants of the House of Commons, and which have been disclosed by the closing of the accounts for the session in the Auditor-General's office.

Pending further investigation, Mr. Brewer, accountant, and Mr. Bolton, assistant accountant, have been suspended and two other officers of the House have been placed in temporary charge of the accountant's branch, while the Auditor-General is looking into the whole matter.

The Journal to-night says: "The exact nature of the alleged irregularities has not yet been fully investigated, but it is only fair to the officials concerned to say that the amount of money involved is very small, and that no charge of dishonesty or fraud has been made."

Both of the suspended officers have been many years in the service of the Government and have both borne high and irreproachable characters for integrity and ability. Great sympathy is felt for them, and it is sincerely to be hoped that they will be able to satisfactorily explain the apparent irregularities in their accounts.

The statement of revenue and expenditure, which will appear in The Canada Gazette to-day, is the most satisfactory which has been published for years. In round numbers the revenue for the first six months of the fiscal year shows an increase of half a million over the same period last year, and the expenditure a decrease of more than six hundred thousand.

The surplus for the four months is about four millions six hundred thousand, or nearly a million and a quarter more than it was for the same period last year.

This large increase of revenue and decrease of expenditure has naturally had a material effect on the public debt, which at the end of October stood at $237,781,099, or about three and a half millions less than it was at the close of the fiscal year.

The Canada Gazette to-morrow will contain the following appointments: George Isaac Walker of Aylmer, Ont., to be sub-collector of customs, and Stewart Edward Martin of Windsor and Thomas Bernard Gillard of Wallaceburg to be collectors of customs.

Notice is given by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. that application will be made to Parliament for an act to give effect to the Esplanade agreement and also for an act to give effect to the agreement with the Grand Trunk for a union passenger station.

W. B. Scott, Manitoba's commissioner to the World's Fair, arrived here to-day and had a conference with Professor Saunders. He reports that Manitoba's exhibit will be very large and varied, and will include a pair of live moose and a pair of elk broken to harness.

AN ACUTE PHASE.

A United States Naval Vessel Will Be Sent to Samoa.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 12.—Advices from Samoa are to the effect that the differences between the two factions on the Islands, headed by Mataafa, the recognized King, and by Mafietoa, the claimant to the throne, have reached an acute phase.

To fully protect the interests of the United States it has been decided that a naval vessel shall be sent there at once.

WILL POWDERLY RETIRE.

Report That He Will Recommend Lecturer Wright as His Successor.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12.—It is reported that General Master Workman Powderly will retire from the position he now holds and that he will recommend as his successor A. W. Wright, General Lecturer of the order.

Tropical Troubles.

LA GUAYRA, Venezuela, Nov. 12.—There has been some trouble here with the steamer Philadelphia. The surrender of ex-Governor Mejares, who is a passenger from Curacoa to New York, was demanded by the authorities on a criminal charge preferred against him.

The captain of the Philadelphia refused to give him up, and in consequence the Custom House authorities hold the ship's register. She was cleared by Consul Hanna.

The fort threatened to turn its guns on the Philadelphia, and a boat loaded with armed soldiers was sent out to the steamer and was warned off by the captain. United States Minister Scruggs was firm in his support of Consul Hanna's action and Mejares remains on board the Philadelphia.

Disagreeable Complications Likely.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 12.—Up to the close of office hours no information had reached the Department of State relative to the trouble reported from La Guayra, Venezuela, growing out of the refusal of the captain of the Red Line steamer Philadelphia to surrender Ex-Governor Mijares to the local authorities and the subsequent sailing of the vessel without permission of the port officers.

If the facts are as reported some disagreeable complications are likely to ensue.

The case has an aspect in international law different from the celebrated Barrurdia case, in that the latter was demanded as a political refugee, whilst Mijares' surrender was demanded to answer a criminal charge.

A PROBABLE WAR.

With Peru And the Argentine Republic Against Chili.

PANAMA, Nov. 12.—A war is imminent between the Argentine Republic and Peru on the one side and Chili on the other.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—While no official information has reached Washington indicative of war between Chili on the one hand and her old foe Peru and the Argentine Republic on the other, the recent course of events in those republics has caused some apprehension in official circles here.

At the close of the war in which Peru was completely defeated, Chili remained in possession of the two southern provinces of Peru, namely, Tacna and Arica.

In the treaty of peace it was stipulated that these provinces should continue in the possession of Chili, subject to Chilian law and authority, during a period of 10 years, to be reckoned from the date of ratification of the treaty of peace.

After the expiration of that term a plebiscitum in the two provinces would decide by popular vote whether the provinces should remain under the Chilian sovereignty or return to Peru. The 10-year period will expire next October.

Chili would be very loath to surrender the provinces, and Peru wants them in order to retain her old prestige and for strategic reasons. As to Argentina, that nation was an earnest sympathiser with the late President Balmaceda and has contracted an alliance with Peru.

Not Credited.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 12.—The rumors of an alliance between the Argentine Republic and Peru to wage a war against Chili are not believed here.

No differences whatever, it is said in official circles, exist between the Argentine Republic and Chili now that the frontier dispute between the two countries has been settled.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY

Head one Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using them eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was also all over his ears, most of his face, and small places on different parts of his body. There were thirteen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his fingernails out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hands loose. We know your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Men's and Boys' Ready-Made Clothing.

All hand cut, tailor made, manufactured only from the best tweeds and cloths, cut in the best styles of the day. Every garment sewn with linen thread, trimmed with No. 1 lining and trimmings. We guarantee every garment sold to give perfect satisfaction or money will be refunded.

We Manufacture Our Own Clothing and sell direct to our customers, saving them fully 20 per cent.

This is the time of the year when the wants of all people are the greatest, and the most of their money spent. It is now that the might of our low prices courts—that the superiority of our values tells. Every table is groaning with bargains. Piles of solid comfort here to be distributed for man and boy. Remember our Ready-Made Suits and Overcoats cost but one-half what the tailor would charge for the same work. It is acknowledged beyond a doubt that we carry the finest line of Fall and Winter Overcoats in Canada, of all the newest as well as the old standard in Irish Friezes, Marlings, Meltons, finest West of England Beavers, Kerseys, Venetians and Covert's real Scotch Naps, in all desirable shades. Characteristic of this, the Cheapest Clothing House in Ontario.

BOYS' OVERCOATS—Stylish, pretty, warm, and in the better lines it takes more than one boy to wear them out. Prices from the low priced $1.50 Boy's Overcoat up to the best goods made at $7.00. 20 styles to select from.

Crowded Out!

TWEEDS, SUITINGS and OVERCOATS

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

To EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being to positively clear out the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

A RIOT AT HOMESTEAD

BETWEEN THE STRIKERS AND COLORED WORKINGMEN.

Fifty Shots Fired, But No One Killed—Terrible Battle With Knives—At Least Two Dozen People Were Injured With Flying Missiles.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Nov 14.—The period of comparative quietness which has prevailed in Homestead since the militia left died out yesterday, and the pent-up feelings of the strikers broke out afresh in a riot, in which at least 50 shots were fired, but miraculously no person was killed, though a score were hit by flying bullets.

A party of seven colored non-union men were on their way to their boarding-house about 4.45 o'clock this afternoon, when a man, supposed to be a striker, attacked two of the negroes, Charles Carroll and Fred Lewis.

Lewis was knocked down. This was a signal for a large crowd to gather at the scene of trouble. Lewis' companions came to his rescue and a terrible riot took place between the colored men on one side and the crowd, supposed to be all strikers, on the other.

The two sides fought desperately and fired their revolvers and slashed each other with knives at close quarters for several minutes, when the negroes made a dash through the crowd for their boarding houses.

They were followed by the hooting and bloodthirsty crowd, which by this time numbered at least 2000, including many women and children. The crowd fired and threw stones at the fleeing negroes, and they in turn returned the fire on the crowd, and how so many escaped instant death is a miracle.

At least two dozen people were injured by flying missiles, but as far as can be learned none were killed. The seven negroes and a number of strikers have been arrested.

Great excitement prevails here to-night and more deputies have been asked for.

SWINDLING BANKS.

A Dashing Young Woman an Efficient Member of the Gang.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—A gang of bank robbers is traveling about the country, especially through the West. They are clever and plausible and their victims are generally the country banks.

Their method is to obtain a draft for a small sum from an out-of-town bank on its New York correspondent. From this genuine draft they have forged duplicates made. The genuine draft goes through all right. Then the bogus drafts are presented, and the swindlers having established a sort of credit with the genuine draft and being sufficiently well known to be identified by the country bank, the bogus drafts on the New York bank are generally cashed without delay.

In a circular which victims sent out they say they will pay a reward of $300 for the arrest of Mrs. Murphy and her delivery to the proper officers of the state of Minnesota.

The woman is described as 5 feet 8 inches high, weighs 190 pounds, very dark hair, cut short and curled, dark grey eyes and heavy lips. She is about 24 years old, good-looking, of pleasing address, dashing manners and may at any time assume another name.

AN ALLEGED BIGAMIST.

He Admits That He Kept Company With the Claimant.

DETROIT, Nov. 14.—Sylvester Gabel, alias Edward Mason, aged 29, employed in the Michigan Central freight sheds, was arrested on a charge of bigamy preferred by a woman from London, Ont., who claims to be his first wife.

Gabel married his present wife on Aug. 31, and they immediately came to this city. Since then they have been boarding at 17 Brush-street, under the name of Mason. The latter denies that he was ever married to the woman who claims to be his first wife, but admits that at one time he kept company with her. The case will be heard in the Police Court.

The People's Party Will Live.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 14.—Gen. Weaver says his party is not a temporary affair, but it is going to stay in the field and will be a factor in every campaign for the future. He says that all over the country the work of organization will be pushed steadily.

Gen. Weaver also says he has received private advices from Alabama which convince him that he carried that state by 3000 plurality, and he expects to make a fight for it.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

He Shot a Man and Woman, and Then Blew His Brains Out With a Revolver.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—A man named Ryan shot Susie Ruff and Frank Whittaker at 477½ Clark-street at 3 o'clock this morning and afterwards committed suicide by blowing his brains out.

The Ruff woman is shot in the left breast and will die. Whittaker is shot in the back and has a slight chance of recovery. Jealousy was the cause of the shooting.

Wants the Sweets at Once.

WASHINGTON, D.C. Nov. 14.—Probably the first man to apply for office because of Democratic success at the polls is a resident of Georgia, who appeared at the Treasury Department yesterday and showing Secretary Foster a recommendation from Speaker Crisp modestly said he would like to have some office under the Treasury Department. The Secretary treated him cordially, and said he would place his application on file [illegible] consideration of his successor.

THE ORDER IS MODIFIED.

STOCKERS ON THE WAY WILL BE ADMITTED.

The Time For Entry Will Not Be Extended—The Suspended Accountant Will Make Good the Deficiency of $2500 If Necessary.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—The question of the scheduling of Canadian cattle on the 21st inst. may now be considered as definitely settled. When the order for scheduling was given the Minister of Agriculture, at the instance of the cattle shippers, asked through Sir Charles Tupper that the order be modified so that shipments might be made from Canada up to the 21st to enable contracts already made for the export of stockers to be fulfilled.

An answer to this request was received from the High Commissioner yesterday to the effect that the time could not be extended, but that the Board of Agriculture had agreed that cattle en route which might reasonably be expected to arrive by the 21st, but not coming in until after that date, will be reasonably dealt with.

This probably means that all cattle now on the way will be allowed to land, but no more.

Will Make Good the Deficiency.

No new development has taken place in the cases of the suspended accountant and assistant accountant of the House of Commons except that the matter has been referred to the Department of Justice and that the two officers are said to be prepared to make good the deficiency of $2500 if necessary.

It is rumored that the deficiency is largely represented by advances made by the officers when they had no legal authority to make, but which show that there was no intention of fraud or dishonesty.

Toronto Coffee Above the Average.

The Department of Inland Revenue has just issued a bulletin giving the result of analyses made of 141 samples of coffee collected in various parts of the Dominion during April, May and June last. The result shows that 39 samples, or 27.6 per cent., were adulterated.

In cases of gross adulteration with chickory or roasted grain, or both, the parties were challenged and generally paid the cost of collecting and analysing the sample, $14. In some cases prosecutions were instituted and are still pending.

In Toronto seven samples were analysed. They were obtained from J. W. Cowan & Co., Jardine & Co., Dalton Bros., Todhunter, Mitchell & Co., Sinclair, Howe & Co., Ellis & Keighley and Barton, Son & Co. The first five under microscopical examination showed coffee only, the sixth traces of chicory and the last traces of starch. Toronto coffee seems to be considerably above the average.

AT A BROOKLYN FIRE.

She Fancies that Cholera Germs May Be Carried in Exhibits.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 14.—The bodies of Wayland A. Estes and John F. Spaulding, the two firemen who were thrown into a burning mass of jute and sisal at the Harbeck store fire yesterday afternoon, were recovered to-day. Several engines and a fire-boat have been playing upon the smouldering ruins all day.

At 3 p.m. Foreman J. W. Connell of engine 9, standing upon the roof of an adjoining building, saw the legs of a man protruding from the smoking mass of debris 40 feet below. He volunteered to attempt a rescue of the body.

Lashed to a long ladder, several firemen lowered him into the smoking pit. A minute later he was drawn up with Estes' body in his grasp. After a brief breathing spell he was lowered again and brought up Spaulding's remains.

The bodies were but little burned, the wet jute having protected them from the flames.

Fire in Bracebridge.

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont., Nov. 14.—Fire yesterday burned Joseph Cooper's planing mill and the Queen's Hotel stables. Loss about $3000; no insurance.

FRANCE GRASPING.

The Significance of the Result of the Elections in the United States.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—The French public is just beginning to grasp the significance of the result of the elections in the United States. The financial columns of the daily press and the financial organs declare that the Democratic success will give a new impetus to trade and will bring additional capital into business throughout the world and will add fresh fuel to the smouldering agitation against the Meline tariff, "the McKinley protection of France."

The leading Swiss revue warns Europe that if the Democrats lower the tariff in the United States America will become redoutable, unless Europe also adopts free trade. High duties on American products, it says, will intensify the evil and completely ruin the countries of Europe.

The Czarewitch in Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 14.—The Czarewitch, who arrived in this city yesterday, departed last night for St. Petersburg. He conferred for an hour this morning with Count Kalnoky, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

Later he was a guest of honor at a grand banquet given at the palace, after which he attended a gala performance at the opera house.

Two Steamers Collide.

HAMBURG, Nov. 14.—The steamer Fawn came into collision with the steamer Erma yesterday. The latter was so badly damaged that she sank. The Fawn was badly damaged.

Seas Overwhelmed Her.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 14.—The steamer City of Lincoln from Montreal has arrived. She encountered very violent weather for several days. Seas overwhelmed her, sweeping away 117 cattle and several hogs.

Heir to a Million

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 14.—Carl Wilhelm Amoenderf, heir to the estate of his father, worth a million dollars in Berlin, has been located in this city. He is a porter in the saloon of Henry Woolstein and is known as Pencil Charley. His mother was notified and she promptly sent money with which to pay his passage home. Amoenderf seems to be suffering from a mild form of lunacy and scarcely realizes his position.

ON THE WING.

A Norwegian Murderer Takes Steps Across Lots.

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 14.—[illegible] from Edmonton, en [illegible] Iowa: "Yesterday morning Peter Sundeen, who arrived by train Thursday night from Gladstone, Minnesota, was [illegible] your questions on the train about [illegible] the railway station in South Edmonton. He died about 1 p.m.

A post-mortem examination [illegible] skull had been [illegible] by a [illegible] probably with an axe. [illegible] penetrated the [illegible] cut at the right eye, probably [illegible] and fallen to the ground. His pockets were emptied.

"He was a Norwegian, and it is supposed had the proceeds of the sale of his farm with him. His traveling companion, named Mickinson, was seen with Sundeen about 9 o'clock on the morning before the murder, and a man answering his description was seen running away from the scene of the murder very shortly after 9 o'clock, about the time it was committed. He has not been seen since."

A party of farmers from Stevens Point, Wisconsin, passed through here yesterday en route to take up land in Edmonton district.

The Conservatives of Eastern Assiniboia met in convention yesterday to select a candidate to succeed Hon. Edgar Dewdney in the House of Commons. The selection made was W. W. McDonald, Major Bell being defeated on ballot. His defeat created general surprise.

The election in Wallace constituency for the Northwest Legislature on Saturday resulted in the election of Mr. Insinger, who was put forward by the recently deposed Premier Haultain. This puts the new Cayley Government in a minority of two. It is likely that the general elections will now be brought on.

SHE HEARD SCREAMS.

Her Child Was On Fire—A Neighbor Woman's Heroism.

WINDSOR, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Ernest Ulch, a resident of Kingsville, left her three children in the house while she went to see a neighbor. She had not gone far when she heard screaming, and looking in the direction of her home saw one of the children on fire. She started back, but before she got there Mrs. Patrick Brennan, living next door, caught the child, and wrapping it up in the folds of her skirt, smothered the flames. The heroic action of Mrs. Brennan saved the child's life. It will be somewhat disfigured.

A New Industry for Chatham.

CHATHAM, Nov. 14.—W. F. Barnes, representative of a large packing and produce house in London, met the Board of Trade Saturday. He purposes establishing half a dozen branch houses. He promised to recommend Chatham as a site for one of the branches.

If the factory is established, it will not only employ 150 hands, and buy from ten to fifteen thousand hogs per week, but will attract a large immigration of well-to-do Danes.

St. Catharines' New Collector.

ST. CATHARINES, Nov. 14.—Mr. John E. Cuff was duly installed as collector of customs at this port Saturday by Inspector McMichael and now occupies the official chair. Mr. Collier, the superannuated collector, will retain the office of collector of canal tolls. This will make his superannuation allowance a little more respectable.

Explosion in a Saw Mill.

BURK'S FALLS, Nov. 14.—While the men were away at dinner, H. McQuarrie's saw and shingle mill at Baysville was blown up. It is a total wreck. The bulk of the boiler crossed the river and passed through James Smith's dwelling house. The inmates escaped without injury. Low water was probably the cause of the explosion.

Wrecked Near Gamet Rock.

HALIFAX, Nov. 14.—The steamer Lansdowne arrived last night with Capt. Samuel Wolfe and three of the crew of the schooner Arbutus, wrecked near Gamet rock. The schooner was owned in Liverpool, N.S., and bound from Sydney to Annapolis with coal. Hiram Conrad, a seaman, was lost. The survivors were taken off the wreck after being lashed to the rigging for 35 hours. They are in a dying state.

A Victim of Bad Ballast.

BURK'S FALLS, Nov. 14.—Henry Smith, an old gentleman over 70 years of age, residing at Spring Lake, has been lost since last Wednesday. He is supposed to have been drowned while taking sand across the lake in a canoe. Search has been made by his son Louis and others. They found the paddles and his cane, but nothing can be seen of the body or boat.

Mining in Galway, Muskoka.

BOBCAYGEON, Nov. 14.—It is said that the Reynolds mine in Galway is panning out rich and that Mr. Ben Miller has discovered another lead, which is turning out silver, nickel, etc., in even greater richness than the Reynolds mine.

Six Stores Burned.

SARNIA, Nov. 14.—Fire yesterday destroyed J. Thomas' photograph gallery, Duncan's barber shop, Reynolds' harness shop, Luscombe's meat market, Story's and Kelly's confectionery stores. The buildings were owned by J. S. Thom and James Kelly. Loss $5000, partly covered by insurance.

Two Papers Fall or Displeasure.

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—Archbishop Fabre has issued a mandement which forbids Roman Catholics reading The Canada Revue and L'Echo du Deux Montagnes because those papers have been agitating against alleged clerical abuses.

Tired of Setting Type.

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—William Jones, aged 60 years, a compositor on The Minerve, suicided by hanging last night.

A Petition For Slavin.

CORNWALL, Nov. 14.—A petition is being circulated for the reprieve of James Slavin, who was sentenced at the fall assizes to be hanged on Dec. 16 for the murder of John R. Davey.

A Tramp's Horrible Deed.

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 14.—A tramp threw a bucket of burning petroleum over John Leggatt, a 14-year-old boy, last night and the boy died. The tramp was saved by officers from being lynched.

Senator Grant Dead.

HALIFAX, Nov. 14.—Senator R. P. Grant (Liberal) died yesterday afternoon from lung trouble. He was in his 60th year.

DR WILLIAMS PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

Are a BLOOD BUILDER and NERVE TONIC. They supply in condensed form ALL the substances needed to enrich the Blood and to rebuild the Nerves, thus making them a certain and speedy cure for all diseases arising from impoverished blood, and shattered nerves, such as paralysis, spinal diseases, rheumatism, sciatica, loss of memory, erysipelas, palpitation of the heart, scrofula, chlorosis or green sickness, that tired feeling that affects so many, etc. They have a specific action on the sexual system of both men and women, restoring lost vigor.

WEAK MEN

(young and old), suffering from mental worry, overwork, insomnia, excesses, or self-abuse, should take these PILLS. They will restore lost energies, both physical and mental.

SUFFERING WOMEN

afflicted with the weaknesses peculiar to their sex, such as suppression of the periods, bearing down pains, weak back, ulcerations, etc., will find these pills an unfailing cure.

PALE AND SALLOW GIRLS

should take these Pills. They enrich the blood, restore health's roses to the cheeks and correct all irregularities.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. These Pills are sold by all dealers only in boxes bearing our trade mark or will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price—50 cents a box or 6 for $2.50.

DEATH OF A RESPECTED LINDSAY CITIZEN.

It is with the deepest regret, says the Lindsay Watchman that we this week record the death of Mr. Wm. Duffis, architect, of this town. It is needless to say that the announcement was received with widespread sorrow in town, where the deceased had lived so long and been so highly respected and esteemed. The late Mr. Duffis was born in the township of Otonabee of Scotch parents, and came to Lindsay in 1857. Throughout a wide district he had established a reputation for faithfulness and skill as an architect enjoyed by few, and was universally popular. In town many of the leading public buildings were erected under his care, such as the Loretto Convent, the Collegiate Institute, St. Paul's church, St. Andrew's church and others. For several years he acted as one of the town assessors, and frequently as arbitrator for the corporation, and the satisfactory manner in which he served the public is attested by the resolution of regret passed by the town council on Monday night. Mr. Duffis was fifty-seven years of age at the time of his death. He left a wife and eight children, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. Mr. Duffis was a member of the Roman Catholic church, and took an active interest in the work of St. Mary's congregation and Separate Schools.

AN AMUSING AND INSTRUCTIVE ENTERTAINMENT.

A pleasing stereopticon entertainment and illustrated lecture was given on Friday night last, at Hall's school house in Smith township. A large number were present, the building being well filled. Mr. Jay W. Doxsee under whose management the entertainment was given with his fine powerful stereopticon showed many views descriptive of almost every land scene, clime and situation, holding the rapt attention of his spectators over two hours and producing highly satisfactory effects. The magnificent pictures were thrown upon a screen twenty feet square, all the details being brought out clear and distinct and with very vivid and realistic results. Among Mr. Doxsee's finely colored splendid collections of views presented might be mentioned, the beautiful set Rock of Ages, Parliament building at London, and Ottawa, Niagara Falls, fifty views illustrative of Stanley's explorations in Africa and the various experiences and encounters with which he met, several local pictures of public buildings and streets and views of humourous scenes and situations.

MARKET MEMORANDA.

Things about the Square—Produce and Quotations.

The market on Saturday was large and the quantity of produce abundant and varied. The grain department was fair. Oats, much offered, going at 29 and 30c., peas, 58 to 64c., mummies, 62 to 64c., spring wheat, 67c. (standard), fall wheat, 69c. (standard), rye 48 to 50c., buckwheat, 40 to 41c., barley, 35 to 45c. Hay and straw market unchanged from Wednesday's quotations. Potatoes sold slowly at 60 to 65c. per bag, apples 40 to 60c., mutton, 7, 8 and 9c., lamb, 7 and 8c., beef, 4 and 5c. front quarter, 6 and 7c. per hind quarter—a great supply was offered but sold rather slowly. Pork went at 6 and 7c. Butter in large quantities and of excellent quality, sold at 20, 21 and 22c., tub, 18c. Eggs selling rapidly at 16 and 17c. per doz. Chickens 30 to 50c., Turkeys, 70c. to $1 according to the size of the bird, ducks, 35 to 50c. per pair, geese, 55, 60 and 65c. The supply of poultry was very large.

Increase Your Weight.

If you are losing flesh and blood, commence at once taking Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which is far ahead of all other preparations of the kind in existence. By taking Miller's Emulsion people gain from 5 to 10 lbs. by the time the first bottle is consumed. It is the greatest blessing of the century to all in delicate health, or who suffer with coughs, colds and ailments that tend to consumption. Remember, Miller's Emulsion contains all the constituents found in wheat. It is used in the hospitals and asylums of the country. In big bottles 50c and $1, at all Drug Stores.

Quinsy Cured.

GENTLEMEN,—I used to be troubled with quinsy, having an attack every winter. About five years ago I tried Hagyard's Yellow Oil, applying it inside my throat with a feather. It quickly cured me and I have not since been troubled. I always keep it in the house.

GALWAY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mr. Michael Cain, who passed away at his residence, Galway, Oct. 27th. Mr. Cain was born in Mitcheltown, Ireland, and came to this country with his parents in 1825, and settled in the township of Douro, residing in that township 37 years. He then removed to this township, where he has lived for the past 30 years. He married Julia Allen, daughter of the late John Allen, Douro. This union was blessed with eleven children — six boys and five girls—all of whom are living except one boy. Most of the remainder are married and settled in this township. Mr. Cain was known as a strictly honest man, and a quiet, highly respected and law-abiding citizen. In politics he was a staunch Reformer and in religion a Roman Catholic.

Testing His Honesty.

Your druggist is honest if when you ask him for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion he gives you just what you ask for. He knows this is the best form in which to take Cod Liver Oil.

IT IS SAFE TO USE Freeman's Worm Powders, as they act only upon the worms and do not injure the child. dw

Aching Pains Removed.

GENTLEMEN,—I cannot but praise B. B.B. for it has revived me wonderfully. I was completely run down, had aching pains in my shoulder, a tired feeling in my limbs, low spirits, in fact I was in misery. Being recommended to try B. B.B. I did so, and with the use of only one bottle I am to-day strong and healthy. I prize it highly.

Best Cure For

All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

Bronchitis

"When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."—J. C. Woodson, P.M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

Cough

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured."—Franz Hoffman, Clay Centre, Kans.

La Grippe

"Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

The new Methodist church at Bethel, five miles east of this village, is one of the handsomest and most complete to be found in a country district. It is neatly and substantially built of brick and is 30 x 50 in area with good basement.

Dr. J. N. Thompson has been appointed superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school. No better selection could have been made.

Great disappointment is expressed at our new hotel not being opened as expected. Let the Peterborough contractors and capitalists interested see that it is occupied at once.

Over 150 applications for our new staff of teachers for the High and Public Schools.

Grand opening here for a woolen mill and pork packing house.

The McNeely estate of general merchandise has been purchased by Wm. Curry at 68c, on the $.

A few weeks ago our school board took an economical fit and advertised for a complete new staff of teachers, with a view to lowering salaries. The applications for the five positions, numbering over 150, were opened and read on Wednesday evening in the presence of a large crowd of interested villagers. The action of the board in advertising for a teacher to fill Mr. Orr's place caused considerable surprise and some vigorous protests. He has been with us for six years and has been highly successful and popular. Although there were dozens of applications lower than his present salary, some of them by $150, public opinion was too strong for the economists and he was unanimously re-engaged at his present salary. Strange to say, there were only two applicants for the headmastership, both of them considerably higher than Mr. Robertson, who was also re-engaged at his present salary. Mr. Swayne, who had resigned the headmastership of the public school to attend Trinity College, was replaced by Miss Spark, who comes highly recommended. Miss Byers, who now teaches the lowest division of the public school, was promoted to the second division and her salary increased by ten dollars. Miss Lena Beatty was engaged to teach in the lowest division. The announcement of the re-engagement of the high school masters was greeted with vigorous applause. In the public school the salaries were on the whole considerably reduced.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage, defying the utmost art of man to rival

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

IT IS AUTUMN.

Jack frost has wondrous changes made,
The trees have lost their dark green shade,
Upon the ground their leaves are laid,
A certain sign of autumn.

The snow lies deep on morning's new,
The farmer may store up the plough,
The milkmaid shivering milks the cow,
Her fingers feel like autumn.

The pigs send out a louder squeal,
Fowls later seek a morning meal,
And cattle seasons changes feel,
Seek shelter in the autumn.

The summer toils of bees are o'er,
The squirrel lays up its winter store,
Musquitoes suck our blood no more,
One blessing comes with autumn.

The northwest wind bloweth chill and strong,
Day's shorten fast, the nights wax long,
In silence sits our warbling throng,
Their tongues are sealed by autumn.

Into their holes the woodchucks creep,
Bears soon will suck their paws and sleep,—
All but the monsters of the deep,
Feel the chill air of autumn.

Our lovely flowers have ceased to bloom
In garden, or on silent tomb,
October's breath has sealed their doom—
They fade and die in autumn.

Its cold blast changes Nature's face,
All summer beauties to erase,
Not these alone, the human race
Falls like the leaves in autumn.

It calls more than the hoary head,—
The babe it numbers with the dead,
The youth with cheeks like roses red,
Fades like the flowers in autumn.

Precursor of dread winter's blast,
O'er beauty's scene dark shadows cast,
Silent your warning, yet how vast,
Emblems of death is autumn.

Four seasons pass each changing year,
Four stages mark man's sojourn here,
Youth, manhood pass, then bleak and drear,
Life's summer yields to autumn.

Look up, these leafless boughs survey,
Fall stripped the leaves laid to decay,
Life's brittle thread may soon give way
Laying you like leaves in autumn

Young middle-aged, infirm and old,
Pause, your fast fading life behold,
Perhaps your name is now enrolled
Upon deaths list this autumn.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?

DON'T FORGET

The County Justice Mill.

On Saturday a batch of seven or eight Bridgenorth youngsters was arrainged before County Police Magistrate Edmison, charged with practical jokes of a Hallowe'en variety coming within the reprobation of the law. The prosecutor who bears a semi-official relation to law and order, did not wish to be severe upon the youthful desperadoes. Mr. Hatton appeared for the accused, who were dismissed with a caution.

Tenders for Snow Ploughing.

Advertisements have been issued for tenders for snow ploughing. Tenders must hand in their tenders by Saturday next at 4 p.m. All communications should be addressed to W. H. Meldrum, chairman. The time for cleaning the snow off the walks extends from Nov. 21st until spring. The town furnishes all the ploughs, and the town teams will clean the sidewalks in the central portion. Separate tenders are in the advertisement asked for the North Division—those streets north, east and west of McDonnell street; and the South Division—south, east and west of Sherbrooke street.

AT OPERA HOUSE

A New G. T. R. Folder.

Through the courtesy of Mr. W. Brundrette, station agent, the EXAMINER has received a copy of a new folder just issued by the Grand Trunk Railway. The new folder, which consists of 66 pages, has several points of superiority over any other folder issued by the company. It has a fine title page, and its contents include a list of the officers; a list of the principal ticket agencies; an index to the various lines and branches of the system, and, what is perhaps the best feature, an index of the stations, referring to the page containing the time table to enable the traveller to see at a glance the time of departure of trains to reach any station, and also giving the population of the city, town or village to which such station belongs. A complete and comprehensive map of the entire Grand Trunk system and connections accompanies the new folder, which is one of the most intelligible time tables yet issued. It is understood that Mr. D. O. Pease, district passenger agent, Montreal, is the author, and that to his energy and good taste is largely due the excellence of the new folder.

THIS WEEK

Celebrated the Colonel's Return.

A dinner party was given at the Tremont House, Lakefield, on Thursday evening last, in honour of the return of the hospitable proprietor, Col. Gibson. The occasion was marked with enthusiasm and good spirit. Among the guests were Major Bellasis, Lieut. Blake, Geo. Ogilvy, Mr. Barlee, Mr. Lillicrap and others. The bill of fare included venison, goose, beef, entrees, etc., and was enjoyed with much gusto. Speeches and toasts followed, the health of the guest of the evening being toasted right royally. Principal among the topics dwelt upon in the speeches of the evening was the advance of Lakefield, which produced a rousing effect upon all present.

A Nobby Set of Harness.

The spanking team of family carriage horses belonging to Mr. Aaron Cox have recently been decorated with a handsome set of double carriage harness, said to be the finest which has been turned out in Peterborough for many years. The harness is manufactured from superior oak tanned leather, mounted with solid nickel trimmings and English close plate. The workmanship and finish is of unusual merit, and is the handiwork of Mr. Harry Dundas, Simcoe street, who has been generously complimented for his skill and taste. Mr. Dundas has also received an order from Mr. J. B. McWilliams for another set of double harness of superior make and finish.

"The Ivory Gate,"

by Walter Besant, and published in Canada by the National Publishing Company, Toronto, is a book that will assuredly make a noise. It has in it a resemblance to the strange case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, with this difference, that the metamorphosis is not caused by a drug, and the change does not make the man a demon or a savage beast, but a lovable philanthropist with a scheme for wiping out poverty and misery. It treats of a mental disease. A prominent London lawyer, who had been a great brain worker all his life, finds himself falling into daily reveries lasting for hours. He supposes he is asleep at such times, but his old confidential clerk knows that he goes out and comes in while in the stupors, but does not tell him, fearing it will cause his master to retire from business. An entry is discovered in the bank book showing that the lawyer had paid £720 to one Edmund Gray by check. He knows of no such person, calls his clerks, hunts up the returned check, and pronounces the signature a forgery—remarkably clever, but still a forgery. After eight years other forged letters turn up and valuable bonds are removed from the private safe, and on being traced are found to be banked to the credit of Edmund Gray. The old lawyer and his friend are in great excitement over the matter, especially as socialistic tracts signed by Gray are found on the lawyer's table, which makes him furious, as he is a believer in the divine right of property.

With rare skill Besant carries the matter along, showing that the lawyer in his reveries loses his identity and becomes Edmund Gray, the very antipodes of his real self—genial generous, a fond dreamer of an ideal future to be brought about by his personal efforts. The story is a good one—so good that it is hard to lay it down before the finish. For sale at the Peterborough Bookstore.

Proposed Establishment of Large Packing Houses.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum, as a private member of the Board of Trade, communicated with Mr. W. F. Barnes, who is in Canada in the interest of a large packing and produce house of London, and has received from him a reply that he would visit Peterborough at an early date and look into our position as a place for one of the half dozen factories they propose establishing in Canada. It appears that Chatham has got the start of Peterborough in this matter and has already the promise that one of the branches will be located there. They are said to employ one hundred and fifty hands in each factory.

The following despatch from the Globe will be read with interest in this connection:

CHATHAM, November 13.—Yesterday Martin, Malcolmson, Piggott and other members of the Board of Trade met Mr. W. F. Barnes, representative of the large packing and produce house of that name in London, England, with branches in Ireland and France. This gentleman came here by appointment, and after discussing the object of his mission, the establishment of half a dozen branch houses, he was driven around the town and surrounding country. From what he saw and learned he expressed himself as favourably impressed, and also stated that the town and the country possess those special features in connection with their business. Before leaving Mr. Barnes gave the committee to understand that if the factory is established in Chatham, it will not only employ 150 hands and buy from 10,000 to 15,000 hogs per week, but will attract a large immigration of well-to-do Danes,

To-night will be one of the nights of the annual meteoric display. THE EXAMINER of Nov. 22, 1866, contained an account of the grand meteoric display that takes place every 33 years. The next big show of "shooting stars" takes place in November, 1899.

Coal is Coal.

The foreign winter rates of coal have come in and the price having advanced, the local dealers, who claim to have been selling at cost the first of the season, are compelled to advance their price accordingly—that is to $7.00 per ton, the advance to date from November 14th. For the past three months it is to be noticed that local dealers have been selling coal at Toronto prices, when the railway freight rates were 70 cents a ton more than to Toronto.

An Explanation Discovered.

A discovery has been made that discloses the cause of the escape of coal gas that nearly led to the death of Mr. Thos. Tebb, deputy postmaster, and his wife a few nights ago. The night of the occurrence was the first time the furnace was used. When the house was building, the chimneys were only carried up the height of the walls. The furnace was connected and the chimneys finished afterwards. The bricklayers, with a carelessness that can hardly be understood, allowed the chimney to be blocked with mortar destroying the draught, pouring gas into the house and nearly asphyxiating two persons.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I was confined to my room. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and can well. All who knew me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR COLUMN.

Items of Interest, Local and General—Salutatory—The London Convention.

"FOR CHRIST AND THE CHRIST."

[All communications intended for this column must be marked "Christian Endeavour" and sent to Box 113, Peterborough, not later than Friday previous to date of issue.]

MONTREAL, '93.

Preparations for the reception and entertainment of the delegates of the twelfth International Christian Endeavour Convention at Montreal are already being carried forward on an extensive scale. While at the time of the carnivals, there have been in the city between 12,000 and 15,000 strangers for whom accommodation needed to be provided, the fact that double this number is expected next July, makes the problem of their entertainment a far greater one than any Montreal has hitherto been called upon to solve.

The Hotel Committee of the convention is fully alive to the needs of the case, and no effort is being spared to secure ample accommodation of a superior kind for all who may attend.

During the past fortnight about 20,000 personally directed letters have been delivered throughout the city, calling upon householders to open their doors to the coming hosts. Already the response to this call has been as representative and general as time would allow. A house-to-house canvass is now being entered upon to place the merits of the case before many who could not otherwise be reached. It is believed that by the 1st of December the committee will know where it may bilet at least half the expected number of visitors. The French-Catholic and English-Protestant newspapers of Montreal have vied with one another in favourably reviewing the work of the society, and calling upon all good citizens, irrespective of differences in race, language and religion, for the honor of their beautiful city, to unite in extending hospitality to the delegates. In Montreal, as in Minneapolis, the homes of the citizens will welcome the Christian Endeavorers with open doors.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rector of St. John's, assisted in the services in St. Luke's on Sunday evening and preached the sermon.

At the offertory in St. John's at the evening service, Master Maitland Boswell sang "Angels Ever Bright and and Fair," in good voice and with very creditable taste and feeling.

Rev. D. Savage began a series of special evangelistic services in Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, last night. There was a very large attendance, and great interest was shewn in the services. The services will be continued every night at 7.30. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

The congregation in the morning was not quite so large as usual, many of the country people being absent consequent on the condition of the roads. The Rev. Mr. MacWilliams preached from Ps. cxix, 11, this being the second sermon from this text. In the evening the congregation was large, many strangers being present. The reverend gentlemen, who is preaching a course of sermons on the parables on Sabbath evenings, delivered a stirring address on the parable of "The Labourers in the Vineyard," taking for his test Matt. xx, 16, "The first shall be last and the last first, for many be called, but few chosen." Mr. Crane, in the absence of Miss Clarke, ably presided at the organ. In the morning the choir sang with good effect, "Nearer, my God, to Thee," and in the evening "Lift up Your Heads O Ye Gates!"

Yesterday the new St. Andrew's Sunday school rooms were occupied for the first time for school purposes. The attendance was very large, there being many new pupils. The infant room, as also the Bible class rooms, although so commodious, were well filled. All seemed to be highly delighted with their new home. These rooms are perfect and the very best work ought now to be done. The library has also been increased by a large number of new volumes.

The Rev. Mr. Frost, of Toronto, formerly a missionary in China, but forced to return because of ill health, will lecture to-night in St. Andrew's Sunday school rooms. Mr. Frost is one of the most interesting of missionary lecturers. We therefore ask that all interested in missions be present to hear this distinguished lecturer.

A MODEL HOUSE GOWN.

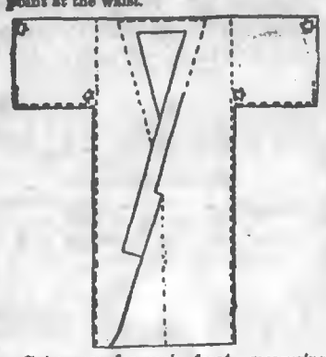
The Easy and Beautiful Japanese National Garment, the "Kimono."

Let me present your readers with the Japanese idea of ease and beauty as illustrated in the national garment, the "Kimono."

For centuries this garment has held its sway among the simple and ease-loving people of Japan, and so popular is it becoming in our own country that it can scarcely be called merely a "fad." They can be purchased ready made at from three dollars and a half upwards, according as they are made of printed cotton crepe or silk. A friend who has made one declares, however, that she cut and made the entire garment in less than two hours, at a cost of $1.20 for twelve yards of challis at 10 cents a yard.

Cut off from your goods two widths each four yards long; seem them together for exactly half their length; double it with the open side in front. For each sleeve take a breadth of the goods from 38 to 42 inches long, according to the length of your arm. Put the exact middle of one of these pieces to the middle of the shoulder, which is the fold where you have doubled your robe, and sew 16 inches each way, leaving an opening of about two inches.

To make the opening of the neck, cut straight across the shoulders three and a half inches each way, turning back the revers thus formed until they taper to a point at the waist.



Cut a gore for each front, measuring seven inches at the hem and ending in a point at the waist, and sew this with the bias side of the gore to the straight front of the garment. Cut a strip two and a quarter to two and a half yards long and six and a half inches wide, for the collar. Put the middle of it to the seam at the back of the neck, and sew it each way to the ends, which are left square.

Sew up the seams on the sides to within four inches of the sleeve, leaving this open; seam the lower edge of the sleeve and nearly half way across at the hand. This open space of garment and sleeve under the arm gives ease of motion. You may whitewash a ceiling, or twist up your back hair, or dandle the baby, without fear of rip or strain. Hem the garment at the bottom and your gown is complete, unless you choose to add a sash of soft silk or of half a breadth of the goods.

For invalids or for winter use this robe may have an interlining of wadded cheese cloth or silk, according as it is made of wash goods or some richer material. It is quite easy at present to find suitable goods among the cheap fabrics, so many of the designs being oriental. The dotted lines represent seams, and the stars show where openings are left.—Palmetto, in Country Gentleman.

Personal Appearance.

Every child should be taught that personal appearance is of great importance and that personal perfection is second only to a healthy moral and intellectual development. Indeed, it is held as a theory by many persons that perfect mental attributes are coexistent only with physical perfection.

Just why people should expend no end of time and money on the rearing of horses and cattle, taking every precaution that their development is symmetrical and harmonious, and apparently feeling no interest in what their own children are to be, is a question that philosophers might well take up and study. Evidently there is something wrong somewhere, and the sooner the error is discovered and bred out of the human family the better it will be for the future of the human race.

To Prevent the Grip

Or any other similior epidemic, the blood and the whole system should be kept in healthy condition. If you feel worn out or have "that tired feeling" in the morning, do not be guilty of neglect. Give immediate attention to yourself. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to give strength, purify the blood and prevent disease.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation.

For Young or Old.

Children and adults are equally benefitted by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, the new and successful cough remedy. It stops coughs in one night and may be relied on as an effectual remedy for colds, asthma, bronchitis and similar troubles. Price 25 and 50c. at druggists. dw

The Good Farmer.

As the American Farmer says: The really good farmer is the man that raises good crops on lands that were naturally or accidentally poor. It may be that the crops of wheat and corn yield less per acre, but in a series of ten years will be of a higher average than on the lower and more fertile lands. The man that improves a farm and produces good crops is entitled to credit of being a good farmer all the time and in any country.

Sheep as Weed Killers.

As eaters of brush and noxious plants, sheep will do good service, but they must not be kept at it steadily, or they will grow thin, and their fleeces will suffer in consequence. The flock must be compelled to browse only a few days at a time. After the gratification of this diet ceases, there is no longer profit in confining sheep to such food.—American Agriculturist.

A Good Cow.

The following old piece of doggerel is not an inapt, but brief, description of the prominent characteristics of a good cow:

Long in her sides, bright in her eyes,
Short in her legs, thin in her thighs,
Big in her ribs, wide in her pins,
Full in her bosom, small in her shins,
Long in her face, fine in her tail,
And never deficient in filling the pail.

This is a more intelligent description than half of the labored essays written on the subject.

Sulphur for Moths.

For two years a correspondent has used to her great satisfaction a plan that not only killed the live Buffalo and common moths, but prevented the eggs from hatching. She opened all drawers and closets, and burned sulphur in the rooms as you would to fumigate them, letting them remain closed over night. While burning, the smell is as of the bottomless pit, but the odor remaining afterwards is most wholesome, and for me, better than any plan I have heard of.

Women in Bohemia.

In Bohemia there are 140 societies and clubs which have for their object the advancement of the cause of women. A great deal is done in this way to procure for the women of Bohemia better employment and greater independence.

It is no easy thing to dress harsh, coarse hair so as to make it look graceful or becoming. By the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, this difficulty is removed, and the hair made to assume any style or arrangement that may be desired Give the vigor a trial.

PROMPT, POTENT AND PERMANENT results always come from the use of Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine. dw

would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

GENTS,—Please ship us per G.T.R., freight prepaid, three (3) gross more of your Anti-Dandruff. This makes six gross or 864 bottles purchased from you since January 16th, 1892, a little more than two months. The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hair-dressing for the hair. Clean to use and has an agreeable odor. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and pevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, we remain,

Yours truly,

GLADSTONE'S OPINION

Gladstone says: "You know a good deal about the position of an Insurance Company when you know

But a French Cruiser Beat the Charlestown's Record.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The Brandon, a French despatch boat, cruising off the Dahomeyan coast, recently surprised the British steamer John Halley with a cargo of Winchester rifles and ammunition which was intended for the Dahomeyan army. The vessel was seized and her cargo confiscated.

Gen. Dodds has telegraphed the details of the fighting that preceded the capture of Cana. On Nov. 4 the village of Dievue, in which the king has a large palace, was carried by assault. The Dahomeyans fought desperately. They were commanded by the king in person, and any show of cowardice was punished by instant death. Six of the French were killed and 45 wounded. The loss was sustained chiefly through the French falling into an ambush. Eighteen Europeans were wounded by those in the ambuscade.

On Nov. 5 the French bivouacked under the walls of Cana. On Nov. 6, while preparing to assault the town, they found it had been evacuated and they took possession.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 12.—A letter from Porto Novo, describing the campaign in Dahomey, says that the surprise of the French at Dogba was due to treachery on the part of the black scouts, who were subsequently shot.

A rout was narrowly averted by the courage of Col. Dodds and Capt. Roulant in advantaging the front of the French lines amid a perfect stream of bullets from Dahomeyans lying in ambush. In this dangerous position Capt. Roulant coolly lighted a cigar, inspiring the men to renewed efforts, while Col. Dodds promised to reward them for every black man captured.

In the battle of Pognesa the French captured three Germans and a Belgian, who were serving as officers of the Dahomeyan troops. These prisoners were afterwards tried by court martial and shot.

The Amazons are said to have performed prodigious feats of valor under the influence of gin.

Chilian Ministers Will Not Resign.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—A despatch from Santiago de Chili says that President Montt has induced the Chilian cabinet ministers to withdraw their resignations.

Not to Have a Walk Over.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 12.—George Robertson, the Conservative candidate for the vacant seat in the House of Commons, is not to have a walk over. John A. Chesley has announced his intention to oppose Robertson, and in his card says he favors closer relations with the United States. He opens the campaign with a public meeting to-morrow night. Chesley is an old-time Conservative. There was some talk last night of Straighten, Liberal, taking the field.

Jumped to Her Death.

MONTREAL, Nov. 12.—Fire took place in a tenement house on the corner of St. Catharine and Amherst-streets at 11.30 last night. A woman named Poupard, to save herself from being burnt to death, jumped from a second story window and received such injuries that she died half an hour after being taken to the hospital. None of the other inmates were injured.

The Sentence to Stand.

HOUSE FURNISHERS.

May and May Not Exhibit Their Goods at the World's Fair.

BERLIN, Ont., Nov. 12.—A meeting of furniture manufacturers was held recently to consult on the matter of an exhibit at the World's Fair. Mr. Anderson of Walkerton presided.

Mr. Locke, assistant commissioner, was present and explained the [illegible] which they could exhibit. After considerable discussion it was decided not to go into the matter, though it was intimated that some of the firms may do so separately.

The question of the tariff and imports were also discussed. It was found that about $200,000 worth of furniture was annually imported from the States, and this it was considered anything but just and fair to the manufacturers here.

The latter have a duty of 35 per cent. to pay on their cabinet hardware, varnishes and other things which enter into their cost of production, and when that is taken into account the supposed protection now enjoyed does not really protect as it should, and a strong committee was appointed to wait on the Government and lay the whole question before them.

The duty on furniture going into the States is prohibitory, that is 65 per cent.

YOUNG CANADIAN DEAD.

Arthur Snetsinger, a Graduate of Upper Canada College.

CORNWALL, Ont., Nov. 12.—Word was received here last Monday from Cincinnati, Ohio, of the illness of Arthur Snetsinger, son of J. G. Snetsinger, ex-M.P. of Metlinette.

The young man graduated in the Upper Canada College at Toronto some few years ago and entered the Edison Electrical Works at Montreal to follow the profession of an electrician. He left Montreal about four weeks ago, going to Cincinnati, where he was employed by a wholesale drug firm.

Yesterday a telegram was received stating he suffered a relapse. Mr. Snetsinger was about to proceed to Cincinnati when he received another message informing him he was dead.

The remains are now on the way home. Deceased was well-known both in Toronto and Montreal.

While in the former city he took an active part in all amateur sports connected with the college, where he was a general favorite.

He Wanted to Know.

"Papa," suddenly piped up the youngest, bracing his sturdy little legs for the assault, "don't it hurt the walls to have all the old skin scraped off of 'em when you puts paper on. I bunked the skin off my knee, an' it shuggled like forty, an' hurted, too. Why don't the wall bluggy?"

There was no reply.

"Papa," came the insistent inquiry. 'Don't the pos' office men know any better than to put 'U.S. Mail' on der wagons? Mamma spanked me norful hard when I said 'us's mail-box;' then why don't some one spank the postoffice men for sayin' 'Us Mail' instead of 'Our Mail?'"

Still a brief, unbroken silence.

"Papa—is the holes in bakers' bread good for little boys to live on? An' where does the baker man get 'em?"

Papa said nothing, but dived into the foreign news column.

"Papa," came the inquiry in an awed whisper, "Did God make yesterday an' to-day?"

"Yes, dear."

"Don't you 'spose then, papa, that the reason He never comes down to call on mamma is 'cause he is always too busy makin' to-morrows for folks to use?"

Papa hastily turned to the editorial page and said nothing.

"Papa," came that still, small voice, with a feeling ring in it; "how does little boys know when deir toes hurts 'em? They don't tink wis deir feet, does they?"

Papa fled to the base-ball column with an audible gasp.

"Papa, where does God live?"

"In Heaven, son."

"Did old Mrs. Brown go to Heaven when she died?"

"Yes, dear."

"Ain't it norful lonesome up there wif only old Mrs. Brown an' God?"

Papa prayed steadily through the brief lull.

"Papa," once more came the question from the puzzled little brain, "where did Adam and Eve buy a cradle to put Cain in?"

Papa glared across the table at the nurse, and hoarsely gasped: "For mercy's sake, Mary, take that kid to bed before I get congestion of the brain!"

"Papa!" came a wild shout echoing down the hall as the cavalcade moved by; "papa, why did God make all the strawberries in the summer when ev'rything's ripe, instead of makin' 'em in the winter time when they ain't nothin' else good for little boys to eat?"

After a brilliant flash of silence, papa straightened up his wilted form and sighed: "Maria, I wish you would remind me in the morning to buy that little fiend a Britannica Encyclopædia and a muzzle!"—Exchange.

IN TRAFALGAR SQUARE.

CELEBRATION OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF BLOODY SUNDAY.

Processions Led by a Number of Young Girls Waving Red Flags — Revolutionary Orations — Scotland Yard Was Ready for an Emergency.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Trafalgar Square was yesterday the scene of a great popular demonstration, the anniversary of "Bloody Sunday," in celebration of the restoration by the Liberal Government of the right to hold public meetings in the square. The sky was clouded and threatened rain.

Nothing daunted the legions of unemployed, of Socialists and other sympathizers marched in bodies to the square, most of them coming from east and southeast. A band was stationed there, which greeted the arriving processions, the first three of which were social Democratic bodies.

Led By a Number of Young Girls.

They carried red banners and were led by a number of young girls waving red flags. They took up a position at the base of the Nelson column, about three sides of which platforms were constructed. The balustraded front of the national gallery provided three other platforms.

All of the processions were amply provided with banners and bands, the Marseillaise and other revolutionary airs being played.

The banners bore inscriptions such as "Workers of the world unite and sow the seed, but do not let the tyrants reap."

Another, which was greeted everywhere with cheers, was inscribed: "Taken by Warren's Bullies Bloody Sunday; Retaken Same day."

The windows and roofs of the buildings overlooking the square were crowded with spectators.

There was a noticeable absence of police within the square, but hundreds on foot and numbers of mounted men were stationed back of the national gallery and at other convenient places out of sight.

Scotland Yard Ready for An Emergency.

Detachments of three or four were also placed every few yards at the approaches to the square, while an ambulance corps with stretchers and other paraphernalia was on hand ready for service. Scotland Yard, too, was ready for an emergency.

The square was filled with a vast concourse of people by half past three. It was an eminently orderly crowd, however. Ordinary traffic was little impeded. A majority of the processionists were well-dressed workingmen. They appeared almost lost in the great crowd of spectators drawn by curiosity.

There were 40 speakers, including John Burns, C. A. Conybeare, M.P.; James Keir-Hardie, M.P.; H. M. Hyndman, Ben Tillett, Bernard Shaw and William Saunders, M.P. The speeches were limited to six minutes each.

Burns, who spoke from the monument, was loudly cheered. He moved the resolution anent the unemployed. His speech was moderate. He contrasted the square as it appeared on Bloody Sunday with the peaceful assembly of to-day. He said that 30 per cent. of the engineers and workmen in the steel, iron, tinplate and shipbuilding industries were out of work, but he attributed this unfortunate condition to previous over-production. With an 8-hour day's work he declared this would be remedied, and he advocated the establishment of labor bureaus.

He expressed regret that the overworked employes instead of the railway directors had been killed in the collision at Thirsk.

The resolutions were put from all of the platforms at 4.15 p.m. and were declared carried, though the hubbub prevented the words of the resolutions being heard beyond the platform. The square then quickly cleared, and the processionists took up the march to their respective districts, with bands playing and banners waving. At the head of one procession was a graybeard on horseback, representing the red spirit.

SOCIALIST REVOLUTION.

Declared to Be Impossible Without the Shedding of Blood.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—One of the speakers at the meeting of Anarchists yesterday proposed that the proletariat honor the memory of the Chicago Anarchists, who were hanged for their part in the Haymarket riot, by preparing for a general attack upon the bourgeoisie.

Another speaker declared that Anarchists could reach their goal only by way of the prison and the scaffold.

A third speaker declared that a social revolution was impossible without bloodshed. He urged that a propaganda by violence would be more potent that any speeches in the Reichstag.

Attacked With a Hammer.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 14.—An Anarchist named Petit at Liege to-day attacked a banker and manufacturer named Fresart with a hammer. He was arrested. Fresart's injuries are serious.

Sign of the Red Flag.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—The Socialist convention will meet at Concordia Hall to-day.

He Attacked a Bank Clerk.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—Charles O'Connell, alias Ward, a young crook who is said to be well known to the American police, has been sentenced at Frankfort to 12 years' imprisonment. He attacked a bank clerk in the hall of the Reichs Bank and robbed him of 200,000 marks. O'Connell fled, but was pursued and captured.

The Cotton Lockout.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The first week of the cotton lockout has closed with no advantage to either side. The operatives are as determined as ever to compel the masters to agree to their terms, while the latter are as determined not to do so.

The leaders of the operatives state the levies on the men at work are coming in admirably.

There's Millions In It.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—The will of the late Dowager Queen of Wurtemberg bequeaths 84,000,000 marks. Of this sum 10,000,000 marks is given to her niece, Princess Vera of Wurtemberg, and several million marks to Princess Veras' two daughters.

The King of Wurtemberg receives 10,000,000 marks. The remainder is widely distributed among other relatives.

An Unnecessary Privilege Abolished.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—The Chamber of Deputies, by a vote of 519 to 1, has adopted a bill introduced by M. Pontois, a Boulangist member, abolishing the privilege hitherto enjoyed by higher officers of the Legion of Honor of exemption from arrest at the instance of ordinary citizens.

Welton In Jail.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 14.—Rev. Sydney Welton, the alleged insurer of dying men, is in jail because he cannot secure bondsmen for bail.

WHITE MEN SHOT.

The French Commander In Dahomey Believes In Massacre.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—A despatch from Dahomey announces that Gen. Dodds has caused to be shot the white men found in the army of King Behanzin. Three of them are Germans—Wickel, Pasch and Schultze. One is a Belgian and another an Englishman. They are supposed to have been deserters from Bilyar and German Congo County, and the Cameroons. The executions have produced a certain amount of excitement, for the German newspapers had said that such a step would be contrary to the rights of nations.

FRANCE AND PORTUGAL.

A Difference That May Cause Reconstruction of the Latter's Cabinet.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—A despatch from Lisbon says that the Lisbon harbor works controversy, growing out of the action of the Portuguese Government in seizing the plant belonging to M. Hersent, a French contractor, has led to differences in the Portuguese Cabinet. The seizure has recently been the subject of correspondence between the French and Portuguese Governments.

It is thought that the differences in the Cabinet will result in its reconstruction on a conservative basis before the opening of the Cortes, Ministers Bethsaid, Amaral and Furtada resigning their portfolios.

Can't Find the Deacon Child.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—The search for the daughter stolen by Mrs. Deacon still continues. The people are confident that the child is in Paris and every train leaving Paris is watched to see if the child is on board. The public attention is fixed with intense interest on the struggle between the husband and wife, and the general drift of sympathy seems to be with Mr. Deacon.

Mrs. Deacon's appeal from the decision of the Tribunal of the Seine, dismissing her petition for divorce and awarding to Mr. Deacon the custody of the child that his wife has spirited away, will be heard on Wednesday next, the 16th inst. In the meantime the lawyers for Mr. Deacon are seeking to obtain from the court an order commanding Mrs. Deacon to pay a sum of money as a penalty for each and every day that she retains from the father the daughter she has abducted.

The appeal in Mr. Deacon's suit for divorce will be heard at Aix on Thursday, Dec. 8.

Gladstone in Excellent Wealth.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Mr. Gladstone is in excellent health, showing no signs of weariness under the pressure of Cabinet work. He made his way out of the fog to spend Sunday at Brighton. Next week the last Cabinet Council will be held. This concluded, Mr. Gladstone will be off to Hawarden, where he will stay over Christmas. He has half formed plans to visit the south of Europe in January, but nothing has yet been settled.

This is the time of the year when the wants of all people are the greatest, and the most of their money spent. It is now that the might of our low prices courts—that the superiority of our values tells. Every table is groaning with bargains. Piles of solid comfort here to be distributed for man and boy. Remember our Ready-Made Suits and Overcoats cost but one-half what the tailor would charge for the same work. It is acknowledged beyond a doubt that we carry the finest line of Fall and Winter Overcoats in Canada, of all the newest as well as the old standard in Irish Friezes, Marlings, Meltons, finest West of England Beavers, Kerseys, Venetians and Covert's real Scotch Naps, in all desirable shades. Characteristic of this, the Cheapest Clothing House in Ontario.

BOYS' OVERCOATS—Stylish, pretty, warm, and in the better lines it takes more than one boy to wear them out. Prices from the low priced $1.50 Boy's Overcoat up to the best goods made at $7.00. 20 styles to select from.

MEN'S OVERCOATS from the cheap Tweed at $2.75, $3.50, $4.50, up to the choice Meltons, Naps, &c., cost $6.00 and up. 100 choice lines to make your selection from.

Crowded Out!

TWEEDS, SUITINGS and OVERCOATS

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

TO EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being to positively clear ont the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

NEILL DID NOT CONFESS

HIS EXECUTION WILL BE STRICTLY PRIVATE.

He Has Instructed His Solicitor to Draw Up His Will—His Legacy to the World Will Be a Brief Memory of One of the Great Monsters of the Nineteenth Century.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—All the preparations for the execution of Thomas Neill, otherwise Cream, for the murder of Matilda Clover, are completed.

The execution will be strictly private, the only persons who will be present being Kynaston Metcalf, under sheriff of the County of London, the executioner and the prison officials.

Neill had interviews yesterday with his solicitor, Mr. Waters. In the first he gave instructions for the drawing up of his will.

Mr. Waters called again last night with the document.

Neill made no confession.

ROYAL HEIRS

The Succession to Victoria's Throne Again Rendered Secure.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—A new baby was born last Sunday, which makes the great-grandchildren of the Queen now mount up to the unlucky number of 13.

It was a boy that came to the Princess Louise of Battenberg, who is a daughter of the late Princess Alice.

The Queen now has 55 living descendants—six children, 36 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

It will require 39 deaths before this last baby can ever expect to become King of England. There are now 75 possible heirs to the throne, all told, and he comes 39th on the list.

In spite of reports to the contrary, the Queen's health has been very good this autumn.

INTO THE FLAMES.

A Husband's Barbarous Scheme to Marry His Sister-in-Law.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—A trial in which much popular interest is displayed began Monday at Koniggratz. A merchant of that place, named Joseph Sura, was arraigned to answer a charge of setting fire to his house at night, and then throwing his wife into the burning building. It appears that Sura fell in love with his wife's sister, a girl of 18, desiring to marry her, and determining to get rid of his wife that he might be free to do so.

He thought that by setting his house on fire after removing the most valuable articles from it and having his wife burn to death he would accomplish his purpose. Unfortunately for himself his plans miscarried, inasmuch as before all hope of escape from the burning building was out Mrs. Sura awoke and ran.

Sura, however, was not to be baffled this way. He seized his wife, and carrying her to the house deliberately threw her into the fire. Neighbors who saw the act went to her rescue and took her out, but not until she was frightfully burned. Mrs. Sura is only 21 years old and was a pretty woman.

IN THE LAND OF VIOLENCE.

A Russian Commissioner Believed to Be Murdered by Enemies.

MOSCOW, Nov. 15.—A sensation has been caused here by the sudden death at Tashkend, in Asiatic Russia, of General Borenok. Some time ago General Borenok was appointed a special commissioner to examine into the administration of the province in which Tashkend is situated. He made an exhaustive examination into the affairs of the province, with the result that he discovered irregularities involving a number of officials.

He was upon the point of returning to Moscow, when he was taken suddenly ill and died in a few minutes.

It is suspected that some of the officials whose dishonesty was brought to light by General Borenok are responsible for his death. They feared that his disclosures would result in their punishment, possibly in exile to Siberia. A post-mortem examination will be made to learn if he was poisoned.

THE WARD OUTRAGE.

Will the French Government Punish His Detractors?

PARIS, Nov. 15.—A strong feeling exists among Americans here that some steps should be taken to compensate Eber Ward for the series of outrages to which he has been subjected by the French authorities.

The representatives of The Morning Journal called at the American Legation to ask whether the minister proposed to do anything in the matter.

Secretary of Legation Vignaud said: "Nothing, unless Ward applies to us, which has not yet been done. The Legation has already once interfered in his behalf, and prevented his being marched on foot between gendarmes from the Belgian frontier to Bourges and to procure his conveyance by train."

Mme. Herault has meantime disappeared. A warrant has been issued against her.

A Correspondent Expelled.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—Meiser, the correspondent of The New York Herald in Berlin, was Monday expelled from Germany on the charge of publishing sensational political stories alleged to have been supplied by a notorious suspected police agent.

Laurier to Speak in Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Nov. 15.—Laurier will fix the late this week on which he will address the Young Liberals here.

POISON IN THEIR FOOD.

A WOULD-BE PARRICIDE AND MATRICIDE ARRESTED.

An Insane Oakville Man Attempted to Kill His Mother and Brother by Doctoring Their Food and Tea—Arrested in Toronto and Committed to Jail.

TORONTO, Nov. 15.—Robert M. Chisholm of Oakville was arrested last night in York-street by Detective Davis.

For several days a warrant has been in the detectives' office charging Chisholm with attempting to kill his mother and brother by putting poison in their tea and on some bread that he had expected them to partake of.

Only a short time before Chisholm tried to end his own life by partaking of poison, but was pumped out.

When arrested a revolver was found in his possession. His friends believe him demented, and will make an effort to-day to get him into the asylum.

Chisholm, who is 43 years of age, has a large circle of highly respected relatives in Oakville, and until lately showed no signs of insanity.

BLOODSHED AT HOMESTEAD.

Twenty Shots Fired, But No One Hit—A Negro Cut With a Knife.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Nov. 15.—At 10.30 last night a quarrel took place between a number of colored non-unionists and Homestead colored men just outside the Ninth-avenue M. E. Church.

The non-unionists drew their revolvers and 18 or 20 shots were fired, but no one was hit.

During the fight two white men came up and one of them cut a negro with a knife. The wound was, however, slight.

The deputies arrived and arrested the white men and two negroes. The crowd then dispersed. At 1 o'clock this morning everything was quiet.

A Duty That is an Example.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The municipal council at a meeting yesterday voted to pension the widows and children of the men who were killed last Tuesday by the explosion of a dynamite bomb in a police station in this city.

To each widow will be given for life the sum of 600 francs annually, while the children each will receive 400 francs yearly until they attain their majority.

A Sumptuous Pair.

VIENNA, Nov. 15.—Herr Valenci, owner of the Anarchist paper Zukunft, and Herr Friedlander, the editor of that paper, have been arrested for advocating in the columns of The Zukunft the use of dynamite against the enemies of the Anarchist cause. Both men are intimately connected with Anarchist societies, not only in Europe but in the United States.

Ireland's Anarchists to Celebrate.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—A series of demonstrations is being arranged in Ireland to celebrate the anniversary of the hanging of the so-called Manchester martyrs. The celebration will take place on Nov. 27.

Powderly's Resignation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—One reason given for the probability of the resignation of T. V. Powderly as General Master Workman is that he has been in poor health for some time. Another reason given is that an anti-administration party has arisen which clamors for new blood among the officers.

A. W. Wright of Toronto, general lecturer and editor of the official organ of the Knights, is spoken of as Powderly's successor.

Received No Concessions.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 15.—A Grievance Committee of the telegraph operators of the Cincinnati, Ohio and Texas Pacific roads called on Vice-President C. C. Harvey yesterday and presented their claims.

The committee had a long conversation with Mr. Harvey, but received no concessions. The question of a strike is understood to be still in abeyance.

Another Fire At St. John's.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 15.—A destructive fire visited Hoyleston yesterday, destroying a large bakery and the tobacco factory of Harvey & Co. The buildings were all new, having been rebuilt on the ruins of the great fire of last July.

The loss on buildings is $100,000 and on stock about $50,000, fully covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown. One hundred and fifty hands are thrown out of employment. The plant will be rebuilt at once.

Sweeping Fire in Japan.

TOKYO, Nov. 15.—A fire occurred in this city yesterday, destroying 600 houses. They were the usual bamboo structures that burn like tinder when a fire gets started.

Eleven Business Houses Destroyed.

NEVADA, Mo., Nov. 15.—Eldorado Springs was visited by a destructive fire yesterday. Eleven business houses were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $100,000; partially insured.

A Dozen Firms Damaged.

WINSTON, N.C., Nov. 15.—Fire yesterday did $250,000 damage in the business portion of the city. A dozen firms were more or less damaged. Insurance two-thirds.

Tired of Life.

TORONTO, Nov. 15.—Mary Conlan, a widow living in Pearl-street, attempted suicide in the lake opposite High Park yesterday morning. She was rescued by John Walsh of Gladstone-avenue, taken charge of by the police and removed to the jail.

In Favor of Union.

MONTREAL, Nov. 15.—Mr. Sandford Fleming, C.E., just arrived from Halifax, says there is a pretty general feeling down there in favor of the union of Newfoundland with the Dominion.

A Forger Sentenced.

SARNIA, Nov. 15.—Frank Barnwell, a commercial traveler who has been awaiting trial on the charge of forgery of a check endorsed by Charles Hand, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to ten months in the Central Prison at Toronto.

Expect to Recover Damages.

MONTREAL, Nov. 15.—The proprietors of The Canada Review will sue to recover damages from Archbishop Fabre and colleagues for condemning the paper.

Sir James Winter Elected.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 15.—The election in Burine has resulted in returning Sir James Winter by 500 majority.

LYNCHED ON THE PLAINS.

FALLS BEFORE A VOLLEY FROM ALBERTA'S CITIZENS.

The Murderer Confessed His Crime to the Farmer, Who Gave the Alarm and Lead in the Capture—He Refused to Surrender and Fired His Last Shot.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 15.—A few days ago Julius Schmidt and Ole Mickelson, two Norwegians, arrived at Edmonton from Minnesota, where Schmidt had sold his farm to settle in the Canadian North-West. On the morning after their arrival Schmidt was found dead on the roadside, with a bullet hole through his head.

The proceeds of the sale of the farm, which he was known to have had, had been taken and his companion, Mickelson, had disappeared.

As there appeared no doubt of Mickelson's guilt the authorities of Edmonton offered a reward for his capture.

This morning a farmer living about 20 miles from Edmonton encountered a man answering the murderer's description and attempted to arrest him. The man admitted he was Mickelson, the murderer, and offered the farmer $100 to allow him to escape. The farmer refused and Mickelson then pulled a revolver and opened fire on his captor, who quickly retreated, and the murderer fled.

The farmer gave the alarm and organized a posse of citizens, who overtook the murderer after a long chase.

He refused to surrender and began firing. The citizens returned the fire, and at the first volley Mickelson fell dead with a bullet through his brain.

PROF. SAUNDERS ILL.

It is Suspected the Suspended Officials at Ottawa Will Be Dismissed.

OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—Hon. Peter White, Speaker of the House of Commons, returned to town yesterday, and in the afternoon a meeting of the Committee of Internal Economy in the House was held, which lasted nearly three hours, and at which Messrs. Costigan, Onimet and the Speaker were present.

Auditor-General McDougall and Sedgwick, Deputy Minister of Justice, were in attendance and the matter of shortage in accounts of the accountant and assistant accountant in the House was discussed.

Speaker White, who was seen after the meeting, said he had no statement to make beyond what had already appeared in the press, and which was substantially correct. There was, no doubt, a shortage of about $2500 which had not been satisfactorily accounted for and both officers were still suspended, Mr. E. P. Hartney being meanwhile in charge of the office.

Mr. White did not hold out much hope that the suspended officers would be reinstated.

Professor Saunders, director of the Experimental Farm and Executive Commissioner to Chicago World's Fair, left for New York this afternoon and will probably be absent some weeks. The fact of the matter is that in trying to run both the experimental farms and the World's Fair the Professor undertook more than his strength could stand, and he has broken down.

For some time past he has been suffering from insomnia and mental prostration and his physicians have imposed rest on him.

He has gone to New York to consult specialists there, and it is hoped that complete rest and quiet will restore his health in a few weeks. In the meantime the World's Fair is being attended to by Messrs. J. S. Larke and W. Dimmock.

HER EMPLOYERS SUED.

A Saleslady Claims Damages for Slander and Wrongful Dismissal.

TORONTO, Nov. 15.—In the Court of Appeal yesterday the case of Norah Corridan against Robert Wilkinson was called. The action was brought by the plaintiff, a millinery saleswoman of Toronto, against the defendant, a Galt merchant, for damages for alleged wrongful dismissal, and $500 damages for slander. The plaintiff was hired by the defendant in March, 1890, as head milliner at a salary of $600 a year, but in November of the same year she was discharged, and she alleges that the defendant slandered her, accusing her of having taken goods from his store and given them away. When she left Galt she was engaged by T. Eaton & Co. at a much smaller salary for the balance of the year, and she claims from the defendant the difference in the salary which she received and that which she should have received from the defendant. The action was tried before Mr. Justice Street at Milton and judgment given in favor of the plaintiff, awarding her $200 damages on the slander counts, $142 wages and the costs of the action. The defendant appealed to the Divisional Court, who dismissed the plaintiff's action, so far as it asked for damages for slander, but allowed the claim for wages. The plaintiff yesterday appealed from this judgment.

A DANGEROUS TRIP.

Unusual Experience of a Canadian Pacific Train.

OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—The last Canadian Pacific train from the coast was just 40 hours late last night, and had quite an adventurous passage. When near the Thompson Canyon, in the Rockies, it encountered a big slide, which caused a delay of about 10 hours.

Near Secamous it ran into a large tree that had fallen across the track, and was still further delayed, as several cars were ditched. No one was hurt. The delay, however, caused two trains for the east to be put together at Winnipeg.

All went well until reaching Rossport, about 20 miles east of Nepigon, where a trestle bridge was found to have given way. The bridge was from 400 to 500 feet long, and was being filled in, and it sank in the centre.

After waiting for about 16 hours the train from the east reached the trestle and a transfer was made, and the passengers taken on by this means.

THE WHALE CATCH.

One Ship's Cargo Is Over Half the Total Season's Catch.

ST. JOHN'S, N.F., Nov. 15.—The whaling steamer Eagle, of this port, arrived from Davis Straits yesterday with a splendid trip, three large black whales and one small, yielding over two tons of bone, at $11,000 per ton, and 40 tons of oil. She has also 25 white whales and walruses. Her cargo is over half the season's total catch.

She reports the Dundee steamers Esquimaux, with one black and 400 white whales; the Aurora, with a similar trip; the Terra Nova, with 240, and the Nova Zembla, with 250 white whales.

CHINA INLAND MISSIONS.

Address on the Subject in St. Andrew's by Rev. Mr. Frost.

If attendance on weekn-ight religious functions is a condition of the final attainment of the celestial city, then the population of heaven will be largely composed of women. At St. Andrew's school room last night there was a fair sized audience, composed almost entirely of women, to listen to an address from Rev. Mr. Frost, a returned missionary from the "China Inland Mission." After devotional exercises conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. MacWilliams, the speaker prefaced his address proper by a Scriptural exposition to show that the test of love to God was, obedience to his commandments—as given to St. Peter. "Feed my lambs." There were the speaker said, in China three hundred millions of God's sheep without the blessings of the Gospel—of which forty millions were children. Every year two and a half million of children were born into heathen homes — unblessed with even parental love, especially the girls, who were many of them sold to the highest bidder, or fell victims to the terrible practices of parental and professional infanticides. As to in the midst of such surroundings in the Sunday school, the speaker said that the success of such schools would bring the blush of shame to Sunday schools in Christian lands. New converts were full of zeal for the salvation of others—their loyalty to Christ often going to the extreme of martyrdom. Vivid pictures were drawn of the unspeakable physical wretchedness and moral degradition of the adult population of China, and the utter hopelessness of the heathen worship. The "Light of Asia"—Buddhism—which had been declared sufficient for the heathen, was shewn to be little short of devil worship. Instances were given to show that these heathen Chinese were well worth saving, for, after their conversion, their zeal and energy in the service of Jesus Christ would be a lesson to the most zealous Christian in a Christian land. Mr. Frost closed his address with an earnest appeal to Christians who enjoyed the blessings of Christian civilization to aid in every way in their power the carrying of the Gospel to those lying by millions in the darkness of heathendom. After devotional exercises the meeting was brought to a close.

THE WORK DONE

THE DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

Col. Henry Watterson describes the Democratic victory in his characteristic, picturesque way:

"It sounds the death knell of the protective system. The robber baron in his castle hears it, and amid the cheers of emancipated labor he is preparing to meet the inevitable. The money-devil, a bully always, yet ever afraid of his shadow—and no wonder, it is so hideous—has been knocked speechless and can only gasp for breath. The sham heroes and mock patriots, who, making scarecrows and plucking pigeons and discovering rebels and traitors in impossible places, have driven so brisk a business pursuing the old flag and a pension, already seeing their occupation gone."

He also declares that he will go on fighting for the Democrats till there is not a single protective duty left.

It is no easy thing to dress harsh, coarse hair so as to make it look graceful or becoming. By the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, this difficulty is removed, and the hair made to assume any style or arrangement that may be desired Give the vigor a trial.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

A Complicated Case.

DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with billiousness, headache and lost appetite. I could not rest at night, and was very weak, but after using three bottles of B.B.B. my appetite is good and I am better than for years past. I would not now be without B.B.B. and am also giving it to my children.

ends. The frame is made of posts and poles, hewed only near the mortises and tenons, and sloping gently back to a low and tight stone wall. The forward pitch is steeper and shorter, reaching to within four and a half feet of the ground. The roof is made of slabs and poles covered with long swail grass, two feet deep at the eaves and eight feet at the ridge, and built like a stack to shed rain. The posts stand on flat stones to prevent decay. Board eaves troughs carry the water to the sides to prevent a mudhole in front, and the ground slopes away from the shelter. The shed opens to the south, allowing the sun to shine in, but excluding the prevailing winds. During lambing time, one part of the shed is boarded up close and warm for the ewes and young lambs. Movable feed racks extend from the front to within three feet of the back wall. The manure is not cleaned out until spring. Abundant bedding is used, and the dry compost thus made is a rich fertiliser. This shed is twenty-five by sixty-six feet, and will easily hold 100 sheep.

Best Cure For

All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

Bronchitis

"When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."—J. C. Woodson, P.M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

Cough

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured."—Franz Hoffman, Clay Centre, Kans.

La Grippe

"Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

PLEASING EXPERIENCE

OF A NOTED SINGER.

Brockville Recorder.

Miss Carrie Braniff is widely and favorably known throughout Eastern Ontario as a popular concert singer and a charming young lady. She passed through an experience this summer that is perhaps to common among people of her profession, an experience that unfortunately has not always the happy ending that was the case with Miss Braniff. She tells the story as follows:

Dr. Butler Med. Co., Brockville.

GENTLEMEN,—It affords me great pleasure to testify to the wonderful results your remedy known as Golden Pills has effected in my case. During the summer of '97 I spent considerable time with a camping party of my friends on the banks of the St. Lawrence, a short distance from Brockville. The locality was a low flat sward with a rising ground of some height in the rear of our house. Whether the situation was malarious or that my system had run down, or both, I cannot decide. I know that I became very weak and nervous, so weak that I was unable to walk a very short distance without feeling faint. I suffered so much that I called in a doctor who prescribed for me, and I took two bottles of his medicine. They afforded me no relief whatever. In fact I was getting worse when a friend suggested I should try your Golden Pills. I procured a box and their effect was truly magical. I only used one box of your pills, when my strength was restored and the tired nervous feeling was entirely dispelled. In addition my complexion, which had taken a sallow saffron hue, became clear and pinky white, a great desideratum with all ladies. I cheerfully recommend your wonderful remedy to any one suffering from physical and nervous debility, and if a clear complexion is desired, no better agent can be employed than Butler's Golden Pills.

CARRIE BANIFF,
Brockville, Ont.

Butler's Golden Pills are alike efficacious in neuralgia, paralysis, and all forms of female weakness, suppressions, irregularities and the many ills that attend women at change of life. All blood diseases, salt rheum, scrofula and catarrh of the throat and stomach, incipient consumption and chronic erysipelas.

The remarkable cures of St. Vitus dance and nervous prostration, effected by them, deserve a place in the memory of all readers.

Golden Pills are the discovery of a distinguished physician and employed in his private practice for many years, with unfailing success. They are offered at a price that makes a course of treatment inexpensive. No other remedy possesses such magical properties. Price 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50. All druggists, or by mail from the Dr. Butler Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SOUTH MONAGHAN.

Mr. H. B. McFee has moved into a new shop in Mr. Martin's new brick building.

We are pleased to learn Mr. Geo. Berry is recovering.

Miss Martha Hunter who was very ill with inflammation of the lungs, is recovering. Dr. Turner is in attendance.

Miss Robinson, of South Monaghan, is engaged for the coming year in Fairview school.

Catarrh in the Head

Is undoubtedly a disease of the blood and as such only a reliable blood purifier can effect a perfect cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood-purifier, and it has cured many very severe cases of catarrh. It gives an appetite and builds up the whole system.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

Dyspepsia in its worst forms will yield to the use of Carter's Little Nerve Pills, aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

Minard's Liniment cures Colds, etc.

Club Cartier Restored.

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—The Club Cartier, which up to 1896, was one of the leading Conservative associations in the province, but which ceased to exist at that time, was revived yesterday afternoon at a meeting of Conservatives at the St Lawrence Hall for that purpose.

A Democratic Senate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—On March 4, 1899, 25 seats in the United States Senate become vacant and it is now evident that the Democratic party has captured enough of the vacancies to insure its supremacy in the Senate regardless of almost almost any possible combinations between Populists and Republicans.

Forestry.

Some of our readers may be interested in the manner in which forestry is progressing in Ontario. During journeys through various parts of the country this summer I have had the opportunity of visiting a number of farms which are rapidly becoming well sheltered by windbreaks, the best, apparently, consisting of long lines of evergreens, while others are composed principally of maple. In both varieties these planted six or seven years ago are thriving remarkably well. The proprietors seemed rather generally surprised at the results they had obtained with so little labor, and remarked that it had taken them only a couple of days to plant a very long line of trees. It is a pity that the example is not more generally followed. Where a farm is sheltered many of the best grasses yield heavier crops. Plenty of grass, according to the French proverb, gives plenty of manure, and the farmer who possesses this and uses it well seldom fails to succeed. Many proprietors, for various reasons, regret that they did not long ago plant more trees. One of these, on writing to me last week on walnut culture, said that 40 years ago he had planted some walnuts and now had some trees over sixty (60) feet high. Judging by the value of the wood at present, if he had at that time planted some hundreds more, he could now dispose of them for a very large sum. It should be noticed, however, that to obtain the full benefits of planting the trees should be placed so close as not to run too much to branches.

Irrespective, however, of the value of the timber, the chief advantage gained by planting is that lines of trees obstruct the passage of the winds and prevent the too rapid drying out of the land. They are also of great value to orchards. I knew one instance near Toronto last summer where the yield of apples sold on the trees for $400. This was owing to the shelter of a pine grove. Many of the neighbors, whose orchards were unsheltered, obtained comparatively very poor returns.—R. W. Phipps.

Dr. Butler's Golden Pills have earned a great reputation wherever employed. As a nerve tonic and blood builder they are unrivalled. They increase the appetite and promote a healthy performance of all the functions of the body. A thoroughly scientific preparation, they never fail to effect a cure if directions are faithfully carried out. Nothing harmful in their composition. The most delicate system will be benefitted. Ask for Dr. Butler's Golden Pills and take no others.

Quinsy Cured.

GENTLEMEN,—I used to be troubled with quinsy, having an attack every winter. About five years ago I tried Hagyard's Yellow Oil, applying it inside my throat with a feather. It quickly cured me and I have not since been troubled. I always keep it in the house.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Mark Street Special Services.

Notwithstanding the unfavourable weather last night and sloppy streets, there was a good turn out at Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, where Rev. D. Savage is conducting special services. A number signified their intention to commence a Christian life at once. Every one is most cordially invited to attend services every night this week, except Saturday, at 7.30 p.m.

AT OPERA HOUSE

A Big Cut.

Mr. Denis McMartin, manager for the Dickson Co. at Harwood, is in town after finishing up the work. During the season just ended some ten million feet were cut, being, it is said, above or equal to, the largest cut of any mill of the same capacity in the Dominion. The lumber, too, speaks for itself, and several buyers from across the lines who have inspected the lumber, pronounce it among the best they have seen.

Charlotte Street Y. P. S. C. E.

A fairly well attended meeting of the Charlotte street Methodist church Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour was held last evening. Mr. M. A. Morrison, President, presided. The President gave an interesting account of the great London convention to which he was a delegate. Mr. Lawrence Cluxton gave a well prepared address on "Separation for Service." A general discussion followed, when one of the most successful meetings that the society has held this season was closed.

THIS WEEK

Trip to California.

Mr. W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announces a personally conducted party to all points in California, leaving Toronto 3 p.m., November 16th. The party will be taken in one of the Canadian Pacific Railway's celebrated tourist cars, which are furnished with regular outfit, similar to the first-class sleeper, the route being via Kansas City, where the only change in cars will be made. The special advantages thus offered are the through service with first class accommodation at a very cheap rate. For full particulars write or call on Mr. W. R. Callaway, No. 1, King street, East, Toronto, or T. E. Boddy, Peterborough.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Engage a Permanent Secretary—Other Notes on the Work of the Committee.

The lady directors of the Young Women's Christian Association have been fortunate in engaging the services of Miss Barker, of Smith, as the permanent secretary for their association. For many months past the need of such a person has been seriously felt, and now that the society have been successful in supplying a long felt need and adjunct to their progress they should receive every encouragement. The rooms are open day and night and it is to be hoped they will be largely patronized by all classes of young ladies, for whose use and benefit the ladies were led to institute such an association in our midst. The association and its directors deserve much credit and assistance for the noble work they are doing.

Remember the Bible class to-night, led by Miss Code. Topic—"The Deliverance of the Children of Israel."

There will be a reception to the new secretary in the Y.W.C.A. rooms Thursday night. All the members of the Association are requested to be present.

A Coming Concert.

St. Peter's Court, No. 225, Catholic Order of Foresters, has decided to hold a grand concert and entertainment in Bradburn's Opera House, on Tuesday evening, December 6th. The programme to be presented on the occasion will be of a high order, and will include vocal and instrumental numbers, recitations, etc. As this will be the first concert under the management of the organization, it may be expected that nothing will be left undone to make it one of the best ever presented in town.

Deputy Grand Master's Visit.

A regular meeting of Otonabee Lodge, No. 10, I.O.O.F., was held last evening with a large attendance. One candidate was put through the first and second degrees. Deputy Grand Master Jos. Oliver, who happened to be in town on business, was present and paid the lodge a friendly visit. He delivered a fifteen-minute address on the principles and growth of Oddfellowship, which was listened to with close attention. Mr. Oliver came totally unprepared for an address, but his effort last night pleased all present.

Opera House.

Last night the opera house was crowded to greet the Harry Lindley Co. in their return engagement when they produced their new play of "Chick." This a drama of the humourous-sensational type and with Miss Flint as the heroine, caught on immensely. Mr. Chapman and Mr. Lindley were the several representatives of tragedy and comedy and achieved the usual success. Little Ethel Lindley attired as a modern belle was captivating in the extreme. To-night they produce Love and Law a serio-comic drama. The price are only 10, 20 and 30 cts, although the performance is better than most of the high price productions. There is a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

Back from the Hunt.

Messrs. J. E. McIntyre, W. A. Morrow and Col. Loucks, returned yesterday noon from their hunting expedition. They were at Rathbun's shanty, in Stanhope township, Haliburton county, on the banks of Big Hock Lake. The weather was very boisterous, and when they left the camp the sleighing was splendid in that district. Rathbun's camp is just twenty two miles from Midland. The deer were numerous, and the party who had four dogs with them succeeded in killing five. They were only about five days hunting and this is rare good luck. The slain consisted of three bucks and two does. The largest buck weighed 225 lbs and the largest doe 150 lbs.

An Accident to a G. J. R. Engine.

Shortly after Conductor Stanton's train from Belleville, due at Peterborough at 8.10 o'clock, had left Campbellford this morning, the heavy driving rod of the engine, which plies between the front driving wheel and the cylinder, broke its connection at the wheel, and the end dropped down, ploughing along the track for a considerable distance, and badly hacking up the ties, before it was noticed. The train was stopped, and after three-quarters of an hour's work by engineer Taylor and fireman Cronkwright, the shaft was removed. The head of the cylinder was also driven off by the driving shaft at the time it broke. The train being light was able to come into Peterborough with only one shaft working. The arrival was made at 9.20, the Grand Trunk 8.25 express making connections.

Sudden Death of Mr. Carey.

Further particulars in reference to the death of the late Robert Carey, of Campbellford, and father of Mr. J. W. Carey, Peterborough, whose death was noticed in yesterday's EXAMINER are to hand. Deceased was a well known boot and shoe dealer in Campbellford. He was engaged in a conversation at his place of business about 11 o'clock on Saturday morning when he was suddenly stricken with an apopleptic seizure from which effects he died the same evening. He was buried yesterday afternoon, the funeral being largely attended. Mr. Carey leaves a wife and family of nine children—six sons and three daughters—to mourn his loss. The pall bearers were his six sons, all of whom it might be mentioned are like their deceased father, engaged in the boot and shoe business. They are R. Carey, Detroit; Johnson, Toronto; J. W., Peterborough; Wm., Campbellford; Benj. and Jos. of Owen Sound. The daughters are Mrs. Dolman, Campbellford; Mrs. Tuccoli, San Francisco; and Mrs. Merrill, Owen Sound. Mr. Carey, who was 68 years of age, was born in Sligo, Ireland, and came with his family to Canada in 1829. He has since resided in Barrie, Collingwood and Campbellford, where he lived for the past 8 years.

Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a manilla statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and can work. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.

INTRODUCING THE MACHINES IN THE NORTH-WEST.

Mr. H. T. Strickland has returned to town from the Lake of the Woods gold mining district, where he has been in the interest of the Crawford Mining Gold Extractor, introducing it to the large manufacturers in the large gold bearing districts round about. Mr. Strickland states that the district extends east some 200 miles in the direction of Port Arthur. A large gold reduction factory was built at Rat Portage for the purpose of treating gold ores brought thither by rail or boat from the gold bearing district. The gold ores being of a refractory nature, the appliances were found inadequate to work the ores satisfactorily. Mr. Strickland obtained the consent of the proprietors to have the power of the factory in order that he might put in operation one of Crawford's Mining Gold Extractors. A test was made and it was found that the machine which is a marvel of construction, ease and simplicity, saved in the clippings alone 91 to 98½ per cent of assaying value, and so satisfactory were the results demonstrated by its workings that several have been sold to the great miners of that district. Mr. Strickland has received flattering testimonials from several expert and long experienced gold miners as to the merits of Crawford's Extractor. Mr. Strickland will leave to-morrow for Marmora to examine the workings of a plant set up in his mine at Belmont. In addition he also sold one of his machines to Oliver Donyea, who discovered all the Silver, Beaver and Porcupine mines. Speaking of Sudbury, Mr. Strickland said they extended along the Soo branch and around Sudbury in close proximity to the great nickel deposits. They were not yet sufficiently developed to tell of their extent or richness.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, Nov. 15th.

At the police court this morning Police Magistrate Dumble delivered judgment in the case of Chas. LeGros, charged with selling lottery tickets. The evidence in this case was heard yesterday morning, and the court reserved its decision on a point of law until this morning. The court delivered judgment as follows:

"QUEEN VS. CHAS. LEGROS.

The defendant was charged with selling lottery tickets contrary to Section 2 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, Chapter 159. It appears that a boy called Bullen purchased from LeGros two 10 cent tickets and one 25 cent ticket in the Mount Royal Lottery. The defendant puts in an advertisement which in vague language speaks of the lotteries as "heretofore the Province of Quebec lottery authorized by the Legislature for public purposes such as educational establishment, and large hall for St. Jean Baptiste Society of Montreal, two drawings every month." Then follows a "large list of prizes" with "large sums of money" giving the several values. The statue is produced which legalises this lottery and it appears to me as a clear violation of the Dominion Statute, I cannot conceive any more demoralizing agency for educating youth in gambling than this particular lottery with its low priced tickets. Lads are induced by such schemes not only to spend their money imprudently but to get money by improper means for the gratification of the gambling appetite which such schemes develop. The party who undertakes so nefarious a business does it with full knowledge of the consequences, and I therefore have no hesitation in imposing such a fine as will deter him and others from introducing in this community practices that are immoral and evil in their influence. The judgment of the court is that the defendant do pay a fine of $20 and $2.60 costs, to be paid within ten days and in default of payment distress, and in default of distress imprisonment in the common gaol of the county of Peterborough for ten days.

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS SENTENCED.

Thos. Tully and Wm. Bradley, the two youthful burglars, who were committed to gaol on Saturday to await the sentence of the court on the charge of breaking into the house of Mrs. Brown, Water street, with the intention of committing a felony, appeared before the Magistrate.

Magistrate—"Thos. Tully, have you anything to say why the sentence of the court should not be passed upon you."

The prisoner nervously stood up and in almost inaudible voice which came with laboured gasps said, "I know I have done wrong. I ask your worship to make the sentence light and I will try and be a better boy."

The magistrate spoke of the grave offence he had committed and his bad record of the past, the prisoner having had many chances to reform and his career of crime could not go unpunished. He then sentenced Tully to two year's confinement less one day in the Central Prison, Toronto. The prisoner took his offence seriously and was considerably agitated.

The magistrate, in passing sentence upon Wm. Bradley, who said he had nothing to offer why sentence should not be passed upon him, spoke of the serious crime which the prisoner was found guilty of. He was sorry to see him following such a course, and it was a very painful duty for him to pass sentence. He had, however, had no representations of Bradley's character made to him. He then sentenced the prisoner to six months confinement in the county gaol.

After sentence was passed Bradley's father desired to make some statements to the court in his son's behalf, but the magistrate stated it was too late to interfere with the sentence. He would have listened to any remarks before. The prisoner's father and mother left the court room tearfully.

The case of George Stevens, charged with depositing night soil in Spaulding's Bay, came up this morning, being enlarged from yesterday. The evidence of several witnesses was taken but the charge was not proven. The magistrate accordingly dismissed the case. E. B. Stone for defendant, W. H. Murray for the prosecution.

BOARD OF TRADE MATTERS.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—The President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Robert Fair, has asked me to say in reply to some letters that have appeared in your paper, that the matters discussed by the Board are those within the usual scope of such a Board, and politics are not introduced. The question of the export duty on logs, brought up at the last meeting, arose from circulars sent us by other boards. It must be remembered that the Boards of Trade throughout the country have, when united in a friendly way, a great deal of influence. Our local Board has lent its aid in this manner on many questions affecting the country at large. If the people in this country knew the actual use and value of a Board of Trade they would never attack it without a real grievance, and then not over nous de plume.

I can only say with respect to the remarks made upon "my stepping down and out," that I did not seek the position and do not seek it now.

Yours, etc.,
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM,

CUTTING UP A BEEF.

The Various Parts of an Animal and Their Uses Indicated.

Every thrifty housewife aims to buy meat wisely and economically. In order to do this, says the Ohio farmer, she must know how to select good meat, must understand the uses and relative value of different parts of the animal, and she should also be familiar with approved methods of cutting and curing.

When buying beef, expose a fresh cut to the air a few minutes; if it gives a clear, cherry-red color your choice is good. The lean meat of immature beef is pale and dull, and the fat white. Very high-colored, coarse-grained beef with deep yellow fat should be rejected, and that selected where the fat is a light straw color, and the meat marbled throughout with fat. When meat pressed with the finger rises up quickly it is prime; if the dent remains or rises slowly it is of inferior quality. Fig. 1 is a diagram of half a beef, the dotted lines separating the upper hindquarter from the lower forequarter.

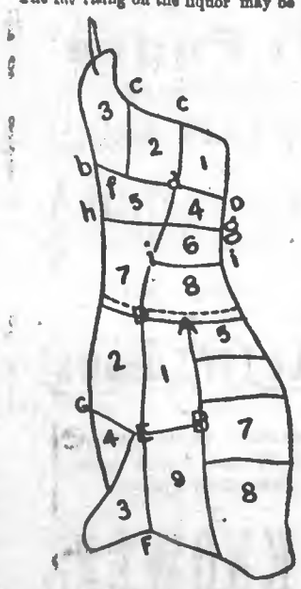
To cut the beef, lay it on a bench, the inner side up. The implements for cutting are a long, pointed, sharp knife and a saw. Cut from A to B in the forequarter; from B to C (C is left out of cut by mistake; it is at the end next to neck); from D to E, and from E to F. In the hindquarter, cut from a to b, from c to d, from e to f, and so on. The tenderloin, which is considered the choicest piece, lies under the short ribs, close to the backbone.

Figure 1 in the hindquarter is good for roasts, corned beef, and soup; 2, the "round," the under part, will make steaks, and the outside can be corned, or the whole is choice for dried beef; 3, the "shank," is solid meat and is used for soups; 4, "rump steaks"; 5, for dried beef for corning; 6, "sirloin steaks"; 7, the flank, for corning or stews; 8, the porterhouse steaks.

Porterhouse steaks are the most economical. In large steaks the course and tough parts may be used for soup or hash. A round steak is sweet and juicy; if not always tender it may be chopped fine, seasoned, and made into croquettes. Porterhouse steak is cheaper than sirloin, having no bone. Use the rump and round for corning, and the sirloin and rib pieces for roasting.

In the forequarter, 1 and 2 are rib and plate pieces respectively, for corning; 3, shank, is cut in pieces and used for soup. The lower part of 4, shoulder pieces for stews and pots roasts, the upper part the same, but is better meat. In the end of 4 next to 1 is the "shoulder clod," which makes choice roasts; 5 and 6, rib roasts; 7, chuck rib roast; 8, next to 7, shoulder roasts; front part of 8, neck, good for stews, mince meat, corning or soup; 9, the brisket, extending under the shank (3) for stews, corning, etc. Any or all of these pieces may be corned if not used otherwise.

The head should be cut in pieces, the meat removed from the bones where practicable, and soaked twelve hours in quite salt water (all bloody pieces should soak in salted water before they are packed for canning.) Remove the head from the salt water and cleanse, running through several waters; the last running should be with soda water. Boil till the meat drops from the bones, skim from the liquor, remove all bones, and when cold chop and season as for mince meat, pressed meat or hash. The fat rising on the liquor may be clarified and used for pastry or in frying. The liquor should be strained, then reduced by boiling, and kept for stock.



PARTS OF A BEEF.

Soak the heart in slightly salted water one hour, then cut in slices half an inch thick, dip in flour, then in beaten egg, and lastly in bread crumbs, and fry in suet or drippings. Put a bit of butter in the frying-pan after removing the slices, which should be nicely browned on both sides; stir in till smooth, a tablespoonful of flour, and pour in one and a half teacupfuls of water, season with salt and pepper and two teaspoonfuls currant or sour jelly; let boil up, pour around the heart, and serve as hot as possible.

An Eye to Business.

Every farmer should in [illegible] in spring, take account of [illegible]. If he does this systematically [illegible] he will be less likely to winter [illegible] next spring's returns will show him not paid the cost of keeping. There is altogether too much conservatism about farmers in the matter of stock getting and keeping. They get what is the easiest and keep merely because they have it, neither being good reasons. The merchant is careful to stock up only with what he can sell at a profit. If he makes a mistake, he gets rid of the unprofitable wares even at a loss, knowing that if his storeroom is filled with unsalable goods he loses the profit not only on them, but what he might sell in their place. On the farm there is only feed and barn room for a certain amount of stock. The question for each farmer should be: "Is this stock I now have the kind that I best understand and can make the most money from? If it is not, away with it and let me get better!" To be a breeder of the very best should be the farmer's ambition. Then, though he sell all his present herds and begin with a single animal, he will have the certainty of a progressive increase in value of his live stock, from which, in a great majority of cases, most of the gains of the farmer are obtained.—Texas Live Stock Journal.

An Ensilage Experiment.

From an experiment in feeding corn silage in comparison with dry corn fodder, the following conclusions are reached:

1. A daily ration of four pounds of hay and seven pounds of grain feed, with corn silage or field-cured fodder corn ad libitum, fed to twenty cows during sixteen weeks produced a total quantity of 19,613 pounds of milk during the silage period, and 19,801 pounds of milk during the fodder corn period.

2. When we consider the areas of land from which the silage and fodder corn are obtained, we find that the silage would have produced 243 pounds more milk per acre than the dry fodder, or the equivalent of twelve pounds of butter. This is a gain of a little more than three per cent. in favor of the silage.

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The many cheerless, dark, dismal days act depressingly not to say injuriously, on both old and young. Now is the time to re-inforce the vital energies with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood medicines.

Gents,—Please ship us per G.T.R., freight prepaid, three (3) gross more of your Anti-Dandruff. This makes six gross or 864 bottles purchased from you since January 16th, 1892, a little more than two months. The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hair-dressing for the hair. Clean to use and has an agreeable color. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and pevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, we remain,

CHICAGO IS IN TERROR.

The Russian Thaw Cholera Germs May Be Carried in Exhibits.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—The uneasiness occasioned in Chicago by the sending of Germany's exhibits to the World's Fair by way of Hamburg has led the Associated Press correspondent here to ascertain the extent to which this fear was justified.

Privy Councillor Wermuth, Imperial German Commissioner to the World's Fair, said it was true that most of the German exhibits were sent by way of Hamburg. He said that it was the most direct and convenient way, and that there was no danger whatever.

Prof. Kerr said it is out of the question that goods or merchandise passing through Hamburg should carry cholera germs. It has never been known that new goods carried such germs. Cholera may be spread by human beings or by the soiled clothing or linen of cholera patients, but never by goods packed in a wooden case or by iron or stone.

"We know these facts before, and a recent case has simply confirmed our opinion that only through contact with infected persons or their clothes could cholera be spread.

"If Chicago will take the proper steps to keep people from infected districts away from the fair she need fear no invasion of that disease spectre cholera though the German exhibits were carried through Hamburg."

Mr. Johnson, the American Consul at Hamburg, told the Associated Press correspondent that not a single package was allowed to leave him for America without thorough disinfection.

GERMAN ARMY BILL.

Popular Opposition to the Measure Is on the Increase.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—At concurrent meetings of the Centrists in Bavaria, Baden and Wurtemberg a well-nigh unanimous sentiment against the army bill was expressed. This attitude of the Centrists has shattered the confidence of the Ministerialists in the Reichstag in the acceptance of the measure.

Not a single organ of the Centre party now advocates anything but uncompromising hostility to it.

The popular opposition to the measure is also growing. The disclosure of the fact that Prussia is financially embarrassed, taken with the proposal of Dr. Miquel, Prussian Minister of Finance, to levy a tax on capital, has contributed to a revulsion against the Government financial policy.

The bill has been passed by the Bundesrath without alteration, except for a few verbal changes in the preamble. Chancellor Von Caprivi will introduce it in the Reichstag on the 24th instant, and if it is defeated he will resign.

The Emperor is not an enthusiastic adherent of the project.

The members of the Reichstag and Landtag, who are gathering here, concur in reporting that their constituents dislike the prospect of increased taxation for army purposes, though they are willing to agree to the two years' service provision. In view of the Chancellor's shaky position, the political groups are already discussing the question of who will be his successor.

Count Von Eulenberg, President of the Prussian Council of Ministers, and Prince Hohenlohe Stathlar of Alsace-Lorraine, who is now visiting Berlin on leave of absence, are the chief favorites.

GERMANY'S JOURNALISTS.

Agree Upon the Early Disappearance of the McKinley Tariff.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—Many of the German papers in welcoming Mr. Cleveland's election to the Presidency seem to think that his advent will involve the early disappearance of the McKinley tariff. Better informed journals discuss the election from another standpoint, paying due respect to the grand sight of a free people peacefully declaring their sovereign will.

The Vossische Zeitung calls America the mightiest nation in the world because she has no reason to either ask for or fear anything from any other nation.

All the papers agree in hoping that the McKinley tariff will be modified. Some of them point out that the tariff has done less harm to Germany's exports than was expected.

A Murderous Fusilade.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 12.—At Brooklyn the Democrats were parading yesterday and John Thames, a Populist, fired into the procession. J. H. Rose was fatally wounded and died soon afterwards. Robert Duggan is badly wounded. The murder was deliberate, Thames having no provocation beyond the exultant shouts of his political opponents.

A Quack's Fate.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 12.—Hale, the American quack doctor who was arrested in Belfast a few weeks ago on a charge of fraudulent practice, was arraigned in this city yesterday and committed for trial.

Testing His Honesty.

Your druggist is honest if when you ask him for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion he gives you just what you ask for. He knows this is the best form in which to take Cod Liver Oil.

A LIBERAL POLICY.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always gives rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

Assurances in Force, - $19,436,961.84.
Gross Assets, - - - - - $3,323,071.44.

In Form of Policy, Prompt Settlement of Death Losses, Equitable Dealing with Policy-holders, in Strength of Organization, and in everything which contributes to the Security and Cheapness of Life Insurance,

THIS COMPANY STANDS UNRIVALLED.

During the five years just closed, the Assets and Income have increased more than two-and-one-half times; and that this wonderful growth is not one of size only, is shown by the fact that while the Life Assurances in force have only doubled, the surplus has trebled, showing that the profit-making power has more than kept pace with the increase of business.

JUST "CATCHING ON."

THE ARIZONA KICKER GETS A WHIFF OF GLORY.

And Nothing Will Stop Him Till He Gets to Congress—And Even Then He Won't be Satisfied—A Humble and Reverential Sir for the Kid.

OUR AMBITION.—Our esteemed contemporary down the street, in a three-column article of personal abuse, asks the question, "Will this villain's ambition be satisfied with the office of Mayor?" We are the villain referred to, of course, and we wish to frankly and emphatically reply that our ambition, so far from being satisfied, has just woke up. We are the editor of a great weekly family newspaper, and the owner of a grocery, a harness shop, a shoe store, a gun shop, a butcher shop, and a feed store, all under one and the same roof. Further, we are the acknowledged Ward McAllister of this town. What we say in regard to social matters goes. We lead the german when the music strikes up, and when not leading the german we are telling the hostess how to work the ice-cream freezer and fold the napkins to resemble a broken human heart.

On top of all this we are Mayor of the town, elected by an overwhelming majority, and running municipal affairs in bang-up style. Such of the boys as do not respect us as Mayor take pains to keep clear of the two guns we are known to carry as an editor and a citizen. We have driven out the cowboys, fleeced every member of the Common Council, and brought the Postmaster down off his high horse. It doubtless seems to our contemporary as if any one critter on this earth ought to be satisfied with such honors, but we are not. Far from it! We shall not pause long on the threshold. We are already laying wires to be elected to the Legislature, as we announced some weeks ago. It is the Senate or nothing with us. From thence to the Gubernatorial chair will only be a step. From Governor to Congressman will be only a stride. We may not be satisfied with even that.

A SOLEMN WARNING.—Tuesday afternoon a man calling himself Grizzly Bill got into a dispute in the Red Trout saloon with an individual who has been generally known around town as Terrible Tom. Both drew their guns and adjourned to the sidewalk and began shooting. Twelve shots were fired and the only thing hit was Major Callahan's bulldog, who died an hour later.

The parties were promptly arrested and brought before us, as Mayor, for shooting all over the town and failing to hit each other. It did not take us over half an hour to ascertain all the facts and particulars, and we fined each one twenty-five dollars. As neither had over two dollars in cash and couldn't raise the fine, the pair have gone to jail for three months.

We understand that some of the boys are criticising our official action, but we can't help it. When a man draws to shoot in this town he must either hit somebody with one of his six bullets or be considered an N. G. and treated accordingly. This blazing away at random, and firing good lead into telegraph poles and hitching posts, is a smirch on the reputation of the town, and we propose to put a stop to it if the thing can be done.—The Arizona Kicker.

Without Money and Friendless.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Nov. 14.—Dr. Henry A. Slade, the spiritualist, whose career in London and subsequent trial for fraud produced a sensation 14 years ago, and who in late years has been the leading medium of Paris, was yesterday taken to the Samaritan Hospital in this city, suffering from nervous prostration bordering on insanity. He is without money and utterly friendless.

Many More Cases of Smallpox.

LONG ISLAND CITY, Nov. 14.—Another death from smallpox occurred in this city. There are many more cases.

Increase Your Weight.

If you are losing flesh and blood, commence at once taking Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which is far ahead of all other preparations of the kind in existence. By taking Miller's Emulsion people gain from 5 to 10 lbs. by the time the first bottle is consumed. It is the greatest blessing of the century to all in delicate health, or who suffer with coughs, colds and ailments that tend to consumption. Remember, Miller's Emulsion contains all the constituents found in wheat. It is used in the hospitals and asylums of the country. In big bottles 50c and $1, at all Drug Stores.

Aching Pains Removed.

GENTLEMEN,—I cannot but praise B. B.B. for it has revived me wonderfully. I was completely run down, had aching pains in my shoulder, a tired feeling in my limbs, low spirits, in fact I was in misery. Being recommended to try B. B.B. I did so. and with the use of only one bottle I am to-day strong and healthy. I prize it highly.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents five for $1. Sold everywhere, or sent by mail.

On Trial for Heresy.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15.—The Presbytery of Cincinnati assembled yesterday to prepare for the trial of heresy of Rev. Dr. Henry P. Smith, a Professor of Hebrew in the Lane Theological Seminary. Most of the day was consumed in discussing the questions as to who should have the right to vote on the charges.

Rev. Dr. Scott of Lebanon presided as moderator.

Recently Prof. Smith created a great sensation among the Presbyterians of the West by questioning the accuracy of certain historical and scientific statements in the Bible.

Missing Schooner Reported.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Anxiety about the big schooner Marion W. Page was allayed Monday by arriving steamers, which reported that they had passed the Page off Kewaunee, Wis., sailing up the lake, apparently in good shape.

The Page was cast adrift off Washington Island 10 days ago by the steamer Waverly and was almost a week overdue. The schooner reported as flying distress signals proved to be the Sturgis and not the Sheldon. The Sturgis is at anchor under Peninsular Point and refused the services of a tug. She is without a cargo.

Quarantine Order still in Force.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Secretary Foster said yesterday there is no foundation for the impression apparently prevailing in certain sections of the country that the administration has modified its policy restricting immigration.

The President's order establishing a 20-days' quarantine against all emigrants, except in special cases, is still in full force.

Hayti ans Are Fairly Boiling.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Civil war is again imminent in Hayti. The news is brought by the steamer Adirondack, which arrived yesterday from West Indian ports.

Captain Sansom reports that when his vessel was in port at Port au Prince, Nov. 5, the place was fairly boiling with excitement. Almost the entire population was under arms.

Railroad Men to Meet.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The presidents and general managers of the roads in the Central Traffic and Trunk Line Associations will meet in this city next Thursday for the purpose of considering the general rate situation and putting traffic affairs in the best possible shape before the beginning of the new year.

Admitted Free of Duty.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The Treasury Department has instructed customs officers that foreign publications issued at regular intervals, containing parts of several continued stories, which publications are unsuited for binding in book form, may be admitted free of duty, as periodicals. Heretofore these publications have been classified as printed matter, dutiable at the rate of 25 per cent. ad valorem.

Will Probably Hang.

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 15.—Robert Olsen, alias Black, is to be hanged at Dorchester Dec. 1, for shooting Joseph E. Stedman last August. Jim, the desperado, now in the penitentiary, has made a confession that he is the murderer of Stedman, but it is not believed. A petition will be forwarded to the Minister of Justice to commute Olsen's sentence to life imprisonment.

13,000 Tracts Distributed.

BOSTON, Nov. 15.—At the convention of the World's Christian Workers Monday Mr. Thomas A. Rodgers of Toronto gave an account of the faith mission of Canada and the wonderful success it has had. Twenty different places were visited, more than 400 miles traveled and 13,000 tracts distributed.

For Stealing Watches.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Harry Cooke, alias "Sir Edwin Cooke," a notorious English swindler, was sentenced to two years and four months' imprisonment. The charge against Cooke was the theft of valuable watches from jewelers.

Has the Confidence of the Whites.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 15.—Bishop W. H. Miles, senior bishop of the colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America, died at his home in this city yesterday. The bishop was a Kentuckian, and at all times enjoyed the confidence of the whites as well as those of his own race.

Senator Hill's Courtship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—It is rumored that Senator David Bennett Hill will soon wed Mrs. Fannie Iverson of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Iverson is a widow of about 30, and has three children, all boys. It is rumored that the wedding will take place within two months.

The England in Port.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The steamship England of the National Line, long since due at this port from London, arrived yesterday.

More Bloodshed Feared.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Nov. 15.—Quiet reigned at Homestead yesterday, but the feeling against the non-unionists is becoming so bitter that further bloodshed is feared. Sheriff McCleary is again on the ground.

On Another Transport Line.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—John Hoey, ex-president of the Adams Express Company, died to-night in his rooms at Delmonico's.

SEIZED IN THE REAR.

And Knew Nothing More Until He Was Released.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 15.—Yesterday A. Goldberg, the agent of E. Hoffheimer's whisky house, was found lying on the floor of the warehouse bound and gagged, while near him stood the safe with the doors wide open and the papers from its drawers scattered on the floor and partly consumed by fire. The front door was open and all the money in the safe was gone.

Goldberg stated that he came to the store about 2 o'clock in the afternoon to work on his books. Suddenly he felt himself seized from behind and knew nothing more until what he believes to be several hours later. Goldberg is Hoffheimer's sole agent here.

LIZZIE BORDEN IN PRISON.

She Occupies Herself With Flowers in the Hospital.

TAUNTON, Mass., Nov. 15.—Lizzie Borden, accused of the murder of her father and stepmother, appears to be suffering no inconvenience and shows no great anxiety respecting the coming grand jury hearing. She is outwardly the same cool and composed woman who entered Taunton jail so many weeks ago.

During the day, when she desires, she takes exercise in the corridors of the women's department, and she spends much of her time in the hospital room above, where Mrs. Wright has given her two windows full of flowers to look after and in a measure divert her mind. Her health continues good.

A Keg of Powder Exploded.

ORANGEVILLE, Nov. 15.—Gray & Co.'s hardware store was burned yesterday. A keg of powder in the stock exploded and shattered some glass in the vicinity. There was $7000 insurance on the stock and $1600 on the building.

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

TO EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being positively clear out the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

DEATH INSTANTANEOUS.

NEILL, THE MURDERER, WAS COOL TO THE LAST.

A Large and Curious Crowd Were Outside the Prison and Executions Were General as the Black Flag Was Run Up—The Poisoner Made No Confession.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Thomas Neill, otherwise Cream, the murderer of Matilda Clover and several other girls, paid the penalty of his crime at 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

At three minutes to 9 Billington, accompanied by an assistant who carried the pinioning material, entered the cell of the condemned man, where he found the prison chaplain ministering to Neill.

Without a moment's delay the hangman, while courteously asking the permission of the condemned man, deftly and rapidly pinioned him, passing a broad belt around his waist and securing his elbows with two straps tightly drawn back and fastened to the belt behind. Straps were placed around the wrists and connected with the body belt in front.

This rendered Neill absolutely incapable of moving his arms or hands. The condemned man did not utter a word during the process, which lasted barely a minute. The procession to the gallows was then formed. It was headed by the chief warden, who was followed by the chaplain, who, as he walked, read the burial service.

Neill came next, guarded on each side. He walked firmly. A deadly pallor overspread his features, but his face showed no other traces of emotion. Close behind the prisoner walked the hangman.

As the procession passed through the corridors toward the scaffold the tolling of the passing bell of St. Sepulchre's, which has marked the last moments of so many criminals, resounded through the prison.

Dr. Neill, as He Appeared in Canada.

On arriving at the scaffold the white cap, which had been previously placed upon the head of the condemned man, was pulled down over his eyes. Hangman Billington then guided him on to the trap door beneath the cross beam, from which a rope with a hempen noose at the end was dangling. The white cap was then drawn so that it covered the chin, rendering it impossible for Neill to see the final preparations for his death.

These took only a few minutes. His legs were pinioned with a strap that was fastened below the knees. The noose was then dropped over his head and adjusted around his neck. The ring was fixed behind the left ear.

In another second the executioner stepped a pace to the rear, pressed a lever and the trap fell. Neill's body dropped five feet into the pit.

Billington and the other persons who saw the execution concur in the opinion that death was instantaneous. There were a few convulsive twitchings of the muscles of the back and limbs, which lasted a few seconds, and then the body hung motionless. Just prior to the cap being drawn over his face Neill thanked the prison officials for their courtesy and kindness.

The prison chaplain says that yesterday he found Neill exceedingly morose and unresponsive to his appeals to accept his fate and to think only of passing to a higher life. This morning the chaplain's endeavors to bring him to a happier frame of mind were to little purpose. Neill passed a restless night, dozing occasionally and then awaking with a start.

Dr. Neill, as He Appeared at the Old Bailey.

A medical register was kept in his cell recording the hours he spent in sleep since his condemnation. It shows that he only slept a few hours each night. Last night he went to bed at 9 o'clock, but did not have a single hour of unbroken sleep. Without being called he arose at 7 o'clock this morning and washed and dressed.

Then he sat down awaiting his last meal. He spoke hardly a word to his warders. He partook sparingly of breakfast, which consisted of tea, bread and eggs. At 8 o'clock the chaplain arrived and was conducted to the cell of the condemned man. Neill paid respectful attention to him, but throughout the three quarters of an hour which the chaplain spent in exhorting him to repent of his sins and to prepare for the future world Neill said scarcely a word, listening with seeming apathy.

When the hangman and the prison authorities entered the cell Neill was seated on a chair at the foot of his pallet; he arose and advanced to meet them.

Billington at once stepped forward and Neill greeted him with a bow as he began to pinion him. Neill took off his spectacles and left them on a table in his cell. Mr. Metcalf, the under sheriff, told the representative of the Associated Press that the calmness and self-possession displayed by Neill throughout rendered the work of execution easy. He seemed resigned to his fate. Neill told Mr. Metcalf that the last two days had been the calmest and perhaps the happiest of his life. He declined to take wine or spirit to sustain him in the final ordeal.

Billington says Neill was remarkably cool. He required little directing and almost placed himself in the correct position in the centre of the drop. Neill had dropped his prison clothes yesterday and wore a black morning coat and brown trousers.

During the reading of the service for the dead on the way to the scaffold Neill remained silent, not joining in like some condemned men going to the scaffold have been known to do. Billington stated that the exact length of the drop was five feet four inches.

Between the time of his sentence and his execution Neill gained four pounds in weight, scaling yesterday 127 pounds. His physical build required a long drop.

The body was cut down at 10 o'clock. At noon a jury viewed the body and returned a formal verdict in accordance with the medical testimony that death had been caused by a fracture of the neck. The body was then placed in a perforated coffin, into which a sack of quicklime was poured. The features showed no trace of the man's violent end. The only sign of what had caused death was a red line about the neck, made by the noose, and a deep impression below the ear, where the ring had caught.

The body was buried under the flagstones in the corridor through which Neill had passed a short time before on his way to the scaffold. The grave was not opened until after the execution, when a flagstone was lifted close to the spot where Mrs. Pierey, the murderess of her paramour's wife and child, was buried.

The corridor of Newgate is perhaps the most ghastly spot in the world. Under the flagging of this corridor have been buried the bodies of a long succession of notable and obscure criminals. Initials or numbers cut in the walls indicate the more recent interments. Earlier inscriptions have been defaced by time.

A crowd of about 500 persons gathered outside of the prison. Not the faintest trace of sympathy was shown for Neill; on the contrary, such expressions as "They'll soon finish him now," and "It will be a good job, too," were heard on every side. Probably no criminal was ever executed in London who had a less pitying mob awaiting his extinction. Neill died amid general execrations. When the black flag was run up on the flagstaff, just as the church clock ceased chiming 9, groans and half-suppressed howls along the ranks of the people testified to the state of feeling.

Neill made no confession.

EDWARD BLAKE.

His First Object Had Been a Solution of the Irish Question.

LONDON, Nov. 61.—Last evening Hon. Edward Blake was present at the banquet of the Anchor Society of Bristol and responded to the toast of "The Government and the Liberal policy." Mr. Blake said his life, excepting when wrong had been done to Ireland, was in sympathy with the Liberal party.

In public and private, no matter what trade measures he had advocated, his first object had been to achieve a solution of the Irish question. Any alliance between Ireland and England must be cordial, and that cordiality must be emphasized by attention to the legitimate aims of the Irish party.

England's differences with the United States had largely been the result of the Irish question, and the same might be said of Canada. In the States this feeling had been modified on account of the election of the Liberals in England.

It would not do, Mr. Blake went on, to have no regard for the monstrous absurdity of having a country's local laws interpreted by another community. A military force was kept in the country under the name of police. The minority in the respect of schools should be efficiently protected. He spoke as a Protestant, with profound respect for the rights of minorities. The Ulstermen, he was convinced, would in time abandon their attitude.

The Bristol Mercury says: Mr. Blake delivered a calm, unimpassioned, powerful and well-reasoned speech on the problem of Home Rule.

Settled in a Minute.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Nov. 16.—Election Court was opened yesterday morning before Judges MacMahon and Rose, for trial of the petition lodged against the return of W. B. Northrup as M.P. for East Hastings. The petitioner had no evidence to offer, and the case was dismissed without costs. The court was in session but one minute.

HE WAS PRACTICAL.

Minister of Finance Foster's Speech on Imperial Federation.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Hon. Mr. Foster, Canada's Finance Minister, addressing the Imperial Federation League yesterday, explained Canada's position and the healthy condition of the Dominion financially to the satisfaction of his hearers.

He contended for better tariff terms between Canada and England, which the treaty of '65 was calculated to prevent.

He dwelt upon the advantages Canada offered to the desirable immigrant, and invited the British agriculturist to consider them.

The speech throughout was practical and patriotic, and evoked the greatest enthusiasm from the 500 auditors present. Mr. Gibbs, M.P., occupied the chair, and Mr. Bramsey moved the vote of thanks to Mr. Foster, which was carried with acclamation.

Sir John Abbott was not able to be present.

DIDN'T KNOW HER HUSBAND

A FUNNY CASE OF ILLEGAL MARRIAGE AT PICTON.

A Woman Who Was Badly Mixed Over the Identity of a Man who Married Her Years Ago—She Got Mad and Used Her Umbrella.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 16.—At Picton yesterday a case of alleged bigamy was tried. The complainant, Jane Compo, testified that she married T. A. Stuffles years ago in the presence of several witnesses.

Stuffles was married again on the 25th inst. to Miss Brisaw by Rev. Mr. Lemke. Mr. Lemke proved the second marriage and identified the parties.

Mr. Bongard remembered being present at the wedding of a man named Stuffles and a girl named Compo at Lindsay's about six years ago. Recognized the wife, but not the prisoner. The county attorney put in the parish register, which showed that Emma Jane Compo and Thomas Albert Stuffles were duly married in May, 1886. Alexander Lindsay surprised the assembly by swearing that the prisoner was not the man at all. He was an uncle of Stuffles and knew him well. It was Albert Stuffles, a brother of Thomas Albert Stuffles, whom Miss Compo married at his place and not this man at all. Albert went to Michigan two or three years ago.

Wife No. 1 thought she should know when she married, but Mr. Lindsay was quite positive she had got matters mixed. Mrs. Lindsay corroborated her husband's evidence.

After the dismissal of the case wife No. 1 assaulted on the street her husband and wife No. 2 with an umbrella.

A DESPERATE IN BRIATE.

Martin Murphy of Guelph Tried to Suicide With Laudanum.

GUELPH, Nov. 16.—Martin Murphy, who has become somewhat celebrated in the city on account of his disorderly conduct, went on a spree last week and wound up on Friday by taking enough laudanum to kill himself—in fact, he admits taking it with that intention.

However, a doctor was procured in time, and with the aid of emetics and a stomach pump saved his life. He was walked up and down the hospital corridor for eight hours to prevent him going to sleep.

He purchased six drachms of laudanum at one drugstore and four at another, and took the whole lot, containing over 40 grains of opium, so the struggle to save his life may be imagined.

His wife has been in the hospital for some time, and his children are scattered. The troubles with his wife and drink have made him desperate. He is now out of danger.

A LONG WAY FROM HOME.

Sudden Death of an Australian Woman Who Had Been Visiting Toronto.

TORONTO, Nov. 16.—Mrs. I. Brown, a wealthy Australian woman, died suddenly at the Prospect House, Niagara Falls, Sunday night, where she had only arrived a few hours previously from Toronto. Mrs. Brown was apparently in good health at 10.30 o'clock, as she was about to retire. A niece, Miss Jessie McDougall, who was traveling with her, came down stairs and announced her aunt's sudden illness. Before Drs. Clark and McBean could arrive Mrs. Brown was dead. She was 66 years old and was born in Glasgow, Scotland. Fifty years ago she went to Australia and settled in Adelaide. Her husband died two years ago. On July 7, with her niece, Mrs. Brown started on a tour around the world. The body has been embalmed and Miss McDougall will start on her homeward journey of over 12,000 miles in a few days.

AN EDITOR'S WRATH.

Not an Ordinary Imbecile, but a Whole Asylum in Himself.

MONTREAL, Nov. 16.—A. Filiatrault, proprietor of The Canada Review, is under arrest on a charge of libel from [illegible] Baillarge of Joliette. The complaint alleges that the defendant published an article stating that Baillarge had a mania to write in the Algonquin language, and that he was not an ordinary imbecile but a whole asylum in himself.

A BURGLAR CONFESSES.

Went To Chicago and Nearly Killed a Club Steward.

TORONTO, Nov. 16.—At the Marquette Club, Chicago, one Friday night, burglars beat Assistant Steward Eugene Falbe into insensibility and robbed the premises. The thieves, three in number, were subsequently arrested, and one of them, named Alfred Hyde, who arrived in Chicago from Toronto two weeks ago, has made a confession admitting the crime.

Road Agents in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Nov. 16.—D. O'Brien of O'Brien & Son, Soulanges Canal contractors, went to Coteau Landing last evening, carrying a valise containing $4202 with which to pay the men.

His father met him at the station to walk him home. On the way three men accosted them for work and were told to call next day. Then one drew a revolver, compelled O'Brien to hand over the money and drive back to Coteau. The men got clear away.

Married in the Police Court.

TORONTO, Nov. 16.—About a week ago George Thomas was arrested on a warrant charging him with seducing Annie Barlow under promise of marriage. There was also a charge against him of procuring a drug for an illegal purpose. The case was called in the Police Court yesterday morning, but Thomas expressed his willingness to marry Miss Barlow, and as the young lady was willing the case was settled by a wedding in Staff-Inspector Archibald's office, Rev. Dr. Briggs being the officiating minister. The charges against Thomas having been withdrawn he and his bride went on their way rejoicing.

Two New Cases.

BUDA PESTH, Nov. 16.—This city's cholera record yesterday shows two new cases and two deaths.

Mrs. Parnell's Debts.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Friends of Mrs. Parnell, widow of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, state that her liabilities, on which she claims the intervention of the bankruptcy court, are personal, and that she has no means to draw upon, except her resources under her aunt's will. These are tied up, and beyond their benefit in furnishing a life income Mrs. Parnell gets nothing from them.

MR. FOSTER'S HANDS TIED.

Already the camp followers of the Dominion Government are crying out for a reduction of the Foster tariff, the Canadian edition of the McKinley tariff, because they realize that the fate of Harrison and McKinley awaits Abbott and Foster. But, says the Ottawa Free Press, the Tory leaders dare not reduce the tariff. They sold themselves long ago to the cotton, coal and sugar monopolists, who furnish them with corruption money in return for the privilege of robbing the Canadian people. The Tory leaders dare not even abolish the duty upon binding twine. They know that if they quarrelled with the combinesters who furnish them with campaign funds they would not carry fifty Canadian constituencies. Without the aid of Mr. Drummond's corruption fund the Tory party of Canada would make no fight at all. Just now the manufacturers, instead of evincing a willingness to have the tariff reduced, are crying out for more protection. They want their privileges increased; and as they own the Tory leaders as completely as ever a Virginia planter owned his negroes, their demands are not likely to be refused. The Tories will go into the fight to maintain the Foster tariff in its entirety, if not to increase it. They will rely, as heretofore, upon a huge corruption fund provided by the tariff robbers, and appeals to ignorance and prejudice. And they will be whipped as badly as their fellow protectionists in the United States were last week.

HERE is a really easy and practical solution of the labour question, which is vexing so severely the souls of political economists. It is furnished from England, from the Rother Iron Works owned by Messrs. Owen & Dyson, at Rotherham, near Sheffield. In July, 1889, when trade was at its best, the masters, without solicitation or agitation on the part of the men, granted an advance of wages amounting to 10 per cent. Naturally the latter felt very grateful, and they passed a resolution of thanks to the firm. At the same time they promised "that should our employers at any future period deem it necessary to reduce our wages to enable them to compete, we shall be happy to reciprocate the spirit of good feeling which has actuated them towards us." This pledge the men have loyally kept. At a meeting recently held they adopted a resolution conceding to their employers the 10 per cent. On meeting the men, the firm expressed their pleasure at this honourable fulfilment of a promise voluntarily given, and pledged themselves to restore the 10 per cent. as soon as trade should warrant it. If this example could be followed generally by employers and employed, the day of strikes would be over.

THE Dominion Government. the Globe thinks, is in a happy position to reduce the tariff at next session of Parliament. According to the Government organs the surplus is piling up at the rate of a million dollars a month. And this is not all. Better management would easily reduce the expenditure anotheer half million. If these sums were in the hands of the people instead of in the federal treasury it would considerably relieve the present stringency.

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The many cheerless, dark, dismal days act depressingly not to say injuriously, on both old and young. Now is the time to re-inforce the vital energies with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood medicines.

A Complicated Case.

DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with billiousness, headache and lost appetite. I could not rest at night, and was very weak, but after using three bottles of B.B.B. my appetite is good and I am better than for years past. I would not now be without B.B.B. and am also giving it to my children.

PREACHER'S SORE THROAT.

This is a common malady with hundreds of clergymen in Canada and requires very careful treatment. The trouble is most prevalent during the spring and late autumn. Very often the symptoms are serious; the irritation is severe and painful; the tonsils become enlarged, and the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes.

The most effective and simplest remedy yet discovered for the banishment of all the troubles is Harvard Bronchial Syrup. It seems to act with great promptness; its gives instant relief and quickly removes every danger. The Rev. A. B. Chambers says: "We have used several bottles of Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family and believe it to be good medicine for coughs and colds. I have used it myself for throat irritation and find it very efficacious."

DEMOCRATIC PLURALITIES.

The returns received so far give Cleveland pluralities amounting to 613,424; Harrison's are 177,475, and Weaver's 30,226. Bidwell's are not mentioned, but it is clear that Cleveland has a plurality of 436,000 over Harrison, and a large majority of all the votes cast. No candidate has done this since 1876. Harrison in 1888 had 98,000 fewer votes than Cleveland, and about half a million less than all his opponents combined; Cleveland in 1884 had 72,700 more than Blaine, but 234,000 less than Blaine, St. John and Butler combined. Garfield had only 7,000 more than Hancock, and 311,000 less than Hancock, Weaver, Dow and Phelps. Tilden, who was defrauded out of the presidency in 1876, had 250,000 more votes than Hayes, and a large majority of all the votes cast. Grant had such a majority twice and Lincoln once. Cleveland has three times obtained a plurality of the popular vote over his nearest opponent.

Best Cure For

All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

Bronchitis

"When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."—J. C. Woodson, P.M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

Cough

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured."—Franz Hoffman, Clay Centre, Kans.

La Grippe

"Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR COLUMN.

"FOR CHRIST AND THE CHURCH."

Topic for Week Beginning Nov. 20th—God's Pledges and Ours—Acts xiii, 32-39; Joshua xiv, 21-25.

[All communications intended for this column must be marked "Christian Endeavour" and sent to Box 113, Peterborough, not later than Friday previous to date of issue.]

RALLY AT KEENE.

Thanksgiving morning did not open up well for those who intended going to Keene, but when Endeavourers decide on any plan of action in Christian work, a little matter of a snow storm or bad roads will not prevent them from carrying out their plans.

Ten members of the local Union drove down, three others went by train accompanied by Miss Campbell, of Norwood, and Mr. W. Leslie, of Toronto, who is one of the editorial staff of the Endeavour Herald.

The "Rally" was organized by the county Union for the advancement of Endeavour work in the southeastern portions of the county, and was very well attended by friends of the cause.

The first session opened at 3 p.m in the Presbyterian church, a very neat and commodious edifice. The pastor of the church, Rev. F. Andrews occupied the chair. The first on the programme was the hymn "The Endeavour Band." Mr. Andrews led in prayer. He then gave a few words on the work of the Society, speaking favorably of it.

Mr. R. A. Ward, of Keene, read a very fine paper on "Work of Prayer Meeting Committee." His paper introduced the work of an ideal committee; he would therefore place the ideal high. We strive to rise to our ideal, therefore the higher the ideal the higher we rise. This committee should strive to promote an earnest Christian life in the Society, and thus make the members useful workers in Christ's service; they should cultivate the individual Christian, they should know each member, his or her speciality; restrain some, encourage others. They should co-operate with the other committees, getting and giving help; they should encourage the backward, and bring out all the talents in the Society. They should hold a short preliminary prayer meeting, and then scatter to different parts of the meeting to note the timid, the careless, and the too forward members. The methods of work should be varied—don't get into a rut.

They should be

A WIDE-AWAKE COMMITTEE,

knowing that they fight against Satan, and his ways are full of variety. They should encourage the members to live up to the pledge and take part intelligently in all the meetings.

There was a discussion on this paper taken part in by Miss Quinn, Mr. W. Leslie, Mr. A. J. Johnston, Miss Frise and Miss Campbell.

A solo by Miss Pengelly was beautifully sung. Just here it might be well to say that the vocal abilities of Keene must be of a very high order judging from the three samples given in the afternoon and evening.

A conference on "Bible Study in C. E. Societies," led by Mr. A. J. Johnston, in which Mr. Leslie, Mr. Ward, Mr. Hamilton and others, took part was interesting and helpful.

A very pleasing trio by Miss Heubeck, Miss E. Carey, Mr. W. Wesley, was next on the programme, Miss Ketchum playing the accompaniment.

Miss Campbell, of Norwood High School, read an excellent paper on the "Work of the Lookout Committee." It was a report of actual work done by a committee in a society of which she had been a member; she gave a complete insight into the characters of each member and their talents, showing that what a Lookout Committe wanted chiefly was thorough consecration of each member. She then told of the faithful, loving work of this committee and the grand results following it. The paper, so full of good suggestions can not be condensed in the short space at our command.

A collection was then taken up. All joined in singing "Blest be the Tie that Bind." Rev. E. E. Howard closing this session with the benediction.

The evening session was held in the Methodist church. The building was crowded with workers and friends. Rev. E. E. Howard, of the Methodist church, presided. The meeting was opened by singing "Faith is the Victory." Mr. Howard led in prayer. He then spoke a few encouraging words. Another hymn was sung.

Mr. A. Hamilton read an exceedingly interesting paper on "Missions," written by Miss J. Duncan, who is now on the way to India as a missionary. Why should we be interested in missions? Look at it in the light of the pledge we have taken: "I promise Him that I will strive to do whatever He would like to have me do." Not what we want to do, but what He would like to have me do. Our whole being should be consecrated to His use. We should be interested in missions, because Christ, the Great Missionary, loved this work and spent His life in doing good. Before His ascension He commissioned the disciples to go and preach to every nation. On the face of the globe to-day there are over who known not the word of God, yet he loves them. What a sad condition is theirs? They are in darkness, we have the light; they are starving, we have the Bread of Life. Let us look out on some of the mission fields. India has the vast population of 288 millions, with but a very small proportion serving Christ. Woman's condition in that land is very low. There are 100 millions living in ignorance and degradation—they are in almost a sleep of death. China is a nation of gamblers and opium eaters, and practically a nation of atheists. There are but very few missionaries laboring in that land against fearful odds. With the present staff preaching daily, it will take 20 years to preach but once to each native. Africa with its 300 millions is very hard field to work owing to the warlike habits of the natives, and the terrible scourge of the slave trade. It has three and a half millions of Christians, but the Missionaries need much help from the Holy Spirit. We should be interested in this work because of the value of a soul, when we think of a soul lost for eternity, how earnest we should be in showing them the way of life everlasting. With this thought in our minds we ought not to rest without doing something to save these dying millions. If we can not go and fulfil the Great Captain's marching orders we should at least speak to those around us and thus remove the responsibility. God has laid a responsibility of preaching the word upon His people, we thus have an interest in the salvation of souls and should be careful how we do the work He has given us.

ONE THOUSAND MILLION

Are we doing all we can for missions, or are we robbing God and losing the promised blessing?

The Father, Son and Holy Spirit unite in calling for workers. Are we doing our best in this great work?

Mrs. (Dr.) Harrison, who is well known to Peterborough people, sang a solo in splendid sty e.

Mr. W. R. Johnston and Miss J. Mercer gave reports from the London convention full of interest to all Endeavorers.

The question box was answered by Mr. Leslie, of Toronto. The following are a few of the questions and answers:

Should a Christian join as an associate member? No; better for themselves and the society not to do so?

What work can we give associate members? Place them on some of the minor committees.

Is it wrong for a Christian Endeavourer to attend a ball or dancing party? The question is, is it right? I would say it is better not go.

Should C. E. meetings be closed to all but members? No; let all who wish attend.

Should I depend upon my feelings as a guide for Christian work, or act on principle? Act on principle every time.

Should C. E. meetings be postponed under circumstances? As rarely as possible. Ask your pastor's opinion and act with him. At any rate, have a meeting that week. Do not lose the meeting.

A beautiful soprano solo was sung by Miss Bryce in fine voice.

Miss Quinn spoke on "The Object and Aims of Christian Endeavour. It is to promote an earnest Christian life among its members. It is an organized effort to win souls for Christ and into His Church. We must first be fully consecrated before we can do effective work for Christ. In face of the great work of winning souls it seem foolish for Christians to ask can they dance and play cards. We have no time to waste on such things. We should spend our time and energies for Christ. If you say you cannot speak or pray, or work publicly in Christ's service, you really mean you won't do these things. If we love our neighbor we will be faithful. We are asked sometimes how can a Christian Endeavour Society be worked in a village or in a farming community? By having the Holy Spirit with you. It does not need large meetings but consecrated work. Make your meetings bright. The speaker then gave some personal experiences on the thought of provoking one another to love and good works. Christian and Endeavourer should be on an equal footing, and always be together.

To accomplish anything we must be steadfast in purpose, able to keep on regardless of opposition.

We must not criticize but rather show sympathy. We should not get discouraged, nor should we trust in self, but leaning on God we will have comfort in every discouragement.

"Nearer my God to Thee" was then sung, after which Miss Frise took charge of the consecration meeting in a manner not soon to be forgotten by those present. Quite a number took part in this service.

The rally closed by singing "God be with you," and the Mizpah benediction.

This rally was one of the best the Peterborough County Union has had, and reflects great credit on Mr. R. A. Ward the vice-president for that district, who worked hard to make it a success.

A KNOTTY QUESTION

Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:

1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analysed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to try

Lights Out

At last the bottom has dropped out out of the Cobourg Electric Light and Illuminating Company. From the first of the present month it was quite evident that the company was doomed. All manner of rumors have been in circulation in reference to the financial standing of the concern, and it was publicly announced that the trouble arose on account of the lessee being unable to purchase coal enough to keep the works running. However that may be, there certainly was no indication that light would be resumed.—Cobourg Saturday Post.

The Band's New Instruments.

Bandmaster B. F. Millar has received word from Daniel Godrey & Son, London, Eng., stating that the 57th Batt. band's order for new instruments had been received together with the funds forwarded. The instruments will be especially manufactured for the band, and will be thoroughly tested before leaving the factory by Mr. Godfrey personally or some of his famous staff of musicians. Godfrey & Son have been in the manufacture of band instruments for a few months only, but have already won a high name and will endeavour to fill their first order from Canada the very best they know how. All the new cornets will be silver ones.

Blythe Flour Mills Additions.

The work of enlarging the Blythe Flour Mills is briskly going on. Mr. Hartley is pushing the stonework of the new third story to completion. Another, a fourth story, will also be added. Mr. Jas. A. McGill, manager of the new company, returned last evening from Toronto, where he has been in the interest of the new plant. It is expected that negotiations for one of the most modern and finest improved flour milling plants in existence will be concluded in a few days.

A Protest Entered.

A protest has been entered by "E" Company against the result of the company match in the 57th Battalion rifle matches, on the ground that "B" Company, who won the prize for having the best shooting team, had among their men a staff-sergeant, which is against the rules and regulations. The matter has been referred to the committee and in the meantime a decision is anxiously awaited. In all likelihood teams from "B" and "E" companies will have a crack at each other anyway this season. The spirit of emulation and rivalry is quite active.

A Ladie's Physical Culture Class.

Miss L. Sutherland, of Toronto, instructor in the art of physical culture, held a meeting to organize a class in the Young Women's Christian Association rooms yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of young ladies desirous of joining. A class was formed and prospects for its success are bright, indeed. Several other young ladies have signified their wish to join. They will be afforded an opportunity of doing so by attending the meeting to be held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Sutherland's advertisment appears in to-day's issue.

Left the Trail of the Deer.

A hunting party consisting of Messrs. Gus. Sawers, sr., M. Dobson, Peterborough; W. Spafford, Sam Purser, Robt. Hull, Nelson Montgomery, John Purser, jr., Buckhorn; and L. Switzer, Cavendish, returned from the chase yesterday. They have been living on venison for the past fifteen days and had a joyous trip. The party were encamping at Bald Lake in Harvey township. They had in their possession five hounds and eight canoes. Ducks and partridge were plentiful the party shooting several of them. They captured three deer—two bucks and a doe. Deer were very scare and wild.

Ontario Apples for the North-west.

On Wednesday, Nov. 9th, Mr. J. R. Goodfellow shipped a car, containing 198 barrels of apples to the North-west. The fruit consigned to his cousin, Mr. R. T. Goodfellow, general merchant, Prince Albert, was purchased in North Monaghan and Otonabee, and consisted of winter apples. The North-west promises to be a good market for Ontario fruit. The prices there range from $7 to $10 per barrel. This would seem to represent an extravagant profit to the shipper, but when it is remembered that the freight costs alone, not counting cost of packing, etc., on a car of apples from Peterborough is $400, it will be seen that no insignificant hole is made in the profits.

Had Good Luck.

Mr. Geo. Cochrane, a member of the the Winch hunting party, returned last night. When he left yesterday, the party had 9 deer—6 bucks and 3 does—with four sets of dogs running. He states that the weather was very rough and deer scarce. Two of the slain were captured in runaways and the rest in the water. Constable Cochrane left camp at 11.40 o'clock yesterday morning, walked 9 miles, rode 4, walked 1 mile more and drove 28 miles, reaching town at 8.15 o'clock. This is a fast record. He states that a party composed of W. H. Casement, Lakefield; J. J. Chrowe and others, Dummer; and John Holmes, Burleigh; have captured nine of the finest looking and fattest deer he ever saw in his life. They are beauties.

Startling Window Decorations.

Messrs. Brown Bros. have long been noted far their originality and business enterprise. Metaphorically speaking grass cannot grow under their hustling pedals. Their latest effort in the line of novel advertising will be displayed in the window of their handsome store on Hunter street, on Saturday next. The exhibition will be for one day only and the expectant thousands will have ten hours in which to gaze and fix their eyes on the beauties of nature as exemplified by the window decorations — Mr. J. W. Brisbane. It has been truly said that "there are more things in heaven an earth than are dreamed of in our philosophy," and the truth of this remark will be fully demonstrated on this occasion. If you want a good laugh don't forget to call around on Saturday at Brown Bros.

—Court Young Peterborough, No. 5, Canadian Order of Foresters, intend giving a fine entertainment and sumptuous tea in the Foresters' hall on Water street on the 24th prox. Great preparations are being made for the occasion, and everything points to the entertainment being a signal success.

—A lime light service in commemoration of the death of Mrs. General Booth will be held at the Salvation Army barracks here to-morrow night. It will be conducted by Staff-Capt. McIntyre, Toronto, and will be similar to the great exhibition held in the Crystal Palace, London, some months ago.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Bacon, baker, is suffering from a severe cold but hopes in a day or two to be around again.

Mrs. Norah Shevlin, of Chesterville, is on a visit to her son, Mr. J. P. Shevlin, King street, for a few days.

Miss D. Waller, of Ottawa, who has been the guest of Mr. Harry Phelan for a few days, returned home yesterday after a pleasant visit.

Mr. H. F. Ketchison, the capable mail clerk between Belleville and Peterborough, completed his eighth year of service yesterday.

The condition of Mr. A. P. Morgan, who has been confined to his room since Sunday with a bad attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is somewhat better to-day.

Mr. C. L. Benedict, late of the Bank of Montreal, left this week for Cornwall where he will fill the post of acting accountant for three months in the branch there.

Mr. D. O. Whitt, of Brighton, is registered at the Cavanagh House. He is a giant of tremendous proportions, weighing 705 lbs. His obesity and herculean stature are simply marvellous. Mr. Whitt is a member of of a family of eight, who when they step on the scales, tip the beam at 2,000 lbs—a ton. An exhibition of this wonderful fat man will be given on Saturday on the market. A license to exhibit him was applied for to-day.

Raised from the Dead

Long and Terrible Illness from Blood Poisoning

Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible sores broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 78 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by and am now a well woman. I weigh 138 lbs., eat well and do the work for a large family. My case seems a wonderful recovery and physicians look at me in astonishment, as almost like one raised from the dead."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

HOOD'S PILLS should be in every family medicine chest. Once used, always preferred.

EXTRAORDINARY

SALE OF LAMPS, AT

CHINA HALL

Nothing like it ever known before in the Town of Peterborough. An opportunity of a life time to procure a beautiful Lamp at LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

On Saturday, November 19th, we will have on exhibition all that we can display at one time—a full car load of 110 cases and casks of the very newest and prettiest Lamps in the markets of the world, bought at 50c. on the dollar and marked at a very slight advance over cost. We will devote both show windows and the whole of one side of China Hall for the display of Samples and what we cannot show there will be on exhibition up stairs—take the elevator.

We never do things by halves and when we assert that this sale is to be an event in the history of China Hall. We intend to carry it out in a way that will meet with your approval and leave a lasting impression on the Lamp trade of Peterborough. Therefore, on Saturday, Nov. 19th, we invite your inspection of these goods. You will probably never have seen so many beautiful Lamps in a single collection before. Nothing but the price would ever have tempted us to buy so many, and we trust to the price to clear them out quickly.

Don't miss the oppertunity of buying a lovely lamp cheaply. Don't miss the opportunity of seeing the designs whether you wish to buy or not.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—The opera house was well filled last night. The play was bright and cheery, and the constant ripple of laughter showed that the audience enjoyed the entertainment immensely.

Mr. Bradburn deserves the thanks of the citizens for having placed a special constable in the gallery. The half-civilized, ill-bred young hoodlums had to remain quiet. That genus lured by cheap prices has heretofore turned the opera house into a bear garden, and prevented decent people from attending, but last night the vulgar whistle was heard only a few times. It might be made a penalty that any person who whistles in the opera house should be excluded from all entertainments in the house during that season. Such discipline would be an excellent training for the boys, as it would teach them that the common decencies of life must be observed, and this duly enforced at first might in the end become half natural to them.

Yours etc.,
OPERA.

Wednesday morning, Nov. 16th, 1892.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association held last night, resolutions were passed which will probably result in opening the gymnasium, bath room and boys room at an early date. Reports were given verbally by the chairmen of the devotional and finance committees and read by the secretary. As soon as possible all departments of the work will be got into running order.

The present week is the one appointed as a week of prayer for young men and Young Men's Christian Associations throughout the world. It is usual to ask the pastors to preach special sermons suitable to the occasion and also for the associations to hold some sort of special services each evening during the week. The new secretary arrived too late for these arrangements to be made in time, but prayer meetings are being held in the rooms each evening except Wednesday, and the churches are asked to remember the association work in their weekly prayer meetings. The pastors will be asked to preach the usual sermons at a later date.

THE JUSTICE MILL

Grinds out a Couple of Grists This Morning.

John Powers was arrested last evening and locked up. This morning he appeared before P. M. Dumble charged with vagrancy. He requested to be sentenced to gaol for six months. He told the court his eyesight was defective and that constitutionally he was not very robust. The magistrate sentenced the prisoner to six months confinement in the Central Prison, Toronto. In doing so he stated that Powers would have better opportunities of being treated by the large staff of prison physicians for his optical disorder and also he would be able to work at a more congenial trade than he would elsewhere. The court reckoned it would be best all around to commit the prisoner to the same length of time in the Central as he desired to be confined in the county gaol.

A LIQUOR CASE.

Mr. A. Rountree, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, was charged with selling liquor to minors (under 15 years of age) contrary to the Liquor License Act. The defendant admitted the charge of selling liquor to Albert Halpin a youth apparently under the age of 15, but stated that he was justified in doing so, on account of the purchaser having an order from his father for the liquor. The evidence of the latter was taken, showing that he had given the son an order for the beer. The magistrate reserved judgment until to-morrow morning.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Harry Lindley Produces "Love and Law" to a Large House.

The Harry Lindley company fulfilled another night of their week's engagement at the opera house last night, when the comedy "Love and Law" was produced with excellent effect. The house was a well filled one which at several intervals loudly applauded the different plays. Miss Ida Palmer and little Ethel Lindley favored the audience with taking songs. Miss Flint's portrayal of "Mary Marshall," the obliging yet care-burdened servant, was faithful and true. Mr. E. P. Lewis in "Walter Ranny" is the leading male character. He displays ability in his acting, and for the sake of a love which his mother does not consent to, denies himself of honour, wealth, and becomes a "fugitive from justice." Mr. George Gordon in "Jim Brandon," and D. O. Secord in "Bland" the attorney-at-law, are the despicable villians who haunt the happiness of a household, and, in their thirst for gold, stop at no odds, but in the end their schemes are exposed. Harry Lindley as "Peter Grump, Attorney-at-Law," was comical, grotesque and unique. To-night the company will again appear in the great society and ladies' play entitled "Queena." The production is of a very refined and pleasing nature and should be greeted by another packed house.

A SOCIAL REUNION

Held in St. John's Sunday School Rooms Last Night.

A social reunion of the young people of St. John's church congregation was held in the Sunday School rooms last evening. The building was comfortably filled, while the evening's proceedings were strictly of an informal nature. Much of the evening was spent in pleasant conversation, and a social two hours were enjoyably spent. Prof. Butcher's orchestra dispensed many fine selections during the evening. The church choir also rendered several glees, which were highly appreciated. Each lady and gentleman was given a part of a card on entering, and it was his or her duty to discover the one who had the counterpart of the same card. Each one thus became a sort of searching party. Interesting addresses were delivered by Rev. J. C. Davidson and Mr. Blair. The former spoke on the beauties and benefits of cultivating the social side of our nature and making pleasant relations with all whom we came in contact with. The reunion, which had for its main object making the members of the congregation better acquainted with one another, closed shortly after 10 o'clock.

DOWN AN ELEVATOR SHAFT.

Mr. Wm. H. Crowe, Formerly of Peterborough, Meets With an Awful Accident.

Mr. Wm. H. Crowe, who left here about a fortnight ago to accept the position of foreman in the turning department of Dowling & Leighton's large cabinet factory at Harriston, met with a terrible accident on Friday last while at his work. Two other employees were trying to slide a small hand car loaded with strips across the elevator which was even with the third floor, when the front wheels touched the elevator the load was so heavy that the brakes gave way and it started to descend. Mr. Crowe went to the rescue and put on the reverse belt, running the elevator up again even with the floor. The front wheels of the car passed off the elevator but the hind wheels caught, when the elevator by some means started to descend. Mr. Crowe in endeavoring to keep the hand car from falling fell down the shaft with the car on top of him. The distance was several feet. He was removed unconscious and had both his hips broken, besides being severely bruised. It will be weeks before he recovers.

POULTRY AND PIGEON HOUSE.

A Convenient Building and Directions How to Construct It.

The sketch and ground plan herewith of a practical shelter for poultry and pigeons, we re-engrave from Ohio Farmer, has been tested and found simple and very economical. The length of the house is 48 feet. This space to accommodate from 10 to 15 fowls. In the centre is a store and cook room where the preparation of the daily feed can be conveniently done. Feed bins and places for tools and other needful articles to have about a well-kept poultry house are provided for. Each pen, as will be noticed, has a door, leading from one to another, as well as nests, roosts, dust boxes and water apparatus. Each opens into a run extending 40 or 50 feet from the poultry house. These can be opened or closed by means of a sliding board, keeping out the cold. The height of the building may be 30 feet or 24 feet, as desired. The southern side is lighted by five large windows, fastened on hinges so that they may be opened to air the coops in warm weather. This is a decided improvement over any other arrangement that we have yet tried.

In the sketch I have omitted the fence between each pen, but there should be one and a gate to each.

THE PIGEON COMPARTMENT, as will be noticed by referring to the plan, is reached by means of stairs from the storeroom below. It extends from one end of the building to the other, and the height is about six feet. One window on each end, with that from which the birds enter an aviary on the outside, is what lights up the coop. Nests, twelve inches square, with an earthen bowl containing a bunch of hay pressed and shaped in form to receive the eggs laid. Also a feeding space, five feet square, containing clean, sharp sand, placed where the grain is fed to them. Roosts far enough apart, made of flat pegs, are fastened on the wall. They should be so arranged that one bird cannot govern several roosts and drive the others off or soil the plumage of those below. This can be done. The aviary on outside fly is of much value to pigeon fanciers. It is made square, say three feet by four feet, by three feet high, with holes for the entrance and an alighting board. The front is made of wire netting; the base, a board with the holes sawed neatly. This trap or aviary can be closed at any time by a drop-board raised by pulleys from inside the loft, covering the holes completely. Any planing mill man or a carpenter can tell you the kind and amount of lumber it will require to build this house. From $75 to $350 can be expended on it.

ELEVATION OF POULTRY HOUSE.

GROUND PLAN OF POULTRY HOUSE.

[In the lower part of the illustration is the ground plan in which PP are compartments, F feed-boxes, N nests, R roosts, D dust-boxes. Just above is the plan of the upper boxes for pigeons, in which NN are nests, F feed enclosures, T water, R roosts, S stairway.]

Knew What He Was About.

Singerly—I hear your firm offered you an increase in salary or a month's vacation, and you are going to take the vacation. What are you going to do that for? I should think you would rather have the increase.

Strawber—Not much, old fellow. My vacation is the only time during the year that I can fall in love with a wealthy girl.—Tom Masson in the Clothier and Furnisher.

Customer—Look here, I haven't had these trousers a week and they bag at the knees.

Tailor—That is not my fault, sir; you shouldn't be so ardent in your propasals.—Clothier and Furnisher.

The Snowball—A Good Summer Drink.

Break an egg into a large glass, beat it up well with a little powdered sugar, add a bottle of genuine cold ginger ale, while you stir it throughly, and serve.

It is no easy thing to dress harsh, coarse hair so as to make it look graceful or becoming. By the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, this difficulty is removed, and the hair made to assume any style or arrangement that may be desired Give the vigor a trial.

All disorders caused by a bilious state of the system can be cured by using Carter's Little Liver Pills. No pain, griping of discomfort attending their use. Try them. dw

Two Cities.

Side by side they stand,
These cities two,
But a breath of land
Between them lies;
Above, the self-same skies,
Serene and blue.

One is full of strife
And weal and woe,
Quick with Modern life—
The other Past.
Yet of its joy, or care,
No one may know.

Never word doth pass,
Nor any signs;
Its streets are soft with grass
The light winds blow
Like murmurous voices low
Amid the pines.

And a silence falls,
Profound and deep;
Though the sad heart calls
In its despair,
No answer comes to prayer
For those who weep.

I know not which is best
Wherein to dwell—
Life's strife, or Death's calm rest;
Not I, who stand
One side this breadth of land;
I cannot tell.

The Plot to Kill.

"George dear," said the young wife as her husband was about to kiss her before going down town, "the dressmaker is coming to-day, and she will probably be here to dinner this evening."

"Then darling," said the young husband, the glad light of a deep revenge shining in his deep blue eyes, "have some of that huckleberry pudding that your mother taught you to make. Make it with your own hands dear, for," he went on, with a strange glitter in his eyes, "I want to make a dead sure thing of it."—Cloak Review.

DR. I. A. SMITH & Co.,
536 Bloor St., Toronto:

GENTS,—Please ship us per G.T.R., freight prepaid, three (3) gross more of your Anti-Dandruff. This makes six gross or 864 bottles purchased from you since January 16th, 1892, a little more than two months. The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hair-dressing for the hair. Clean to use and has an agreeable odor. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and pevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, we remain,

Yours truly,

PIANOFORTES

we are able to offer advantages to the public, which are impossible to the ordinary dealer.

Our instruments have an established reputation for excellence of TONE, TOUCH, WORKMANSHIP, and DURABILITY, and Every Instrument is Fully Warranted for Seven Years.

Chief among our instruments which have received preferences from the best musical artists, stand

THE HEINTZMAN —AND— EVANS PIANOS.

These instruments have been before the Canadian public for a number of years, and the great praise bestowed upon them by musical experts, along with the continued increase of sales year by year, testify to their high excellence.

The aim of the manufacturers of these two favorite Pianos has been to produce the best instruments at a moderate price. They are of solid build, warranted for durability, of handsome appearance and finish; pleasant touch and quick repetition. TONE: rich, full, bright and resonant. Beautifully signing and sympathetic in quality. The prices are moderate, and within the reach of the majority of purchasers.

We are exclusive agents in Peterborough for the celebrated

which stand ahead of all competitors. We have also at all times in stock, the well-known and popular

THOMAS ORGANS,
AND OTHER MAKES.

Our large and well-lighted show room enables us to carry the Largest Stock ever shown in Peterborough, and as regards Prices, we have only to say that we positively will not be undersold.

Those not having the inclination or the means to purchase an instrument outright, can, by a small monthly investment, secure a Piano or Organ on rental until paid for.

JACKSON & CO. wish it to be distinctly understood that in cases of emergency, they are desirous of dealing justly and fairly with their customers. They do not want both the money and the instrument.

NOTICE.

To insure confidence and satisfaction, Jackson & Co. are willing to exchange any instrument purchased from them within twelve months, if not approved of, themselves bearing all expenses of carriage, and allowing all that has been paid, towards any other instrument selected.

BLAKE'S HOME RULE LETTER.

Is It Was a Check for Five Thousand Dollars from Toronto.

DUBLIN, Nov. 15.—At a meeting of the Irish party last night, Justin McCarthy presiding, Mr. Blake, M.P. for the south division of Longford, read a letter enclosing a check for $5000 from the committee of the Irish Home Rule organization of Toronto.

Votes were passed thanking the various committees in the United States, Canada, Australia and Great Britain for the generous assistance which they gave to the national movement at a time when the cause of Home Rule was critically endangered.

A FEDERATION PLAN.

An Important Report From the Special Committee Appointed by the League.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The special committee appointed by the Council of the Imperial Federation League to consider definite proposals for the federation of the self-governing bodies of the British Empire has presented a report.

The committee suggests the formation of an Imperial Council to give a united voice to the Empire in time of peace and to enable the defence of the Empire in time of war to be undertaken by its united forces and resources. The council should consist, it urges, of members appointed by each of the various self-governing colonies; also of the British Prime Minister, the Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, for War, for the Colonies, and for India; of the First Lord of the Admiralty and the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The method of raising funds at the outset should be left to the choice of the self-governing states, but a uniform principle might afterwards be found and substituted.

The committee proposes that an Imperial conference be summoned to consider the question, the conference, if it is deemed necessary, to be preceded by a royal commission. The committee closes its report with a strong appeal to the ministry to take action in this direction.

Swinburne Tennyson's Successor.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—It seems fairly certain than Swinburne will get the laureateship, and second-hand booksellers are buying up his first editions, and the bookstalls in the streets are bringing his second-hand volumes to the front. He will probably accept the post if it is tendered to him.

Fate of the Laureateship Discussed.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a number of responses to the question, "Should the Poet Laureateship be continued or abolished?"

Prof. Huxley writes that the position of court poet is a survival of a different state of society, yet it is undesirable that any state recognition of the value of literature should disappear.

Prof. Max Muller says whenever the time comes and the nation longs once more to honor a living poet there will be no difficulty in reviving the cherished laureate wreath. In the meantime no greater honor could be paid to the dead laureate than having the place vacant.

Mr. Lecky, the historian, says he would be sorry if the position should be abolished.

Sir John Lubbock, President of the London Chamber of Commerce, writes in favor of the retention of the office.

Prof. Blackie says the laureateship ought certainly to be continued as evidence that the highest person in the realm takes public notice of the exercise of one of the highest functions of the human soul.

Prof. Dowden declares that the post should cease to exist.

Exhibition of Paintings Closed.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—A divergence of opinion regarding the exhibition of the works of the Swedish painter Munch has caused the disruption of Berlin Society of Artists. A special meeting was called yesterday to decide whether the show should continue.

It was decided to close the exhibition by a vote of 120 to 105. As a result of the trouble over Munch's exhibition it has been resolved to found a new society.

Marlborough's Body Interred.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The remains of the late Duke of Marlborough were interred yesterday at Blenheim Palace, the Marlborough seat at Woodstock, Oxfordshire.

The young Duke has attained his majority.

The Duchess of Marlborough will receive the $1,000,000 insurance on the Duke's life. He had taken out policies in this large amount as a recognition of the immense sums the Duchess has expended in repairing and beautifying Blenheim.

Canada At the Monetary Conference.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—It has been decided that Canada shall be represented at the monetary conference at Brussels. One delegate will be appointed immediately.

Testing His Honesty.

Your druggist is honest if when you ask him for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion he gives you just what you ask for. He knows this is the best form in which to take Cod Liver Oil.

The Head Surgeon

of the Lubon Medical Company is now at Toronto, Canada, and may be consulted either in person or by letter on all chronic diseases peculiar to men. Men, young, old or middle-aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess or overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of memory, bad dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, emissions, lack of energy, pain in the kidneys, headache, pimples on the face or body, itching or peculiar sensation about the scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, specks before the eyes, twitching of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bashfulness, deposits in the urine, loss of will power, tenderness of the scalp and spine, weak and flabby muscles, failure to be rested by sleep, constipation, dullness of hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, excitability of temper, sunken eyes surrounded with leaden circle, oily looking skin, etc., are all symptoms of nervous debility that lead to insanity and death unless cured. The spring or vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence. Those who through abuse committed in ignorance may be permanently cured. Send your address for book on all diseases peculiar to man. Books sent free sealed. Heart disease, the symptoms of which are faint spells, purple lips, numbness, palpitation, skip beats, hot flushes, rush of blood to the head, dull pain in the heart with beats strong, rapid and irregular, the second heart beat quicker than the first, pain about the breast bone, etc., can positively be cured. No cure, no pay. Send for book. Address M. V. LUBON, 24 Macdonell ave., Toronto, Can.

Ministers, Lawyers, Teachers, and others whose occupation give but little exercise, should use Carter's Little Liver Pills for torpid liver and biliousness. One is a dose. Try them. dw

RHEUMATISM.—Jan. 17, 1883, GEO. C. OSGOOD & CO., Druggists, Lowell, Mass., U. S. A., wrote: "MR. LEWIS DENNIS, 136 Moody St, desires to say: "ORRIN ROBINSON, a boy of Graniteville, Mass., came to my house in 1881, walking on crutches; his leg was bent at the knee for two months. I gave him

Labor Operations Extensive.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The second week of the cotton lockout opens with increased prospects of the trouble being long continued. There are 8,000,000 spindles still at work on full time, 700,000 on short time and 15,000,000 are stopped.

The Masters' Federation has asked the owners of the spindles working full time to begin to shorten their working hours on Thursday. All the owners have assented, except the masters at Bolton, who spin Egyptian cotton chiefly. They plead that their hands have full of orders, and that their mills must work full time to fill them.

The leaders of the spinners state that if the employers generally adopt short time with a corresponding reduction of wages the deadlock will end.

Whether or not the manufacturers will follow such a course, which would practically be conceding the demands first made by the operatives, is an open question. If they run their mills on short time and reduce wages as well the fight will be long continued.

Wealth of the United States.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Financial News says it thinks that there is nothing extravagant in the estimate that $250,000,000 of foreign money will be left in America at the harvest of the Exhibition. Americans will be literally burdened with money seeking investment.

Hebrews May Now Emigrate.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—The prohibition against the emigration of Hebrews that was enforced during the cholera epidemic has now been withdrawn. A number of parties of emigrants have started for Hamburg from various parts of the country.

The French in Morocco.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Times correspondent at Fez, the capital of Morocco, says of the French mission to the Moorish Sultan:

Some of the French proposals are meeting with substantial opposition. Permission has been granted for the construction of waterworks for sanitary improvements and the building of good roads in Tangier.

No commercial treaty with France has been concluded, but the Sultan will permit during his pleasure the exportation of bark for tanning purposes, and cork, and slightly reduce the duties on certain French imports.

France agrees to abolish her postal service throughout Morocco as soon as an adequate Moorish service is organized. The Sultan finally refused to permit the building of a railway or the establishment of an oil refinery.

Traversing the Desert.

The World's Fair is to have a children's department, comprising things useful and things amusing in child life. This will be a popular exhibit for all parents and children, and all who wish they were one or the other will be attracted to it.

Thomas Cook, of London, the founder of excursion trains, has recently died. He conceived the idea while walking fifteen miles to a temperance meeting. The first railroad excursion was made in 1841, with five hundred and seventy passengers.

House wagons are in use in England. They are houses on wheels, used for summer outings. The Duke of Newcastle has one, fifteen feet long and six feet nine inches wide, that will accommodate eight persons. It has folding bunks, drop table, piano, etc. Two thorough-bred draft horses are the motive power. The cost of the vehicle, exclusive of the piano, was two thousand dollars. Hammocks and tents are carried to be used in pleasant weather.

Increase Your Weight.

If you are losing flesh and blood, commence at once taking Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which is far ahead of all other preparations of the kind in existence. By taking Miller's Emulsion people gain from 5 to 10 lbs. by the time the first bottle is consumed. It is the greatest blessing of the century to all in delicate health, or who suffer with coughs, colds and ailments that tend to consumption. Remember, Miller's Emulsion contains all the constituents found in wheat. It is used in the hospitals and asylums of the country. In big bottles 50c and $1, at all Drug Stores.

Aching Pains Removed.

GENTLEMEN,—I cannot but praise B. B.B. for it has revived me wonderfully. I was completely run down, had aching pains in my shoulder, a tired feeling in my limbs, low spirits, in fact I was in misery. Being recommended to try B. B.B. I did so, and with the use of only one bottle I am to-day strong and healthy. I prize it highly.

TIRED OF EXISTENCE.

On the Verge of Manhood John Stinson Puts an End to His Existence.

TORONTO, Nov. 16.—When Mr. and Mrs. J. Stinson, 215 King-street east, returned to their home Monday night, from the theatre, they were startled to hear from their youngest son, who had just gone upstairs, that John, another son aged 18, was apparently suffering great agony in his room.

The parents instantly repaired to the room, but their son had passed away before they reached his bedside.

Mr. Stinson immediately hurried off for the family physician, Dr. Cameron, but he being out Dr. Watson was procured.

Symptoms of poisoning being apparent, Coroner Aikins was notified.

Dr. Watson held a post-mortem examination yesterday afternoon and his suspicion of poisoning was verified, carbolic acid being found to have caused the death of the boy.

A bottle was found under the bed containing quite a quantity of the poison.

The deceased has since early childhood been troubled with an affection of the heart. He was also consumptive, and it is thought that morbidness, induced by the thought that he would always be delicate and liable to become dependent on his parents at any time, induced him to take his life.

He was a bookkeeper in the employ of the Lloyd Oil Company, but could not work steadily owing to his health, having had to lay off for three months last summer.

The manager of the company said that on Monday he worked until 6 o'clock and was in a cheerful humor all day.

Deceased attended the George-street school for several years, and among his schoolmates he was noted as a nervous, melancholy lad, but one who showed great quickness and aptitude for study.

THE POTLACH CUSTOM.

It Causes Trouble Between Siwashee On the Pacific Coast.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 16.—Mrs. Simpson, an Indian woman, wife of a white man living at Alert Bay, was one of the passengers down on the steamer Barbara Boscowitz. She related this story of some trouble at Alert Bay which she said she desired called to both public and official notice.

It seems that some time ago Con-te-les, the chief whom she charges is not a true tyhee, borrowed 800 blankets from an ordinary Indian named Ar-min-lar, giving as security a small piece of copper. The latter is a sort of symbol of rank, and increases in value with age. The original piece of copper came from the north.

In late years, however, many have been made, and they, too, seem to have been accepted as original and aged. This particular piece of copper came from Queen Charlotte Islands and is highly prized.

The tyhee recently returned 100 of the blankets and demanded the surrender of the copper, but this the subject refused to give up until the other 700 blankets he claims were returned.

Con-te-les appealed to Constable Wolcott, who arrested Ar-min-lar and took him before Indian Agent Pidcock. The latter sentenced him to six months in jail. The Indian still refused to give up the copper, and after spending a month in jail escaped and fled to the mountains.

The Indian woman says that the case is not for criminal, but civil action, and that a majority of the Indians believe that an injustice has been done the man.

On arriving in the city Mrs. Simpson called on Crease, a barrister and solicitor, and placed the case in his hands. The woman says that Ar-min-lar is willing to give himself up if he will be brought to Victoria for a hearing or to serve his sentence out. He fears re-arrest at the expiration of his present term of imprisonment.

The woman says further that Ar-min-lar had been virtually a slave to Con-te-les for ten years.

Mrs. Simpson makes another statement, which is somewhat serious. When the Barbara Boscowitz called at Quathiasca Cove on Valdez Island, near Cape Mudge, she was told by an Indian that during the potlach at Cape Mudge the body of an Indian had been eaten. This may be all nonsense, for the northern Indians have not been cannibals for many years.

ITCHING AND SCALY

Skin Disease 9 Years. Doctors and Medicines Useless. Cured by Cuticura for $4.75.

I feel it is my duty to tell you my experience with your CUTICURA REMEDIES. I have been troubled for over nine years with a dreadful skin disease. When I first felt it, there appeared a few small red spots on my breast, and it kept on spreading slowly. It started the same on my back, between my shoulders. A few days after the spots turned gray, and began itching. Small scales would fall off, so it continued spreading all over my body. I tried all the patent medicines I could think of, or get hold of. I also consulted doctors. Yes, they would cure me in a short time, but they always failed. Then I gave it all up, thinking there was no cure for me. Some few months ago, I noticed your advertisement in the Tacoma Morning Globe; thought I would try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, not thinking it would do me much good, but to my surprise, three boxes of CUTICURA, one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT cured me entirely. My skin is now as white and pure as that of a child. I send my photograph. I have many friends in Chicago, Ill., and St. Paul, Minn.

TWEEDS, SUITINGS and OVERCOATS

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

To EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being to positively clear out the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY

HAVE BECOME ACCUSTOMED TO UNEQUAL LEGISLATION.

But They Are Not Wholly Indifferent to It and Are Nearing the Time When Redress Will Be Demanded and Granted.

CONCORD, N.H., Nov. 17.—The National Grange Patrons of Husbandry assembled in the State House in 28th annual session yesterday.

J. H. Brigham of Ohio presided. Twenty-five out of 34 grange states were represented.

J. H. Brigham, in the annual address, discussed the labor question. He said that the relations that existed between the employer and employe in this country are of deep interest to farmers and they view with apprehension the disagreements which are too frequent for the best interests of all. The speaker then reviewed the result of the recent election and said:

All our order will ask of the new administration is that the same consideration given to other interests be accorded to agriculture. If the producer on the farm must compete with cheap labor, let the producer in the factory and the mine do the same. Let the cleaver of free trade descend upon every protected industry and not alone on agriculture. The farmers have become accustomed to neglect and unequal legislation, but they are not wholly indifferent to it, and they may at some future time reach a point where partisan associations and prejudices may not be strong enough to prevent them from resenting unjust discrimination against the agricultural interest."

MURCHISON LETTER.

The Alleged Writer Now Denies That He Was the Author.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—M. W. Murchison, the alleged writer of the letter which led to the recall of Lord Sackville-West from this country four years ago, was in the city yesterday, and for the first time since the letter was published he consented to talk about it.

"I am," he said, "one of the unfortunate men who have fame thrust upon them, and although the public may look upon that letter as a joke, it has been a most serious matter to me."

"I have been talked about. I have had the finger of scorn pointed at me, and all because someone, whose conduct I shall not stop to characterize, forged my name to a letter written to the British Minister.

"I was never in California in my life, and I never wrote the letter attributed to me.

"I have not publicly denied the letter, because when it was written I was on my farm in Glengarry County, Ontario. I received a paper but once a week. My father was ill and died, and then I was ill myself.

"The matter had gone so far then that it would have been no good to deny it. Whether the man who wrote that letter used my name by accident or design is more than I know. I never knew Sackville-West; never wrote him a line, nor ever had personal knowledge of anybody's writing to him."

RATES FIXED.

What Railway Tickets to the World's Fair Will Cost.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The presidents of the eastern trunk lines association discussed the rates to be charged for railroad tickets to and from Chicago during the World's Fair and adopted the following:

First, on all regular trains scheduled at 35 hours or less, between Chicago and New York, present rates will be maintained.

Second, during the Exposition, on all trains scheduled at more than 35 hours, 20 per cent reduction may be made.

It Had Served Its Day.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The Transcontinental Association is dead. It was only after a long session that the friends of the association gave up all hope of being able to save it. There was no representative of the great northern road present.

The question of adopting a new agreement was discussed, but nothing came of it. A resolution was finally adopted instructing the chairman to wind up the affairs of the association as soon as possible after Jan. 1, and providing for a division of the expenses of that work.

John L.'s Spree.

YORK, Pa., Nov. 17.—John L. Sullivan last evening was billed to appear in the York Opera House in his play "The Man from Boston," and on his arrival at the depot was greeted by a big crowd of people.

Sullivan was beastly drunk. He wanted to enter a cab to go to his hotel, but found an occupant there in the person of Detective Samuel Wallick.

Sullivan wanted the cab all to himself and commanded the detective to vacate. To this Wallick objected and the prize-fighter got in and pulled him out, tore his coat badly and jostled the wearer about roughly. Wallick then swore out a warrant for Sullivan's arrest, but the fighter's manager settled the case.

An Early Settlement.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Nov. 17.—There has been no change in the situation here within the past 24 hours, but rumors are thick that a compromise is being considered.

The men are jubilant and look forward to an early settlement.

Murdered His Children.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—Guiseppe Patone last night murdered his two children, aged 6 and 11 years, and then cut his throat. Patone will die.

His wife died six weeks ago and he is supposed to have become insane.

A FATAL HENCOOP VISIT

A HIRED MAN'S TOO READY USE OF FIREARMS.

A Well-Known Resident of Ontario County Shot Dead on Suspicion of Being a Chicken Thief — An Early Morning Tragedy at Pickering Village.

PICKERING, Nov. 17.—The residents of Pickering were startled yesterday to hear that William Palmer, a resident of Frenchman's Bay, had been shot dead by Henry Lingford at Bernard Baker's farm just east of the village at 3 a.m.

For some time past Mr. Baker has been bothered with chicken thieves and on several occasions has had fowls stolen. So general had the thing become that he determined to watch and if possible capture the thief. At the above hour he heard the geese making a noise and went to the barn to investigate. Upon reaching the yard he discovered a light in the hen house and presently a man proceeded therefrom. Taking aim, Mr. Baker fired his shotgun and the intruder made across the yard for the road.

While passing up the lane Lingford, Baker's hired man, fired his revolver twice after the retreating figure.

After firing the second time Lingford states that the fellow came back and threatened him. Fearing that he would be shot he fired a third time when the man dropped in the mud, and going closer he found the shot had been fatal, death having been instantaneous.

County Constable Decker was sent for, and recognized the body as that of William Palmer, a poor fellow, whose greatest fault was his appetite for liquor.

Coroner Bateman was notified and upon arrival issued a warrant for an inquest. Messrs. Baker and Lingford were placed under arrest and a jury, with Isaac Linton as foreman, hastily empanelled. J. E. Farewell, Q.C., is looking after the case for the crown, while Theodore McGillivray, LL.B., is present on behalf of the prisoners.

Much sympathy is felt for the friends of the deceased, as he is well connected, the Palmer family being one of the most respected in the township. The prisoners are also men of integrity, and it is generally supposed that the shooting was done merely to scare the thief.

The inquest has been adjourned till Monday night.

The prisoners are out on bail.

NOT WARRANTED.

Alleged Result of the Newfoundland-Dominion Conference.

HALIFAX, Nov. 17.—From unofficial sources it is learned that the conference agreed upon a united line of action to be pursued in regard to continuing the modus vivendi licenses and the supply of bait to United States vessels. The influence of the Dominion Government is to be used in urging the Imperial Government to effect an early settlement with France.

Mr. Harvey is irrevocably opposed to union with Canada. A basis of terms of union was agreed upon which the Newfoundland delegates will submit to their Government, and if accepted by it the question will be submitted to a plebiscite of the people. The Newfoundlanders want a per capita allowance equal to $9,000,000 and want the Dominion to undertake the completion of the railway across to Hollis Bay.

TO BE ENLIGHTENED.

Advocates of a Change of Fiscal Policy to Address a Mass Meeting.

MONTREAL, Nov. 17.—An interesting gathering will take place in Sohmer Park here on Nov. 28 to discuss the future of Canada. Speeches will be made by advocates of imperial federation, independence and political union with the United States, and at the conclusion a vote will be taken on the question.

Elgin Meyers of Toronto will speak on political union.

CHOKED THE BOY.

Mary Siddey Goes on a Tear and Nearly Kills a Tormentor.

TORONTO, Nov. 17.—A married woman named Mary Siddey, living at 24 Bolton-avenue, created quite a furore in that neighborhood yesterday.

On the previous evening her husband accused her of unfaithfulness and gave her a severe beating. To celebrate the occasion Mrs. Siddey yesterday imbibed freely of whisky and in the afternoon she paraded the streets with a crowd of children at her heels, who derided her drunken remarks and yelled when she gave chase. During one of her onslaughts upon her tormentors she caught one little fellow by the throat, and had it not been for the timely arrival of Sergeant Miller and Police Constable Gardiner would have probably choked him to death. As it was the officers had some difficulty in breaking her iron grasp, and by that time the boy's eyes were bulging out of his head.

Mary was arrested, and while awaiting the arrival of the patrol wagon she entertained a large audience with language of the most disgusting character.

Liquor Traffic Commission.

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 17.—Two of the commissioners appointed by the Dominion Government to enquire into the liquor traffic and prohibition arrived here last evening, accompanied by an official stenographer.

They are Spence, for the Dominion Alliance, and Kribs, representing distillers and brewers. To-morrow the commission commences work, sitting two days. It will then go to Nanaimo, thence to Vancouver and New Westminster, and then will go to California to enquire into the condition of affairs.

Chisholm Taken to the Asylum.

OAKVILLE, Nov. 17.—R. M. Chisholm was brought before W. H. Young, J.P., yesterday to answer to a charge preferred against him of administering poison to his mother and brother. No one appeared to prosecute him, however, and the magistrate set him at liberty.

He was at once taken in charge by Chief Constable Sumner, who had the necessary papers for his committal to the lunatic asylum at Toronto, to which he was conveyed by the morning train.

Sent to the Asylum.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 17.—Fred. E. Bedick, barrister, has been removed to the Toronto lunatic asylum, having become mentally incapable. Mr. Bedick was a clever and promising young practitioner, and his wife and children will be objects of general sympathy.

CURRENCY OF ENGLAND.

NEITHER A CONVENIENT MEDIUM OF EXCHANGE.

Nor a Fair Permanent Record of Obligations Over a Long Period—Yukon Mates Representatives With Webber's Views On Bi-Metallism Are In Perfect Accord.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Senator Jones and other American delegates to the Monetary Conference arrived in London yesterday afternoon.

Senator Jones said that the remainder of the delegates would arrive at Southampton this evening and that they intend to proceed to Brussels together on Monday.

The conference, he said, would probably last a month or six weeks with three or four sessions each week.

Senator Jones paid a glowing tribute to Right Hon. Arthur J. Balfour's recent speech at Manchester on bi-metallism, wherein he declared that England's existing currency was neither a convenient medium of exchange nor a fair permanent record of obligations over a long period. He would himself rather choose a standard which depreciated but led to a rise in prices rather than a standard which appreciated.

Senator Jones added: "These are sound views, which the United States is ready to accept."

A WEDDING DANCE.

Nine Killed Instantly and Thirty Severely Injured By Falling Walls

MADRID, Nov. 17.—A terrible story of the fatal interruption of wedding festivities is reported from Bejar. A young couple had just been married in a church and the wedding party had gone to a restaurant, where a wedding feast was served.

After the banquet dancing was began and everything was progressing smoothly, when, without an instant's warning, the walls of the building collapsed. The entire party, with the employes of the restaurant, were buried in the ruins.

A crowd quickly gathered and commenced the work of rescue. From amid the debris moans and heartrending cries for help could be heard. As rapidly as possible, and spurred on by the frantic appeals for help, the men threw the heavy timbers aside. They soon came across the terribly crushed and mangled body of one of the guests.

Soon several persons who had been caught by the falling timbers were taken out alive but badly injured. When the wreck was cleared away sufficiently for it to be known that no one else was in the ruins, nine bodies were lying in a ghastly row on the sidewalk.

The injured numbered 30, some of whom will not recover, others will be crippled for life. The building was thought to be perfectly safe. It is supposed the movements of the dancers caused the collapse.

A SHARP SWORD.

Should Not Be Held Over American Journalists in Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—The threatened expulsion by the Government of Mr. Meltzer, The New York Herald's correspondent, is denounced by the Liberal press. The Vossische Zeitung, commenting on the subject, expresses the belief that the Foreign Office would have to explain the grounds of expulsion.

"The prosecution of the press," it says, "is a two-edged weapon. Germany's reputation abroad would be seriously affected if foreign journalists must be in continual fear of a Damoclesian sword, and the people would be justified in believing that the Government feared hostile criticism because unable to reply.

"Nothing could be gained by a change of correspondents. The tone of news despatches is not likely to be made more friendly as the result of such a course."

CHOLERA STILL ACTIVE.

New Cases in the North of France, in Hungary and in Holland.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A despatch from Paris to The Standard says fresh cases of cholera are reported from Etaples, Courtville, Calais, Arras, Boulogne, Avien and elsewhere in the north of France.

A despatch from Buda-Pesth reports that the disease is spreading in western and southern Hungary. Twenty-seven persons died on Friday at Aradcex and 30 more on Saturday. There are new cases in Holland, a number of them fatal.

Three New Cases.

BUDA PESTH, Nov. 17.—Three fresh cases of cholera and one death from the disease are registered here yesterday.

Smallpox in Connecticut.

BIRMINGHAM, Conn., Nov. 17.—Four cases of smallpox are reported in this city.

EARTHQUAKE SCARE.

Citizens and Also Three Hundred Convicts Encamped in the Open Air.

ROME, Nov. 17.—The inhabitants of the Island of Ponza are in a state of terror in momentary expectation of a disastrous earthquake, of which they had premonition Tuesday and yesterday by heavy rumblings and the shaking of the earth. The inhabitants, with 300 convicts from the prison, are encamped in the open air.

Waking Up to Trouble Ahead.

VIENNA, Nov. 17.—The recent explosion in Paris has stirred the Austrian police into renewed activity against Anarchists and Socialists.

A large number of arrests of extremists have already been made in this city, Prague and Gratz.

The Berlin and London police are co-operating with the Viennese police in tracking Anarchists.

Restricting Anarchist Papers.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—The Government's bill providing for the imposition of severer penalties upon Anarchist papers that incite to violence, and generally adding to the stringency of the press laws, was introduced to the Chamber of Deputies to-day.

An exciting debate followed, but the Chamber adjourned without taking a vote on the measure.

Closing of Canals.

ALBANY, N.Y., Nov. 17.—Superintendent Hannan of the State Department of Public Works this afternoon announced that the Champlain, Black River, Oswego and Cayuga and Seneca Canals would be closed on Wednesday, Nov. 30, at midnight, and the Erie Canal on Monday, Dec. 5, at midnight, unless sooner closed by ice. The date named for closing the Erie is five days later than usual.

THOSE PRIZE PUMPKINS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly allow me space to correct some errors that have been circulated about those notorious pumpkins of Mr. Fairbairn; and to explain I will have to commence at the beginning. On the first day of the fair Mr. S. Payne, who had been appointed judge on class 30, garden vegetables, went to the main building, and without even a director to assist him, judged the class, carrying in his hand all the time the prize list, judge's book, and prize tickets. After the book had been returned to the office, the reporters who were waiting got the entry book and judges' books, in some classes that were completed to write up the prize list. When writing out the list they called my attention to some errors in the entry numbers that were filled in, and I called the attention of the directors to it so that it could be corrected. The next morning I was up to the market and met Mr. Payne. I spoke to him about it. He said he would call as he went home, and see about it, but while I was away some of the directors sent another gentleman to judge the class over again. He was accompanied by Mr. Kennedy, a director. You may well judge our surprise when we found the second man's judgment and entries more confusing than the first. Mr. Payne informs me that in Grafton & Co.'s special, that he called in Mr. Meldrum and Mr. Armstrong to assist him, and they awarded the prize to Mr. Garbutt. Consequently it appeared in the list as printed. After the second judgment which reversed this decision Mr. Garbutt took his pumpkins home and Mr. Fairbairn left his at Messrs. Grafton's store. Mr. Garbutt on seeing that he was credited with the prize in the papers wrote me about it asking me if the prize was his and to call at Grafton's and explain his mistake, and that he would bring his pumpkins back. I wrote Mr. Garbutt that I did not know whose the prize was as it had been changed by the second judge and I would not acknowledge either award until the directors met, which meeting was held on the second Saturday after the fair—which is the customary time to meet—when the following resolution was passed: "Moved by Mr. Bennett, seconded by Mr. Rutherford, that the secretary be instructed to pay the prizes in class 30, on the award of the first judge, Mr. S. Payne; carried. Now Mr. Fairbairn is ready to blame the secretary, directors, or Mr. Payne, or any one that does not see it just as he thinks it ought to be. I believe that the proper course was taken at last, after the blunder had been committed of appointing a second judge. As to "the nigger in the fence," as seen by Mr. Fairbairn, he is clearly only in his own imagination, being conjured up to make an excuse to let himself down easy after the uncalled for attack on Mr. Payne's honesty as a judge in his first letter. Comparisons are odious, and I would be constrained to say, that Mr. Payne would not suffer in a comparison with the second judge or Mr. Fairbairn as to ability or honesty.

I am willing to leaving the whole matter to a disinterested public to say whether or not Mr. Fairbairn has not been a little rash in coming to a conclusion, and in rushing into print, to air his eloquence at the expense of other people's feelings or good name. Thanking you for so much your valuable space, I remain,

WM. COLLINS, Secretary.

Peterborough, Nov. 16th 1892.

P.S.—I would not have troubled you as far as I myself am concerned, but those letters reflected on Mr. Payne, who had been selected by the directors as a judge not only as to his ability but, his honour and honesty.

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The many cheerless, dark, dismal days act depressingly not to say injuriously, on both old and young. Now is the time to re-inforce the vital energies with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood medicines.

Dyspepsia in its worst forms will yield to the use of Carter's Little Nerve Pills, aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

A Complicated Case.

DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with billiousness, headache and lost appetite. I could not rest at night, and was very weak, but after using three bottles of B.B.B. my appetite is good and I am better than for years past. I would not now be without B.B.B. and am also giving it to my children.

PORT HOPE vs. PETERBOROUGH.

Mr. E. M. Poussette, a clever player and enthusiastic admirer of Rugby football, has the following letter in the Empire of yesterday in reference to the match played here on Thanksgiving Day between Port Hope town and Peterborough:

To the Sporting Editor of the Empire:

SIR,—In your issue of the 12th inst, you have an account of a football match between Peterborough and Port Hope. The Port Hope account is like their game—decidedly unfair. Had they left the question of pugilism alone I should not have troubled referring to the perverted account, but since they had had the audacity to make mention of this fact,, I desire to state the true facts of the case. The Port Hope town contingent commenced to grumble before they were more than well within the grounds, and as the game progressed their true characters made themselves both seen and heard. In this respect they were most ably seconded by their captain, who not being satisfied in quarrelling with the whole opposing team individually and collectively, seeds turn his attention to the referee, Mr. Rogers, of Trinity, who so ably and impartially performed his thankless task. There were two or three others whose systematic kicking did not help matters, and who were certainly old enough to know better. Had it not been for the schools assistance and the Peterborough's loss of one player, the score undoubtedly would have been different. I might just add that as Peterborough expected to play a second game in the afternoon with the Victorias of Toronto (who, by the way, had not even the courtesy to send word they were not coming), some of their best men were not playing, with the result that the team was much weaker than it otherwise would have been. As it is only just that people should see a true account of the incidents referred to, I trust, Mr. Editor, you will give this space in your valuable columns. E. M. P.

Would You Buy, If the Prices Were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house, well built, good location, Aylmer street, between Townsend and Rink streets—$2,300. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie street, work now going on.

Best Cure For

All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

Bronchitis

"When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."—J. C. Woodson, P.M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

Cough

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured."—Franz Hoffman, Clay Centre, Kans.

La Grippe

"Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

BAILLIEBORO.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The officers of Court Bailleboro, No. 280, C.O.F., were installed on Monday night, Nov. 7th. The installation was a public one and a great many friends of the lodge, including a fair sprinkling of the fair sex, were present to witness the proceedings. The installation was performed by H. Nesbitt, D.D.H.C.R., and R. Q. Dench, D.D.H.C.R. Following are the officers:

C R	Bro J W Fisher (re-elected)
V C R	Bro Wm Waterman
Chap	Bro Walter Barnard
R S	Bro G E Marshall
F S	Bro T J Tebbster
Treas	Bro J D Perrin
S W	Bro D E Heslip
J W	Bro Thos Skitch
S B	Bro John Bird
J B	Bro John Smithson
Physician	Bro Dr Montgomery

Afterwards about eighty sat down to a sumptuous repast which was eagerly discussed. Brief addresses were given by Bro. Rev. Pilkie and others. Both the speeches and supper were much enjoyed. Court Bailleboro is in a flourishing condition. During the past year the membership of the lodge has doubled. This is an excellent record.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage, defying the utmost art of man to rival.

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

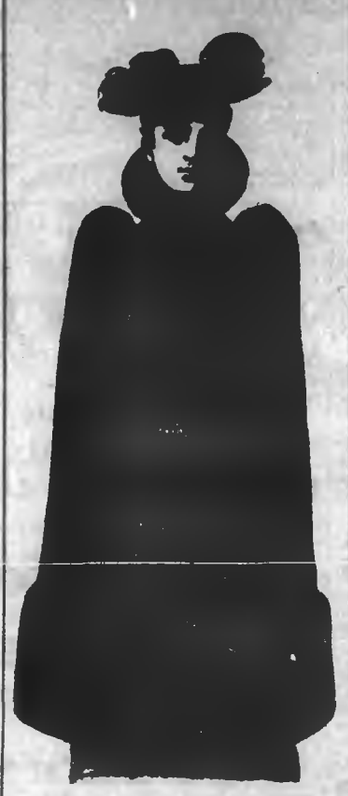
LADIES'

FUR CAPES.



This cut represents one of our newest Military Capes we are making this season, in Seal trimmed with Sable, and in Persian Lamb trimmed with Bear. It also makes a very neat garment in fine Sealette trimmed with light fur.

This Jacket cut represents one of the neatest and most most fashionable Garments for ladies ever introduced. Made in Grey Persian Lamb, Persian Lamb, Seal and Bocharan.

We have opened out and passed into stock this week four thousand dollars worth of Furs, part of the bankrupt stock of Stearling McCrundy, consisting of 50 Seal Caps with band for gentlemen, 20 Black Dog Coats, 5 pairs Gentlemen's Otter Gauntlets, 40 Persian Lamb Caps, 25 Ladies' S. S.S. Muffs, 4 Ladies' Persian Lamb Caps and 10 Fur Lined Circulars together with a variety fine Furs.

The above goods are selling at less than the original prices, but, the prices we will quote for same do not rule throughout our stock, as these special lines were bought less than the cost of production.

EXTRAORDINARY

SALE OF LAMPS, AT

CHINA HALL

Nothing like it ever known before in the Town of Peterborough. An opportunity of a life time to procure a beautiful Lamp at LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

On Saturday, November 19th, we will have on exhibition all that we can display at one time—a full car load of 110 cases and crates of the very newest and prettiest Lamps in the markets of the world, bought at 50c. on the dollar and marked at a very slight advance over cost. We will devote both show windows and the whole of one side of China Hall for the display of Samples and what we cannot show there will be on exhibition up stairs—take the elevator.

We never do things by halves and when we assert that this sale is to be an event in the history of China Hall. We intend to carry it out in a way that will meet with your approval and leave a lasting impression on the Lamp trade of Peterborough. Therefore, on Saturday, Nov. 19th, we invite your inspection of these goods. You will probably never have seen so many beautiful Lamps in a single collection before. Nothing but the price would ever have tempted us to buy so many, and we trust to the price to clear them out quickly.

Don't miss the oppertunity of buying a lovely lamp cheaply. Don't miss the opportunity of seeing, the designs whether you wish to buy or not.

JOHN McKEE'S
NEW
PHARMACY PALACE.

It is with great pleasure that I now announce my removal into my splendid new premises, No. 426 George Street, two doors south of my old stand.

The NEW PHARMACY PALACE gives to Peterborough one of the handsomest and most complete drug stores in Canada. But, while we have devoted great attention to the architectural beauty and convenience of our new premises, we have bestowed our best skill and experience in procuring a thoroughly reliable stock of Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Druggist Sundries, &c.

In addition to our regular lines we can offer exceptional value and variety in our elegant stock of Fine Imported Mew Perfumes, Toilet Articles, Brushes, English and Canadian Toilet Soaps, Sponges, and a variety of other similar goods which require your personal inspection to fully appreciate them.

OUR STANDARD PROPRIETARIES ARE:

McKee's Ontario Cough Remedy,
McKee's Celerine Bitters,
McKee's Beef, Iron and Wine,
McKee's Family Aperient Pill,
McKee's Hair Invigorator.

These we can recommend as faithful and conscientious specialties in each case.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS carefully and skilfully compounded.

FAMILY RECIPES AND HORSE AND CATTLE MEDICINES made up accurately and at reasonable prices.

Prices will continue to be very moderate in all cases.

CONGRATULATIONS.

The following congratulatory lines have been received from Messrs. Parke, Davis & Co., the well-known American wholesale druggists:

DETROIT, Nov. 4th, 1892.

Mr. John McKee:—

SIR,—We have to congratulate you upon your enterprise and progressive spirit, inasmuch as our representattive in Canada advises us that your new quarters are conceded to be the finest in Canada.

PARKE, DAVIS & CO.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to take this opportunity of thanking my numerous customers for their liberal patronage during the past twenty-two years, and would solicit a continuance of their favours in the future. Your orders will be always appreciated, no matter how small, and you can rest assured that my constant aim will be to give my customers the most reliable goods at the most reasonable prices.

Determined to Preserve Order.

Jas. Moore, a young lad, was arrested in the opera house last evening at the instance of Manager Bradburn, who is determined to preserve order. At the police court this morning the young fellow was arraigned on a charge of acting in a disorderly manner in the opera house arcade. The prisoner was remanded to gaol, until to-morrow for trial.

Statute Labour Tax Payers.

A number of persons for neglecting to pay their statute labor tax were up before the police magistrate this morning. One offender maintained that as a member of the Equal Rights Association he could not consistently with his principles pay taxes. The magistrate however failed to recognize the claims of superidrity of the principles of the Association to the demands of the law, and imposed a penality of $5 and costs $7 in all. Two others paid their taxes, and still another duet were allowed to go on promising faithfully to pay in a day or two.

An Ingenious Carver of Wood.

There are some rare curiosities carved in wood on exhibition in the window of Mr. Wm. Morgan's, barber, George street. The articles prove Mr. Jas. Campbell, the youthful constructor of them to be more than a "jackknife carpenter." The curiosities consist of two pieces of pine timber about 3 feet long and carved on each of these are 28 fine wooden fans, all forming one piece and hewed with a jackknife only. There is also another curiosity in the shape of a fine fan carved out of only one piece of wood. Another wooden curio is a saw horse, saw and axe, all linked together and made from one piece. Several articles are also put together inside of bottles and they form an interesting study. Mr. Morgan has many fine views on exhibition also.

Hall, Innes & Co.'s Retiring Sale.

The well known dry goods establishment of Hall, Innes & Co. having decided to retire from business, will inaugurate a great clearing sale on Wednesday, Nov. 23rd. During the long number of years in which the firm has been in business this is the first clearing sale they have held, excepting at the time of the change of their business premises; therefore the public know that the present sale is a bona fide sale, and they can form their expectations accordingly. Everybody knows that this establishmant keeps in stock only goods of the best quality. The present stock is that placed for the regular fall trade, and includes many lines received direct from the makers in the old country. The stock is also complete in every department of their varied business—including general dry goods, dress goods, silks, millinery, mantles, curtains, carpets, etc. Remember this genuine retirement clearing sale begins on Wednesday, Nov. 23rd.

Bound to Keep His Position.

It has been, for the past year, quite settled that the stock of black dress goods carried by Mr. J. J. Sheehy bears comparison with any of the large stores in the cities. During the past few days Mr. Sheehy has been adding some novelties to his stock and would respectfully suggest to every lady the advisability of looking through his establishment before making any purchases, The goods are all new and come directly from the looms of the very best English, French and German manufacturers. As we have very often remarked when speaking of Mr. Sheehy's store, it is no trouble to show the goods,

HARRY LINDLEY

A Handsome Window.

Mr. Bert Shaw, clerk in Mr. J. J. Sheehy's drygoods store, has a reputation as a window dresser second to none. The window to the right of Mr. Sheehy's entrance is a model of taste, neatness and arrangement. It consists of an imitation of a large white marble pedestal, resting upon a solid heavy base. Very neatly arranged around are abundant quantities of mourning and second mourning goods, of rich texture and fine quality. The window is eagerly examined by all and many expressions of pleasure in regard to the taste and choice display are heard. Mr. Shaw will shortly furnish an innovation in the way of window decorations. It will be know as "An Oddfellows' Window."

The Late Mrs. John Sullivan.

Elsewhere is noted the death of Mary Cavanagh, relict of the late James Sullivan. The deceased lady since the death of her husband, which took place about two years ago, has resided with her intimate friend Mrs. John Doherty. Previous to that time she with her husband resided in Ashburnham, to which place they removed some seventeen or eighteen years ago from Douro where they were among the other early settlers. Mrs. Sullivan was possessed of qualities which made her highly respected wherever she resided, and her memory will be warmly cherished in the wide circle of friends she attracted to herself in her life of seventy four years. The funeral takes place from the residence of Mr. John Doherty, 378 Rubidge street on Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

AT OPERA HOUSE

Big Sale of Bankrupt Stock.

The purchasers of the large bankrupt stock of H. T. Brown, 588 Queen street, Toronto, have moved it to Peterborough and opened it out in the large store south of the arcade. The stock consists of a general assortment of house furnishings, tinware, fancy goods, etc,, amounting to nearly $8,000 and making five carloads of freight. It was bought at 40c. on the dollar, so there will be big bargains for all, especially as the owners wish to clear it out rapidly. Christmas buyers will do well to note this sale, as there are a great many toys and fancy goods among it, also a large assortment of dinner, tea and chamber sets, tinware, granite ware, cutlery, brooms, brushes, woodenware, etc., in fact anything you can mention. They were also compelled, in order to get a store large enough to hold the goods, to buy the dry goods stock of J. Dolan & Co. This line will be sold at any price to close it out. The store will be known by the sign of the "red flag," and the public are invited to call early, as the goods cannot be replaced when once sold. Note the address, south of the opera house arcade, sign of the "red flag."

THIS WEEK

Breach of the Liquor License Act.

The police magistrate this morning delivered judgment in the case of A. Rountree of the Commercial Hotel charged with selling liquor to a minor The magistrate said, "This information is laid under section 86 of the Liquor License Act and charges defendant with having sold or otherwise disposed of liquor to a person under 18 years of age. It appears that the liquor was supplied to a child 10 or 12 years of age on an order signed by the mother, and the question arises under such circumstances was the party liable. There is, so far as I can learn, no stipulation in the act justifying the delivery of liquor on an order of this kind. In the act passed by the Ontario Government at its last session in reference to the sale of tobacco to minors there is a clause permitting the sale to children holding a written request from the parent or parents. But in the Liquor License Act there is no such proof or legislation allowing the sending of young persons to bar rooms for liquor, and in view of the language of the act I find the defendant guilty and impose a fine of $10, without costs, which is the smallest fine that can be levied under the provisions of the act in a case like this.

Ashburnham Notes.

Mr. J. Throop, grocer, is moving from the old stand on Elizabeth street, where he has conducted business for some years. Having been a prominent man and a member of the village council, he will be very much missed. It is understood that he removes to Cobourg.

There was a good attendance last night at the special services conducted by Rev. D. Savage in Mark street Methodist church. An interesting meeting was held.

Harry as an Author.

Harry Lindley will shortly appear in a new role other than that of a comedian, viz., an author. For months past he has been diligently at work on a production of his own which will shortly appear in book form. The new volume, which is entitled "Many Scenes and Many Lands," is about three-fourths on the press now. It is descriptive of the various scenes, peculiarities and experiences of stage life, and covers a wide range of matter. Mr. Lindley is thoroughly qualified to write such an account, having been an actor for many years.

George Street Revival Services.

The revival services in the George street Methodist church which have been going on for some time past are increasing in interest and power, while many have expressed a desire to lead a new life. Last evening Rev. Mr. Locke spoke from the words "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shall be saved." At the close several members led in the exhortations. An opportunity was given the young converts to testify to their new experiences and hopes while many older Christians gave the new beginners words of encouragement and cheer,

New Books at the Mechanics' Institute.

The following new books have been put upon the shelves of the Mechanic's Institute. The directorate are taking great interest in keeping the library up to the times, the most important new books being added as soon as issued:—"Rambles around London Town," Matreaux; "Around and about Old England," Matreaux; "Light in Africa," J. McDonald; "Ireland under Elizabeth and James I.," Morley; "London under Elizabeth," Storv; "Seekers after God," Farrar; "White Feather," Tasma. Records of Tennyson, Ruskin and Browning—Ritchie. "Historical Geography of British Colonies—8 vols" Lucas; "From Darkness to Dawn," Farrar.

Living Proof.

This is an age of progress. While science is doing marvels for mankind, it also has its drawbacks. It is now almost impossible to secure unadulterated goods, and science in this direction is proving an injury to the human family. The only sure way to circumvent science in this respect is to accept nothing for the stomach that is not known to be pure and harmless. Messrs. Brown Bros intend to demonstrate on Saturday next the beauties of drinking nothing but pure tea and coffee, and using only the purest groceries. For this purpose they will place on exhibition in the western window of their large store on Hunter street, a living proof of the invigorating and health-giving effect of their goods, when taken continuously, unmixed with the products of other establishments. Mr. J. W. Brisbin, flour and feed merchant, will occupy the window from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m., during which time the public are cordially invited to examine him carefully and see for themselves what Brown Bros' groceries will accomplish. In this doubting age there is nothing like absolute proof, and the enterprising firm referred to mean to furnish this in abundance. 1d117

BEECHAM'S PILLS saves doctor's bills.

Do not be discouraged if other medicines have failed to give you relief. Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure acts on the "Kidneys" direct, combined, with a mild action on the "Liver" and bowels, thereby removing the cause of "Back Ache," sour stomach, dizziness, indigestion and constipation.

Simply Awful

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the Worst Case of Scrofula

they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, ten dollars! Just think of what a return I got for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

HOME FROM THE HUNT.

The Winch Party Shoot Ten Deer and Have a Capital Outing.

The remainder of the Winch hunting party, consisting of Messrs. H.C. Winch, Alex. Patterson, R. E. Wood and C. H. Winch, Montreal, returned to town at 10 o'clock last night. Their supplies arrived this morning. The hunters were quartered in tents at Jack's Lake in Methuen township, with Mr. John O'Clair as cook. Those who dined with us during our stay in camp" said Councillor Winch this morning "praised our meals highly; our larder was always well supplied with game and the meals well cooked. Visitors thought they were partaking of a spread served in the Rossin House, Toronto." The nimrods shot 12 deer in all, ten of them being run down by the 15 dogs which they had with them. Two other deer, run into the water by the dogs of W. H. Casement's party, were shot by members of the Winch party, and being honest sportsmen, they handed the slain over to their rightful owners. Seven inches of snow covered the ground one morning and another morning a coating of ice about an inch thick covered Little Jack Lake where members of the party had sat in their canoes the day previous watching for stags. Ducks were fair, partridge many and deer none too plentiful. One morning Mr. Winch while loading his gun had the surprise to see his firearm become discharged unawares. When locking the barrels, the cap of the cartridge struck the pin of the lock and off went the fowling piece. Happily no damage was done. The sportsmen had six canoes among their supplies. The slain deer comprised six fine bucks and four magnificent does.

"I am convinced of the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla, after having taken but a few doses"—this is what many people say.

NORWOOD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Y.M.C.A. had a business meeting last Tuesday night. There was a very good attendance. A resolution was passed favouring the removal of the Mechanics' Institute to the Y.M.C.A. building.

The council met last Monday night. Present—Councillors Stewart, Harrison and Cumming. The reeve was away on a business trip, and councillor Reynolds away hunting, so they could not be there. There were a few complaints. The delegation from the East Peterborough Agricultural Society requested the council to give a grant towards buying the additional land for the society, but no conclusion was arrived at.

A union thanksgiving service was held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday morning last. Short addresses were delivered by Revs. J. Carmichael, M. A., and W. Buchanan. On Thursday afternoon thanksgiving services were held in the Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Stevens, and in the English church conducted by the rector, Rev. J. Gibson. All these services were well attended.

The Fraser hunting party has returned. The lives of five deer were ended by this party. Some very large ones were captured.

S. S. Young of Trenton, was in town last week.

The concert given by the ladies of the Methodist church last Thursday evening was a success. The Rev. W. Buchanan occupied the chair. Prof. Canfield, of Belleville, delighted the audience with his singing. He will always be welcomed by a Norwood audience. Miss Fawcett, of Peterborough, distinguished herself. Her singing can hardly be surpassed in Eastern Ontario to the mind of the people of Norwood who are good judges. Miss Davidson, the lady club swinger so attracted the audience that a pin could have been heard drop. She carried away the laurels as a club swinger. Miss Cox, of Peterborough, also did some good club swinging. The singing of Mr. Collander was greatly enjoyed. The Norwood orchestra composed of Messrs. Hendren, Freeman, Fry and Miss Sperry kept up their well known reputation. Encores were of general occurrence.

The Presbyterian church gave a very successful tea and concert on Thanksgiving night. Mr. A. R. Anderson was called to the chair and after a short address by the himself, the Rev. Mr. Carmichael delivered a short address. The Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Hastings, also gave a very interesting address, Mr. Cummings delighted the audience with his singing.

Mr. H. G. Buck has been appointed recording steward of the Methodist church in place of his father the late Thos. Buck who held it for over thirty years.

A Sunday school convention for the purpose of organizing the townships of Belmont, Asphodel and Norwood was held in the Presbyterian church last Monday afternoon and evening. At the afternoon session W. E. Roxburgh, superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday school, occupied the chair. Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. Carmichael, whose topic was "The Sunday School: Its Place and Purpose;" Rev. J. McEwan, of Lakefield, spoke on "Organization of the Sabbath School," and Rev. D. A. Thompson, of Hastings, addressed the children. In the evening the chair was occupied by W. H. Stevenson, superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school. Addresses were given by Rev. J. McEwan on "Home Influence: its value to the school and scholar," Rev. D. A. Thompson spoke on "The Great Teacher; His example, characteristics and methods." The Rev. Wm. Buchanan who was to address the convention on "The preparations of the lessons of the class" was detained by illness. The officers elected were as follows:—President, W. E. Roxborough; Secretary-treasurer, C. N. Callandar; Executive committee, Dr. Ford and A. R. Anderson.

The anniversary service in connection with the Baptist church took place on Sunday and Monday last. On Sunday the Rev. W. Peer, a former pastor, occupied the pulpit and preached two very acceptable sermons. On Monday evening the teameeting took place. Rev. W. H. Stevens, pastor of the church, took the chair. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Peer, of Rodney, Pilkey, of Bailleboro, and Barker of Smith. The tea meeting was a success in all ways.

The Rev. Jas. McFarlane, of Rawdon, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday.

Dr. J. D. Berry, of Hastings, was in town on Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Nicoll is very ill.

Messrs. J. M. Jory and F. W. Truscott, of Trinity Medical College, and H. E. Ford, of Victoria College, spent Thanksgiving with Dr. Ford.

Miss Minnie McLachlan, of Smith, Miss Edith McLaichlan and Miss Mary Kirkpatrick of Havelock, spent Thanksgiving under the parental roof

Rev. Mr. Brown, of Havelock was in town on Monday.

The Port Hope Guide says:—We are pleased to learn that Mr. Howard Philp, who met with the accident on Saturday night, is in a fair way of recovery. An operation was performed on Monday and he has partially recovered consciousness since, and in a short time the doctors hope to have him around again.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Harry Lindley Produces "Queens" to to a Packed House.

Harry Lindley's new company appeared again at the opera house last evening. They were greeted by a house packed by one great mass of humanity from proscenium to gallery. The play "Queens" is a society play and an emotional romance. It was well put on by the different characters in the cast and ably sustained through all the four acts. The applause was frequent and well deserved. Miss Flint in the title roll acted with dignity and grace, and with that chic and abandon so characteristic of her in whatever role she plays. Harry Lindley as "John Henry Wilkins," was funny as usual. He needs no comment. Little Ethel Lindley's acting was acute and innocent, and much pleased all with its childish simplicity and grace. Mr. J. Chapman as "Lord Walter," at whom the hand of fate flings a severe cuff, and Mr. E. Lewis as "Lord Huntingdon" rendered a well qualified support. Miss Ida Palmer as Florence Nightingale Fletcher was full of business ideas and financial standings in the selection of her lovers, but in the end recants, weds only for love. To-night the company will again appear in the great sensational play "The Wages of Sin." On Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee.

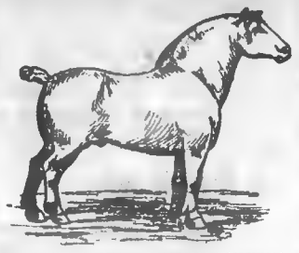
BITTERS.

According to researches made by Chevalier Hynderick, it is shown that Belgium possessed two pure equine races, the Ardennes horse, native of the valley of the Meuse, and the Frisian, a species of which inhabited the seacoast. From the union of these two breeds issued the Brabancon.

The draft horse in Belgium is generally divided into three grand divisions—the littoral, the Ardennes and the Brabancon.



BRABANCON DRAFT STALLION MOUTON.

Great care has been given here in the breeding of draft horses, which, excepting the Shire horse of England, are the largest draft horses in the world, finely proportioned, having excellent legs and feet.

The Ardennes horse, which is perfectly adapted to mountainous regions, is an excellent type of the light draft horse. This admirable little animal is, however, rapidly disappearing, owing to the fact that the Luxembourg farmers prefer the heavy draft horse, and the introduction of large, heavy stallions into the province from Brabant and Hainaut has almost completely transformed the breed. The exportation to Germany and Austria of the best stallions has also contributed greatly toward the disappearance of the stock. Ardennaise colts readily sell before they are a year old, the price varying according to their condition.

For several years much attention has been devoted to the improvement of the Brabancon horse. The line of the back is now much straighter, the rump longer, the neck and shoulders more proportionate and the legs large and clean. This animal, harnessed to one of the heavy carts of the country, weighing about 3,000 pounds, pulls on the level a load weighing from 8,000 to 10,000 pounds and works from eight to ten hours daily. This is now not only considered the best breed in the kingdom, but has almost completely absorbed all other; for this reason it has been necessary to change the classification of Belgian horses. The results of the exhibitions at Paris in 1878, Brussels in 1880, and Antwerp in 1885 prove that there are now no distinctly pure breeds in Belgium; there remains but two varieties—the heavy and light draft horse. It may justly be admitted that Belgium possesses a breed of horses especially her own; but naturally the issues of the race are subjected to many changes, according to the geological and climatic conditions under which they are placed, and also as to the food provided.

The special characteristics of the Belgian heavy draft horse are stature, form, strength and breed. The line of back is straight, the rump long, the legs large and clean. He has less bulk and strength than the Clydesdale or Shire horse, but is better bred and has more energy. He has more bulk and strength than either the Percheron or Boulonnais horse and possesses as much energy.

About 1850 the Belgian Government established at Tervueren a depot for stallions. This was not a stud, but simply an establishment where stallions were admitted, the number being limited to 65. Thoroughbreds, half-bred, three-quarter-bred, and a few Percherons were accepted, but no native stallions were admitted. The entire system was based on two false ideas—first, that a race could be created by crossing, and, second, that it was possible to obtain well-balanced issue from the thoroughbred and working mare. The result was of very little value; the mixed breed generally had the elegant fore quarters of the sire and the rump of the dam.

When the government stud existed, it yearly brought a certain number of stallions, which were collected in a central depot until the end of February, when they were distributed for gratuitous covering throughout the provinces until July. The cost per stallion per annum to the Government was about $400. The number of coverings averaged about 86 per stallion, which resulted in from nine hundred to one thousand colts. After the government stud was suppressed, horse-breeding was abandoned to private enterprise, encouraged by subsidies.

Since 1841 there has existed in the Belgian provinces regulations approved by the government for the improvement of the equine race: (1) To prevent breeding from stallions judged unfit to improve the equine race, as far as being destined to cover mares other than those of owner; (2) to institute a system of prizes and competition and of registration, to the profit of owners of stallions and mares.

Obligatory examination is enforced in all the provinces. Only stallions approved by a commission may be publicly employed. Encouragements offered are: (1) Local competition prizes for colts and stallions 3 years old, and from 4 to 9 years; (2) provincial prize for the best or the two best stallions, irrespective of locality; (3) registration prize accorded to stallions which at 5 years of age have obtained a first prize in the category of stallions from 4 to 9 years.

In the provinces of Antwerp and Liege the examining commission is limited to the estimation of the value of the stallions submitted for their examination and declarations as to fitness for breeding purposes.

In the province of Antwerp there are two prizes for each of the three meetings—first, $100; second, $68. In the province of Liege there are four prizes divided between four meetings of heavy draft stallions from 3 to 7 years of age. These prizes are paid by one-third yearly, and are as follows: First, $600; second, $360; third, $240; fourth, $180.

According to the last agricultural census (1880), the number of horses in Belgium amounted to 271,975—about 50 horses to every 1,000 inhabitants. There were 16,851 stallions and 152,968 mares.

The average selling price during 1890 and 1891 were: Stallions, $600 to $900; mares, $360 to $480; colts, $400 to $500.

SOCIALIST GATHERING.

THE MOVEMENT WILL NOT DEVIATE A HAIR'S BREADTH.

When One Falls Another Will Take His Place and Fill up the Solid Ranks of the Army of Labor—A Force to Be Reckoned on In the Future.

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—Herr Fischer, the secretary of the Socialist conference being held here, read a report on the progress of the party during the past year.

The report closes with a grim and suggestive list of the judicial sentences passed during the last 12 months upon members of the party.

The terms of imprisonment enumerated amount to more than 117 years and the fines a total of 25,500 marks.

The penalties, it was contended, have helped the cause rather than otherwise, as they have made it plain that social democrats are not treated on the same footing as other citizens.

However heavy the cost may be, the movement will not deviate a hair's breadth from the path which leads to its appointed goal, and when one falls another will take his place and fill up the solid ranks of the army of labor. The leaders of the party have already led their enthusiastic and self-sacrificing followers to victory, and they will do so again and again in the future until the last and final goal is reached.

This is probably the most pregnant passage in the report. It is the confession and sanction of the faith which lives in the social democracy of Germany and which renders it a force to be reckoned to-day and still more in the future.

Herr Bebel, in accounting for the management of the Vorwaerts, was compelled to defend himself from the charge of paying excessive salaries to the editors of that paper.

He declared that as employes of the Socialist party these editors had the same right as other workers to obtain the best possible condition of living.

Herr Bebel opposed the foundation of new Socialist journals or associations. He urged on financial grounds that the kinds of advertisements received by the Socialist organs should not be greatly restricted.

Exclusive of members of the Reichstag and the governing body the congress is attended by 231 delegates, several of whom are women.

Notice was given this evening of a motion to rescind the resolution adopted by the Socialist Congress of 1891 excluding independent Socialists from the annual meetings.

DAMAGE BY FLOODS.

Some of the Citizens Have Fled to Places of Safety.

ROME, Nov. 16.—Floods are causing a great amount of damage on the Island of Elbax. Several bridges on the main roads running across the island have been washed away.

One whole side of Mount San Giovanni is undermined and threatens to fall at any moment. If it does fall it will crush out of existence a number of houses lying at its base. The occupants of the threatened houses have fled to places of safety.

Evicted Tenants Commission.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The life of the Evicted Tenants Commission has been prolonged to January, when Parliament will resume its session. If Mr. Gladstone submits to the demands of the Irish party a bill will be introduced endowing the commission with power to reinstate evicted tenants on specified terms.

If the landlords refuse to accept these terms, then the commission will have power to compel them to sell their land to the commission.

None of the tenants now in occupation will receive any compensation. This is Mr. John Morley's scheme. The chance of such a bill getting united Liberal support is remote.

Poles Brutally Treated.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—A number of Russian Poles recently complained to Gen. Gourko, Governor-General of Warsaw, of the brutal treatment to which they were subjected by German overseers of factories.

Gourko has consequently ordered the owners of factories not to employ overseers unless they can speak the Russian and Polish languages perfectly.

In Memory of Theodore Child.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—Services in memory of Theodore Child, the magazine writer, who died from typhoid fever Nov. 2, at Julfa, Persia, were held at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the American church here.

Dr. Thurber delivered an eloquent eulogy. An immense number of flowers were placed about the church.

The STANDARD has always taken the lead over other companies in the effort to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life assurance. Its prompt and liberal settlement of claims has given it a world-wide reputation for generous, straight-forward dealing, and by its example has done much to do away with contesting of policies.

The New Free Policy of the Standard Life Assurance Company is given without extra charge; allows free residence in any part of the world, and is incontestable and unconditional except on the ground of false statements in the application, and that only during the first two years; after that it is absolutely free. This policy is simply a promise to pay a certain sum at the maturity of the contract, instead of having a number of useless clauses on the back of the policy showing what the insured may not do, and which always given rise to dissatisfaction and dispute, the STANDARD prints only on the back of the policy a list of special privileges granted to the assured.

FOR

FLAX-SEED EMULSION COMPOUND

BRONCHITIS

120 Lexington Ave.,
New York City, Sept. 15, 1888.

I have used the Flax-Seed Emulsion in several cases of Chronic Bronchitis, and the early stages of Phthisis, and have been well pleased with the results.

JAMES R. CROOK, M.D.

CONSUMPTION

Brooklyn, N.Y., Feb. 20th, 1888.

I have used your Emulsion in a case of Phthisis (consumption) with beneficial results, where patient could not use Cod Liver Oil in any form.

J. H. DROGE, M. D.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Brooklyn, N.Y., Dec. 20th, 1888.

I can strongly recommend Flax Seed Emulsion as helpful to the relief and possibly the cure of all Lung, Bronchial and Nervous Affections, and a good general tonic in physical debility.

JOHN F. TALMAGE, M. D.

GENERAL DEBILITY

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 20th, 1888.

I regard Flax Seed Emulsion as greatly superior to the Cod Liver Oil Emulsions so generally in use.

D. A. GORTON, M. D.

WASTING DISEASES

127 West 24th St.,
New York, Aug. 6, 1888.

I have used your Flax-Seed Emulsion Compound in a severe case of Malnutrition and the result was more than hoped for—it was marvelous, and continuous. I recommend it cheerfully to the profession and humanity at large. M. H. GILBERT, M.D.

A BAD NEIGHBOR.

Murders a Man While Gathering His Corn Crop.

DANVILLE, Ky., Nov. 17.—James Christman, a farmer living near High Bridge, this city, murdered his neighbor and old friend, George Woods, yesterday.

Woods was gathering his corn crop, when a charge of buckshot, fired by Christman, struck him in the stomach.

Christman then attacked his victim with a bowie knife, although Woods was in a dying condition and cut his head from his body. Christman then made his escape to the high-wooded cliffs.

Though apparently friendly Christman has borne ill-will towards Woods for some time, as the result of the murdered man having twitted him over some trivial matter, though Woods afterwards proved he had no malice against Christman.

FUSION ADVOCATED.

Grand Master Workman Powderly Believes in Political Strength for Progress

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—In the opening address of G. M. W. Powderly at the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor yesterday morning he spoke of the defeat of the strikers at Buffalo, Homestead and in Tennessee.

Mr. Powderly expressed the hope that if the lessons were carefully taken to heart the sacrifice may not have been in vain. There was more money illegally drawn from the manufacturers and workmen in one month than the country paid in tariff for a year. This should be considered by the workingmen.

They could decry politics, but they must be politicians. Mr. Powderly advocated affiliation with the Farmers' Alliance and similar organizations. He also recommended the organization of social and beneficial features, and in conclusion said he knew of nothing he had done during the year that he would not do over again.

The report of General Secretary and Treasurer Hayes of the Knights of Labor shows that including the balance on hand July, 1891, the total receipts have been $90,614.19 and the total expenditures $59,748.82, leaving a balance on hand July, 1892, of $865.37.

The report shows the membership has increased slightly during the past year and is now over 260,000. All the property including the general headquarters, some mining property in Indiana and other property, is fully paid for and foots up a total value of nearly $100,000.

Mr. Hayes congratulated the order on its financial standing, and expressed belief that all indications point to a bright future.

FOUR KILLED.

A Train Left the Track and the Engine and Thirteen Cars Were Hurled Into a Creek.

FARRELTON, Que., Nov. 17.—The construction train on the Gatineau Valley Railway ran off the track yesterday at Stag Creek, about six miles from here.

The track gave way just before the engine got on the bridge. The engine and 13 cars were hurled down into the creek.

Four men were killed, viz.: Engineer Saul Wilson, Fireman R. Meagher, Brakeman William Blakely and a boy, name unknown.

Reception to Ecclesiastics.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Last evening at the rooms of the Catholic Club, a reception was given to Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Satoli, the papal legate, and other church dignatries attending the conference of archbishops in this city. There was an immense attendance and the number of widely know personages who came to be introduced to the eminent prelates was to great to admit of naming them all.

President-elect Cleveland arrived at 9 o'clock. He was loudly cheered when he entered. The guests passed in a line before the ecclesiastics each exchanging a short greeting. Mr. Cleveland greeted the Cardinal and each of the Archbishops then passed down the hall in the line, occasionally stopping to shake hands with people who crowded about him.

The Bank of Montreal in London.

MONTREAL, Nov. 17.—It is understood here that Mr. C. Ashworth, agent of the Bank of Montreal in London, England, has been given leave of absence, and that while absent Mr. Alexander Laing, assistant general manager here, will take charge of the London business. This is considered there as settling the control of the London business of the Dominion Government.

Honoring the Great.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Lord Rosebery, the Foreign Minister, unveiled in the crypt of St. Paul's Church yesterday a marble bust of the late Sir John A. Macdonald, Prime Minister of Canada.

Lord Rosebery said the ceremony had nothing to do with politics. It was a recognition of the fact that Sir John had grasped the central idea that the British Empire was the greatest secular agency for good now known to mankind, and had striven to have Canada live under the influence of that idea.

A Dangerous Cold.

DEAR SIRS,—My little girl last winter had a very bad cold which almost resulted in congestion of the lungs. After doctoring with her for three months without success I tried Hagyard's Pectorial Balsam, and two bottles of it cured her. She is now strong and healthy.

COMPARED TO MARY MAGDALENE.

Who Had Supplicated for Mercy—Counsel in Deacon Case Review Evidence.

PARIS, Nov. 17.—The appeal of Mrs. Deacon from the decision of the Tribunal of the Seine, declaring she had no right to apply for a divorce from her husband and awarding the custody of the children to Mr. Deacon, came up in the first chamber of the Court of Appeals. Judge Perrivier presided. Mr. Deacon was present, but Mrs. Deacon did not appear.

M. Barboux, for Mrs. Deacon, charged that Mr. Deacon was a man of violent temper and that he neglected his wife. He further declared that for two years Mr. Deacon had studiously ignored his wife's liaison with Abeille, and refused to apply for a divorce because Mrs. Deacon paid the household expenses. On the night that Mr. Deacon shot and killed Abeille there had been no criminal intercourse between the latter and Mrs. Deacon. Deacon had consented that Mrs. Deacon should have two of the children. Mr. Deacon's present demand for his daughter was unreasonable, and was due simply to a desire for vengeance and to hatred of his wife.

M. Barboux claimed that Mrs. Deacon was justified in sequestrating her child until her appeal was heard and decided. She had taken the girl from the convent to prevent her husband sending her to America.

Barboux declared the attitude of Mrs. Deacon after the tragedy was comparable with that of Mary Magdalene, who had supplicated for sympathy. He asked that the court place the child in a convent and allow Mrs. Deacon to visit her weekly.

When M. Barboux had concluded M. Clunet, who appeared for Mr. Deacon, arose and addressed the court. He traced the history of Mrs. Deacon's liaison with Abeille from its beginning to the time Abeille was shot by Mr. Deacon at the Hotel Splendide. Maitre Clunet concluded his speech by declaring that a woman who behaved as Mrs. Deacon had done was not fit to have the custody of a child.

The court then adjourned.

TWEEDS, SUITINGS and OVERCOATS

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

TO EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being to positively clear out the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

A BANK OF HAMILTON FORGER WH GOT AWAY WITH $10,000.

Ontario Government Detective Murray Traces His Man to the Mexican Republic and Takes Him Into Custody—Will Be Brought Back via Bermuda.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—During the past few months the funds of the Bank of Hamilton have been relieved of between $40,000 and $50,000 by means of forgeries, one of the culprits being C. H. Davidson of the well-known nursery firm of C. H. Davidson & Co. of Burlington.

Two Pinkerton detectives have been in the service of the bank for some time endeavoring to bring about the arrest of the culprits, but without success.

The Attorney-General's Department was communicated with and Detective John Murray, who was given charge of the case, learned that Davidson was in Mexico. He started for that country, and a special despatch to this city received last evening announced the arrest of the forger at Ciudad Juarez, on the Mexican Central Railway.

Got Away With $10,000

Davidson did a large nursery trade and his dealings with the head office of the bank at Hamilton were on an extensive scale. He enjoyed the utmost confidence, and the paper presented by him purporting to bear the signatures of prominent farmers in the locality was accepted without question. When he suddenly departed some weeks ago, however, it was discovered that he had forged notes to the amount of between $9000 and $10,000.

Shortly after Davidson's disappearance his wife was observed to be preparing to join him, and it was by this means the authorities obtained the first inkling of his whereabouts, Davidson like many other criminals having sought this haven under the erroneous supposition that he could not be extradited.

Murray will take his man to Bermuda, where he will catch a steamer for Halifax; failing this he will journey with him to Liverpool and thence to Canada.

Another Forger Wanted.

While in Mexico Detective Murray will keep his weather eye open for another forger who also depleted the Bank of Hamilton's treasury, Henry Charles Aitken, formerly a private banker of Tottenham, whose forgeries, it now transpires, reached $30,000.

No trace has yet been received of George Pyke, the missing accountant of the Toronto branch of the Imperial Bank, but he is also believed to be in Mexico with the $10,000 he stole, including the package of $2300 that he purloined from the vault the day prior to his departure.

A FLAW IN THE CRANK PIN

Causes a Disastrous Wreck at the Toronto Waterworks.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—The Fates seem to be haunting the Waterworks Department these days. Within the last week or or so three or four accidents, more vexatious than serious, have happened. The culmination was reserved for last night, when a disastrous mishap occurred to the Blake engine at the power house, Esplanade, and some of the employes narrowly escaped instant death.

The engine was started up at 6.15 p.m. At 9.45 o'clock there was a sudden crash, the building shook as if by some seismic influence, and in a twinkling the engine-room was full of steam. When the doors were thrown open and the room cleared of steam it was found that the cylinder head of the high pressure engine had been blown out, while a gaping hole in the 12-inch western wall, large enough for a man to crawl through, told where it had found its billet. Strewn around were pieces of iron, steel and brick.

James Lynch, an employe of the Blake Manufacturing Co., and Mr. William B. Hall, assistant engineer of the Waterworks Department, were standing on either side of the cylinder just out of range when the accident happened. Had they been a few feet nearer they would have been knocked to pieces. Mr. George Inglis, who represents the George F. Blake Manufacturing Co., was standing near the piston rod. To say that they were all badly frightened is putting it mildly.

The cause of the accident was the breaking of the six-inch crank pin. When the pin snapped the connecting rod dropped. That brought the piston rod up against the front head, stripping the nuts. The steam carried the piston back, knocking the back head out. The latter weighed about 600 pounds, and the force that sent it from its place and through the brick wall was equal to 60,000 pounds. What the result would have been had any of the employes been in its way may be imagined.

No blame can be attached to anyone. The engine has been running off and on since September, and often at 10 revolutions faster, the rate last night being slow. A flaw running one-third through the crank-pin told the tale. It will take about a week to repair the engine and the damage is estimated at $2000 or $3000.

Engine No. 2, which was shut down at the time, was started up after Superintendent Hamilton had been apprised of the accident.

Balfour Won His Case.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The court has dismissed the petition against the return of Arthur J. Balfour. Balfour was awarded costs. The Liberals claimed that Balfour's agents had been guilty of corrupt practices.

Anarchists Captured.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The police made a raid this evening upon a number of houses suspected to be haunts of Anarchists. They succeeded in capturing several Anarchists and seized all the papers they could find.

THE DAY MURDER SEQUEL

THE WOMAN FOR WHOM HE KILLED HIS WIFE MARRIES.

Lizzie Brown of Trenton, Ontario, with Whom the Murderer Contracted a Bigamous Marriage Wedded by a Sidney Farmer.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—When Arthur Day was hanged in Welland jail on Dec. 10, 1890, for murdering his wife, nee Deborah Charleston of Syracuse, N.Y., by tampering her over the precipice at Niagara Falls in the previous July, he left a widow, having been married on July 12, 1890, 25 days prior to the murder, to Miss Lizzie Brown of Trenton, Ont. Day married Miss Brown under the name of Hoyt, and it was in consequence of wife No. 1 learning of the bigamous marriage that he decided to murder her. The facts in connection with his decoying the woman to the Falls with his sister Mrs. Quigley and of her subsequent murder are familiar to World readers.

After Day's arrest Miss Brown or wife No. 2 returned to her home in Trenton, and on Tuesday she was married to a respectable farmer of Sidney. The couple registered at the Walker House last evening on their honeymoon trip.

CRANE WILL NOT COME.

The Well-Known Singer Mysteriously Disappears From His Home.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—Word reached the city yesterday that Edwin C. Crane, the well-known baritone singer of Detroit, who was engaged to sing the bass part in the "Messiah" in Toronto during the coming winter, had mysteriously disappeared. Crane was chief clerk for R. G. Dun & Co. of Detroit and had only been married a few months.

As Crane owed about $,2000 it is believed he has fled to escape this embarrassment from music societies.

On leaving his office last Thursday morning he went to Coos's Turkish Bath house, where he spent part of the afternoon. There he met several of his friends, to whom he expressed his great delight at being engaged to sing the bass part in the "Messiah" at Chicago and Toronto during the winter. Thursday evening he ate supper at his home and after the servant went out quickly packed his trunks and sent them to the Michigan Central depot, where he bought a ticket and boarded a train for New York. Crane's mother lives in Liverpool, Eng., and it is thought that he has gone there.

NO HARD AND FAST PROPOSALS

Will Be Presented by the American Delegates At the Coming Conference.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The India Currency Committee, which it was supposed was expediting its decisions with a view to influencing the International Monetary Conference, adjourned yesterday until the conference is over.

This unexpected step is attributed to a design of the committee to assist the British delegates to the conference in evading a discussion on the position of the currency in India.

Concerning the instructions of the American delegates, the representative of the Associated Press learns that no hard and fast proposals will be presented by them.

A general statement advocating an international agreement will be laid before the conference, and this will lead to debate. The delegates anticipate that the result will be a report signed by the members adhering to the proposition for an international agreement.

The Belgian Minister of Finance, N. Bermart, will preside at the opening of the conference. He will afterwards deliver the presidency to Senator Montefiore Levi, whom the delegates have already agreed shall preside.

At the dinner given last night by Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, the delegates now in London met Lord Rosebery, the Foreign Minister; Lord Alfred de Rothschild, Sir William Houldsworth, the Governor of the Bank of England, and several other prominent financiers. Mr. Henry White, Secretary of the American Legation, was also present.

Col. Thomas Ochiltree took the ladies of the party to the opera.

The Homestead Strike.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Nov. 18.—Three hundred Slavs and Huns stampeded the Carnegie works for employment yesterday. Half this number were given immediate work and the balance will likely be placed soon.

The heads of the amalgamated association and the Advisory Committee of the strikers held a conference this afternoon. When the conference ended there was enthusiasm among the large crowd of strikers on the outside. Chairman Crawford of the Advisory Committee said the strike was still on.

President Garland of the amalgamated association had a large check cashed at the Homestead bank yesterday, and this caused much rejoicing among the strikers.

The Althorpe Murder.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The trial of Andrew George McRae for the murder of his paramour, Annie Pritchard, began yesterday before the Northampton assizes. The court room was packed with people.

The story of the crime, which is commonly termed the Althorpe murder, is the old familiar one of illicit love, followed by murder.

The body of the woman was cut in pieces, put in a sack and thrown into a ditch. McRae strenuously protested his innocence, and claims that Annie Pritchard is not dead but in Boston.

A Swindling Literary Bureau.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Mr. Labouchere's paper, Truth, yesterday contains an exposure on a literary imposture called the Boston Society, started by Dr. Albert Sturman and Sir Henry Valentine Goold, an impecunious Irish baronet, 89 years of age. Goold belongs to a family of some distinction in the County of Cork. The society has, it is alleged, been dispensing of worthless diplomas.

A Mysterious Disease.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Standard's Paris correspondent says that five employes in a brush factory at Port De Maroq, near Lille, have died in the past two days of a mysterious illness resembling the plague.

The victims had been engaged prior to their illness in sorting bristles imported from Persia. The factory has been closed.

A Long Foot Journey.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Times' Paris correspondent says that the Russian journalist, Michel Bernoff, arrived in Paris yesterday after a journey afoot from St. Petersburg by the way of Vienna and Munich. He started from St. Petersburg on [illegible] last.

A PATH 200 YARDS WIDE

A CYCLONE IN ILLINOIS CAUSES CONSIDERABLE DESTRUCTION.

Stone Buildings Offered No Resistance to the Strength of the Storm—One Boy Killed—Many Injured—A Funeral Started in Sabina.

RED BUD, Ill., Nov. 18.—At 3.30 o'clock yesterday a cyclone swept over this place, destroying 35 houses, killing a boy named Jacob Koch and injuring 15 other persons.

Two churches, the town hall and jail and a newspaper office were among the buildings levelled.

The wind-wave came in the midst of a driving rainstorm. The storm came from the south and cleared a path 200 yards wide through the town.

Some of the effects of the storm were marvelous. One house was literally lifted from the ground and scarcely a vestige of it left, while a neighboring residence seems to have escaped with comparatively little injury.

Stone buildings offered no resistance to the strength of the cyclone's fury. The fact was fully attested by the fate which overtook the solid stone residence of Peter Cardell. It was reduced to a shapeless mass as though it had been a tin house.

Entering from the south the cyclone first demolished the Catholic Church and school and the residence of Herman Drage. The German Lutheran Church was next levelled to the ground.

After destroying several barns and tearing away fences it struck the large two-story residence of Peter Kendall, which was of solid stone, and crumbled it to fragments.

Mrs. Kendall was severely injured. A brick house, occupied by D. D. Perry as a dwelling, office and composing room, was entirely destroyed. The family were buried in the ruins, but managed to extricate themselves without serious injury.

Peterson's agricultural warehouse was blown down and 14 other buildings were destroyed. The injured include the following.

Mrs. Jacob Koch, fatally; Mrs. Peter Kendall, Mrs. Peter Karden, Mrs. Louis Roger, Julius Hean, Mr. Heitman, Addee Starr, Miss Emma Crow, Mrs. John Maanderfeldt, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Perry.

Many of the people are without clothing and shelter and the cold rain makes their situation the more deplorable.

The property loss is estimated at $100,000.

STRIKES OF THE FUTURE.

In the United States Must Be Strikes for the Rule of the People.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 18.—General Master Workman Powderly, in his opening address to the Knights of Labor in general assembly, said:

"The strike of the future must be a strike for the rule of the people. We can decry politics, but we must be politicians. We may shirk our responsibility as citizens, but we are only piling high the wrath which follows neglect of duty. In a word, we must be law-makers.

"When we in the last extremity are driven close to the wall and deprived of right and privilege it is done through the law. If the law is defective a hirling judge can always be found to construe it in favor of the wealthy. If every citizen of Pennsylvania understood his rights; if he performed his duty under the law, no judge would dare to charge treason against workmen who struggled for recognition. The battle of the future must be fought on different lines from those which marked the past. These lines must diverge from and center at the ballot box. Not as slaves to party bent on obeying the will of a master, but as free men who value freedom and will maintain it."

A Suit For 15 Cents.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The old colony R.R. Co. has brought suit against C. S. Rockman for 15 cents.

The proceeding is a test case to determine whether or not a passenger is compelled to pay his fare when no seating accommodations are furnished.

An Ex-President Sued.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 18.—Ex-President Barrillas of Guatemala has been ordered by the courts to settle several claims brought against him, including a barber's bill. Barrillas is swearing vengeance against President Barrias, whom he blames for placing him in the unenviable position in which he finds himself.

Growing More Serious.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 18.—The smallpox epidemic at the General Hospital is growing more serious, and threatens to number all the patients now confined in that institution among its victims. Several new cases developed yesterday.

Two Children Burned.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Michael Bitti, an Italian fruit peddler, and his wife locked their two children, aged 2 years and 6 months, in the house. During their absence the elder child amused himself by pulling coals from the stove. The house was set on fire and both children burned to death.

A Disgusted Official.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 .—Auditor W. K. Ackerman of the World's Fair has tendered his resignation. Ackerman claims that thousands of tickets of admission to the Fair have disappeared.

Albert Edward is Not Ill.

LONDON, Nov. 18.— Reports of ill-health of the Prince of Wales are emphatically denied.

Western Progress.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 18.—At the approaching city municipal elections a vote will be taken on three bylaws providing for acquiring the waterworks, establishing a system of public parks and the building of a new bridge over the Assiniboine River.

An Acceptable Legacy.

HAMILTON, Nov. 18.—The late Elizabeth Green under her will left a legacy of $100 to be applied to the purchase of lounges and easy chairs for the inmates of the House of Refuge.

High-Priced Land.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Property 100, 102 and 104 Broadway and No. 1 Pine-street was bought by the American Surety Company for $1,040,000, equivalent to $17,648 a square foot.

Snowstorms in the West.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Severe snowstorms are reported in the Western States, with delayed traffic and wires down.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1892

A report just issued by the Bureau of Industries shows that the total sum standing out in loans due to the 71 loan companies doing business in Ontario is $104,365,000, an increase of a little over $6,000,000 as compared with last year and over $15,000,000 as compared with 1887. In the same report it is stated that there were chattel mortgages registered in Ontario to the amount of $7,491,000 in 1889; $8,978,000 in 1890; and $9,508,000 in 1891. The proportion of these chattel mortgages given by farmers is placed at $2,047,000, $3,233,000 and $3,097,000 in each of the three years.

A TERRIBLE DANGER.

Many sensible people express astonishment when told that bronchial consumption is a common disease. They are slow to believe, because ignorant of the existence of this terrible danger. The trouble originates from a cold which settles in the bronchial tubes, causing inflammation. With some the disease makes great headway, and is frequently fatal. Thousands carelessly neglect the little coughs and colds, waiting for time to bring a cure. These small and neglected colds bring on that fatal bronchial consumption. Sensible people make haste to rid themselves of all danger by using Harvard Bronchial Syrup. This grand remedy instantly dissipates every trace of disease that is liable to affect the throat and bronchial tubes. Harvard Brochial Syrup clears and streugthens the voice and imparts great elasticity to every vocal cord. It is now the family friend in thousands, of homes, and has done a most wonderful work in every variety of disease induced by colds.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines Dedicated to the Memory of Michael Cain, Who Died at His Residence, Township of Galway, on the 27th of Oct., 1892, Aged 72 Years.

Death is the common lot of all,
The king, the queen, the rich the poor,
The monarch on his throne must fall,
When death comes rapping at his door.

Such was the fate of Michael Cain.
He's gone and left this vale of tears,
A long life lived though not in vain,
He's now beyond all earthly fears.

God blessed him with a special grace
While in this transient vale below,
And now he's gone to sing the praise
Of God who did such favours show.

God blessed him since his bridal morn
With a quite numerous progeny—
Twelve children unto him were born,
And of grand-children thirty-three.

He in his youth had perils sore
And hardships unsurpassed;
Such Michael Cain had to endure.
But he conquered all at last.

In eighteen hundred and twenty-five,
When scarcely five years old,
He left his own dear native isle
For Canada's heat and cold.

He spent thirty-seven eventful years,
In Douro's wild domain,
And a wife and family now cheers
The home of Michael Cain,

In eighteen hundred and sixty-two,
In the prime of manhood's years,
He was the foremost of the few
Of Galway's pioneers.

His race is run, he's gone to rest,
We one more death enroll,
The earth has claimed its kindred dust.
But heaven claimed his soul.

For God's Word he never did defile
While on this vile earth he trod;
He has gone to receive in beautiful style
The wonderful mercies of God.

A loving husband, a parent kind,
As his daily life did show;
Although a true and faithful friend
He was a generous foe.

Weep not for him, oh, widowed wife,
Rejoice and do be glad
That he now enjoys a better life
And sings the praise of God.

Weep not for him, his children dear,
But follow in his path;
When o'er his grave you kneel in prayer.
Rejoice and read his epitaph:

"How strange, O God who reigns on high,
That I should come so far to die;
To leave my friends where I was bred,
To lay my bones with strangers dead;
But I have hopes when I arise
To dwell with them in yonder skies."

A HAPPY FAMILY.

A DEAR BOY IS RESCUED FROM DANGER!

A LOVING MOTHER TELLS HER STORY.

A Powerful Warning to Parents!

Few Canadian artists have earned a more thorough and lasting reputation as soloists and teachers of vocal music than Mrs. A. J. Lawrence. This lady graduated under a celebrated German professor of music.

Mrs. Lawrence is thoroughly familiar with the true Italian methods; she has however very advanced ideas, which are entirely in keeping with true progress in the divine art. She has adopted many of the best rules and methods of the most popular masters, therefore enabling her to give pupils the best and most improved culture in the formation of tone and technique, which are essential in finished and artistic singing.

Although busily engaged from day to day in the grand and noble profession of music, Mrs. Lawrence devotes all necessary time and attention to a very interesting family with which God has blessed her. The light of her eye is the first to rise, and very often the last to set in her home. As a mother she has that enduring tenderness for her children that transcends all other affections of the heart; and as the tendrils cling close to the vine, so in like manner do the Lawrence children cling to a dear and loving mother. Mrs. Lawrence' power for good is not wholly confined to her home; this power reaches forth and takes in all good and noble works of charity.

MASTER JAMES LAWRENCE.

Mrs. Lawrence, a few days ago, quite unsolicited, sent to the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound a most interesting and very flattering testimonial in favor of Canada's renowned and popular medicine. A testimonial coming from such a source conveyed the idea that a wonderful cure had been effected. Of course the testimonial was sufficiently pionted and full of meaning; the heartfelt and thankful words indicated plainly that disease and trouble had been effectually banished. Notwithstanding the strong and forcible declarations, it was deemed advisable to send one of our representatives to interview the lady.

Mrs. Lawrence was found at home and at leisure last evening, and received our representative with great cordiality and kindness, and was quite willing to speak about her dear boy's recovery from a most serious and dangerous disease.

Mrs. Lawrence informed our representative that her object in writing a testimonial and letter of thanks was done with a view of benefitting others who were now vainly looking to other agencies and medicines for a cure. Her boy had suffered from Eczema for nearly five years, the trouble showing itself principally on the hands and wrists. All that science and medicine could command, had been tried from time to time with but little success; the irritating and dangerous malady seemed to cling with an enduring tenacity that baffled every endeavor to eradicate it. For a long time she feared that the treacherous disease would assert its power in other complicating ways, and that her boy would grow up disfigured and bearing a great and heavy burden.

Mrs. Lawrence said her attention was peculiarly drawn to Paine's Celery Compound, and the wonderful results that came from its use in her father's home. She therefore decided to have her boy use it, and test its powers in a serious case of Eczema.

Mrs. Lawrence seemed enthusiastic when speaking of the grand work that followed the use of Paine's Celery Compound. She declared that her most sanguine expectations were more than realized, as every trace of trouble had been rooted out, and her boy's general health was better than ever before.

Our representative had the pleasure of a talk with Master James Lawrence, who is a handsome and bright lad of almost ten years. The little fellow joyously said, when asked to show his hands and wrists, "Oh, they are all right now; Paine's Celery Compound cured me!" Not a trace of disease, nor any mark of trouble could be seen; the skin was natural, soft and ruddy, and had the glow of perfect health.

Mrs. Lawrence expressed the hope that parents would give greater attention to these distressing skin troubles that has heretofore been given. She believes firmly that Pain's Celery Compound is the only medicine in the world that give satisfactory results and brings a perfect cure. She has kindly permitted us to publish her letter of testimony, and also allowed us to use her boy's portrait. Under date of October 28th, 1892, Mrs. Lawrence writes:

"I am very much pleased to inform you of an interesting cure wrought by Paine's Celery Compound in the case of my little boy.

"For months past I have been pained to see his hands disfigured with eczema, which at times caused him much suffering.

"The grand results attending the use of the Compound by my father last spring prompted me to test its qualities with children. To my exceeding great joy I could see a marked improvement after a short course of treatment, and in a few weeks after there was no trace of the disease to be seen about him; at the same time his general health and appetite have been improved. Seeing that experienced mothers often informed me that my boy would always have this disease to annoy him and to suffer from, it affords me all the greater pleasure to inform you of the cure."

As announced in previous issues of this paper, the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound are willing and anxious to do a good work among a class of worthy people who are suffering, but who have not the means of procuring the great medicine. Wonderful results are reported from all quarters; and hundreds of estimable people are being rescued from disease and death. This mode of reaching poor but worthy sufferers is commended by our best clergymen and others, and will be continued without regard to cost. To obtain the benefit of the great free offer it is only necessary to send in a recommendation from a clergyman, mayor, reeve, justice of the peace or postmaster. Address the Wells & Richardson Company, Montreal.

MINING AND THE MINERAL WEALTH OF ONTARIO.

The Ontario Bureau of Mines, recently established under the Ontario Government, has issued its first annual report. It is a comprehensive document and contains a good deal of valuable information. Some of the statistics are very striking, and give a good idea of the vast mineral wealth of the province of Ontario. The following summary will be found very interesting:—

Building stone, value $1,000,000; cost of labor, $520,000. 42,211 barrels of cement, including 2,033 barrels of Portland cement, the first produced in Ontario in commercial quantities, valued at $44,501 with a labour charge of $23,400. 2,350,000 bushels of lime valued at $300,000, and a labour cost of $116,000. 160,000,000 common brick worth $250,000; at a cost of $405,000 for labour, seven establishments produced 12,647,909 pressed brick, 570,000 fancy brick, 400,000 roofing tile besides a quantity of terra cotta, the whole valued at $156,000, with a charge for labour of $53,809. 8,875,000 tile worth $360,000, and costing $70,000 for labour. Pottery ware $45,000. 5,350 tons of gypsum valued at $12,200, with a charge for labour of $5,500. The phosphate mines yielded 4,900 tons valued at $50,800, the labour costing $20,500. 44,167 tons of salt worth $157,000. Mica 240 tons, raw and manufactured, valued at $31,200, with a wage bill of $14,262. The nickel mines produced 85,790 tons valued at $324,240, with $322,201 for wages. Silver 14,925 tons valued at $96,475, while the wages amounted to $100,278. Of gold ore 2,000 tons were raised, but particulars are not given. Only 200 tons of iron ore are reported, but operations in this line are expected on a larger scale next year. The output of petroleum amounted to 94,647 barrels valued at $1,209,558.

The new mining act provides two ways of dealing with those engaged in mining, either by issuing patents in fee simple for the mining properties, or by lease. In 1891, $117,514 was received from sales, and $4,886 for first year's rents. Under the new act prices range from $3.00 to $4.50 per acre in the district north of Lake Nipissing, and from $2 to $3 in the district south of Lake Nipissing and the French and Mattawa rivers. Under the leasing clause, mining lands north of Lake Nipissing and the French and Mattawa rivers, may be acquired at the rate of $1 per acre for the half year, and 25 cents per year thereafter, and in districts south of those waters at 60 cents per acre the first year and 15 cents per year thereafter. The rates of royalty provided for are three per cent on silver, copper and nickel, not exceeding two per cent on iron, and not exceeding three per cent on all other ores of metals, calculated upon their value at the pit's mouth.

EXTRAORDINARY

SALE OF LAMPS, AT CHINA HALL!

Nothing like it ever known before in the Town of Peterborough. An oppertunity of a life time to procure a beautiful Lamp at LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

On Saturday, November 19th, we will have on exhibition all that we can display at one time—a full car load of 110 cases and casks of the very newest and prettiest Lamps in the markets of the world, bought at 50c. on the dollar and marked at a very slight advance over cost. We will devote both show windows and the whole of one side of China Hall for the display of Samples and what we cannot show there will be on exhibition up stairs—take the elevator.

We never do things by halves and when we assert that this sale is to be an event in the history of China Hall. We intend to carry it out in a way that will meet with your approval and leave a lasting impression on the Lamp trade of Peterborough. Therefore, on Saturday, Nov. 19th, we invite your inspection of these goods. You will probably never have seen so many beautiful Lamps in a single collection before. Nothing but the price would ever have tempted us to buy so many, and we trust to the price to clear them out quickly.

Don't miss the oppertunity of buying a lovely lamp cheaply. Don't miss the opportunity of seeing the designs whether you wish to buy or not.

A Night Runaway.

A rather exciting runaway occurred on George street last night soon after 8 o'clock. A horse belonging to Mr. Edward Elliott of Smith, and attached to a democrat wagon, was left standing in the Morgan House yard when by some means the animal managed to break its bridle, and when once freed started down Hunter street and up George at a furious pace. The runaway was captured near Mr. John Fawcett's residence at Hilliard's mill. No damage was done to the vehicle.

Norwood Thanksgiving Concert.

The EXAMINER has been favoured with an extended report of the Thanksgiving concert held in the Methodist church, Norwood, which was referred to in our Norwood correspondence yesterday:—A most enjoyable and pleasing concert was given in connection with the Methodist church in the town hall, Norwood, on Thanksgiving Day evening. Miss Sperry, organist of the church, presided at the piano with great acceptance. Little Maggie Cox, daughter of Mr. Aaron Cox, of Peterborough, gave a very exhibition of club swinging, as did also Miss Davidson, of Peterborough. Mr. C. N. Callendar, the efficient principal of the model school, sang with his usual taste and expression. Prof. Canfield, of Belleville, gave two very fine recitations in good form and also pleased the audience much with several songs. The feature of the evening was the singing of Miss Annie Fawcett of Peterborough, who is known to Norwood audiences as Peterborough's star singer, and is always particularly welcome at Norwood. She gave "White Wings," "The Fairies," with "My Sweetheart's the Man in the Moon" as an encore afterwards and "Dolly's Revenge," being accompanied in the latter two songs by Mr. Fred Clark, of Peterborough, at the piano. Miss Fawcett's singing literally brought down the house, calling fourth rounds of applause and encores each time she appeared. The concert was a great success.

HARRY LINDLEY

"The Wages of Sin."

There was a crowded house at the opera house last night to witness the excellent proputction of "The Wages of Sin," by the Harry Lindley Company. The play was sensational and intensely interesting in its plot and various parts. The different members of the company ably represented their respective roles. To-night the company produces the sensational comedy drama "Broke Gaol." On Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee entitled "Chic."

Wedding Bells.

Last evening about 5 o'clock a number of young people assembled at St. Andrew's manse, the occasion being the wedding of Mr. Reynold F. Myers, of Rawdon township, county Hastings, to Miss Maggie McWilliams, of Peterborough. The important ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. MacWilliams, pastor of St. Andrew's church. Mr. Thomas Church and Miss Mary McWilliams, sister of the bride, acted well the part of groomsman and bridesmaid. The newly married couple intend making Peterborough their home.

AT OPERA HOUSE

Ashburnham Airings.

Mr. H. S. Armstrong intends moving to the village into a few days. He will occupy the premises vacated by Mr. J. Throop.

The special meetings in the Mark street Methodist church are progressing encouragingly. A large number of strangers were present last night, and took part in the services. A number of young people arose and gave in their personal testimony for the first time to begin a Christian life. There will be no meeting to-morrow night, but a rallying meeting is arranged for Sunday, and every night during next week.

The Protest Allowed.

The protest against the result of the Company match in the 57th Battalion rifles matches which was entered by "E" Company, Capt. Millar, came up before the battalion rifle committee last night. It will be remembered that "B" Company, Lieut. Schofield, won the prize. The protest was allowed in a technicality. In "B" Company's team of 10 men, a staff-sergt was one of the number and according to regulations no staff-sergt is allowed to shoot in a company match. "E" Company's shooting team however was composed of five members of the band. The match will be shot over again between "B" and "E" in a few days, weather permitting.

THIS WEEK

More First Class Wind Mills Erected.

Mr. Geo. McWilliams has during the last week erected two more of his noted "Queen" wind mills. He put up one for Mr. Geo. Greer, of Burkton, and another for Mr. John Aldrid, of Pontypool. They were both provided with two frost proof tanks each, and automatic regulating apparatus. The customers are receiving all the satisfaction they have a right to expect from the popular "Queen" wind mill, which wherever erected has met with such popular favour from the purchaser. These are so arranged that as soon as supply tanks are filled with water, the mill is by its own special mechanism thrown out of gear, there being no necessity whatever to shut off the mill, which by its own automatic process does the work itself. Mr. John Couch, the able foremen of Mr. McWilliams, and in fact everyone connected with the manufacture of these machines, have the satisfaction of knowing that they are engaged in manufacturing the best mills made.

A Lime Light Memorial Service.

A lime light service was given at the Salvation Army barracks last evening. It was well attended, about 300 persons being present. After the usual muster and parade, the soldiers returned to the barracks where Staff-Capt. McIntyre, who conducted the service throughout, gave a short opening address. He said the service was in commemoration of the death of Mrs. General Booth, the great mother of the Salvation Army. It would partake of the same nature as the memorial service given in the Crystal Palace, London, in honour of Mrs. Booth and attended by some good spectators. The lime light was not intended for an exhibition merely but to impress and inspire all with sacred thoughts and blessed memories. The first picture presented on the large white canvas which stretched between two pillars at the rear of the barracks was an excellent likeness of Mrs. Booth and one of General Booth. For an hour and a half views were thrown upon the canvas, clear and sharp, affording those present a very enjoyable treat. The tomb of Mrs. Booth, a photograph of her on her death bed, and in various pulpits which she occupied, were presented. Several hyms were shown on the canvas, and those present requested to join heartily in the singing. Views from the Bible, sketches and incidents from the life and sayings of Mrs. Booth were also presented, as well as many Scriptural quotations. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the Doxology.

Arrested for House Breaking.

Albert Green, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested to-day charged with feloniously entering the house of Mr. William Fitzgerald, Dalhousie street on the night of the 10th inst. The prisoner will receive his trial this afternoon. It is altogether probable that he will plead guilty to the charge. He acknowledged, and so did Wm. Bradley also, to the Chief to-day that they had entered the house of Mr. Fitzgerald with intention to steal.

A Soft "Sit."

Mr. J. W. Brisbin, flour and feed merchant, is not an office seeker, but he will drop into a soft "sit" on Saturday, when he will occupy alternately two splendidly upholstered chairs in the western show window of Brown Bros.' Grocery shop, Hunter street. He will be, the "cynosure of every eye observed or all observers," and the public who in thousands will assemble to gaze upon him as he exhales the fragrant smoke of the Havana, will behold a living example of a healthy citizen nourished upon the superb groceries supplied by Brown Bros. It isn't nice to call names, but the thousands to-morrow will see in Mr. Brisbin "ocular demonstration," "proof positive," "a living example." He will vouchsafe the light of his countenance from 9 a.m. till 6 p.m. 1d

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The pork trade is rather dull at present. Dressed hogs are worth $6 to $6.25 per hundred, while hogs, live weight, fetch $4.00 per hundred.

—The Harry Lindley Company will play at Belleville two weeks and from there they will go to Kingston where they will show for four weeks.

—The large fine mastiff pup nearly a year old belonging to the Snowden House died this morning from distemper. The canine was a great favorite.

—All the employees in Matthews pork packing establishment, by a strange unanimity each took out an accident policy in the Manufacturers Company last week.

—A number of Peterborough gentlemen have received invitations and will attend a fine ball to be given at Lindsay this evening by Midland Lodge, No. 37, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

—To-morrow afternoon the tenders for cleaning the sidewalks of snow in the north and south districts of the town by means of snow ploughs will close. A number of tenders have been handed in.

—All the members of the Young Women's Christian Association who are desirous of joining Miss Sutherland's classes in physical culture, are requested to meet at the rooms on Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

—Mr. John McKee, druggist, is having a fine office fitted up to the rear of his front shop. It is neat, comfortable and well lighted. The office is seperated from the dispensing room by a handsome glass partition.

—The music furnished at the opera house every evening is worthy of mention. Mr. Herbert Wiley is the clever and expert violinist, while Mr. Jas. Welsh's piano playing deserves mention. Both musicians belong to the Harry Lindley Company.

—A horse attached to a phaeton in which two ladies were seated, dashed down George street at a furious pace yesterday afternoon. Many thought that a runaway was inevitable, but the occupants of the carriage, however, did not seem in the least alarmed.

—All was peace and stillness at the opera house last night in contradistinction to the shouting, whistling and yelling formerly heard from the gods. Mr. Bradburn's lesson to some of the offenders has had an effect which the opera going public will appreciate.

—Victoria County is now struggling with its fall session of the council. Peterborough gets along swimmingly—keeps her head above water—on two sessions a year. Why couldn't Victoria do the same and save enough money to pay her share of maintaining the boundary bridges.

—Mr. J. W. Brisbin will shortly inaugurate a new system of advertising his business. He will in a few days have a public pie eating contest. All may see and every one take part if they so desire. The first prize will be 100 lbs. of flour, the second 50 lbs., and the third 25 lbs. The event is anxiously looked forward to.

—It is now learned that the necktie and brass watch found in Mrs. Eliza Brown's residence after the house-breaking episode of Thos. Tully and Wm. Bradley, belonged to Mr. Fred Might. Another necktie found in the possession of the prisoners belongs to him. Circumstances now show that the youthful culprits had broken into Mr. Might's father's house on London street and stolen these articles before bursting into the house of Mrs. Brown.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Silsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend these benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Cents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, Nov. 18th, 1892.

At the police court this morning a ratepayer was charged with neglecting to pay his statute labor tax. The Magistrate told the offender that he would enlarge the case until Monday next when if he paid it would cost him $2.10 cts but if not he would impose a fine of $5.

Three young boys named Michael Daly, Jas. Moore, and Fred Whitecroft were charged by Manager Bradburn with creating a disturbance in the opera house on Wednesday night. The magistrate lectured the juvenile disturbers of the peace, and said he knew they were a nuisance to the public. They had no business hanging around the arcade and stairways interfering with the citizens. He allowed them to go on their promising to keep away and not molest any one further. The boys promised to go to school and were dismissed with a caution.

THEIR NEW SECRETARY.

Reception Tendered Miss Barker by the Young Women's Christian Association Last Night.

The handsome and inviting rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association were well filled last evening by the members of the association and their numerous friends to extend a cordial welcome and united reception to Miss L. Barker, of Smith, the newly appointed permanent secretary of the association. Rev. J. E. Trotter, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church, presided in a very creditable manner. The evening's proceedings were opened by the three hundred ladies singing in a grateful voice "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow." After the singing of a hymn Rev. A. MacWilliams, pastor of St. Andrew's church, led in fervent prayer.

Rev. Mr. Trotter gave a stirring opening address congratulating the Young Women's Christian Association on its prosperity and constant growth. He extended a hearty welcome to those present and spoke of the benefits and blessing accruing from such an organization. The association was fortunate in securing the services of Miss Barker as general secretary. He spoke of her earnest Christian character and the noble work she had done for the cause of Christ. Miss Barker was a bright, genial and obliging young lady, and could not help creating a favourable impression with all whom she came in contact with. He wished the new secretary every success in her work, and position. At the close Mrs. Hunter favoured the audience with a solo, sang with good effect. Rev. Mr. Edwards, pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church followed in a thoughtful address on "Women's influence in a practical age." He spoke on the various movements made by women for the furtherance of Christ's kingdom, and dwelt upon the fact that everything to be successful should be practical. A piano and violin duet followed. It was rendered splendidly by the Misses Edmison and was well received. Brief but pointed and earnest addresses were given by Mr. Geo. J. Early, President of the Young Men's Christian Association, and Mr. W. H. Chapman, General Secretary. They spoke of the success of the Y.W.C.A. movement and hoped it would result in much spiritual benefit and good for womanhood. On behalf of the Y.M.C.A., they promised any assistance or co-operation they could render in its work or movements. Mrs. Brodigan then furnished a solo in excellent voice. Miss Campbell, of Cobourg, gave a recitation, "The Bridge over the Tay." It was admirably presented and proved the reciter to be an elocutionist of splendid ability. At the request of Miss Baker, secretary, Rev. Mr. Trotter, spoke in her behalf thanking the members and officers of the association for their kindness and attention. He hoped for her the heartiest well wishes and united co-operation of all Christian workers. He was assured that she would succeed and prove a great blessing to the Association, although the work and experience were new to her.

Social intercourse filled in an enjoyable half hour. Interspersed with the addresses appropriate hymns were sung. At the close the new secretary was made acquainted with all present, and created a favourable impression. The evening's programme closed at 10 o'clock.

SPORTSMEN BACK AGAIN.

The Fitzgerald and Carey Hunting Parties Return Home.

The Fitzgerald hunting party after a two weeks' trip, returned home last night. The party consisted of a quartette composed of Messrs. Tobias Fitzgerald and J. D. Collins, town, J. J. Howarth, Toronto, and Rev. S. J. Shorey, of Napanee. The latter two huntsmen left last week, leaving Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Collins to hunt the deer a few days alone. The party did not take any canoes or hounds with them, but "still" hunted all the time. They slew six fine deer, including four bucks and two does. The largest buck tipped the the beam at 185 pounds. The hunters boarded at the house of Mr. Wm. Gallina, in Anstruther township, who comfortably and obliging provided them with all their needs. Deer were somewhat scarce, but partridge which were numerous kept under the bushes owing to the tempestuous weather. The slain stags were on exhibition at Mr. Fitzgerald's livery stable this morning and were examined by a large number of people.

The Carey-White party of Havelock, were also quartered at the same place as the Fitzgerald contingent. They numbered five and were successful in killing three deer by "still" hunting only.

THE CATTLE HORN-FLY

The Latest Insect Pest that is Bothering the Canadian Farmer.

The new enemy of the Canadian farmer seems to have received more attention than is usually the case with insect pests. An illustrated bulletin (No. 14. of the Central Experimental Farm series) has lately been prepared by Mr. Fletcher, Dominion Entomologist. From this bulletin we find that this pest was introduced into America by stock imported from Europe about five years ago. For three years it has caused considerable trouble and loss to stock-breeders in the United States. It has now reached Canada, and the above bulletin, which is distributed free to all who ask for it, gives a short account of it and the best remedies to apply.

Many inaccurate and exaggerated statements of the injuries done by this insect have received wide circulation. These fictitious accounts generally took somewhat the following form: That several head of stock (seven was the favorite number) had been killed by the maggots of the fly, and these latter had accomplished their work either by boring into the horns and then into the brain of the animals, or by eating their way through the skin into the vital parts. It is shown that these accounts are all unfounded and that as far as known the maggots feed only upon the liquid portions of fresh manure.

The injury done by this insect to stock consists in the loss of milk and flesh due to the constant irritation from its bites, and no single instance has been found of an animal being killed.

The remedies are of two kinds, preventive and active. 1. The former prevent injury to the animals by keeping the flies from a, Egg; b, maggot; c, puparium; d, adult fly in biting position—all enlarged.

biting them. 2. The latter have for their object the destruction of the insect in the perfect or larval condition.

For preventive remedies, any greasy substance, it is stated, applied to the parts most liable to attack, will keep the flies away for several days. Lard, axle-grease, train oil, tanner's oil, and in fact any cheap oil is recommended, and it is suggested to add a small quantity of sulphur, carbolic acid or oil of tar. Smearing the horns with tar simply repels the flies from the horns where they were merely resting and drives them to other parts of the animal. Kerosene emulsion, consisting of a mixture of soap suds with twice the quantity of coal oil, which is then reduced with nine times its quantity of water is highly recommended.

The active remedies are directed especially to prevent the insect from breeding, by rendering the cattle droppings unfit for the maggots to live in them. This can be done by throwing lime, wood ashes or any dry dust on them, or better still, by spreading them out so that they dry up or are washed away.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

Delay is Dangerous.

When the kidneys are out of order delay is dangerous. Any disease may follow and become so well established that months of suffering will follow. A gentle tonic like Dodd's Kidney Pills is alway acceptable to the kindeys and potects them from disease. They are a kidney food. dw

The joints and muscles are so lubricated by Hood's Sarsaparilla that all rheumatism and stiffness soon disappear. Try it.

Poultry in Canada.

The value of poultry imported into Great Britain, in an average of the three years, 1888, 1889, 1890, was $2,223,845 annually. The average from Canada during those three years was $1,600. Is it possible to sell poultry at a profit in the English market? Smith Falls has the largest poultry market in Canada, before Christmas time. The price last year of turkeys there, in December, was from nine to twelve cents per pound; and price at Liverpool for turkeys dressed, was twenty-one to twenty-six cents per pound. The freight to Liverpool is from one and a quarter to one and a half cents per pound. Mr. Dawson, of Brampton, has made his fourteenth annual shipment, and they have arrived in good condition and sold at a profitable price. I have a letter from Messrs. Thomas Bothwick Co., who are said to be one of the largest dealers in this particular line of product in Liverpool:

"We beg to inform you that the large consignment of Canadian turkeys received by us at Christmas, and which were packed strictly in accordance with the instructions you sent out to the shippers, arrived in good order, and met with a ready sale at what must have been remunerative prices to them. We beg to point out that, if turkeys of good quality, and shipped according to your directions, should arrive at the proper time next season, there is practically unlimited demand for them, as we have introduced them, not only into Liverpool, but to all the large towns with which our business is connected, viz., Manchester, Birmingham, Sheffield, Oldham, Rochdale, Leeds, Leicester, Wolverhampton, Hull, Bradford, Cardiff, Bristol, Glasgow, Edinburgh, and other large centres in population in Yorkshire, where they have met with great favor. With careful feeding, packing and forwarding by fast steamers, they would be a formidable rival to turkeys from the continent, and, indeed, be a formidable rival to the home article. We cannot help thinking, after the experience gained in dealing with Canadian turkeys, during the last two years that, properly handled, a large development of this trade may be confidently looked forward to."—From an address at Toronto, by Prof. Robertson.

DR. L. A. SMITH & Co.,
536 Bloor St., Toronto:

GENTS,—Please ship us per G.T.R., freight prepaid, three (3) gross more of your Anti-Dandruff. This makes six gross or 864 bottles purchased from you since January 16th, 1892, a little more than two months. The large demand is due to the merits of the preparation, as our customers to whom we have sold it certify. We find it not only removes the dandruff and scurf, but it is an elegant hair-dressing for the hair. Clean to use and has an agreeable odor. It is one of the best preparations we know of to promote the growth of the hair and pevent its falling out. Wishing you continued success and an extended sale, we remain,

Yours truly,

GLADSTONE'S OPINION

Gladstone says: "You know a good deal about the position of an Insurance Company when you know

Its Date!

Its Income!

Its Accumulations!

From the relation of these three, one to the other, you know pretty nearly the state of the Company."

Gladstone would place

THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

At the head of all Canadian Companies—for it is by far the oldest Company. Its Income is about two and one-half times greater than that of an other Canadian Company, and its Assets are greater than the combined Assets of all other Canadian Companies, as shown in the following diagram

A KNOTTY QUESTION
Which can only be Solved after Mature Deliberation.

Every father and mother, before buying Boots and Shoes for their children, should hold a consultation together and try and arrive at an answer to the following questions:
1. What kind of boots do we want?
2. Are any to be got that will wear well?
3. Who keeps this kind?
4. Are these people reliable?
5. Can they afford to sell good boots cheap?

Having carefully analyzed these questions to their satisfaction, why not decide to buy

THE RURAL VOTE.

To Claim the Attention of the Socialist Party in Germany.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The most interesting feature of the Socialist Congress, says the Berlin correspondent of The Times, is the universal demand for more active propaganda among the rural population of Germany, the number of Socialist seats in Parliament failing to represent the real strength of the party. In the last election for members of the Russian Diet the ultramontanes with a smaller aggregate poll, got 100 seats to the Socialists' 35.

The Socialist voters were massed in the great cities and industrial districts, while the Centrists represent widely scattered agricultural votes. It is not surprising therefore that the speakers at the Congress have dwelt upon the necessity of an organized attack on the rural constituencies.

BRITISH FEDERATION APPROVED.

An Essential Principal Would Be a Unity of Voice in Dealing With the Foreign Powers.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Council of the Imperial Federation League yesterday approved the report of the committee which proposes the creation of a Federal Council, in which shall sit representatives of Canada, Australasia and South Africa, together with the British Home Minister, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Minister of the Colonies, the Minister of War, the First Lord of the Admiralty and the Secretary of State for India.

This council shall fix the contributions each part of the empire shall pay towards the common defence. The report declared that an essential principle of federation is that the voice of the empire in dealing with foreign powers should be the united voice of all the autonomous parts of the Empire.

Threw Diamonds Into the Ring.

MADRID, Nov. 17.—The Queen of Portugal, who, with her royal spouse, is a guest of the Spanish Court, having expressed a desire to see a bull-fight, an exhibition was given in the presence of the Queen Regent, the court and the royal visitors.

The show was a great success and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The King of Portugal, in a moment of enthusiasm, threw a diamond scarf pin at the feet of Mazzantoni, the intrepid toreador.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Rothschilds will send another £1,500,000 in gold to Russia next week.

When Eagle Met Eagle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17—Vladimir Nicholas Rumin, who claims to be a Russian nobleman and chief of the Russian prisons of Siberia, is in custody at the city prison charged with intemperance and disorderly conduct.

According to his story, as told by friends who visited him at the prison, Rumin, who arrived in the city about two weeks ago, wanted to examine the prison.

The turnkey objected and ordered him away. Rumin, not understanding English, did not comply and he was hustled into the jail after a desperate resistance and was strapped to a cot in the prison hospital.

Rumin declares he will report the affair to his Government.

BLOODY CLOTHING IN COURT.

George Cooper on [illegible] Murder in the [illegible]

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 17.—The trial of George R. J. Cooper, charged with the murder of his wife Ellen, was continued before the Court of Queen's Bench Jail Delivery at Douglas, Isle of Man, Tuesday. The first witness called was Connack, a painter at the Regent's Hotel, where Mrs. Cooper was killed. He said that when he and Mr. Weldon, rushed the room occupied by the Coopers, Cooper unlocked the door, remarking that his wife was in a dead faint.

Mrs. Cooper was lying on the floor on her left side, perfectly naked. Cooper had on shirt on. Connack moved the body and noticed a wound on the left breast. The wound was a gaping one nearly two inches long.

The carpet was bloodstained and it appeared as if it had been wiped over. Mr. Weldon, when he found the woman was dead, sent Connack for a constable to arrest Cooper.

White-Gollmack was testifying some of the clothing worn by Mr. Cooper and the cloth used to wipe her blood were produced. At this point Mrs. Cooper's father, who was in court, was so deeply affected that it was necessary to take him from the court. The sight also affected the prisoner, who for the first time displayed agitation.

Chief Constable William Boyd, who arrested Cooper, said that when he arrested Cooper he told him it was for murder. At that time Cooper was too worse for liquor. Cooper said:

"It is all up with me. What do you think is the worst they will do with me?"

"You may be hanged," said Boyd, "by your neck till you are dead."

The prisoner exclaimed, "Oh, my God, don't say that!"

Louise Cooper, a sister of the dead woman, testified that she had on several occasions witnessed Cooper's brutal treatment of his wife. Once he struck Mrs. Cooper in the face and blackened both of her eyes. Another time he hit his wife's arm, and when Miss Cooper interfered to protect her sister he beat them both.

THE COTTON OUTLOOK.

England Now Takes a Third Instead of a Half.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—An interesting address was delivered before the Manchester Statistical Society last evening by its president, Mr. Fogg. The speaker said that while America in four years with protection had increased the number of her spindles only about 8 per cent., India had with free trade increased the number of her spindles 23 per cent.

He could not see why the operators should demand a working day of eight hours.

"England," he said, "now takes only one-third of the cotton grown instead of one-half, as she did 20 years ago, and the dividends paid in Oldham have averaged under three and a half per cent. in the last 16 years. That profit, with the certainty of a large loss on the principal, is hardly likely to induce investments in the cotton industry when the 8-hour day is added to the other difficulties pressing on the trade.

A TORONTO ELOPEMENT.

A Handsome Young Lady and a Barber—The Father in Pursuit.

WINDSOR, Nov. 18.—Miss Myrtle Harcourt, a handsome young lady of 18, eloped from her home in Toronto last Sunday with a barber named Aylford.

The girl's father, James Harcourt, was in Windsor this morning on his way to Ypsilanti, Mich.

He says he tracked them to London and at that point learned they had left for Ypsilanti. He threatens vengeance when he overtakes the pair.

The Mafia Case.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 18.—Another move in the suit of the families of the Italians lynched here in 1891 will be made in the United States Circuit Court to-day, when the preliminary technical fight of the plaintiffs against the city and the leaders of the mob will begin. The trials are set down for a week from next Saturday. All the lawyers on the plaintiffs' side have joined together. They are to get one-half of the money recovered—the aggregate being about $200,000.

The lawyers say that neither the city nor the individual defendants can set up as a defence the indemnity paid by the United States Government. They claim that the arrangement between the authorities of Rome and Washington does not affect the present suit.

A Democratic Blow-Out.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 18.—The Democrats of Mountainview celebrated in the district schoolhouse last night. During the speech-making, and while the building was packed, two kegs of powder exploded. The schoolhouse was totally wrecked and nearly all of its occupants were buried in the ruins. A son and daughter of Silas Graham were taken out dead, and Berry Sherod, one of the most prominent residents of Washington County, was so badly injured that he has since died. Another man, whose name has not been learned, was also killed. Fifteen persons were injured, some fatally.

Died of Sheep Rot

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Bernard Miller, a young tailor of 129 Eldridge-street, while cleaning woolen cloth eight days ago got some of the dust under his finger nails.

Several days later Miller experienced a painful sensation in his fingers and hands, but paid no attention to it until Tuesday, when inflammation extended to his face.

He then went to Bellevue Hospital, where the ailment was diagnosed as erysipelas.

He died next day. Prof. Loomis yesterday made an autopsy, which showed that Miller's death was due to a rare disease known as sheep rot.

The Borden Case.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 18.—The Borden murders are again the principal subject, here and last night a rumor is circulated that indictments may be brought against two persons other than Lizzie Borden, persons intimately connected with the family.

On the stand, it is said, they have proved to be not only unwilling, but even misleading witnesses. It is expected that the grand jury will visit this city to-morrow and view the scene of the murder.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 18.—James Morrison, traveler for the Hinton Soap works, Guelph, was arrested here last evening on a charge of embezzlement. The arrest was made on the strength of a telegram from Guelph to the chief of police. No information is at hand as to what extent the embezzlement is.

Morrison was taken to Guelph this afternoon.

Trunk Line Rates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—At the meeting of Trunk Line presidents yesterday the action regarding a reduction of 20 per cent. on all trains of more than [illegible] hours was ratified and it was decided that after Dec. 1 east bound freight rates will be restored to the basis of full tariff rates.

A resolution was passed declaring that both east and west-bound freight rates between New York and Chicago shall be restored to the basis of 75 cents per hundred pounds first-class on Dec. 1.

National Baseball League.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Late last night the National Baseball League decided that there shall be no divided championship series next year. The season will begin the last Thursday in April and end the last Saturday in September, each club playing 132 games.

The League adjourned to meet in New York March 7, 1893.

To Italy in March.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Times announces that Queen Victoria will go to Florence in March and will stay there four or five weeks at the Villa Palserii.

CHOPPING TROLLEY POLES.

Toronto Touching Bo Street Car Company a Needed Lesson

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—The city and the Street Railway Company are at it again drawn yesterday. War has been declared by the City Engineer on the objectionable wooden poles and men are at work over the Don chopping them down or pulling them up as found most convenient.

Engineer Keating protested in vain against the erection of the poles, and finally sent word to the company this morning that he would have to take measures as above, which he forthwith proceeded to do.

Want Hoofers in Canada.

MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—An agitation is proposed to be started here shortly with a view to the admission of United States cattle into Canada. If the Government grants such permission it is probable that dead meat factories will be established, and next summer will also see United States cattle being exported to the Old Country via Montreal.

Circulars are soon to be sent out to the leading stock-raisers of the country asking their advice regarding the introduction of United States cattle into Canada.

Had to Hustle for Liberty!

HALIFAX, Nov. 18.—Rev. Sydney Welton of the graveyard insurance case fame secured bail bondsmen yesterday and was released from jail.

Grazed His Trousers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Peter Maher the Irish champion pugilist, was caught on a drawbridge over the Shrewsbury River this morning as a train was passing. He escaped by throwing himself sideways off the track. The engine grazed his trousers as he was falling.

Best Cure For

All disorders of the Throat and Lungs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has no equal as a cough-cure.

Bronchitis

"When I was a boy, I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary remedies, but recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take a bad cold, and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."—J. C. Woodson, P.M., Forest Hill, W. Va.

Cough

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured."—Franz Hoffman, Clay Centre, Kans.

La Grippe

"Last spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I began taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

TWEEDS, SUITINGS and OVERCOATS

To be Peremptorily Sacrificed.

Owing to the rapid growth of other departments of the Golden Lion we reluctantly decided to close out our Tailoring Department in order to make room for the expansion in other important lines going on all over our establishment.

TO EFFECT A SPEEDY CLEARANCE we have marked down our entire stock of fashionable Tweeds, Suitings and Overcoatings, and will dispose of everything in connection with our Tailoring Department at such reduced prices as will effect a speedy clearance by the New Year.

Prices, in fact, will be a secondary consideration; our principal object being to positively clear out the entire line of these goods during the next six weeks.

Gentlemen in need of Clothing or the Cloth to make their clothing, will have a splendid opportunity during this sale of securing reliable winter Suits and Overcoats far below the general run of prices.

We are preparing to do the largest fall trade we have ever done. It will be to your interest to help this sale along.

THE CENTRAL BRIDGE AND ENGINEERING WORKS.

Important Work Performed by Them—Helping to Utilize Niagara Falls—The Fuel of the Future.

In this utitilarian age, everything yields to the demands of enterprise. Millions have admired the beauty and sublimity of Niagara Falls, but the business sprit of the world is bringing them to practical account. The Niagara Falls Electric Power Company is constructing a grand water power on the Canadian side, and is putting in enormous turbine water wheels, and the Central Bridge and Engineering Company is now engaged in building two huge penstocks to convey the waters of Niagara to these wheels, the machinery for which is being made by the William Kennedy & Sons, of Owen Sound. These penstocks which are about forty feet in length have a diameter of 7 feet 6 inches. They are built of steel of a thickness of ⅜ of an inch, increasing in strength to 4-8 near the junction of the penstocks with the wheels.

These penstocks will contain about 65,000 pounds of steel. They are now under construction, and the enormous pressure which they will have to stand requires that they should be built with the strictest regard to strength and they are being made as strong as steel and bolts can make them. In connection with the penstocks two steel overflow tubes are also being made.

The work is being well done by the Central Works, which possess excellent facilities for this kind of manufacture. The company is also doing a large bridge building business. Not long since they completed a large iron highway bridge at Dundas street, Toronto, which contained about 200 tons of steel. They are now shipping a four-span highway bridge to Galt.

By the way, the Bridge Company is making a new departure in the way of fuel for its different forges, etc. The rise in the price of coal makes that article as a fuel too expensive for profit. Preparations are being made with a view of utilizing crude petroleum as a fuel, and the Standard Oil Company's burners are being used. The burners admit of the oil being driven by the aid of fan blasts into the fire place in the form of spray, which the moment it comes in contact with the heat, breaks into a brilliant sheet of flame of an intense degree of temperature. This enterprising firm is in a flourishing condition, and managed in a progressive spirit, which must make it increasingly prosperous and important.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Nov. 19th, 1892.

Another young man was charged at the police court to-day with neglecting to pay his statute labor tax. The magistrate enlarged the case for 8 days.

The enlarged case of Henry Tyler and Geo. Spencely charged with depositing night soil in Spauldings Bay came up. Geo. Spencely pleaded guilty to the charge. Tyler was discharged. The magistrate in delivering judgment against Spencely, said the offence was one which could not escape punishment. It was an offence against the whole community taking filth from one particular spot and removing it to another, which was most offensive. The act was done wilfully and perjury committed in the case in order to cover up the charge. He had no hesitation, therefore, in imposing a fine. He fined the defendant $10 and costs ($20.85 in all) with ten days to pay it, in default of payment within that time, fourteen days imprisonment. Spencely paid the fine and left the court room.

MARKET MEMORANDA.

Saturday Was a Large One in Produce.

The Saturday market was unusually large to-day despite the bad condition of the roads. Produce was disposed of rapidly and at good prices. Here are some of them: lamb 7 and 8c., pork 7 to 8c., beef $4.50 to $5.50, mutton 7 to 8c. The supply of meats was large and found a willing market. The grain business is moving fairly. Many loads of oats are being offered, selling at 28 to 30c., peas 58 to 64c., mummy peas 66c., many loads on. Spring wheat 67c (standard) fall 69c. (standard,) no rye is offering, very little buckwheat, selling at 40c., barley a lively sale, 35 to 45c., hay is still selling readily from $7.50 to $8.50 per ton, potatoes sold all the way from 50 to 70c., prevailing price 60 to 65c. per bag, apples sold fast at 50c to 60c per bag, cabbage 3 heads for 10c, citrons 8c each, onions $1 bag or 20c per peck, turnips 25c per bag, butter was plentiful and sold from 20c to 24c, but the ruling price was 22c and 23c, eggs 19c to 20c per doz., ducks 75c to 80c per pair, chickens 40c to 50c per pair. A number of sound horses were sold at auction for low figures by Mr. Chas. Stapleton.

SEVERAL noblemen in England are in the habit of giving special orders to makers in Virginia for their supply of smoking tobacco. There is no doubt that by that means they get the very best tobacco to be had, but it costs them about $2 a pound, The workingmen of Canada are smoking the very same quality of tobacco at 75 cents a pound, and it is known to them by the name of "Myrtle Navy."

'Clear Havana Cigars.'
"La Cadena" and "La Flora." Insist upon having these brands.

FOOLING WITH DYNAMITE.

One Man Blown to Pieces, Another Fatally Injured.

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.—A terrible explosion of dynamite took place on the Ottawa and Parry Sound Railway, in course of construction near the city, at 10 minutes to 8 yesterday. A shock as of an earthquake was felt all over the town. One man was instantly killed and another fatally injured.

The ground was torn up and the debris scattered all around. The body of the unfortunate man, Julius Therein, who was killed by the explosion, was thrown from the point where the accident occurred several yards. It was terribly shattered, and the blood and parts of the flesh and clothing scattered in all directions. Therein was a laboring man, middle-aged, and leaves a wife and nine of a family to mourn his untimely end. Another workman, Thomas Bredin, was so seriously injured that he cannot live.

His right arm is a mass of pieces, and his shirt arm looked as if it were a bag of bones. The left hand was also shattered and two or three fingers blown off. He was bleeding at the mouth. The coroner was speedily on the ground, and had him conveyed in the ambulance to the Protestant Hospital.

The accident occurred through the throwing of a working tool into a box containing twelve dynamite cartridges, instead of into the tool box, which was close by.

THEY WERE WRONG.

Officials Suspected Foul Play and Exhumed a Body.

MERRICKVILLE, Nov. 19.—Quite a sensation was caused here by the arrival of the Chief of Police of Brockville and Dr. Vaux, coroner of the counties. They engaged a livery rig and drove to Bishop's Mills, but before leaving summoned two of our local doctors to follow them, as it was the intention of the coroner to raise the body of Mrs. George Edwards, who died very suddenly under what were considered very suspicious circumstances.

The chief proceeded to Mr. Edwards' house and was about to put the handcuffs on Mr. Edwards, when he (Mr. Edwards) told him he was only too happy to go with them and render all assistance in his power in order to clear up any mystery in connection with the case as will clear himself from any imputations of guilt in the matter.

They accordingly proceeded to the cemetery, and after exhuming the body it was taken to a large hall in the village and a post-mortem was held. There were four doctors present and they all agreed after a thorough examination that the cause of her death was heart disease and Bright's disease combined. The body was then interred and Mr. Edwards was exonerated from all blame by the coroner.

Mrs. Edwards was a lady highly respected by all her neighbors and had been married only about two and a half years, she being Mr. Edwards' second wife.

INDIAN CORN.

The Product of Ontario's Red Men Will Be Seen at Chicago.

HAMILTON, Nov. 19.—Commissioner Awrey and men were busy yesterday unpacking a large number of fine samples of grain and Indian corn for exhibition at the World's Fair. Among the grain were samples of wheat, oats, peas and barley, grown in Wentworth, Brant, Norfolk and Oxford counties. There were also some samples grown by the Tuscarora Indians.

An interesting part of the samples the commissioner was handling were exhibits of Indian corn raised by the Tuscarora Indians. They contained the purple, evergreen, yellow field, whitefield and red glass varieties, and are considered by the commissioner as very fine, showing in an excellent and most practical manner the effect of the instruction given the Indians at that reserve.

The exhibits are braided together in Indian fashion and will make a fine showing at Chicago.

THE OPERATION FATAL.

A Boy Patient At a Hospital Expires Under the Influence of Chloroform.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—A very sad affair took place at the City Hospital yesterday afternoon, resulting in the death of Wellington Graves, a patient from Thamesville. The boy, who is only 12 years of age, was suffering from stone in the bladder, and an operation was found necessary. He was put under the influence of chloroform and death took place almost immediately and before the operation began. The chloroform was administered in the presence of a number of the city medical men, and no precaution was neglected in its use. The boy had taken it before without any evil effect.

HE HAD A CARBUNCLE

And Died While It Was Being Removed—His Wife In an Asylum.

MEAFORD, Nov. 10.—The death of Mr. George Mathews of 7th line, St. Vincent, was a sad event. A few weeks ago his wife had to be sent to the lunatic asylum, as her mind had gone wrong.

Since that time Mr. Mathews, who had not enjoyed very good health for quite a while, submitted to an operation removing a carbuncle off his head. He became very weak, and contrary to all expectations succumbed in a few days.

He leaves three of a family to mourn the loss of a kind father.

LIVES IN TORONTO.

But, as He Has an Assumed Name, His Identity is Unknown.

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—John Dunlop Taylor, jr., a Harlem, New York, photographer, is being sued by his wife for divorce. Taylor's father is worth $200,000.

His wife is a daughter of Mrs. Jaubert, who claims to be a widow, but Taylor says Mrs. Jaubert is not a widow—that she has a husband living in Toronto, Canada, under an assumed name—that, in fact, the whole family used to live here.

Must Submit the Bylaw.

HAMILTON, Nov. 19.—Hamilton City Council objected to submitting a bylaw to bonus the Niagara Central R.R. to the extent of $125,000. An authority has been found which will compel the submission of the bylaw, although the railway company can be forced to pay the expenses.

Found Dead in His Yard.

PRINCE ALBERT, N.W.T., Nov. 19.—The body of John Rogers of the Carrot River District was found in his yard by some of the neighbors. The cause of death is unknown, as the deceased was enjoying his usual health when last seen alive. Mr. Rogers came from Gananoque.

EXTRADITION SOUGHT.

C. HILTON DAVIDSON HAS AN INTERESTING RECORD.

He Played the Organ in a Methodist Church the Night Before He [illegible] —Detective Murray's Capture—Montreal Thieves Out to Be Imprisoned.

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—When the [illegible] the Attorney-General's Department that C. [illegible] Davidson, the [illegible] forger, had been arrested by [illegible] Murray at United States [illegible] Mexican side of the Rio [illegible] opposite El Paso, Texas, [illegible]

The Dominion Government [illegible] instructed with and a [illegible] Mexican Government [illegible] extradition.

The name of the firm was John [illegible] & Sons, and they carried on a large [illegible] garden business near Buffalo for [illegible] 18 years. The sons were C. Hilton Davidson, the person arrested, and W. M. Davidson. They are nephews of the junior member of the firm Oliver, Brown & Davidson, who were connected with the celebrated Neeblng Hotel. They carried on a very large and, supposedly, lucrative business. C. Hilton Davidson, who is about 42 years of age, was the business man of the firm. He ran the financing and also traveled through the province for the firm. He also played the organ in the Methodist Church and was considered above suspicion. On the evening of May 15 last he played the organ as usual in the church, and then he folded up his music and silently stole away. When the morning of May 16 dawned he was on his way to Mexico.

Why He Disappeared.

The reason he left so suddenly was that the Bank of Hamilton, with which he did business, had been unable to get satisfactory information regarding the makers of certain notes which C. Hilton Davidson had discounted, and when they applied to him for information his guilty conscience, which, as some esteemed gentleman has justly remarked, makes cowards of us all, made Mr. Davidson think he had been discovered, so he fled. But he had not been discovered up to that date. His methods had been ingenious and not of an easily detected character, and, it is whispered, of a kind not entirely unknown in the financial operations of prominent firms whose members never went to Mexico.

His Ingenious Scheme.

The firm of Davidson & Sons had got into financial difficulties some time before, and to protect their account temporarily it is alleged that the accused forged notes, which he discounted with the Bank of Hamilton and other banks. Davidson went about this cunningly. From traveling extensively he got to know the farmers well, and he knew where a certain family named was particularly common in a district. Then he forged notes on a mythical individual bearing the surname that happened to be common in that section, but with some unusual Christian name that he was certain was not liable to be duplicated among the bearers of the surname. For instance, if there were a large number of Smythes residing near Oakville, he would forge a note in the name of Cholmondeley Smythe and trust to the bank being satisfied to suppose that Cholmondeley was one of the wealthy colony of Smythes known to reside in that district. Of course, when dealing with a supposedly wealthy firm like the Davidsons, above suspicion and all that, no special trouble was likely to be taken to trace up the makers of the notes. It is not known how long Davidson continued this practice, but he may have carried it on for some years, being always careful to take up the notes before maturity and substituting other forged paper.

How the Facts Came Out.

At the time of his flight the bank held a lot of notes, some known to be good and some doubtful. Such a thing as bona fide notes being repudiated as forgeries under such circumstances has been known to the banking world, so the authorities had to proceed very cautiously and delicately in the matter to prevent the facts getting noised abroad before the notes all became due. With the assistance of persons familiar with the business of the firm, the bank people were able to pick out the forged paper from the good with such accuracy that only one man got dunned for a forged note and that was speedily arranged. The forged notes total up $8000.

Other Fauns Fleeced.

In the meantime the bank people had interviews with the remaining members of the firm with the result that on May 20 the firm assigned for the benefit of creditors with liabilities about $40,000. As a warning to similar wrong-doers the bank decided to hunt C. Hilton Davidson down.

As a matter of fact Davidson was badly sold in going to Mexico, thinking he could not be extradited. He had heard there was no extradition for forgery between the United States and Mexico. But he did not know that a treaty existed with Great Britain. That is the reason he will have to be brought back via Bermuda. Davidson will either be tried at Hamilton or at Milton. Other banks besides the Bank of Hamilton have been victimized by him, but the latter was the only one that took action.

An Unfortunate Operation.

ELMWOOD, Ont., Nov. 19.—John Dodsworth has received a letter from Park River, Dakota, with the sad intelligence that his nephew, Willie Smith, had received a shot from a rifle, which caused his death in 5 minutes. Deceased was working in a harness shop in Park River, and his employer undertook to fix a rifle.

While at it the cartridge went off, striking young Smith near the heart. Deceased went to Dakota about 18 months ago, having lived with Mr. Dodsworth up to that time. He was a son of Thomas K. Smith, late of the 12th concession of Brant.

The Body Identified.

PETROLIA, Nov. 19.—The body found at Niagara Falls on Nov. 10 turns out to be William Nobbel, a brother-in-law of Edward Marshall, butcher, of this town.

Mr. Nobbel had been working at Pittston, Pa., and was on his way to Petrolia to visit Mr. Marshall prior to his leaving for the Old Country to join his family. There is little doubt but that Mr. Nobbel was foully murdered. Mr. Marshall left at noon to-day for the Falls to investigate.

Two Chinamen Caught at the Tunnel.

PORT HURON, Nov. 19.—Two Chinamen were arrested at the tunnel station yesterday morning by Customs Officer Merryman as they were in the act of getting out of a car which had just come through the tunnel. They were placed in the county jail to await examination. They claim to be residents of the United States.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1892

A CONSERVATIVE paper in Kingston asserts that Conservatives are "free traders in the abstract." The "abstract" consists in abstracting money from the taxpayers' pockets.

The Empire incautiously asks:—"How many of the petty defamers of Sir John Macdonald will obtain marble busts in St. Paul's cathedral?" It is not impertinent to ask the Empire when the newspapers and politicians, who fattened on the pap furnished by Sir John for so many years, will erect a monument in Canada to his memory?

As a tariff is largely a matter of faith, it will die hard. When doctors believed in bleeding they practised it for all human ills. If a patient failed to improve they bled him more; if he grew weakr they bled him again, and continued the process until his earthly ills were at an end. Tariff medicine, says the Globe, is now administered to the Dominion on the same principle.

ON hearing of the result of the Presidential election in the United States, the free traders of New South Wales held a meeting in Sydney, under the presidency of Sir Henry Parkes, late premier of the colony, and adopted a resolution declaring that "the re-election of Grover Cleveland to the Presidency of the United States marks the opening of a new epoch in the history of the human progress." Black slavery disappeared in the United States at the close of the civil war, but white slavery will not be eradicated until the protected monopolies are overthrown.

ONTARIO never had, and never will have, says the Toronto Telegram, a truer servant than Oliver Mowat. It has been no easy task to retain office continuously for 21 years. All power of the Dominion Government has been thrown upon the Grits, but their own invincible Oliver has triumphed always. With Oliver Mowat at their head the Liberals have given Ontario a government that is conspicuously honest. His partisans may rejoice in their grand old man's attainment of his majority as Premier, and Canadians, irrespective of party can afford to honor a stalwart fellow Canadian.

THE successful Democratic candidates in the United States gives no uncertain sound as to their hostility to the "protection" fad. Congressman Harter, of Ohio, thus delivers himself:—"I would abolish every custom house in the land. I would rather vote for the establishment of an institution to spread the cancer, or a field in which to propogate cholera, or a school in which to teach vice and crime, than vote for a protective tariff of any kind." And Mr. Harter was elected to congress, upon that platform by a large majority, in a district which had been gerrymandered by the Republicans with the view of defeating him.

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The many cheerless, dark, dismal days act depressingly not to say injuriously, on both old and young. Now is the time to re-inforce the vital energies with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood medicines.

PROMPT, POTENT AND PERMANENT results always come from the use of Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine. dw

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. per package. dw

A SINGULAR TUG OF WAR.

A report comes from Lachine, P.Q., of a novel way of deciding a tie between the members of the municipal council, which our own town fathers might put aside as possibly useful some time. It appears that two companies are seeking the privilege of using the streets of the municipality for electric cars: the Canadian Electric Company and the Montreal Water and Power Company. When the question came up before the council, on Monday last, the members were equally divided, three being in favour of one company and three in favour of the other. The Mayor refused to give his casting vote, and the councillors then agreed, so it is alleged, to decide the question by a tug of war, which will take place next week. The Canadian Electric Company is said to have the best chance, as the three councillors in its favour are the heaviest.

Rev. Sylvanus Lane,

Of the Cincinnati M. E. Conference, makes a good point when he says: "We have for years used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family of five, and find it fully equal to all that is claimed for it. Some people are greatly prejuiced against patent medicines, but how the patent can hurt a medicine and not a machine is a mystery of mysteries to me."

Cures Others

Will cure You, is a true statement of the action of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, when taken for diseases originating in impure blood; but, while this assertion is true of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truthfully applied to other preparations, which unprincipled dealers will recommend, and try to impose upon you, as "just as good as Ayer's." Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's only, if you need a blood-purifier and would be benefited permanently. This medicine, for nearly fifty years, has enjoyed a reputation, and made a record for cures, that has never been equalled by other preparations. AYER'S Sarsaparilla eradicates the taint of hereditary scrofula and other blood diseases from the system, and it has, deservedly, the confidence of the people.

AYER'S
Sarsaparilla

"I cannot forbear to express my joy at the relief I have obtained from the use of AYER'S Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with kidney troubles for about six months, suffering greatly with pains in the small of my back. In addition to this, my body was covered with pimply eruptions. The remedies prescribed failed to help me. I then began to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, the pains ceased and the pimples disappeared. I advise every young man or woman, in case of sickness resulting from impure blood, no matter how long standing the case may be, to take AYER'S Sarsaparilla."—H. L. Jarmane, 33 William st., New York City.

Will Cure You

Mr E. S. Martin, teller in the Bank of Montreal, Lindsay, for the last four years, left on Wednesday last for Vancover, B.C., where he will settle.

The Lindsay Board of Trade presented Mr. J. R. Dundas, one of its oldest members, with a finely illuminated address before his removal to Toronto.

Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, evangelists, have closed their meetings in Lindsay after a successful season. As a result 527 persons were converted and a lasting impression left upon the religious community of the town.

Patrick McGann, of Hogan's Island one of the pioneers of Ops and of Irish birth, died this week at sixty-eight years of age.

Mr. C. E. Weeks, Cannington, has formed a partnership with R. M. Noble, of the firm of Raines & Noble, barristers, Uxbridge, and henceforth their law practice will be carried on under the name of Weeks & Noble. The firm also intend opening an office in Woodville next month.

In all probability the "Esturion" and other steamships which ply the Scugog and other waters, will close navigation this week.

The Bobcaygeon Independent furnishes the following amusing account of a deer hunt:—Mr. A. E. Bottum and party of hunters, have returned from Bass Lake with five deer. The largest weighed 160 lbs. This is taken as a fairly good hunt considering the weather. The farmer of the party had quite an experience. He was left on a watch all by his lone self, and as luck would have, a deer came into the lake close to him. He shouldered his rifle, shut his eyes, put his trust in Providence, pulled the trigger, and let her go. The deer gave a kick and became venison. The farmer had made a superb success up to this point but just here the trouble came. In attempting to get the deer on board, the canoe was swamped, and sank. It happened to be a marshy, shallow spot, and when the festive sport stood on tip-toe, his mouth was far enough above water to enable him to shout without flooding his lower level. Such a position is preferable to standing on nothing but it is not to be hankered for. A companion came quickly to the rescue, and all ended happily.

WHAT A MOTHER SAYS.

When a mother takes the trouble to recommend a paticular food for infants, it means a good deal.

Thousands of mothers in Canada have testified strongly in favor of Lactated Food. These mothers tell of lives having been saved when the great food was used. Babies who were reduced to mere skeletons by diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum, were built up and made strong by Lactated Food.

Mrs. Samuel Anderson, Hammond's Plains, N.S., writes as follows:

"Your baby food, known as Lactated Food, is the best I ever used. I will always purchase it, and recommend it to my friends and neighbors; it is worthy of all praise."

Mother, if your infant is not growing well, sleeping well, or resting well, be assured that the fault is your own. You are not feeding it with wholesome and pure food suited for its weak digestive organs. You must, if you value your darling's life, feed it on Lactated Food, which is predigested and suited for the little stomach. Lactated Food guarantees health and growth for every baby, as well as protection from all dangerous troubles that cut off so many precious little lives.

—Mr. Wm, Cook, Belleville, cheese buyer for Messrs. Warrington Bros., who at the last meeting of the Peterborough cheese board captured nearly all the factories' sales, is shipping the last of the season's make to Belleville for trans-shipment to Liverpool. Yesterday Mr. Cook shipped five carloads of cheese and to-day shipped two more carloads. The whole shipment comprised about 2,000 boxes.

Dyspepsia's victims find prompt and permanent relief in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones the stomach and creates an appetite.

Dyspepsia in its worst forms will yield to the use of Carter's Little Nerve Pills, aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Many communications containing a fund of information in reference to the schools and school inspectorship in all its phases, have appeared in your valuable paper from time to time. Anent this important question, I desire to offer a suggestion in the present difficulty. The retiring inspector, it would appear, has not given that satisfaction, and our schools are not in that efficient state, which the ambitious ratepayer would like to see. The Board have decidedly declared in favour of a change, which is to be brought about by the additional expenditure of say $900. My suggestion is that if Dr. Tilley has not given as full a measure of satisfaction as the majority desire, let the school fathers engage the services of another and a capable inspector at a salary not exceeding $850 per year. Many excellent and thoroughly qualified men can be found who would gladly accept the position. With the additional $900 which the Board desire to expend on our school system, let them increase the salaries of the twenty-five or more faithful and industrious lady teachers of the schools, who perform their duties at the mere pittance of a stipend ranging from $250 to $275 a year. Let the scholastic legislators show their magnanimity and due appreciation of meritorious services by increasing the salaries of lady teachers, who at present can merely eke out an existence, by giving them, say $20, additional salary each year. The efficiency of our schools would, I am certain, Mr. Editor, be not only improved by such a move, but their would be a reward in more united labor, zeal, pains and care exhibited on the part of the lady teachers.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your space, I am, sir,

Yours, truly,
PAYER OF SCHOOL TAXES.

A Voice From the Canadian Press:

THE BLACK DEATH!

The Scourge of the East.

Grim Asiatic Cholera is marching with stealthy but steady strides to these Western shores.

The foe is at our doors, Sanitary science, with powerful disinfectant, fumigations, and rigid quarantine regulations, stands guarding our ports.

But this fell destroyer on pestilential wing seems to float in the very air and defy all efforts to beat him back. Wherever there lingers impurity and putrefaction he takes up his abode, and the seeds of the pestilence germinate and multiply.

Public sanitary vigilance is imperative. Let the sewers be flushed and every form of impurity be swept away Let the health of the community be maintained to the highest possible degree. But in addition to all this let every individual be on the alert

The human body has the most perfect and complete system of sewerage, defying the utmost art of man to rival

A wise Creator has provided means for the eradication of all effete and impure materials from the human body.

Morse's Indian Root Pills is such a perfect combination of the best and most energetic remedies provided by a beneficent Providence for the purpose of cleansing the whole system, "flushing the sewers," rousing up the liver, the kidneys and the whole intestinal tract to their proper functions and at the same time imparting vigor and tone to the whole system, that it is with the utmost confidence that we recommend it to the public as the best preventive of the fearful ravages of that justly dreaded disease, Asiatic Cholera.

A Complicated Case.

DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with billiousness, headache and lost appetite. I could not rest at night, and was very weak, but after using three bottles of B.B.B. my appetite is good and I am better than for years past. I would not now be without B.B.B. and am also giving it to my children.

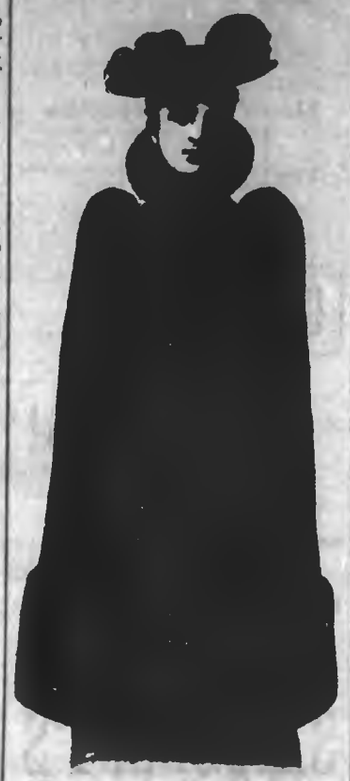
LADIES'
FUR CAPES.



This cut represents one of our newest Military Capes we are making this season, in Seal trimmed with Sable, and in Persian Lamb trimmed with Bear. It also makes a very neat garment in fine Sealette trimmed with light fur.

This Jacket cut represents one of the neatest and most most fashionable Garments for ladies ever introduced. Made in Grey Persian Lamb, Persian Lamb, Seal and Bocharan.

We have opened out and passed into stock this week four thousand dollars worth of Furs, part of the bankrupt stock of Stearling McCrundy, consisting af 50 Seal Caps with band for gentlemen, 20 Black Dog Coats, 5 pairs Gentlemen's Otter Gauntlets, 40 Persian Lamb Caps, 25 Ladies' S. S.S. Muffs, 4 Ladies' Persian Lamb Caps and 10 Fur Lined Circulars together with a variety fine Furs.

The above goods are selling at less than the original prices, but, the prices we will quote for same do not rule throughout our stock, as these special lines were bought less than the cost of production.

EXTRAORDINARY
SALE OF LAMPS, AT
CHINA HALL

Nothing like it ever known before in the Town of Peterborough. An opportunity of a life time to procure a beautiful Lamp at LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

On Saturday, November 19th, we will have on exhibition all that we can display at one time—a full car load of 110 cases and casks of the very newest and prettiest Lamps in the markets of the world, bought at 50c. on the dollar and marked at a very slight advance over cost. We will devote both show windows and the whole of one side of China Hall for the display of Samples and what we cannot show there will be on exhibition up stairs—take the elevator.

We never do things by halves and when we assert that this sale is to be an event in the history of China Hall. We intend to carry it out in a way that will meet with your approval and leave a lasting impression on the Lamp trade of Peterborough. Therefore, on Saturday, Nov. 19th, we invite your inspection of these goods. You will probably never have seen so many beautiful Lamps in a single collection before. Nothing but the price would ever have tempted us to buy so many, and we trust to the price to clear them out quickly.

Don't miss the oppertunity of buying a lovely lamp cheaply. Don't miss the opportunity of seeing the designs whether you wish to buy or not.

JOHN McKEE'S
NEW
PHARMACY PALACE.

It is with great pleasure that I now announce my removal into my splendid new premises, No. 384 George Street, two doors south of my old stand.

The NEW PHARMACY PALACE gives to Peterborough one of the handsomest and most complete drug stores in Canada. But, while we have devoted great attention to the architectural beauty and convenience of our new premises, we have bestowed our best skill and experience in procuring a thoroughly reliable stock of Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Druggists' Sundries, &c.

In addition to our regular lines we can offer exceptional value and variety in our elegant stock of Fine Imported New Perfumes, Toilet Articles, Brushes, English and Canadian Toilet Soaps, Sponges, and a variety of other similar goods which require your personal inspection to fully appreciate them.

OUR STANDARD PROPRIETARIES ARE:

McKee's Ontario Cough Remedy,
McKee's Celerine Bitters,
McKee's Beef, Iron and Wine,
McKee's Family Aperient Pill,
McKee's Hair Invigorator.

These we can recommend as faithful and conscientious specialties in each case.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS carefully and skillfully compounded.

FAMILY RECIPES AND HORSE AND CATTLE MEDICINES made up accurately and at reasonable prices.

Prices will continue to be very moderate in all cases.

CONGRATULATIONS.

The following congratulatory lines have been received from Messrs. Parke, Davis & Co., the well-known American wholesale druggists:

DETROIT, Nov. 4th, 1892.

Mr. John McKee:—

SIR,—We have to congratulate you upon your enterprise and progressive spirit, inasmuch as our representative in Canada advises us that your new quarters are conceded to be the finest in Canada.

Remanded for Sentence.

The prisoner Albert Green, arrested yesterday on the charge of breaking into the house of Mr. Wm. He elected to be tried before the magistrate and pleaded guilty. He was remanded to gaol a week for sentence.

The Young Women's Christian Association rooms are open to the public night and day. Miss Barker, general secretary, is in constant attendance and ready to welcome all. A piano, reading room, games, books and other attractions are generously provided by the lady directors. The rooms are open from 9.30 o'clock until 12, in the morning, 2 o'clock to 6 in the afternoon, and from 7 to 9 in the evening.

Harry Lindley Co.

The Harry Lindley Company were last evening again welcomed by a house dense with humanity. The sensational drama "Broke Gaol" was billed and played to perfection. The play is full of sensational incidents, thrilling scenes and startling climaxes, which arouse the most apathetic to a united attention and interest. Coursing through the whole is a vein of well-defined humour and ludricous situations and characters. To-night the company will produce the sensational Western drama "On the Frontier."

Social at St. Paul's.

St. Paul's Presbyterian church is the only church in Peterborough which has a large junior Christian Endeavour Society as well as a senior Christian Endeavour Society, also in a prosperous state. Last evening a tea and entertainment was given the young Christian workers by the executive of the senior society in the Sunday School room. There was a fair attendance of young people, about fifty being present. The proceedings were largely informal, and the youngsters enjoyed themselves in a free yet decorous manner. A tasty tea was provided at 6.30 o'clock and partaken of by all. Afterwards indulgence in games of one kind and another passed a pleasant evening quickly by, the company dispersing shortly after 8 o'clock. Mr. Ed. Simpson is the president of the junior society. Mr. W. F. Nelson has the superintendence of this important branch of Christian Endeavour work, and looks well to the interests of the members.

DON'T FORGET

Gracefully Acknowledged.

The Lindsay Post has the following to say of us:—Through an oversight we have omitted mention of the Peterborough DAILY EXAMINER'S new dress, which was donned about six weeks ago, and in which it looks very handsome and "comf'y." THE EXAMINER has few equals, if any, as a town daily, and is a credit to the ambitious Otonabee burg. Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., its energetic and capable proprietor, while devoting a deal of his time to finding out the needs of his constituents, at the same time contrives to give his excellent journal the attention it deserves and leaves nothing undone to maintain and increase its usefulness and value to the public as a disseminator of news and a live advertising medium.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

PETERBOROUGH, Friday Nov. 18th.—After such white frost as on yesterday morning which is invariably followed with rain, I think our experience today (Friday) is no exception to the rule; for since our little thunder storm during last night (which few, perhaps, heard) up to 7 p.m., my time of measurement, rain has fallen three quarters of an inch of water and is still raining. This makes the total fall of rain for the 18 days of November four inches, probably the heaviest precipitation, for the time, on record—for many years at least. During the last few days it has been fine, the thermometer at 1 p.m. sometimes rising to 54°. But in a few days we will be frozen up, as this rain in all likelihood will finish with fly snow.—THOS. TELFORD.

HARRY LINDLEY

Literary Society Meeting.

The Collegiate Institute Literary Society held a regular meeting last night. W. Cragg, president, occupied the chair. There was a fair attendance of students. A short business meeting was held first, after which a good programme was pleasantly and successfully carried out. Miss M. Kennedy gave a reading in fine style. Mr. W. Desautel favoured with a solo, and Mr. W. Stubbs read an amusing and instructive essay on "A Trip to the Moon," which was well received. Excellent readings were contributed by Miss Rountree, Miss Brown, and Mr. Clayton Tindle. Miss Gladman gave an instrumental solo with fine effect. The closing number included a glee rendered by the newly-organized Collegiate Institute Glee Club, with admirable taste. The proceedings closed shortly after 9 o'clock.

AT OPERA HOUSE

Oddfellows' District Committee.

The Oddfellows' District Committee met last night in Otonabee Lodge rooms. Bro. D. D. G. M. Stewart of Norwood lodge, presided. Three members were present from Otonabee Lodge, five from Peterborough Lodge, and one from Havelock. Bro. Stewart was presented with his credentials from the Grand Lodge as District Deputy Grand Master. A committee was appointed to get the bylaws of the different lodges in the district, and to make some arrangements in reference to beneficiary benefits. Bro. George J. Early, secretary and treasurer, was delegated to visit Millbrook to work up, if possible, the institution of an Oddfellows' Lodge in that village. A committee was also appointed to draft a resolution congratulating Bro. Campbell, of London, on his appointment to the august position of Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which met at Portland, Oregon, in September last. It is understood that Grand Sire Campbell is the first Canadian who was ever elected to this exalted position.

TO-NIGHT

A Really "Live" Advertising Scheme.

All day long to-day the walks in front of Brown Bros.' grocery store on Hunter street, was densely thronged with spectators, gazing into the windows, where an unusual spectacle met their gaze. In the window to the west sat Mr. J. W. Brisbin, flour and feed merchant—whose establishment is next door—in a luxuriously upholstered easy chair busily engaged in posting his books. His presence there was the result of a sort of wager or challenge, and Brown Bros. claim that he is, in his state of robust health; a living example of the purity and excellence of the goods supplied by Brown Bros. The enterprise is a fine advertisement for Brown Bros., and at the same time, an evidence of the friendly reciprocity that should exist between business neighbours. While Mr. Brisbin called attention to Brown Bros. establishment, he did not neglect his own interests. Placards attached to his chair announced that for this day he would sell the best family flour for $2.00 per 100 lbs. In the opposite window, Mr. Alex. Trotter, a local giant, 6 feet 10 inches in height, stood, decorated with a gigantic wreath of paper flowers, while broad wreaths of smiles adorned his face. His great height was added to by a comical cap, composed of one of John Haggart's auction sale bills. Brown Bros. as "live" business men, very appropriately employed a "live" business man like Mr. Brisbin to attract attention to their business.

This Afternoon's Matinee.

There was a large attendance of women and children at the opera house this afternoon to witness the Harry Lindley Company repeat the play "Chic," which was produced with such good effect on Monday night. In last night's play, "Broke Gaol," that seasick scene ought to have been omitted, as that was the only blot in the piece.

An Instructive Course of Lectures.

The course of lectures given under the auspices of the Collegiate Institute Literary Society, and which proved so interesting and instructive last winter, will be repeated this season. These excellent lectures were largely attended last year. The addresses will be given during the winter months at intervals of two weeks each. The lecturers will comprise members of the Collegiate staff, prominent speakers from various parts of the Province and well known local gentlemen. The first lecture will be given on Friday evening next, the 25th inst. Rev. E. J. Fessenden, Rector of Chippewa, will be the lecturer, and his subject will be an interesting one to all, "The United Empire Loyalists."

Death of Mr. F. E. Burnham.

A telegram was received this morning by Mr. Wm. Cluxton, announcing the rather sudden death of his son-in-law, Mr. F. E. Burnham, barrister, which took place at West Superior City, Wisconsin, this morning. Deceased gentleman was a son of the late Elias Burnham, and has a sister, Mrs. Boswell, residing in Peterborough, on the old homestead, charlotte street, and a brother, Judge Burnham of Whitby. Mr. Burnham left Peterborough about fifteen years ago and resided for several years at Emerson, Manitoba, where he became one of that town's most prominent citizens, having been elected at one time to represent the constituency of which it formed a part in the Manitoba Legislature. Some years previously to his removal to the North-west he was married to a daughter of Mr. Wm. Cluxton, who with two children survive him. His eldest son is now in attendance at the Manitoba College in Winnipeg. Very probably the remains will be brought to Peterborough for interment. The numerous friends of Mrs. Burnham and her relatives in Peterborough, will sympathise with them in their bereavement that has fallen upon them.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Recently Discovers Blood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Silsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend these benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what a single one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

Important Announcement to the Public!

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS SALE.

Hall, Innes & Co.

Having decided to retire from the Dry Goods Business in Peterborough announce that they will on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23rd, commence a

GENUINE MAMMOTH CLEARING SALE for CASH

Covering Every Department of their Extensive Business.

HALL, INNES & CO.

WISH TO SAY that during the many years of their business career they have never offered Goods on the above basis (except during the time of re-building their Premises), and they now confidently expect that the public will rely on the GENUINE character of this sale, and avail themselves of this opportunity of securing goods of sterling quality, at prices much below those obtained in a regular business way.

The reduction of price will apply in all Departments, as follows:

General Dry Goods.	Hosiery and Gloves.	Carpets and Floor Oilcloths.
Silks and Dress Materials.	Bed and Table Linens.	Mats and Mattings.
Millinery and Mantles.	Scotch & Canadian Tweeds.	Lace Curtains.
Mantle Materials.	Worsted Coatings & Overcoatings.	Sash Curtains.
Ribbons and Laces.	Gents' Furnishings.	Portieres, &c., &c.

The Stock is in first class order, having been bought for our Fall and Winter trade, and many lines have come to us direct from the best manufacturers in Britain, France and Germany. This sale is bona-fide, and in no way similar to many so-called Clearing Sales, and we feel certain that this opportunity of securing good goods at low prices, will be largely taken advantage of by many.

Remember that this sale will begin on Wednesday, 23rd November, and continue until the stock is disposed of.

N. B.—All Outstanding Accounts must be settled at once.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

What was Done by the Civic Bodies Last Night.

Several committees of the town council held special meetings in the town clerk's office last night. The market committee decided to level up and put several loads of gravel on the yard to the rear of the fire hall. The fire engine is taken out through this yard.

The work, which was begun this morning, is under the supervision of Street Inspector Pope.

The Charity Committee decided to procure a supply of wood for charitable purposes during the winter.

The Health Committee decided to take no action this year anent Mr. Cahill's motion to engage the services of two public scavengers to thoroughly cleanse the whole town. They, however, instructed the Health Inspector to have a thorough examination of all the citizens' premises made forthwith, as the season is somewhat late. Any one who does not comply with instructions and have or keep their premises thoroughly cleaned from all garbage, filth and nuisance will be prosecuted at once by the Health Inspector. The Health Committee acting in conjunction with the Board of Health, are determined to put the town in a first-class sanitary condition, in view of the approach of cholera and other possible epidemics. Chief Roszel started on his duties this morning and will carry out instructions to the letter. The citizens are advised to govern themselves accordingly.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The next meeting of the council will be held on December 5th.

—Mr. John Finlay, reeve of Norwood, will again be a candidate for the reeveship.

—The street crossings were cleaned for their Saturday traffic to-day at an early hour.

—The country roads are in a horrible condition. In places they are almost impassable the mud being sticky and nearly hub deep.

—A Sunday school convention of Belmont and Asphodel townships was held last week. Rev. Jas. Carmichael, Norwood, delivered an address.

—A dissolution of the High and Public school Boards of Norwood may soon occur. Dr. Ford will move a resolution to this effect at the next meeting.

—The fat man Whiton was on exhibition in the market building to-day, and attracted a large number of citizens to see his gigantic proportions.

—The Fire, Water and Light Committee will meet this evening to award tenders for the snow ploughing of the northern and southern divisions of the town.

—Messrs. Lusaders and Godbuer, of Montreal, are at the Cavanagh House for a few days buying up good sound horses between the ages of 5 and 15 years for shipment.

—The motion for the interim injunction in the case of McDonald vs. Town of Peterborough came up at Toronto yesterday, but by consent of counsel was laid over until Friday next.

—Mr. Jos. Lundy's new semi-detached house on the corner of Wolfe and Aylmer streets, is nearing completion. It is a handsome brick residence, and an ornament to that part of the town.

—The Peterborough County Sunday School Convention, Rev. Mr. Thompson, Hastings, President, will hold its sixth annual convention in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on Tuesday and Wednesday, December 6th and 7th. An interesting session is expected.

—The municipal election nominations come on early this year. Nominations take place on Monday, Dec. 26th, the day which will be duly celebrated as Christmas owing to that day coming on Sunday. The elections will take place on Monday January 2nd, the date rightfully observed as New Year's.

—Mr. Arthur Rountree, proprietor of the Commercial House, has entered an appeal against the decision of the police magistrate in the case of the defendant being found guilty and fined for selling liquor to a minor under 18 years of age, contrary to the Liquor License Act, the youthful buyer in question holding an order from his parents. The appeal will be heard at the county court sittings in December.

OF VALUABLE

FREEHOLD PROPERTY

IN THE

TOWN OF PETERBOROUGH,

In the County of Peterborough.

UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF POWERS of sale contained in the three several mortgages, which will be produced at the time of sale, there will be offered for sale by Public Auction, by Charles Stapleton, Auctioneer, at the Morgan House Hotel, in the Town of Peterborough, on Saturday, the 26th day of November

1892, at the hour of TWO of the clock in the afternoon, the following lands and premises, namely:—

Lots numbers Eighteen, Nineteen, Twenty and Twenty-nine, according to registered plan 79, for the town of Peterborough, together with the dwelling houses and improvements erected thereon.

The property will first be offered for sale en bloc, and if not sold will be offered in three parcels, as follows:—

PARCEL 1.—Has a frontage of about 33 feet on Gilmour street by a depth of about 93 feet. On this parcel there is erected a two story solid brick house, 20x30 feet, containing eight rooms, with brick kitchen attached. There is a lane on the east side of the premises, used in common with adjoining owners. This property is tenanted and yields a rental of $10 per month.

PARCEL 2.—Has a frontage of one hundred feet by a depth of almost 95 feet. There is erected on this parcel a two story brick veneered house (almost finished) containing seven rooms, and bath room. Will rent easily for $8 per month.

PARCEL 3.—Has a frontage of about 65 feet on Homewood Avenue by a depth of 150 feet to a lane. There is erected on this parcel a two story solid brick house, 22x30 feet, with brick kitchen attached, and containing ten rooms and bath room. With this parcel will be sold the adjoining vacant lot, having a frontage of 24 feet on Homewood Avenue, by a depth of 150 feet.

The property will be offered for sale subject to a reserved bid.

TERMS OF PAYMENT.—Ten per cent. down at the time of sale, to be paid to the vendor or his solicitors, and sufficient within thirty days thereafter to make, together with the deposit, one-third of the purchase money, the balance to be secured by a first mortgage on the premises for a term of years with interest at six per cent. Further particulars and conditions of sale will be made known at the time of sale or may be had from the undersigned.
